Town and Country.

POLICE COURT, Friday.—The Mayor presided, having returned from Ottawa. A blank docket was presented. What a sight for election times! Morality is above par, undoubtedly.

FIRE IN THE MARSH.—The Northern part of the city was lit up on Thursday night for hours by the glare of the burning marsh below Belle's Island.

ARRIVALS AT THE ANGLO AMERICAN HOTEL.—N B Nobtin, Belleville; W S Smiton, Napanee; D D Calvin, Garden Island; E B Deassey, Montreal; James E Burns, Quebec.

A VERY fine specimen of the Canadian Beaver was received by Mr. Otto Meyes from the rear of Frontenac on Thursday. It is an interesting natural specimen, for who many in Kingston have seen a beaver, plentiful as they are in Canada?

THE weather is a little cooler, but spring like. The American Channel opposite Cape Vincent is open from shore to shore. The ice between the City and Wolfe Island will not bear a cat up, so an informant who came over in the ice boat expressed himself yesterday.

ARRIVAL OF A PRISONER.—Detective Moulay arrived from Port Hope yesterday afternoon, by the Grand Trunk, having in charge the prisoner Dickment, who deserted from Kingston Garrison last fall, and who is charged with stealing a gun from Birmingham's, Pittsburgh, about the same time. He will be brought up this morning at the Police Court.

THE NEW NUISANCE GROUND.—A new nuisance ground has been established near the cider's stand opposite the Grand Trunk Depot. It is very convenient, and the public are much indebted to the G. T. officials for leaving their fence down, to give readier access to the spot. The city by-law makes every owner or occupier of property responsible for the removal from it of all nuisance. The G. T. R. will make a note of it.

ROBBERY.—At twelve o'clock on Thursday night, a person was heard entering the yard of Mr. Wm. Montgomery, Queen St., by a woman who lives up-stairs. She saw a man from the window, but was more careful of her husband's safety in the hands of the bold burglar, than of her neighbour's property. She made no alarm but went back to bed with fear and trembling to dream off the incident. Yesterday morning the cooks of the two families met, and about sixty pounds of beef were missed from Montgomery's shed. The gate was found broken open. The thief is suspected; he can have his walking stick, which he left behind him, by calling at the Police Station.

All the World Over.

A Bill is before the New York Legislature to make St. Patrick's Day a legal holiday.

The Emperor Napoleon will not leave Wilhelmshohe until peace is is definitely settled at Brussels.

Gen. Von Moltke, when in repose, looks like a man in a tragedy about to do a foul deed.

Garibaldi is unpopular in France. The members of the Assembly desire to annul his election to that body, and Victor Hugo, attempting to defend the poor old Caprera, was hissed down.

The expenses incurred for the works of defence of Paris are estimated at 50,000,000f., and the amount expended in artillery is said to be 10,000,000f.

The large night boats are about to resume their trips on the Hudson River. Navigation opens several weeks earlier than usual.

The Fenians complain that they have no leader and consequently can do nothing. Here is a chance for some ambitious cutthroat.

Two independent negro companies in San Francisco have volunteered to escort an Irish battalion of the N. G. C., who are to escort the Irish societies on St Patrick's Day, and their offer has been accepted.

The new system of organizing the reserves in Great Britain will provide an available force of 50,000 men in the United Kingdom exclusive of Indian and Colonial garrisons.

A young woman, not more than twenty years old, starved to death in Rochester on Tuesday last. She had striven silently to support herself, being deserted by a worthless husband, and was too proud to let her poverty be known.

Talk is going on between France and England with regard to the latter's interposition, which France considers too tardy. Thiers asserts that if England had "hurried up," the indemnity of five milliards of francs might have been reduced.

Another alarm about the approaching royal marriage has arisen in Anglican Church circles in England. It is said that Lord Lorne is to be admitted to the holy communion without confirmation by a bishop, he being already a recognized Presbyterian communicant in the Established Free Church of Scotland.

CONVENTION AT BELLEVILLE.

Conventions are all the rage just now—politically or otherwise. In the midst of so much political excitement, the contractors, builders, &c., of Belleville find time and inclination to organize and develope their own particular trades.

