HALL'S
Vegetable Sicilian Hair Renewer
Every year increases the popularity of this valuable Hair Preparation, which is due to merit alone. We can assure our old patrons that it is kept fully up to its high standard, and to those who have never used it we can confidently say, that it is the only reliable and perfected preparation to restore GRAY OR FADED HAIR to its youthful color, making it soft, lustrous, and silken; the scalp, by its use, becomes white and clean; it removes all eruptions and dandruff, and by its tonic properties prevents the hair from falling out, as it stimulates and nourishes the hair glands. By its use the hair grows thicker and stronger. In baldness it restores the capillary glands to their normal vigor, and will create a new growth except in extreme old age. It is the most economical HAIR DRESSING ever used, as it requires fewer applications, and gives the hair that splendid glossy appearance so much admired by all. A. A. Hayes, M.D., State Assayer of Mass., says, "the constituents are pure and carefully selected for excellent quality, and I consider it the BEST PREPARATION for its intended purposes." We publish a treatise on the hair, which we send free by mail upon application, which contains commendatory notices from clergymen, physicians, the press, and others. We have made the study of the hair and its diseases a specialty for years, and know that we make the most effective preparation for the restoration and the preservation of the hair, extant, and so acknowledged by the best Medical and Chemical Authority.
Sold by all Druggists and Dealers in Medicine.

PORTS.
Red Wines of Oporto, Roussillon, and Catalonia.
VIN ROUGE DE ROUSSILLON. An excellent rough Wine, of the character of a light Port. Mixed with water it makes a pleasant beverage, cheaper, and in this climate more wholesome, than beer.
ROUSSILLON PORT, NO. 2. Full-bodied and fruity; somewhat astringent and very nutritious.
ROUSILLION PORT, NO. 1. Older than the preceding and drier, but full-flavored and with great body.
MASDEU. Styled the "Lafite of Roussillon." The wine of this vineyard bore a high reputation six hundred years ago.
ALICANTE. A sweet red wine, of full body, delicate flavour and boquet, and a great favourite. From its blood-making properties it is most valuable as a restorative in cases of debility.
The Wines of this class especially have been found of great benefit to invalids and delicate persons, from their nutritious and strengthening qualities; and being of low alcholic strength, as compared to those generally imported, they can be used freely and without any danger of any inflamatory effect; they have also been those oftenest prescribed and ordered by medical men, from whom we have the most gratifying testimony as to their value.
COLLIOURE VIEUX. From a vineyard near Perpignan. An old, dry wine with all the character of a fine Port.
PORT. A full flavored Oporto Wine.
WE ARE NOW PREPARING TO BOTTLE
DAWES & CO'S (LACHINE) ALE,
which will be offered to the public at reasonable rates, when ready for market. Due notice will be given. Great care will be taken in preparing bottles, and none but good corks used.

Patriotic Song
ADDRESSED TO THE VOLUNTEERS OF CANADA.

One kiss on the cheek of the girl we love,
Three rattling British cheers,
As we stand to our arms and march away,
Canadian volunteers.

We'll sell no rights of the deep, deep sea,
False treaties we'll disown;
We'll tell the Queen that we love her well,
But we mean to keep our own.

If the Yankee eagle flits this way,
With prying inquisitive search;
We'll handle our guns to keep them in tune,
And rattle him off from his perch.

And if ever the traitor Fenian hordes
Their ragged tumult swell,
We'll let them in, but never more out,
Their cursed story to tell.

We'll think of a balmy day in June
In Ridgeway's emerald dell;
And we'll give three cheers for the gallant boys,
Who handled their guns so well.

We'll think of fields where the red crop waved
And life-blood ebbed so fast,
As we wound our flag round our dying heart
Or nailed it fast to the mast.

Then march, march, volunteers march,
So gaily march away;
'Tis duty calls and honor leads,
O, who will be last to stay!

One kiss on the cheek of the girl we love,
Three rattling British cheers,
As we stand to our arms and march away,
Canadian volunteers.

BATH
The immense quantity of grain shipped at the port of Bath last year, owing in a great measure to the lowness of the water in the Napanee river. The continued drouth speaks volumes for Bath, and its business men look forward to much larger shipments this season, in view of which, Mr. S. Rogers has commenced remodelling his store house, intending to give it a capacity of 15,000 bushels; his wharf also is to be thoroughly repaired and made one solid abutment of stone. Mr. C. F. Gildersleeve, of Kingston, for his accommodation, built a fine wharf and store-house at the same place last year. It is at present in possession of T. E. Howard, Esq., and is used for the purpose of storing and shipping grain, bought on commission. A large dock and warehouse is also in course of construction at Mill Haven, some two miles below Bath, by Mr. Fry, a glove manufacturer of that place, and our enterprising townsman, W. H. Davy, Esq., contemplates repairing his dock and warehouse for the grain trade.—Napanee Express.

Southern Laziness.—The stranger visiting the South is particularly impressed with the vast wealth of the country that can support in idleness so large a portion of its male inhabitants. Two thirds of our citizens are only nominally employed, and under a pure pretence of employment manage to pass their time in complete indolence. This will apply to white as well as colored. There are numbers of both classes out of work and money, and yet will not work. Offer a negro a dollar to cut up a cord of wood, and he has no time, he has something to do for somebody else yet that something is not done. Offer a job to a white man and the chances are ten to one your answer will be a shot from a pistol or a thrust from a bowie knife. Of the two the negro is the only one ashamed of his laziness, for he excuses himself, but the white man is insulted. Yet neither of them has seen a dollar for weeks perhaps, and both are lying around a dramshop waiting to be asked to drink by some acquaintance who has a few dimes.—Southern Star.

