HALL'S
Vegetable Sicilian Hair Renewer
Every year increases the popularity of this valuable Hair Preparation, which is due to merit alone. We can assure our old patrons that it is kept fully up to its high standard, and to those who have never used it we can confidently say, that it is the only reliable and perfected preparation to restore GRAY OR FADED HAIR to its youthful color, making it soft, lustrous, and silken; the scalp, by its use, becomes white and clean; it removes all eruptions and dandruff, and by its tonic properties prevents the hair from falling out, as it stimulates and nourishes the hair glands. By its use the hair grows thicker and stronger. In baldness it restores the capillary glands to their normal vigor, and will create a new growth except in extreme old age. It is the most economical HAIR DRESSING ever used, as it requires fewer applications, and gives the hair that splendid glossy appearance so much admired by all. A. A. Hayes, M.D., State Assayer of Mass., says, "the constituents are pure and carefully selected for excellent quality, and I consider it the BEST PREPARATION for its intended purposes." We publish a treatise on the hair, which we send free by mail upon application, which contains commendatory notices from clergymen, physicians, the press, and others. We have made the study of the hair and its diseases a specialty for years, and know that we make the most effective preparation for the restoration and the preservation of the hair, extant, and so acknowledged by the best Medical and Chemical Authority.

WEDNESDAY EVENING, MARCH 13, 1872.

The Independent Farmer.

Let sailors sing of the windy deep,
Let the soldiers praise their armor,
But in my heart this toast I'll keep—
The Independent Farmer.
When first the rose, in robe of green,
Unfolds its crimson lining,
And round his cottage porch is seen
The honeysuckle clinging;
When banks of bloom their sweetness yield
To bees their gathering honey,
He drives his team across the field,
When skies are soft and sunny.

The blackbird clucks behind the plow,
The quail pipes loud and clearly,
Yon orchard hides behind its bough,
The home he loves so dearly;
The gay old barn doors unfold
His ample store in measure,
More rich than heaps of hoarded gold,
A precious, blessed treasure;
While yonder in the porch there stands
His wife, the lovely charmer,
The sweetest rose on his lands—
The Independent Farmer.

To him the Spring comes dancingly,
To him the Summer blushes;
The Autumn smiles with mellow ray,
His sleep old Winter hushes.
He cares not how the world may move,
No doubts nor fears confound him,
His little flock is linked in love,
His household angels round him;
He trusts to God and loves his wife,
Nor griefs nor ills may harm her,
He's nature's nobleman in life—
The Independent Farmer.

How Small Expenditures Count.

Five cents each morning.—A mere trifle. Not thirty-five cents per week. Not much; yet it would buy coffee or sugar for a whole family, $18.20 cents a year. And this amount invested in a savings bank at the end of each year, and the interest thereon at six per cent. computed annually, would in twelve years amount to more than $670. Enough to buy a good farm in the west.

Five cents before breakfast, dinner and supper; you'd hardly miss it, yet 'tis fifteen cents a day; $1.05 a week. Enough to buy a wife or daughter a dress, $54.60 a year. Enough to buy a small library of books. Invest this as before, and in twenty years you would have over $2,000. Enough to buy a good house and lot.

Ten cents each morning; hardly worth a second thought; yet with it you can buy a paper of pins and a spool of thread. Seventy cents a week; 'twould buy several yards of muslin. $36.50 in one year. Deposit in this amount as before, and you would have $1,340 in twenty years, quite a snug little fortune. Ten cents before each breakfast, dinner and supper—thirty cents a day. It would buy a book for the children. $2.20 a week; enough to pay a year's subscription to a good newspaper, $109.20 a year, with it you could buy a melodeon on which your wife or daughter could produce sweet music to pleasantly while the evening hours away. And this amount, invested as before, would in forty years, produce the desirable amount of $5,000.

Boys, learn a lesson. If you would be a happy youth, lead a sober life, and be a wealthy and influential man. Instead of squandering your extra change invest in a library or savings bank.

If you would be a miserable youth, lead a drunken life, abuse your wife, be a wretched and despicable being while you live, and finally go down to a dishonored grave, take your extra change and invest it in a drinking saloon.

Revival in India.—The Rev. J. Allcock, an ordained missionary of the Church of England, labouring at Baddegama, Ceylon, says: "God wonderfully blessed our week of special services held at Baddegama. Once a year all the agents and Church members have been in the habit of meeting at Baddegama for prayer and edification, and expounding the Scriptures. This year they met in September, and a most remarkable revival of religion took place. By the providence of God, a good American brother, Mr. Taylor, was led to Ceylon and Baddegama, and he wrought with us most cordially and successfully. Many of our Christian people received light and comfort; and many careless, fruitless Christians and Budhists were truly converted. I never witnessed such a gracious work of the Holy Spirit before. A large number of children seemed to be pricked to the heart, and to embrace Christ; and some little ones have been the means of leading their aged parents to Jesus." Another clergyman, after quoting the above extract, suggests pastors, both European and native, missionaries and chaplains of all denominations throughout the Presidency, should take advantage of Mr. Taylor's present stay at Bombay, and allow the members of their different congregations to hear the truth from his lips.

