WILL it be rain or snow?

A REHEARSAL for St. Mary's Concert takes place on Friday Evening.

JUDGING from present appearances the ice will bridge the harbor until April 1st.

THE express train from the West was on time this afternoon.

POLICE COURT, Wednesday.—The Temperance cause is growing when it is shown that another day passes without a case in court. This is a dies non.

FREIGHTS at Chicago are showing great activity. Every vessel in that port has been chartered for grain to Buffalo, Kingston or Oswego. Freights yesterday were quoted at 11 a 12c for corn and wheat to Buffalo, and 18 a 19c to Kingston.

TALENTED READINGS.—It is announced that Mr. Brodie, a highly talented reader, who has been delighting Ottawa audiences within the past week, will give an entertainment in Kingston next week, of which notice will be made.

SHAMROCK BENEVOLENT SOCIETY.—Last evening this flourishing society met in their Hall, Princess street, and made further preparations for the celebration next Monday. The Society is to turn out on the occasion with great spirit.

THE NEW DAILY.—We have received the prospectus of the Mail, issued to-day, and the new paper will be published at the end of the month. There will be a weekly but no evening edition for the present. It promises to give expression to the views of moderate politicians without being retained or subsidized by any one party.

THE Sharp Frost this morning is another harbinger of Spring. The cawing of the sweet voiced crow and the lay of the tuneful bullfrog are hushed for a brief season, but will rise in their full powers with the advancement of the sun's strength to verify the hazardous prediction that spring is coming.

NEW TEMPLE.—Last evening, Mr. Cameron of Queen's College delivered a Temperance lecture at Battersea, which was well attended. Afterwards a Temple of the B. A. Order of Good Templars was opened by G. W. C. Edwin Rose of Kingston. The worthy chief is Mr. Christopher Vanluven.

MILITARY SCHOOL.—The following cadets passed a successful examination at this School yesterday:—Mr. G. W. Ansell, of Kingston; Mr. J. H. Eason, of Kingston; Mr. Peter Howland, of Amherst Island; and Lieut. R. Cox, of the 48th Battalion, all receiving 2nd Class Certificates.

SONS OF TEMPERANCE SIXPENNY READING.—A first class entertainment of the above nature has been fixed for Wednesday evening, 27th inst., in the Victoria Music Hall. The proceeds are to be applied to defray expenses incurred in vacating the old Sons of Temperance building on Princess st., and fitting up the Society's new Hall in Wilson's Buildings. Apart from the commendable and immediate object of the entertainment and the strong claims which this benevolent Society has upon public sympathy, the programme in preparation will, we are sure, more than repay a visit to the Music Hall on the evening above named. The Messrs. Tandy, to whom the musical department has been assigned, will not be likely to disappoint the public expectation of a musical treat on the above occasion, more especially as they have already secured a capital staff of performers, while the literary contributions will certainly not suffer in the hands of Dr. Jarvis and Mr. McIntyre, who are we are told, pledged to look after the Readings proper. Give the Sons a good house on the 27th.

St. Patrick's Society.

An adjourned meeting of this Society was held last evening. A large number of new members was enrolled, and a considerable amount of business was dispatched. The President reported that there was every prospect of the approaching Concert being a great success as everything was progressing favourably, and he felt confident that if the weather were propitious, the Procession on next Monday would be the largest ever seen in Kingston. Several speeches were made by members of the Society, and the meeting was then adjourned till Thursday (tomorrow) evening—on which occasion a band will be in attendance. There will be a rehearsal this evening, at which the ladies and gentlemen who have kindly offered their services at the Concert on Monday night are requested to attend!

THE THIRD WITHIN A WEEK.—Another trunk horror has turned up. A box shipped on the Ohio and Baltimore Railroad, from Cincinnati to Thornton, West Virginia, was accidentally broken open in transferring at the depot, and disclosed a mutilated human body, the head, legs, arms, etc., were completely severed from the body. This kind of thing is becoming too common to be pleasant to people having weak nerves.

A Visit to Garden Island.

(To the Editor of the BRITISH WHIG.)

DEAR SIR,—Having received an invitation to visit Loyal Orange Lodge No. 1269, on Garden Island, I started at 7 P.M., in company with Bros. Chas. Livingston, C.M., and W. Robinson, M.P.P., and several other brethren. When we reached the Island the Lodge was opened, and seated around the room were over fifty of its fine statured men as you would wish to see. This Lodge is one of the largest and best conducted in the County, and is a credit to the Island. Bros. Livingston and Robinson addressed the members present, and were well received. After the Lodge was closed the members entertained the Visiting Brethren to a supper, and after all had done justice to the good things provided, the Master gave the health of Bro. W. Robinson, M.P.P., wishing that he might live long to represent the loyal old city of Kingston in the Legislative Hall of Ontario. It was received with three times three. He replied in suitable terms, and said that he was glad he had not lost the confidence they had placed in him. The next toast was the County Master, Bro. Livingston, when the speaker took occasion to remark that he (Bro. L.) had made the best District Master they ever had, and he had no doubt but that he would be a good County Master. This was received with "he is a jolly good fellow." Then followed the Visiting Brethren and L. O. L. No. 1269, which toasts were all, of course, drunk in cold water as the 'Laird of the Isle' allows no liquor to come on that fair Island. At twelve o'clock we left for home, after a very pleasant visit, and hoping soon to renew it.