A meeting of the contractors and builders in stone and brick, was held, at which resolutions were adopted:

That we recognize the right of rendering and contracting for our own branches of work, and believe that it is only right and just that Mason work and Carpenter work should be let separate, and not together, as in most cases at present.

That this meeting binds itself not to tender for any work with, or take a contract from Carpenters; or work by the day for them, so far as the letting of Mason work is concerned.

That those present agree not to set any cut stone brought here from the Kingston Penitentiary, unless the said stone is contracted for at the present time, as we are compelled in justice to ourselves to adopt this course.

LEEDS.—The Globe insinuates that Mr. Benjamin Tett has been driven out of the field by the voice of public opinion. Mr. Tett is one of the most honest and honorable men that ever sat in Parliament in this or any other country. Age and physical infirmity are the only reasons for Mr. Tett's withdrawal from public life. His friends and neighbors in the County of Leeds would have retained Benjamin Tett till the day of judgment, were such a thing possible. The best denial to the Globe's assertion, is that no man can be sure of his election in Leeds without the support of Mr. Tett and his brethren in Leeds is thoroughly opposed to faction.

A contract has been made, in view of the Pennsylvania strike, by a Nova Scotia Coal Company to deliver 50,000 tons of coal in New York. Nor is this the only arrangement made between the U. S. and the Maritime Provinces.

For the Breakfast Table.

Early to bed, and early to rise,
Never get tight, but advertise,
is the way to fortune in business, says the Rutherford Vindicator.

Some musicians put on more airs than they can play.

The right kind of timber for castles in the air—sunbeams.

The hen is not a melodious bird, but her Spring lays are pleasant things.

A young man of wealth and family drove a dray all one week on a bet of $2.00 that he daren't do it.

At St. Louis man has insured his life for $400,000, and his steps are dogged by his heirs and the coroner.

"Soap for washing dogs" is a new fancy article, put up in tasteful boxes, and for sale now by some druggists.

We are told that there is nothing made in vain. But how about a pretty young girl? Isn't she maiden vain?

A Boston physician says that "the gases generated by the bodies buried under churches lead to drowsiness in the congregation." Why is the aurora borealis like a besieged Parisian rising from dinner? Because one is an instance of polar light ness and the other's eat-a-cat.

Members of a congregation in Massachusetts are very unhappy because the man who fresco'ed their new church has made all the little angels club-footed.

The drum-major who ran away from Chickamauga, when reproached with cowardice, replied: "I'd rather be called a coward all my life, than a corpse fifteen minutes."

It must have been consoling for sick soldiers on low diet in the military hospitals, during the late war, to sing, "When this gruel war is over, we shall meet again."

Some people are never contented. After having all their limbs broken, their heads smashed, and their brains knocked out, they will actually go to law to get more damages.

Plain hair is rapidly becoming the fashion. How sorry we are for the unfortunate girls who have ruined their front hair by a long course of the hot iron and crimping pins.

A wealthy bachelor married, off hand, a beautiful young lady whom he caught inspecting cook stoves at the fair. Since then you can't go within forty rods of the stove department for the crowd of pretty girls.

In a North Missouri town lives a gentleman who rejoices in the name of Gander. A short time ago he proposed marriage to a young lady, who refused on the ground that if she accepted him she might be considered a goose.

Among the recent additions to church music is a parody on "Home, Sweet Home," running in this fashion: "Prayer, sweet, sweet prayer: be it ever so feeble, there's nothing like prayer." This is actually sung by showy quartette choirs.

A Brooklyn policeman, in writing a letter of condolence to the widow of a county member who had been his friend, says, "I am pained to hear that Harry has gone to heaven. We were bosom friends, but now we shall never meet again."

A wife in San Francisco lately put a petition for divorce in the court on the ground that her husband was a "confounded fool." The judge, who was an old bachelor, would not admit the plea, because, he said, every man who gets married would be liable to the same imputation.

