TOWN AND COUNTRY.

TUESDAY EVEN'G, MARCH 26, 1872.

☞ SEE FIRST PAGE.

IT is dark o' nights. Very March-y.

SNOW last night, and slush to-day. Spring forever!

THE Board of Trade is called together for Thursday evening.

RAIN, slush and slop. What a day is this, my countrymen!

POLICE COURT.—This morning there were no cases, two charges of disorderly conduct having been settled.

LOOK to the sewers or drains about your premises, and see that they are open and prepare for the spring deluge.

HOLY WEEK.—The Churches are being well attended.

THE BETS on the opening of the navigation seas on before the 18th of April are increasing.

THE announcement of Prof. Goldwin Smith's lecture will be found in another column.

HISTORICAL.—The 25th March is noted in Canadian History as the day on which Sir C. Metcalf landed at Kingston, 1843.

IS IT ANY COMFORT to know that the March of 1772, just a century ago, was very much such a cold, blustering month as the we are now shivering through?

THEY are for ever ashamed of and dissatisfied with their name. It is no longer the "Moderate Conservative" party, but the "National Conservative."

GARDEN ISLAND leads the County in the Temperance movement. Mr. Capper had a large audience there on Saturday evening.

THE STABBING AFFRAY.—To-day this case was settled without the intervention of the Court, the injured woman withdrawing the charge. The whole crowd should have been punished for disorderly conduct.

IF there is an idle house to rent in town there are fifty house-seekers in town who would be glad to learn of its address. Times are not as they were; it is hard to get a residence now to please. The best are held on by present occupants.

THE ASSIZES.—The civil docket contains the following cases:—Kiernan vs. Spellman, Scrivens vs. Sharman, Britton vs. Waddell, Whelan vs. Nichols, Browne vs. Lester, Power vs. Tolman, Shearer vs. Bockus, Mullarky vs. Hope, Leslie vs. Hooper, McFadden vs. McFadden, Grimshaw vs. Irwin, Offord vs. Roblin, Storms vs. Farmers Ins. Co., Wilson vs. Stevenson, Chaffey vs. Platt, McGuire vs. Mills, Border vs. Burley, Sears vs. Blacaby, Baingan vs. Keegan, Sylvester vs. Norris.

OUR RIFLE MEN AT WIMBLEDON.—The receipt of Col. Skinner's Report of the doings of the Ontario Team at Wimbledon suggests the publication of a correct record of their score in the Imperial Challenge Cup Prize, especially since two Kingston Volunteers, members of the Team, figured in the match so prominently. This was the most important of all the matches, and the Canadians acquitted themselves with credit:—

Pic-Nics.

It is no wonder that the Mail refuses to be called a Conservative organ, for the party has evidently become imbecile. Whatever it attempts to do it bungles. Last summer it sought imitate the Reformers in the matter of political pic-nics, and it failed most dismally. The Conservatives are now trying conventions, but, in their hands, conventions do most damage to those who hold them. They had one in Cardwell, which resulted in a candidate being nominated by a minority of the members. Another convention was held recently in Brantford, at which no candidate at all was nominated, and only five committee men appointed, to the intense disgust of the Conservative organ, which thought that there ought to have been at least seventy-five of that article. And now they have been doing the same kind of work in Kent. A Liberal Conservative Convention was called to meet in Chatham on Thursday of last week, but only eight or ten of the faithful put in an appearance. It was called again for Wednesday, when the number present was still less, and all the leaders were absent. The apathy must be like the small-pox—contagious—for it has broken out in the Conservative ranks all over Ontario.—Hamilton Times.

THE ATLANTIC STEAMSHIPS

The following is a complete list of the lines and number of vessels running from American ports to Europe in 1870, showing also the date of the establishment of each line. It will be observed that out of the 21 lines of steamships 13 are British, including the Allan line. There is only one American Company, and this composed of four steamers.

