Town and Country.

SALE of a span of Geldings at Mr. Wm. Murray's this morning at 11 o'clock.

THE Bishop of Ontario will preach in St. Paul's Church at the free evening service on Sunday evening.

THE City Assessors have concluded their assessments and are preparing to deliver the required notices to the people assessed.

THE schr. Fanny Ledford returned from Brockville yesterday, being the first vessel up the river.

KING STREET is much improved by the scraping it has received. Princess Street is jealous; it looks very bad indeed over it.

PERSONAL.—James Dawson, Esq., M.P.P., for Kent, and brother of the Messrs. Dawson, of Wolfe Island, was in town yesterday on a short visit to his friends.

COMING.—Everybody in Kingston remembers our Irish friend, Mr. McEvoy, and his Encyclorama, and will be delighted to hear that the City Hall is engaged for his Hibernicon, on April 11th, 12th and 13th.

POLICE COURT, Friday.—There are no sprees or joys to relate this morning. There were no prisoners therefore no sorrows; there were no cases or fees, consequently no joys for reporters or officials.

UNSOPHISTICATED.—Those country papers are awfully green. The Perth Expositor however has a desire to be posted. Hear him: "The British Whig says:—"Boyd of Prescott has gone where the woodbine twineth." What does the Whig mean?" Why up spout, of course.

ARRIVALS AT THE ANGLO AMERICAN HOTEL.—W V Detlor, Napanee; George Hill, London; E Madden, Port Hope; A M Jones, Toronto; Thos McMon, do; Geo F Ferren, Cape Vincent; B Robben, Prescott; John Thompson, do; John McRae & Sister, Wolfe Island; Joseph Watson, Montreal; Mr. & Mrs. Campbell, Stratford; David Young, Sarnia.

THE Revd. S. McMorine lately resigned the charge of St. John's Church, Pittsburg, in the incumbency of which he has conducted himself ably for the last few years, and has received a new charge in St. Andrew's Church, Huntingdon, Province of Quebec. It is stated in the Montreal papers that he will be inducted Minister of St. Andrew's, on Tuesday, 11th April.

THE working of the new Medical Board system is fairly exemplified by the fact that out of twelve new graduates of the Royal College of Physicians and Surgeons, Kingston, only two intend to appear before the Board for a license to practice in Ontario. The remaining ten are to leave for the United States, where a larger field of labor and fewer restrictions are to be met with. Of the graduates of the session of 1869-70 only four went before the Board.

EMIGRATION.—Mr. John Daley, the Emigrant Agent of Montreal, was in Kingston all day yesterday, being here on Emigration business. A very large Immigration is expected in Canada this Spring, and the Emigration Department is on the qui vive to aid the movement. There is to be an Emigrant Shed put up in Kingston, to cost $1000, and although there is plenty of room in the empty Barracks yet, we hear the said Emigrant Shed is to be erected a long way from the wharves, alongside the Drill Shed.

CLAYTON.—The people of this little town are pleased to hear that there is to be a daily boat to Kingston this summer. We shall have the Clayton people as frequent visitors, and that will be pleasant, for they are delightful acquaintances.—The duck shooting on the river is excellent.—The new vessel will be launched next week.—Mr. John Johnston is overhauling his steamer "Midge" and intends to put two miles more speed on her by the enlargement of her wheels. We hope to see the "Midge," which has the credit of being the only American passenger steamer on Lake Ontario, visiting us often again this season.

THE PEMBROKE RAILROAD.—The successful manner in which the Bill to incorporate the Kingston and Pembroke Railroad has been managed by our representatives in Parliament is shewn by the expedition with which it has passed the House, in order to permit the project to be pushed with as little delay as possible. We find, as in substance already announced, that on Thursday, Mr. Kirkpatrick moved the second reading of the Bill to incorporate the Kingston and Pembroke Railway Company. Carried, sent to committee of the whole, reported, read a third time and passed. Three, or indeed four stages in one day! All credit to our members. This is, however, but another evidence of the earnestness of the promoters of the road in this quarter, and let us hope an earnest, also, of the energy and activity which must soon follow this step.

ANOTHER CONTRIBUTION TO HISTORY.

