After I'm Dead.

Sorrow will last but for a day,
After I'm dead.
Some will forget in turning away
From the inanimate, pulseless clay;
Others will sorrow but for a day,
After I'm dead.

Some will speak of the good deeds done,
After I'm dead;
Others converse of my faults alone,
Wonder where such a spirit has flown;
One will remember with love—but one
After I'm dead.

Foes will hide their malice with sighs,
After I'm dead;
Hypocrites wipe the tears from their eyes,
Wolves appear at my grave in disguise,
Forgetting all their slanders and lies,
After I'm dead;

Friends will shudder when I am laid,
After I'm dead.
Under a drooping willow tree's shade,
In a bed by no loving hand made;
Then from their memories shall fade,
After I'm dead.

Though forgotten by all the rest,
After I'm dead,
I shall still live in one faithful breast,
One will still hold me his dearest and best,
Love will live till eternally blest,
After I'm dead.

St Vincent De Paul Society.

The Quarterly Meeting of the above Society was held in the vestry of St. Mary's Cathedral on Sunday evening. There were a large number of the friends and supporters of the Society present, including His Lordship Bishop Horan, and the Rev. Clergymen attached to the Cathedral. The Report of the Board of Directors, and also the Treasurer's Report, were read and adopted. They showed the Society to be in a very satisfactory condition, and reflect great credit on all connected with the good work. The following is the Report of the Board:—

Report of the Board of Directors of the Conference of Our Lady of the Immaculate Conception of the Society of St. Vincent de Paul.

My Lord, Rev. Gentlemen and Gentlemen:—At this, our first Quarterly Meeting held in 1872, your Board have much pleasure in announcing that since our last General Meeting the Conference, through the goodness of God, have been enabled to relieve much suffering among the deserving poor.

During the past long and very severe winter continued demands for assistance were made on the Society, which, fortunately, they were able to meet.

Your Board beg leave to state that at the commencement of the quarter they had on hand 4½ cords of wood, but owing to the severity of the winter they were compelled to purchase 22 cords more, all of which was insufficient to meet the demands on the Conference. In addition to the 26½ cords of wood, they have distributed 1,055 loaves of bread, 500 of which were the gift of the late Mr. James Davis, whose hand was ever ready, and whose purse was ever open to the appeal of charity. In his death this Society has lost one of his best members, and the poor a warm friend, but we fervently hope that our loss is his eternal gain.

The Board gratefully acknowledge the donation of fifty dollars from the Ladies' Benevolent Society. They have also to acknowledge the proceeds of a Charity Sermon delivered by the Rev. Father Langcake, amounting to $182 48. The foregoing, together with contributions from the subscribing, honorary and active members, afforded the means by which they met the many appeals made to them. The Conference assisted 52 families, numbering in all 200 individuals. The amount of money expended during the winter in wood, bread and otherwise, was $611 41, exclusive of a balance in the treasury of $50.

The crown of womanly beauty is an elegant coiffure. As this cannot be obtained without the use of some Hair Gloss or fixator, even by the most skilful artiste, how much should the ladies feel themselves indebted to the inventor of the Great Hair Dressing of the age, Lyon's Kathairon, which nourishes and beautifies the Hair, is delightfully perfumed, and leaves no stain on the goodness of wristbands. Ask for Lyon's Kathairon.

Cure Your Horses.—It is to the interest of all who own horses to keep them in a healthy and sound condition; experience has proved that Darley's Condition Powders and Arabian Heave Remedy is the most efficacious, it the most efficacious, it has been used by thousands who will cheerfully confirm this statement. For Heaves, Coughs, Colds, and all diseases which affect the wind of horses it has no equal, nor is it equalled as a 'condition medicine'; it purifies the blood, corrects and improves the appetite, and softens the skin; in fact, so great is the improvement in the condition and appearance of the animal as to have led many to doubt if it could be the same horse. Remember the name, and see that the signature of Hurd & Co. is on each package. Northrop & Lyman, Newcastle, Ont., proprietors for Canada. Sold by all medicine dealers.