Two years ago a young man in Detroit had in his absolute right a legacy amounting to at least $70,000, and possibly more. He afterwards exchanged all his right, title and interest in that property for a dog, a horse and buggy and a summer residence, the latter a short distance out of the city. Within a week past he has traded the summer residence and the horse and buggy for 55 acres of wild land and $5.00. It is understood that he yet keeps the dog.

Never throw a stone at any person until you have looked to see whether there is a window behind, or you may pay dearly for your revenge. Never leave your hat in the passage unless it is a bad one. Never be executor to a will, as it is all liability, great trouble and no profit. Never quarrel with your wife, as you will only have to make it up and pay for the reconciliation. Never mention that you have received a legacy, or some impertinent fellow will be asking you to stand a dinner. Never pay to see a balloon go up, as you can see it much better by remaining outside.

AFTER THE WAR.

Several French and English journals observe that the actual territory of France was fixed by the treaty signed in 1815 at a European congress, and that it cannot therefore be changed except by another European congress.

The Luxemburg question continues to excite great attention in Germany. The Berlin papers make no doubt that the transfer of the Grand Duchy is merely a question of time. Le Gaulois alleges that by a treaty still secret, but already signed between Prussia and Luxemburg, the Grand Duchy undertakes to pay the cabinet of Berlin an indemnity of 2,000,000f. for the wrong it did in violating its neutrality. The personnel of the railways in Luxemburg will be Prussian in future, and Prussian troops only will garrison the Grand Ducal fortresses.

The German paper of Strasbourg says that the industrial establishments of Alsace, especially those at Mulhouse, have resumed work, the old activity has returned. They are now working every day, and in many places every night.

The magnificent collection of historical prints belonging to M. Duthuent, of Rouen, has been appropriated by the Germans and sent off to Berlin. This collection, which is well known to every amateur, was exhibited at the Palace of Industry in Paris in the year 1869, and is valued at many millions of francs.

"STEALING FROM OLD NEPTUNE."—The patent method by which Carrageen of Irish Moss is converted into Sea Moss farina, is a very laborious and complicated one. The raw material is first deprived of its bitterness by repeated washings. It is then carefully picked over by hand and desiccated—in other words, deprived of all moisture—after which it is passed through a series of mills and other apparatus, by which it is cleansed from every impurity, and pulverized and concentrated, without being robbed of its refreshing ocean flavor. Having been thus manipulated and put up in convenient packages, it is ready for conversion into such Blanc Mange, Puddings, Creams, Gruels, Cream Pies, Soups, Sauces, &c., as are not producable with any other material, however expensive.

THREE SCORE YEARS AND TEN instead of being the limit assigned to human existence, should be its average duration, if people would avoid the causes that excite disease, or use the proper remedies to remove it. At this season when the melting snows and the spring showers make earth and air equally damp, the respiratory organs are peculiarly liable to be affected, and a neglected cold often settles down upon the lungs, producing Consumption, Asthma, Bronchitis and other formidable disorders. Three remedies are however to be found which obviate such evil consequences, viz. HOBART'S PULMONIC TROCHES as an internal medicine; ARNOT'S ARNICA ANODYNE, used externally on the chest and throat; and in chronic cases, HOBART'S COD LIVER OIL WITH HYPOPHOSPHITES. Every one suffering from a cold should profit by this advice.

CANADA.

Dr. B. S. Wilson has declared himself a candidate for East Hastings.

W. W. Webb, of Brighton, is in the field for East Northumberland.

William Jex is a candidate for West Northumberland.

Five volunteers were summoned before the Police Magistrate at Quebec for non-attendance at drill, and fined.

Two important events will take place on March 21st. Princess Louise will marry the Marquis of Lorne, and the Ontario government will be the chosen of this Province.

Mr. Mills has moved for an order of the House for returns of hours of arrival and the departure of the mails at Montreal, Kingston, Ottawa, Toronto, and Sarnia, &c., since the first of October last.

The Gulf Port Steamship Company have sent their agent to England, to purchase two additional steamers. They will run regularly to Newfoundland next summer.