Mr. Gladstone and His Work.—The London correspondent of the Western Morning News, has the following remarks on Mr. Gladstone's personal appearance: "How worn Gladstone looks, is the remark that one hears on all sides. "Is there not many causes? Is it nothing that every election which has taken place since the recess has gone against the Government, except in one instance, and that in this instance, a law officer of the Crown was sayed so as by fire, and through a schism in the Conservative ranks. Is it a light thing that the standard of revolt has been raised by an important section of his followers, and that in consequence his "moderate supporters are dropping from him, and allowing one of the most important and most Liberal constituencies in the kingdom to be won by the enemy? Is it a small matter that as fast as vacancies occur in Ireland they are being filled up by candidates who are to do their utmost to repeal the legislative union between Great Britain and Ireland? Is it not utterly exasperating to find that the one fact upon which the Ministry most especially prided itself—the settlement of our long standing disputes with America by arbitration—should have given rise to a controversy whose results it is impossible to limit, and which may include something worse than the fall of a Ministry? "Uneasy lies the head that wears a crown," but the Sovereign's broken sleep is deep child-like slumber compared with the restless troubled dreams of the Chief Minister of such a country as England at such a time as this. His crown is a crown of thorns.

The report about the Pope going to leave Rome is now reported to be false. At a public audience on Sunday His Holiness said the existence of two powers in Rome at the same time was impossible. This seems to have been an intimation that the King or himself must leave the city.

Dr. Manning on the Education Question.—A pastoral letter has been issued by Dr. Manning, the Catholic Archbishop of Westminster, to the clergy and laity of his diocese, Quinquagesima Sunday. His grace laments that the national universities have, by modern legislation, ceased to be Christian; and, as opposed to those who advocate secular education generally, he contends that the schools of a Christian people cannot be separated without sin from the Christian church; nor can the education of a Christian people belong to the jurisdiction of the civil power. The education of France for the last 70 years, is, he says, an example of the exorbitant pretensions of the civil power to regulate the training of the young, and the state of France at this moment is a commentary on the peril of violating the rights of nature and the liberty of parents. If justice is to be done, England should have Anglican, Scotland should have Presbyterian, and Ireland should have Catholic education.

A Learned Hog.—The hog has the name of being the most stupid of animals, and yet the reputation is far from deserved; for many instances might be mentioned where a hog showed itself as tractable as the most intelligent of dogs. An English game keeper has recently broken a black sow to hunt game in the woods, and she ran in the hunt with the most wonderful success. She would break game, back and stand, and point partridges, pheasants, snipes and rabbits as skillfully as a bred pointer. She would bound in response to a whistle, and would wag her head and squeal with delight on being shown a gun.

From increased Physical and Mental strength of persons who use Fellow's Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites, their augmented faculty of endurance, the regular and healthy action of the Heart, Lungs, Stomach and Bowels, and their improved appearance, demonstrated in thousands of cases within our knowledge its power of restoring the great sympathetic and muscular system on which full and healthy developement depends, is certain.

☞ Did you ever think that what is termed a common cold, when systematically neglected, often leads to that most fatal and distressing disease—consumption—but when attended to at once is generally easy of cure. If you are troubled with a cold or cough, "Bryan's Pulmonic Wafers" will be found to be the most efficacious in removing it. They give immediate relief, and generally effect a cure when used in time. Sold by all Druggists and country dealers. Price 25 cents per box.

The crown of womanly beauty is an elegant coiffure. As this cannot be obtained without the use of some Hair Gloss or fixateur, even by the most skilful artiste, how much should the ladies feel themselves indebted to the inventor of the Great Hair Dressing of the age. Coco-Glycerine, which nourishes and beautifies the Hair, is delightfully perfumed, and leaves no stain on the gentleman's waistcoats. Ask for Coco-Glycerine. 14

There are probably a hundred or more persons in this and neighboring towns, who daily suffer from the distressing effects of kidney troubles, who do not know that Johnson's Anodyne Liniment is almost a certain cure. In severe cases, great relief may be obtained, if not a perfect cure.

We notice that the Agricultural papers all over the country recommend the use of Sheridan's Cavalry Condition Powders.—Exchange.

Farmers and others in this section have long known and appreciated the advantage of these powders over all others.

Great Condition Medicine.—As a condition medicine for Horses "Darley's Condition Powders and Arabian Heave Remedy" has no equal, its effects in this respect are astonishing; many horses that were supposed to be broken down and almost worthless, have by the use of a few packages been restored to a healthy and sound condition, all the traces of the disease having been completely removed, and have been sold for from $50 to $75 more than than they would previously have brought; when you have a horse medicine get "Darley's Condition Powders and Arabian Heave Remedy," we know you will be perfectly satisfied with the result. Remember the name and see that the signature of Hurd & Co., is on each package. Northrop & Lyman, Newcastle, Ont., proprietors for Canada. Sold by all medicine dealers.

The great superiority of Dr. Wheeler's Compound Elixir of Phosphates and Cali. says over all other remedies consists in its being purely physiological in its action, being composed only of ingredients that enter into the formation of the system, and in such carefully adjusted proportions as are readily absorbed and assimilated. It supplies the waste constantly going on from the decomposition of tissues, as the result of mental and physical exertion, and prevents nervous prostration and general debility. For building up constitutions of low vitality, depending upon hereditary influences or irregular habits, is has no equal, as it immediately imparts energy to the organs of nutrition, and creates healthy blood. Its tonic, vitalizing power is felt at once, and it builds up diseased structures radically in the same manner as our daily food, with no liability of relapse. Sold by all druggists at $1.