One of the spoils of war seized by the Prussians, was a curious official document sent to Napoleon in 1869 by Colonel Stoffel, military attache of the French Embassy in Berlin. Colonel Stoffel submitted some political observations as a supplement to the military details which he was directed to procure. In this memorandum, he made the following remarks: "First—War is unevitable, and will be brought on by some trifling cause; Second—Prussia does not intend to attack France. She has no wish to go to war, but will do her utmost to avoid a rupture; Third—Prussia is sharp sighted to foresee that, however much she may be desirous to avoid it, war is sure to break out. She is, therefore, straining every nerve to be prepared for the fatal moment; Fourth—France, being careless and ignorant of existing realities in this country is not likely to judge the situation as accurately as Prussia." It appears that the writer of this document was sent to Berlin to observe the military preparations of Prussia, and as his report carries the weight of official authority, the revelation is an important chapter of history. It goes to confirm the received opinion that the war was fated to occur, but that King William was too shrewd to begin it, while the nature of his preparations showed that he was fully aware of the designs of Napoleon.

The attendants of Emperor William say that, despite the many affecting incidents of the war with France, the old monarch shed tears but on one occasion, and that was when Crown Prince Frederick William brought to him the news that the Princess Frederica of Holland, the Emperor's sister, and to whom he was greatly attached, was dead.

France.

Vinoy still commands the French armies.

The Figaro has been seized by the Nationals.

Four thousand English have resumed residence in Paris.

The Courts are all open in Paris. The judges have all fled.

The Nationals cost the people of Paris 300,000 francs (£12,000) daily.

The Thiers Government is said to have joined interests with the Comte de Chambord and the Bourbon sympathisers, and to intend to organize a Parliament on the model of that of England. As a first step the Assembly has taken occasion to quarrel with the Orleanists.

Certain manufacturers of Paris asked permission of the insurgent authorities to resume work, and it was granted on condition that the workmen, always useful in an insurrection, should keep their arms stacked and ready at a moment's notice, in view of imminent conflict.

The garrison of Paris, a the request of a deputation, who telegraphed to Berlin, may be increased to 80,000 men, double the stipulated number.

The "Times" contains a letter describing the situation in Paris as critical. The gravest apprehension was felt in all quarters. Measures of protection were secretly enforced everywhere, and the significant word the Guillotine, though spoken only in whispers, is in everybody's mouth.

Offers have been received by the National Assembly from the departments of Vosges, Meurthe, and others to send to march on Paris. 8,000 Bretons have been organized for the same purpose by Charette. More German troops are to enter the city. Picket firing took place the night before last between the Nationals and the Government forces between Versailles and Paris. Thiers expects shortly to make a regular attack on the insurgents.

The Breakfast Table.

"Shoo Fly" is considered as sacred music in the church at Kansas City.

"You can't do that again," as the pig said when the boy cut off his tail.

The "Derby" is the fashionable overcoat for gentlemen this spring.

The latest novelty in funerals is to lay Brussels carpet around the grave.

Croquet will soon engage the attention of sportive damsels and blushing youths.

Miss Phelps says there is no use quarreling with a woman, the press, a railroad company, or the telegraph.

You might as well attempt to sham an elephant with a thimbleful of soapsuds, as to do business and ignore advertising.

William Call of Dresden, Me., who was in his 95th year, hanged himself, instead of waiting for the natural death.

The latest "sweet thing" with the Memphis ladies is to promenade the street leading a pet goat with a blue ribbon tied around its neck. Go it, ladies.

New method of curing a balky horse—pour water into his nose. A Westfield man tried it the other day, and it proved effectual in five minutes, and killed the horse.

Love induced a Texas girl to poison her father the other day because he refused to permit her to marry the man of her choice. A stomach pump saved the old man and an elopement saved the girl.

In Milwaukee, Wisconsin, a manufacturer of wash boards, as an advertising medium, employs a dozen well dressed young woman to march through the streets of the city, each with a washboard under her arm.

Fashionable little dogs have dispensed with embroidered jackets since the warm weather set in. The style for spring will be a large pink ribbon around the neck to which is attached a locket containing a lock of the hair and the miniature of the owner of the little animal.

A New York coroner is preparing a book telling all about what to do in case of a kerosene explosion. It don't need a book to tell what to do. All that is necessary is to send your address to an undertaker just before you light a fire with kerosene, and then let nature take its course.

The following verdict was given by an eastern coroner: "We believe firmly that the deceased came to his death by falling from the top of the mainmast on the bulwarks—fell overboard and was drowned—washed ashore and frozen to death—and then carried to the watchhouse and eaten by rats."