Mr. Harrison has moved for a list of all convicts in the Kingston, St. John, and Halifax Penitentiaries, (without the names) and particulars covering sentences, &c. The object was to ascertain the comparative severity of punishment for the same classes and degrees of crime in different provinces.

BRASSEY, THE MILLIONAIRE.—The value of the property left by the late Mr. Thomas Brassey, the railway contractor, has been exaggerated. Allowing, however, for a considerable rebate in this respect the deceased has left more than six millions. Of this vast sum, £3,200,000 is personality and an similar amount is represented by real estate. That a man who began the world with nothing, and who died at sixty-five only, should have accumulated so enormous a property, proves not only that he had the good fortune to live in a day of great opportunities, but that he must have been a very clever fellow. Mr. Brassey had not, however, the faculty of speaking in public, and few things occasioned him greater mortification than to be unable to express his feelings on occasions when his health was drunk, or when he was publicly thanked for some act of charity or munificence. On one particular occasion, when he seemed to feel acutely his inability in this respect, he said "Gentlemen, all I can say is, I am immensely indebted to you but you must not expect me to enlarge upon my gratitude. I cannot make a speech but I can make a railway.—London Correspondent.

NAVIGATION.—The Merchants' and North Shore line of steamers, having amalgamated, will give the public a daily boat between Montreal and the north and south shore of Lake Ontario, and tri weekly between Montreal and the North shore of Lake Huron, Milwaukee and Chicago. The new chants of Hamilton, Toronto, St Catherines, Milwaukee and Chicago, have pledged themselves to support this line. The fleet employed will comprise the Acadia, Europe (new), Dominion, America, Shickluna, City of Montreal (new), City of London, Georgian, East, Osprey, Dromedary, Mary Ward, and another new boat now being built in St. Catherines. The advantage of the St. Lawrence route over New York is now being appreciated by the Western States.

POPULAR ERRORS.—To think that the more a man eats the fatter and stronger he will become. To believe that the more hours children study, the faster they will learn. To conclude that, if exercise is good, the more violent it is the more good is done. To imagine that every hour taken from sleep is an hour gained. To act on the presumption that the smallest room in the house is large enough to sleep in. To argue that whatever remedy causes one to feel immediately better is good for the system, without regard to more ulterior effects. To eat without an appetite, or to continue to eat after it has been satisfied, merely to gratify the taste. To eat a hearty supper for the pleasure experienced during the brief time it is passing down the throat, at the expense of a whole night of disturbed sleep and a night of weary waking in the morning.

BREAKFAST.—EPPS'S COCOA.—GRATEFUL AND COMFORTING.—The very agreeable character of this preparation has rendered it a general favourite. The CIVIL SERVICE GAZETTE remarks:—"The singular success which Mr. Epps attained by his homœopathic preparation of cocoa has never been surpassed by any experimentalist. By a thorough knowledge of the natural laws which govern the operations of digestion and nutrition, and by a careful application of the fine properties of well-selected cocoa, Mr. Epps has provided our breakfast tables with a delicately flavored beverage which may save us many heavy doctors' bills." Made simply with boiling water or milk. Sold by the Trade only in ½lb., ¼lb., and 1lb. tin-lined packets, labelled—JAMES EPPS & Co., Homœopathic Chemists, London, England.

THE HORSE.—Of the great number of animals under the control of man, the horse is unquestionably the most serviceable; "but it is not strange that so many who own horses, and who are dependent on their labor for a living, should neglect to give them that care and attention which their own interest no less than the safety and comfort of the horse demands. The best medicine for horses is "Darley's Condition Powders and Arabian Heave Remedy;" of this there can be no doubt—it is safe and easily given. Remember the name, and see that the signature of Hurd & Co. is on each package. Northrop & Lyman, Newcastle, Ont., proprietors for Canada. Sold by all medicine dealers.

☞ Thousands of people are now carelessly allowing themselves to drift through the preliminary symptoms of consumption, under the fatal delusion that they are troubled with nothing but a "slight cold." How necessary is it, then, that a cold should be cared for from its incipiency, and every exertion used to get rid of it. "Bryan's Pulmonic Waters" will stop the hacking cough in a few minutes, and by their influence on the bronchial and pulmonary organs all fears of dangerous results will soon be dissipated—but they must be taken in time. Sold by all Druggists and country dealers. Price 25 cents per box.