1840. Allan Line (Canadian,) 20 steamers, from Montreal and Quebec to Liverpool.

1860. Allan Line (Canadian), 4 steamers, from Baltimore to Halifax and Liverpool.

1856. Anchor Line (British), 18 steamers, from New York to Londonderry and Glasgow.

1856. Anchor Line (British), 12 steamers, from New York to Marseilles, &c.

1871. Baltic Lloyd's (German), 5 steamers, from New York to Copenhagen and Stettin.

1840. Cunard Line (British), 24 steamers, from New York to Cork and Liverpool.

1865. French Line, 6 steamers, from New York to Brest and Havre.

1855. Hamburg Line (German), three steamers, from New Orleans to Havre and Hamburg.

1855. Hamburg line (German), 15 steamers, from New York to Hamburg.

1851. Inman Line (British), 16 steamers, from New York to Queenstown and Liverpool.

1866. Liverpool and Great Western (British), 10 steamers, from New York to Queenstown and Liverpool.

1866. Liverpool Southern (British), 8 steamers, from New Orleans to Liverpool.

1866. Liverpool and Mississippi (British), 6 steamers, from New Orleans to Liverpool.

1869. London New York (British), 4 steamers, from New York to London.

1869. London Line (British) 4 steamers, from Montreal and Quebec to London.

1864. National Line (British) 12 steamers, from New York to Cork and Liverpool.

1856. North German (Lloyd's) 14 steamers, from New York to Southampton and Bremen.

1856. North German (Lloyd's) 4 steamers, from Baltimore to Bremen.

1855. North German (Lloyd's), 5 steamers, from New Orleans to Havre and Bremen.

1871. White Star Line (British), 6 steamers, from New York to Queenstown and Liverpool.

1872. American S. S. Co., 4 steamers, from Philadelphia to Liverpool.

CURRENCY.

Over 150 "sick" poems were produced in England over the illness of the Prince of Wales.

It is said that Lord Courtenay, eldest son of the Earl of Devon, has joined the Church of Rome.

At Fairfield, Conn., carriages are made entirely of india-rubber, excepting the axles and tires.

A writer in the London press says that the habits of the best workmen of the metropolis are extremely dissipated. Beer and gin are the trouble.

Women under the name of "assistant pastors" do pastoral and missionary work for several of the St. Louis churches, and receive compensation therefor.

In order to frighten the Saints into morality, the report is industriously circulated that the St. Catharines houses of ill-fame are infected with small-pox.

He who has struck his colors to the power of an evil habit, has surrendered himself to the power of an enemy bound by no article of faith, and of whom he can expect only the vilest treatment.

It is not the quantity, but the quality of our knowledge that is of the most importance. A few great ideas, firmly grasped and vitalized in the life, will produce a finer intellect and a more expansive nature than volumes of mere information and detail.

Portsmouth, the native town of Charles Dickens, refused to contribute towards a memorial to him, his special offense having been something he said in his will which Portsmouth is not ready to overlook. The committee did not even raise enough there to pay their expenses. A prophet has no honor in his own country.

A Georgia colored lyceum discussed the question, "Which was the most useful, paper or gunpowder?" The debate was closed by a disputant who spoke as follows: "Mr. President—Spose dar was a bar out dar at de door, and you was to go dar and shake de paper at him, you'd see what de bar would do. But jeas shoot a cannon at him and mark de result. I calls for de question." The President forthwith decided in favor of powder.

LIKE A TICKBORNE.—Ottawa just now boasts of something like a Tickborne mystery. About a month ago there appeared among the nabobs at the Capital a prepossessing looking individual, representing himself to be Capt. Arthur Herbert Kennedy, son of Sir Arthur Kennedy, Governor of one of Her Majesty's African colonies. This announcement created a flutter, for the Ottawaites are proud of their aristocratic privileges, and the new comer was an object of much concern. But unfortunately for the Captain he has been on a continued spree ever since arriving, and has conducted himself in such unaristocratic a manner as to necessitate his arrest. Developments are expected to follow.

