TOWN AND COUNTRY.

SNOW fell lightly last night. It is a little colder to-day.

DEDICATION. — The new Wesleyan Church at Murvale will be dedicated on Thursday, the 9th February.

THE name of Mr. B. M. Britton is among the arrivals at the St. Lawrence Hall, Montreal.

ROSA D'ERINA.—This talented Lady, Erinis Prima Donna, who has been creating a great furore in musical circles in Western Ontario by her beautiful performances will give one of her grand concerts in Kingston at an early date.

ISSUER OF LICENSES.—Mr. Samuel Shaw of this city, on Saturday was authorized to issue licenses for the County as well as the City. The late Judge Cummins held the appointment for both municipalities, and it was by an oversight that the Appointment of Mr. Shaw was made recently for the city only.

POLICE COURT.—Two drunks were arraigned at the bar of justice. One was fined a dollar; the other discharged. Six summons for not removing snow from side walks; one for furious driving; one for not having bells on his horse; a woman for being drunk and disorderly on Princess street—all reprimanded and discharged.

ALMA MATER SOCIETY.—A meeting of this flourishing Society was held in the University Building on Saturday evening and a debate held, in which Messrs. McIntyre, Alexander, McGillvary and Macnee were the principal speakers. It was resolved to hold a Parliamentary debate next Saturday night on the Income Franchise question. Mr. John McIntyre, B. A., the "leader of the Government", will introduce the Bill. Her Majesty's Loyal Opposition will be led by Mr. Thomas Alexander.

MASONIC CONCERT AND BALL.—This grand affair, under the auspices of the Masonic body in Kingston, will take place in the City Hall on Monday, the 12th Feby. The Committee is acapital one, and that is a guarantee of all being carried out with liberality and spirit. Those talented musicians, Mrs. Gilbert, Madamoselle De Tourville and Prof. Boscovitz, will take part, with the assistance of some of the best talent of Montreal, Quebec, Toronto and Hamilton, besides amateurs and professionals of the city.

THE STREET LAMPS were extinguished on Saturday night at half-past eight, tho' the moon failed to put in an appearance. If our gas-lights are to be run according to the Almanac it would perhaps be as well for our Fire, Water and Gas Committee to make some arrangement whereby the moon could be made shine whether it would or no. The present system of putting out the street lights when the moon's face, like a girl's, is hidden behind a cloud, is open to amendment. There is no moonshine about this complaint.

THE ANGLICAN CHURCHES.—The Rev. Mr. Wilson, of St. George's Cathedral, preached in St. James' Church yesterday morning, in the absence of the Rev. Mr. Kirkpatrick, who is at present off on a mission tour. In the evening, the Rev. Mr. Bousfield conducted the service. A special service, with communion, was held in All Saints Church, by Dr. Boswell, at 11 a.m. St. Paul's Church was crowded in the evening. An eloquent and impressive funeral sermon was preached in memory of the late Mrs. Peterson, the very best of christian women, and one whose long connection with St. Paul's Church was one of untiring devotion and zeal. The kind words of the pastor found a general reponse in the hearts of the congregation.

INQUESTS IN THE GAOL.—Dr. Barker held this morning two Inquests in the County Gaol of Frontenac, one on the body of Margaret Spooner, a vagrant, who died on Saturday last, and the other on the body of Charles Leonard, a pensioner, who died this morning. In both instances the Jury returned a verdict of natural death, but in each case the Jury appended to their verdict a statement of the cruelty as well as the injustice of sending such persons to the Common Gaol to die, because there was no other asylum or place to which they could be sent. Margaret Spooner, a woman suffering from incurable scrofula, had been a constant inmate of the gaol for the past four years. She was a woman of good character, and not sent to gaol for crime. Charles Leonard was a pensioner, afflicted with incurable St. Vitus' Dance. Discharged from the Hospital last summer as an incurable, there was no other place to send him to, or rather to die in, than the gaol, wherein he had been since July last. Both are lamentable instances of the want of a proper Poor House.

A VIXEN

KILLED BECAUSE HE WOULD NOT MARRY HER.

The Nashville Banner gives the following particulars of a horrible tragedy in Smith county, Tenn.:—"A private letter was received here, giving details of a murder committed recently at a tobacco-stripping on the farm of Will Cardwell, at which a good number of neighbors were present, and among them a negro man eighty years old. Some of those present, thinking to have a little fun at the expense of the old negro, commenced joking him about matrimony. He said that he did not know of any one to marry, whereupon one of the crowd suggested: 'There's Moll Quails before you; why can't you marry her?' Casting a suspicious glance at Moll Quails, and surveying her leisurely from head to foot, he slowly remarked that he would not have her. At this the woman in question became enraged, and demanded an immediate explanation. He replied that it was useless for him to say why; the crowd well knew the reason. Considering this a reflection upon her character, the woman became furious, seized a stick and beat him over the head until she thought him dead, and, without the least interruption from the bystanders, coolly strode out of the barn in which the altercation had taken place. Having occasion to return to the barn, she stopped at the door to make an inspection of its interior, and observing that the old man was not dead, and that he had, notwithstanding his many wounds, arisen from where she had struck him down, she again seized the billet of wood and attacked him in the most ferocious manner, breaking his skull into fragments and scattering his brains and blood some distance from where he sat."

At Last.

DEATH OF DR. LIVINGSTON.