MARAVILLA COCOA.—No breakfast table is complete without this delicious beverage.—The Globe says: Various importers and manufacturers have attempted to attain a reputation for their prepared Cocoas, but we doubt whether any thorough success had been achieved until Messrs Taylor Brothers discovered the extraordinary qualities of "Maravilla" Cocoa. Adapting their perfect system of preparation to this finest of all species of the Theobroma, they have produced an article which supersedes every other Cocoa in the market. Entire solubility, a delicate aroma, and a rare concentration of the purest elements of nutrition, distinguish the Maravilla Cocoa above all others. For homœopaths and invalids we could not recommend a more agreeable or valuable beverage." Sold in packets only by all Grocers, of whom also may be had Taylor Brothers' Original Homœopathic Cocoa and Soluble Chocolate. Steam Mills—Brick Lane, London. Export Chicory Mills, Bruges, Belgium.

WHEN the nervous system loses its tone and vigor the whole body suffers in consequence; but frequently some one organ suffers more than the rest, hence the origin of Heart Disease, Consumption, Softening of the Brain, &c. To the Policy Holders of the Home Insurance Company.

GENTLEMEN:

The Provincial Insurance Company of Canada, are prepared to issue Policies in lieu of Home Policies on the following conditions:—

The Home Insurance Policy to be given up, and marked "Surrendered." The Premium for another year to be paid at once, and the new policy to take effect from date of surrender, and to remain in force for twelve months from the date of Home Insurance Policy's expiring.

EXAMPLE.—John Smith's Policy for $8,000 expires June 24th, 1871. Premium $9 60.

By paying $9.00 a Provincial Policy will be issued to remain in force from date of surrender until June 24th, 1872.

The advantages of this arrangement to policy holders are considerable, and immediate security is obtained in lieu of the doubtful policy of an Insolvent Company.

I am, Gentlemen,
Your obedient servant,
M. W. STRANGE,

Kingston, March 7, 1871. 56

To the Free and Independent Electors of the County of Frontenac.

GENTLEMEN,—The time has come when, in accordance with the provisions of our Local constitution, you are called upon to elect a representative for the Parliament of Ontario, and in offering myself again to you suffrages, I think it right to state my views on some of the questions that will probably come under the consideration of the new Legislative Assembly.

First—I am strongly in favour of encouraging a healthy immigration of the industrial classes into our splendid Province. The extensive wild lands, with their vast amount of mineral and timber resources, require only to be developed to make the Province of Ontario one of the most desirable resorts for the redundant population of the old countries of Europe; and I do not know of any better plan to make these resources more readily available than by encouraging and aiding the construction of railways, gravel roads, and improving the inland navigation; therefore, secondly, I am perfectly in accord with the Government in their proposal to devote part of the present surplus, to aid such enterprises as may be found after due deliberation, best fitted to promote these most desirable objects.

In order to insure for our people a peaceful and prosperous community it is very desirable that they should at least have the rudiments of a good practical education therefore—thirdly, I am in favour of any scheme of educational arrangement that will place the masses in a position to obtain it; and if elected, I shall lend my influence to such amendments, as in my judgment will tend to make the present law more advantageous and acceptable to the whole community.

The present Administration, having generally conducted the financial affairs of the Province with economy and with a due regard to efficiency in the Public Departments, is entitled, I think, to the public confidence, and will receive my support in all measures calculated to ensure economy with efficiency; but at the same time I think the country requires a more liberal land policy, with prudent and wise restrictions, than the one now in force:

I am in favour of offering large facilities to intending settlers who will occupy and render productive our present fertile territory, as yet almost wholly unoccupied.

I shall be glad to meet you at the hustings on the day of nomination, and shall take advantage of that opportunity to state more fully my views on these and other subjects of public interest.

Thanking you for your support in the past,

I am, Gentlemen,
Your Obedient Servant,
D. D. CALVIN.