The city fathers of Binghamton, N. Y., do not propose to spare the rod and spoil the children. Proof of which, Mayor Dwight the other day found George M. Pratt, President of the First National Bank, a little impudent, made an example of him, and gave him a welting on the street.

A play is being enacted in a Chicago theatre in which a man is hung for fun. The other night the gearing got out of order and they came near hanging him Tombs style. When they cut him down he said he guessed they had better get some one else to take his place, as his neck was not talented enough to play that part.

There is a story going the rounds to the effect that tight lacing saves $2,000,000 annually in board alone. This statement is a vallainous and habitual lie. We know a girl who laces so tight that our arm will go around her twice and lap over clear to the elbow, and you wouldn't think to look at her that she could eat anything except soup, but she has got an appetite like a cross cut saw, and she mows a swarth at a table like a self raking reaper.

THE GEMS OF AFRICA.—The most glowing reports continue to be received from the African diamond fields. Unfortunately there is no one responsible for their authenticity. Some three thousand men are said to be encamped on the banks of the Vaal River. One diamond has been found there which weighed over eighty-three carats. It was sold for $100,000. Its finder was a young German adventurer, who came across the prize during his second fortnight on the fields. In opposition to the enormous price set upon this stone, it is asserted by London jewelers that the South African diamonds are full of flaws and of decidedly inferior quality. The prices of provisions are moderate. In gold they are set down as follows:—Bread, 12 cents per pound; beef, 25 cents, potatoes, $10 per bag of three bushels, and other articles in proportion.

SINGULAR DEVELOPMENT.—A strange scene in a recent trial for attempted murder at a place called Hay River, in Prince Edward Island, is told. After a few witnesses were examined, Donald McDonald (son of the prisoner) was put on oath, and after swearing that was in bed and asleep when the shooting must have taken place, on cross-examination by Mr. Hodgson (the prisoner's counsel) confessed, in his eagerness, very probably, to save his father, that he himself was the party who fired the shot. The Court was fairly thunderstruck at this announcement, the prisoner—hardened as he was—burst into tears, the spectators were struck with surprise, the prosecution immediately ended, and the witness (young McDonald) at once committed to prison, by order of the Judge, for perjury, and the offence for which his father was charged.

Currency.

A suicide a day is about the average in New York City.

A new and rapidly fatal disease has broken out in Louisiana.

Royal Bigge, of Connecticut, is the last of six brothers to achieve suicide, and he had to try several times.

Mrs. Stiles, the Windsor murderess, is starving herself to death in Hartford gaol. Her fast has lasted two weeks.

The Western States are, one after another, abolishing the old rule of paying woman school-teachers less than men for the same services. This is simple justice.

Amateur theatricals for the benefit of France are the style now. There is poetic fitness in this. Amateur war and warriors ruined France. Let amateur drama and its actors taper off the agony.

Two of the most successful and best paid editors in New York city are women—Miss Mary L. Booth, of the Bazar, who receives $4,000 a year, and Mrs. Mary E. Dodge, of the Hearth and Home, who has a salary of $3,000.

A curious and imposing ceremony took place in Lexington, Ky., a few days since. During the funeral services of a lady in that city, her infant, only a few weeks old was brought to the chancel of the church, and there in the presence of his dead mother, was solemnly dedicated in baptism to the God whom she had served.

Spurgeon is an indefatigable worker. At the beginning of each month, he arranges a programme of religious services for every day during that period. The list of meetings is published and circulated in the pews. These daily meetings are varied, embracing all departments of Christian work. One was held lately, for the benefit of butchers.

Poligamy in Utah seems likely to come to grief from the influx of the "gentile" population, owing to the discovery of rich deposits of silver ore. Extensive mills are going up in all directions, and during the approaching summer great progress will be made in further developing the mineral resources. Several towns are growing up, the result of mining enterprises; there are between 300 and 400 miles of railroad already built, and other lines are projected.

The Rev. Mr. Mackonochie, of the Church of England, after having been suspended for three months from his Ministry, for his excessive ritualism, has resumed his work; and on the Sunday following the condemnation of Mr. Purchas he officiated in the church of St. Albans' Holborn, "wearing alb, chasuable, and tunic," the condemned garments, "and standing with his back to the congregation while consecrating the elements"—that is, in open contempt of the law as laid down by the Court in the Purchas case.