It is with deep and universal regret that we announce the death of our esteemed fellow-citizen, Dr. Livingston. This melancholy event has come upon the country like a thunderbolt out of a clear sky. Had the doctor borne a charmed life his death would not have provoked greater astonishment and vexation. Up to yesterday noon the village physician at Ijiji was perfectly confident that he would recover, although the pestilential climate of Soudan had considerably worried him, and had proved fatal to his faithful and attached hippotamus. At about 1 o'clock he began to fail rapidly, and by 5 there was was nothing left of him at Ijiji, though he was still prevalent in several regions to the southward, and the vicinity of Gebel-el-Cuinri was pervaded with him in considerable quantity; but by 7 advices came from Dahomey that he was dead in that section; by 8 he had perished all along the Upper Nile; by 9 had faded and gone from Aoled-ed-Jared; and before daylight this morning the returns were all in, and Dr. Livingstone, was no more for ever! The obsequies will take place at Boriqboola Gha as soon as all the remains can be concentrated at that point. In her deep affliction Science has our heartfelt sympathy, and we cheerfully condole with everybody.

CURRENCY.

Some one calls the poor gas in his city a "burning shame."

Mr. Salâ is describing "Imaginary London" in a new series of articles.

A Maine woman has swallowed 270 bottles of cherry pectoral, and still lives.

Horne Tooke, when asked by George III. why he never played at cards, replied, "I cannot tell a king from a knave."

A boy-baby was solemnly christened Mary Reilly, by mistake, in New York the other day. The Legislature will be invoked to restore him to sex.

At the funeral of the Prince's groom, Blegg, at Sandringham, hot-house flowers, sent by the Princess of Wales, were placed upon the coffin. The procession, by request of the Princess, passed by the principal front of the Hall, in order that she might see it.

The London Herald says that the confinement of Stokes—Fisk's murderer—is "telling upon him heavily. His hair is becoming permanently grey." The inference is that it had only been temporarily grey before. Under the trying circumstances, Mr. Stokes will probably dye.

The Queen's life was rendered doubly a burden during the illness of her eldest son by the incessant stream of lotions, decoctions, medicaments poured in for the salvation of the Prince. One quack, more impulsive and confident than the rest, rushed into the royal pew and made an incoherent appeal to the Queen mother to accept his nostrum for her sick son, and life would of a certainty be assured.

An extraordinary desecration of the dead has just been discovered at Lyons. A watchman at the La Guillotiere cemetery, named Tabarel, has for a long time past been in the habit of violating at night the tombs of females to cut off their hair, which he sold for making chignons. The crime was discovered accidentally by a cat drawing some tresses from a hole in which he had concealed them.

Having used Fellow's Compound Syrup Hypophosphites for some time, in my practice, I have no hesitation in recommending it to my patients who are suffering from General Debility, or any Disease of the Lungs, knowing that even in cases utterly hopeless, it affords relief. H. G. ADDY, M.D.

An Eminent Divine says, "I have been using the Peruvian Syrup. It gives me new vigor, buoyancy of spirits, elasticity of muscle. J. P. Dinsmore, 36 Dey Street, New York, will send, free, a pahmplet of 32 pages, containing a full account of this remarkable medicine, to any one sending him hi address.

The crown of womanly beauty is an elegant coiffure. As this cannot be obtained without the use of some Hair Gloss or fixateur, even by the most skilful artiste, how much should the ladies feel themselves indebted to the inventor of the Great Hair Dressing of the age. Coco-Glycerine, which nourishes and beautifies the Hair, is delightfully perfumed, and leaves no stain on the gentlemen's waistcoats. Ask for Coco-Glycerine. 14

Be Wise.—Too often a cold or slight cough is considered a very ordinary, trifling affair, just as well left to go as it came, and hence systematically neglected until a simple curable affection is converted into a serious pulmonary disease. The more prudent, aware that a cough or cold should never be trifled with, promptly use "Bryan's Pulmonic Wafers," which have sustained their reputation for over 30 years. They are always efficacious, and exert a most beneficial influence on all the bronchial and pulmonary organs. Sold by all Druggists and country merchants. Price 25 cents per box.

Not Quite So.—"It is among the most savage and debased tribe only that the condition and comfort of the horse have been neglected," but we believe there are many in civilized countries who are guilty of the same neglect, and without the excuse of the former; here all may avail themselves of the use of an article which has done more than anything else heretofore known to improve the condition and relieve the suffering of the horse. Those who will not use it will be the losers, their horses the sufferers: to avoid both use Darley's Condition Powders and Arabian Heave Remedy," and you will be satisfied with the result. Remember the name, and see that the signature of Hurd & Co., is on each package. Northrop & Lyman, Newcastle, Ont., Proprietors for Canada. Sold by all Dealers.

We received a very pleasant letter of thanks from our old friend Kendall, since his return home, for a bottle of Johnson's Anodyne Liniment which we gave him, and which he says has entirely cured him of the troublesome and dangerous cough he had when here.

On the death of one of England's most eminent physicians, all his effects were sold by auction, and among other things was a sealed packet, marked "Advice to Physicians," which brought a great price. The purchaser on opening the packet, read as follows: "Keep the head cool, the bowels open and feet warm." If physic is necessary, use Parson's Purgative Pills; they are the most scientifically prepared pill that has appeared in the last hundred years.

MARAVILLA COCOA. No breakfast table is complete without this delicious beverage.—The Globe says "Various importers and manufacturers have attempted to attain a reputation for their prepared Cocoas, but we doubt whether any thorough success had been achieved until Messrs. Taylor Brothers discovered the extraordinary qualities of Maravilla Cocoa. Adapting their perfect system of preparation to this finest of all species of the Theobroma, they have produced an article which supersedes every other Cocoa in the market. Entire solubility, a delicate aroma, and a rare concentration of the purest elements of nutrition, distinguish the Maravilla Cocoa above all others. For homœopaths and invalids we could not recommend a more agreeable or valuable beverage. Sold in packets only by all Grocers, of whom also may be had Taylor Brothers' Origina, Homœopathic Cocoa and Soluble Chocolate. Steam Mills—Brick Lane, London, Exports, Chicory Mills, Bruges, Belgium.