IN GENERAL.

London is disturbed by reports of small-pox in the city.

Letters appear in the Chicago papers warning persons against going to that city in search of employment.

The English-speaking Catholics have under contemplation the erection of a magnificent church in Winnipeg during the coming summer.

Col. Earl, for many years Military Secretary in Canada, has been appointed to the same office on the Staff of Lord Northbrook, the newly appointed Governor General of India.

The proposed Roman Catholic mission to the freedmen of this country is stirring up the Protestant denominations in the South to increased activity among the colored people.

On the night of the twentieth, some parties unknown broke into the Wesleyan Methodist church at Foresyt, Ont., and destroyed the organ. This is the second time the church has been broken into for that purpose.

An expedition of surveyors will leave Toronto in a few days for the Manitoba country, for the purpose of blocking out and running lines for new townships. The party will probably be in charge of Col. Dennis.

The trains on the Belleville and Southern Illinois R.R. have been stoned lately, and the lives of the passengers endangered by a gang of scoundrels near Pinckneyville. Two men were arrested in the act, and while being searched by the City Marshall, one of them drew a knife and stabbed him, inflicting a wound 3 inches long, whereupon the marshall shot the desperado dead.

THE GRAND JUNCTION RAILROAD.—The construction of the Grand Junction Railway from Belleville to Lindsay is now beyond a doubt, the basis of a contract having been entered into and signed between Messrs. Brooks, Ryan & Co., and the Grand Junction Board, at price within the means of the Company. The construction is to commence by the 15th April, and the contracting rate is $15,000 to $16,000 a mile.

A FRIEND INDEED

Queen Victoria has proved to the ex-Emperor of France that she can be "a friend in need," and therefore a friend indeed. Upon Thanksgiving day the distinguished exile and his wife and son breakfasted with the Queen; Napoleon stepped upon the Palace balcony to salute the Queen, and was greeted with the utmost enthusiasm. There is something pleasing in the treatment which the English populace have accorded to the "Nephew of his uncle" since he came amongst them an exile and a fugitive. No matter what we may think of the man himself, or how lightly we may estimate the cheering of crowds amongst whom cheering is contagious, we cannot but admit that there is something essentially generous in such conduct towards a fallen lion, for whom the rest of the world have not even the poor consolation of pity. Queen Victoria's kindness to her erstwhile royal cousins also reveals a generous trait of character. Time was when an exiled monarch could find no colder quarters than in the courts of his former peers, and this instance goes to prove that royal courtesies are not always the hollow formalities which they are popularly presumed to be.—Standard.

A REASON.—It is positively announced that in those countries where Friday has been substituted for Saturday for pay-day, drunkenness has greatly decreased. If this be so the sooner the change is made in Canada the better—it will do thousands a great deal of good, and nobody any harm.

CHICAGO ELEVATORS.—It is stated that the elevators now in course of construction and to be ready for the fall grain trade will have a total capacity of three and a half million bushels, or over a million more than before the fire. In addition to this the erection of new elevators will swell the total to several millions more.

SOUTH WENTWORTH.—Mr. Joseph Rymal, M.P.P., has again been chosen unanimously by a large meeting of the Reformers of South Wentworth as their candidate at the next election to the House of Commons. Mr. Rymal has represented the constituency for the past fourteen years, and this renewal of confidence in him as a representative, speaks well for his past course.—Ontario.

A SMALL POX JOKE.—An incident occurred on one of the branches of the Great Western Railway the other day, which will bear production. An elderly gentleman, with several suspicious red spots on his face, entered one of the cars, and quietly took a seat. An inquisitive chap asked if he had the small-pox, and he replied "yes." There was a general scramble among those of the passengers who overheard the conversation, and the smoking car was soon crowded. The conductor peeped in and demanded how long it was since the afflicted individual had recovered. "Well, sir," replied the victim of the disease, "I cannot say exactly, but as near as I can recollect, it was about 25 years ago."