Ventilate the Churches.—It is no wonder that the congregations in our churches become drowsy of a Sabbath. Now, we do not wish to imply that the sermons have a soporific influence, nor that our citizens are not wide-awake in matters pertaining to their spiritual natures; but it is no less a fact that one will now or then see some good brother or sister nodding acquiescence to the words of truth that fall from the preacher's lips. There is a remedy for this drowsiness. Let the churches be thoroughly ventilated morning and evening before the assembling of the congregations, and the effect will be surprising in sharpening up the faculties of the hearers. Minister and people will feel better, and go away both bodily and spiritually refreshed. Let our ministers try the experiment at once; order the sexton to have the windows lowered from the top before the assembling of the congregations, and they will save the annoyance and clatter that attend this work after the service begins.

The Attack on the Queen.—The Boston Advertiser says:—When Fenians take to assaulting Queen Victoria with empty pistols, we may conclude that their courage is not equal to raids into Canada, or to blowing up prisons. The affair, an account of which has been telegraphed to this country, is far more comical and much more reassuring, than alarming. There are stories of highway robberies submitted to at the sight of cold sausages bent to resemble pistols, but we never credited them. Nor is there any precedent for a queen's signing a batch of pardons while her head is covered by a pistol, either loaded or empty. O'Connor's act was eminently Fenian-like. It was melodramatic, it was absurd, it was a failure. Bold Prince Arthur knocked down the menacing intruded, and John Brown's body interposed between the Fenian boy and his sovereign. The Queen was at no time in danger, and, so use a Hibernicism, to which we are tempted in speaking of the affair, she was rescued from it without further difficulty.

Novelists.—Mr. Justin McCarthy divides the British novelists of the day into four classes: First class, George Eliot; he alone and nobody else. Second class, Charles Reade, Anthony Trollope, Wilkie Collins, Miss Braddon, Mrs. Craik, Mrs. Oliphant, Mrs. Henry Wood, and one or two others. Third, rising novelists, not widely known, but who have thus far been successful. Among these is Mr. Farjean. The fourth class is composed of that immense rank who are not known, and of whom nothing can be expected—ladies of fashion, whose husbands pay for the printing of books, &c.

Persons suffering from impure blood, or whose health is giving way, either as ministers or those who study closely, will find in Fellows' Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites the material to build them up and the tonic to keep them there.—Dr. Clay.

—The St. John's Paris crew have issued a challenge announcing their readiness to row any four-oared crew in England, or the United States six miles, three miles to a stake and return, for $1,000 to $2,000 a side. Race to take place at Halifax in June or July.

"Their name is Legion," may be applied to those who die annually of Consumption, although science has of late years sensibly diminished their number. It is gratifying to know that the general use of Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry is largely instrumental in attaining this end.

The crown of womanly beauty is an elegant coiffure. As this cannot be obtained without the use of some Hair Gloss or fixateur, even by the most skilful artiste, how much should the ladies feel themselves indebted to the inventor of the Great Hair Dressing of the age. Coco-Glycerine, which nourishes and beautifies the Hair, is delightfully perfumed, and leaves no stain on the gentlemen's waistcoats. Ask for Coco-Glycerine. 14

☞ A common cough or cold should never be trifled with, often when neglected it is converted into a serious and generally fatal pulmonary disease. The more prudent, aware of this, promptly use "Bryan's Pulmonic Wafers" a curative which has sustained its reputation for over twenty years—they are always efficacious and exert a most beneficial influence on all the Bronchial and Pulmonary organs. Sold by all Druggists and country dealers. Price 25 cts. per box.

☞ Thousands of people are now carelessly allowing themselves to drift through the preliminary symptoms of consumption under the fatal delusion that they are troubled with nothing but "a slight cold." How necessary is it, then, that a cold should be cared for from its incipiency, and every exertion used to get rid of it. "Bryan's Pulmonic Wafers" will stop the hacking cough in a few minutes, and by their influence on the bronchial and pulmonary organs all fears of dangerous results will soon be dissipated—but they must be taken in time. Sold by all Druggists and country dealers. Price 25 cents per box.

We understand that the whooping-cough is quite prevalent in the towns around us; but that no cases have proved fatal. Some farmers use nothing but Johnson's Anodyne Liniment. Our doctor, however, says a little ipicate, to produce vomiting, would be an advantage.

There are more than one thousand different kinds of pills in the United States. Some of them are worthless and injurious, others are good and beneficial. Old Dr. Parsons invented the best anti-bilious pill we ever saw or heard of. They are now sold under the name of Parsons' Purgative Pills.

The Horse.—"Of the great number of animals under the control of man, the horse is unquestionably the most serviceable;" but is it not strange that so many who own horses, and who are dependent on their labor for a living, should neglect to give them that care and attention which their own interest no less than the safety and comfort of the horse demands. The best medicine for horses is "Darley's Condition Powders and Arabian Heave Remedy;" of this there can be no doubt—it is safe and easily given. Remember the name, and see that the signature of Hurd & Co., is on each package. Northrop & Lyman, Newcastle, Ont., proprietors for Canada. Sold by all medicine dealers.

The great superiority of Dr. Wheeler's Compound Elixir of Phosphates and Calisaya over all other remedies consists in its being purely physiological in its action, being composed only of ingredients that enter into the formation of the system, and in such carefully adjusted proportions as are readily absorbed and assimilated: It supplies the waste constantly going on from the decomposition of tissues, as the result of mental and physical exertion, and prevents nervous prostration and general debility. For building up constitutions of low vitality, depending upon hereditary influences or irregular habits, is has no equal, as it immediately imparts energy to the organs of nutrition, and creates healthy blood. Its toning, vitalizing power is felt at once, and it builds up diseased structures radically in the same manner as our daily food, with no liability of relapse. Sold by all druggists at $1.
