How to Cure Corns and Bunions.

First soak the corn or bunion in warm water to soften it; then pare it down as closely as possible without drawing blood and apply Chamberlain's Pain Balm twice daily, rubbing vigorously for five minutes at each application. A corn plaster should be worn a few days to protect it from the shoe. As a general liniment for sprains, bruises, lameness and rheumatism, Pain Balm is unequalled. For sale by all druggists.

"INCURABLE" HEART DISEASE SOON CURED!

By The Great Specialist in Treating Chronic Disease, Franklin Miles, M. D., LL. B.

Will Send $2.50 Worth of His Personal Treatment Free as a Trial.

To demonstrate the unusual curative powers of his new and complete special treatments by mail for heart, lungs, liver, stomach, kidney or nervous diseases, short breath, pain in the side, oppression in the chest, irregular pulse, palpitation, smothering spells, puffing of the ankles, or dropsy, Dr. Miles will send $2.50 worth free as a trial, to all who mention this paper.

His treatments are the result of twenty-five years of careful study, extensive research and remarkable experience in treating the various ailments of the heart, stomach and nerves, which so often complicate each case. So astonishing are the results of his complete special treatments that he does not hesitate to offer all persons a trial free.

Nothing could be more liberal. Few physicians have such confidence in their remedies. There is no reason why all afflicted persons should not avail themselves of this exceedingly liberal offer, as they may never have another such opportunity. No death comes as suddenly as that from heart disease.

Mrs. A. Konek of Huntington, Ind., was cured after thirty physicians failed. Mrs. Flora Greuter of Bristolville, O., after twenty-two; Jas. R. Waite, the noted actor, after a score had pronounced him incurable; Mrs. Frank Smith of Chicago after five leading physicians had given her up; Mr. Julius Kestler of Chicago, after ten; Mrs. R. Parker, after sixteen failed.

A thousand references to and testimonials from Bishops, Clergymen, Bankers, Farmers and their wives will be sent free upon request.

Send a careful description of your case at once for Book, valuable advice and Treatment Free. Address, Franklin Miles, M. D., LL. B., Dept. H, 431 to 431 Main St., Elkhart, Ind. 18