I remain, yours truly,

A TRUE BLUE.

Kingston, March 8th, 1872.

A SILLY HOAX.—The chap in Halifax who concocted the silly hoax about a secret treaty for the separation of Canada from the empire will have the gratification of knowing that the report was referred to in the Imperial Parliament. Mr. Mackie, who makes colonial questions a specialty, thought worth while to call the attention of the Colonial Department to the report, and asked to have the matter set right. Mr. Hugessen, the Under Colonial Secretary, replied that he had not thought it worth while to contradict such an absurd rumor, but, out of respect to the gentleman asking the question, he would state that there was not the slightest foundation for it.

MARRYING THEM ALL IN TURN.—Debrett's Baronetage contains the following anecdote of the Gage family, a member of which has died during the past week:—"The head of this family was Edward Gage, third son of Sir John Gage, baronet of Ferle, and Lady Penelope Darcy, daughter and co-heir of Thomas, Earl Rivers. It is related of this beautiful and wealthy lady that her hand was sought in marriage by three suitors, who had determined to fight as to which should marry her. This fact coming to her knowledge she forbade them to fight, and laughingly remarked that "if they would only have patience to wait she would marry them all in turn," a promise she fulfilled, as she married, first, Sir George Trenchard, of Wolverton; secondly, Sir John Gage, of Ferle; and, thirdly, Sir William Irvay, of Ickworth—the very gentleman who had determined to fight for her. The Hengrave estate was inherited through this lady."

The Fisheries Treaty.

The Secretary of the U. S. Treasury directs Collectors of Customs to notify fishermen on the lines of the British American possessions that the provisions of the treaty with Great Britain, proclaimed July 4th, 1871, relating to fisheries, will not go into effect until the laws required to carry them into effect have been passed by Congress, Great Britain, Canada and the Legislature of Prince Edward's Island, and to warn them that their business must be carried on subject to the restrictions existing at the time of the ratification of the treaty. The Secretary states that there is reason to apprehend that the Canadian authorities will equip armed vessels to protect their inshore fisheries during the season of 1872.

Time

Beneath me flows the Rhine, and, like the stream of time, it flows amid the ruins of the past. I see myself therein, and know that I am old. Thou, too, shalt be old. Be wise in season. Like the stream of thy life runs the stream beneath us. Down from the distant Alps, out into the wide world, it bursts away like a youth from the house of his father. Broad-breasted and strong, and with earnest endeavors, like manhood, it makes itself a way through those difficult mountain passes. And at length, in old age, it falters, and its steps are weary and slow, and it sinks into the sand, and through its grave passes into the great ocean, which is its eternity. Thus shall it be with thee.—Longfellow.

GENERALITIES.

—Punch calls a sneeze a head wind.

—Trains in Nova Scotia have been five days blockaded by snow.

—They have a Christian Milk Company in New York for pure milk.

—"Maledictionary language" is charged against a western editor of high temper.

—Revolvers are now sold by the barrel, in Boston, and, of course, go off briskly.

—The Buffalo Driving Park Association offer premiums amounting to $60,000 for their annual meeting, commencing 6th August.

—We are glad to learn that Dr. Guthrie, the celebrated Presbyterian divine and writer, is likely to visit Canada in August.

—At a public audience at Rome the Pope said the misfortunes of the Church date back to 1849; he further said that the existence of two Powers in Rome was impossible.

—In order to execute repairs on the Welland Canal, the water will be drained off below Thorold, on or about the 15th inst., and will remain off until the opening of navigation.

—A Pennsylvania paper in speaking of a songstress, says: "She beats cats on high notes. There was no music or chest tone in her voice; but it was about six octaves above the screech of a lost Indian."

—A lady school teacher in Wisconsin, whose school house stands a few feet from the railroad track, allows the school a five minutes' recess every time a train of cars passes the door. She evidently wishes to reduce the number of her scholars.

—Considerable dissatisfaction exists as to the mismanagement of the Post Office at Toronto. Postmaster Leslie and staff are at loggerheads. The staff not being large enough to do the work, Leslie ordered them to work over time, and they refused, whereupon he got their salaries reduced. An investigation is demanded, as the interests of the public are suffering.