THREE SCORE YEARS AND TEN instead of being the limit assigned to human existence, should be its average duration, if people would avoid the causes that excite disease, or use the proper remedies to remove it. At this season when the melting snows and the spring showers make earth and air equally damp, the respiratory organs are peculiarly liable to be affected, and a neglected cold often settles down upon the lungs, producing Consumption, Asthma, Bronchitis and other formidable disorders. Three remedies are however to be found which obviate such evil consequences, viz. HOBART'S PULMONIC TROCHES as an internal medicine; ARNOT'S ARNICA ANODYNE, used externally on the chest and throat; and in chronic cases. HOBART'S COD LIVER OIL WITH HYPOPHOSPHITES. Every one suffering from a cold should profit by this advice.

GOOD NEWS FROM IRELAND!—During the Irish famine we sent a million of dollars' worth of food to Cork. Ireland is now repaying the debt with interest; not from her exchequer, not from harvest fields, but from the adamantine rocks on her coast. An enterprising company in New York is importing ship loads of the edible moss that grows on her cliffs, and converting it, under the name of SEA MOSS FARINE, into an economic source of nourishment and palatable food. The new source of aliment is prepared under a patent, and although but a year in the market, has already taken precedence of all the gelatinous agents heretofore used in cookery. No epicure who has tasted the puddings, custards and jellies made from SEA MOSS FARINE, will deny that they are incomparable. The saving effected by using this article instead of maizena, farina or corn starch (all of which it excels in palatability), is about fifty per cent.

Did you ever think that what is termed a common cold, when systematically neglected, often leads to that most fatal and distressing disease—consumption—but when attended to at once is generally easy of cure. If you are troubled with a cold or cough, "Bryan's Pulmonic Wafers" will be found to be most efficacious in removing it. They give immediate relief, and generally effect a cure when used in time. Sold by all Druggists and country dealers. Price 25 cents per box. 68

BREAKFAST.—EPPS'S COCOA.—GRATEFUL AND COMFORTING.—The very agreeable character of this preparation has rendered it a general favourite. The CIVIL SERVICE GAZETTE remarks:—"The singular success which Mr. Epps attained by his homœopathic preparation of cocoa has never been surpassed by any experimentalist. By a thorough knowledge of the natural laws which govern the operations of digestion and nutrition, and by a careful application of the fine properties of well-selected cocoa, Mr. Epps has provided our breakfast tables with a delicately flavored beverage which may save us many heavy doctors' bills." Made simply with boiling water or milk. Sold by the Trade only in ½lb., ¼lb., and 1lb. tin-lined packets, labelled—JAMES EPPS & Co., Homœopathic Chemists, London, England.

GREAT CONDITION MEDICINE.—As a condition medicine for Horses "Darley's Condition Powders and Arabian Heave Remedy" has no equal, its effects in this respect are astonishing; many horses that were supposed to be broken down and almost worthless, have by the use of a few packages been restored to a healthy and sound condition, all traces of the disease having been completely removed, and have been sold for from $50 to $75 more than they would previously have brought; when you want a horse medicine get "Darley's Condition Powders and Arabian Heave Remedy," we know you will be perfectly satisfied with the result. Remember the name and see that the signature of Hurd & Co. is on each package. Northrop & Lyman, Newcastle, Ont., proprietors for Canada. Sold by all medicine dealers.

MARAVILLA COCOA.—No breakfast table is complete without this delicious beverage.—The Globe says "Various importers and manufacturers have attempted to attain a reputation for their prepared Cocoas, but we doubt whether any thorough success had been achieved until Messrs. Taylor Brothers discovered the extraordinary qualities of 'Maravilla' Cocoa. Adapting their perfect system of preparation to this finest of all species of the Theobroma, they have produced an article which supersedes every other Cocoa in the market. Entire solubility, a delicate aroma, and a rare concentration of the purest elements of nutrition, distinguish the Maravilla Cocoa above all others. For homœopaths and invalids we could not recommend a more agreeable or valuable beverage." Sold in packets only by all Grocers, of whom also may be had Taylor Brothers' Original Homœopathic Cocoa and Soluble Chocolate. Steam Mills—Brick Lane, London. Export Chicory Mills, Bruges, Belgium.
