MONDAY EVEN'G, APRIL 29, 1872.

The Daisies.

I have just been learning the lesson of life,
The sad, sad lesson of loving;
And all its powers, for pleasure or pain
Been slowly, sadly proving.
And all that is left of that bright, bright dream,
In its thousand brilliant phases,
Is a handful of dust in a coffin lid,
A coffin under the daisies.
The beautiful, beautiful daisies
The snowy, snowy daisies.

And so, I'm glad that we loved as we did
Through the summer of love together,
And that one of us tired, and laid down to rest,
E'er the coming of winter weather,
For the sadness of love is love growing cold,
And 'tis one of its surest phases;
So I bless God with a breaking heart,
For that low grave strewed with daisies.

Thus for ever, o'er all the world
To love a sorrow proving;
There be many sad, sad things in life
But the saddest of all is loving,
Love often divides far wider than death
Circumstances the high wall raises,
But better far than two hearts estranged,
Is a low grave shared with daisies.

OUR BUDGET.

—Small Pox has broken out in Kemptville.

—Mr. Patrick is spoken of as a candidate for North Grenville.

—The Bible is being translated into fourteen East Indian dialects.

—Lord Inchiquin, brother to the late Wm. Smith O'Brien, is dead.

—The Apache Indians are reported to be dying by scores from small-pox.

—Sorel, April 27.—Ice still firm opposite here; men crossed to-day.

—Dr. Dollinger is delivering a course of seven lectures on the Reunion of the Christian Churches.

—Alex. Labadie, the Chatham "firebug," has been convicted and sentenced to six months' imprisonment.

—Over 500 different books have been printed in the Chinese language by the Protestant missionaries.

—Mr. William Archer Redmond, a "home-ruler," has been elected representative of the borough of Wexford, Ireland, in the British Parliament.

—The first locomotive used in England, nearly forty years ago, now stands on a pedestal at the Darlington railway station.

—The ball to be given by the British Columbia representatives on the 1st of May, at Ottawa, is intended to be a very gorgeous affair. Eight or nine hundred invitations have been issued.

—James O'Neil was released from the Rhode Island State Prison on Friday last, having served more than eight years on a life sentence for a murder of which he has recently been proved innocent by conclusive testimony.

—Things begin to look business-like on 'Change. There was considerable wheat shown to-day, also a sample of corn. There was never finer wheat in this market than is now arriving from Canada.—Oswego Press.

The Marchioness of Bute is about to receive, as a wedding gift, a magnificent tiara of seven stars, composed of the finest brilliant diamonds, from the tenantry of the Marquis on the Dumfries estate, and also presents of great value from the Bute tenantry.

—There occurred recently, in a Western town, a very strange freak of lightning. It entered a house at the bottom, and made a total wreck of everything in it except a family of six persons, who, strange to say, all escaped without injury. Even the lamp burners were torn to pieces. The house was spread apart so that the rafters fell through, and the very beds in which the family were sleeping were torn to pieces.

An Expensive Colony.

Some of the items in the public accounts respecting Manitoba are startling. Col. Cameron, Tupper's son-in-law, got $5,119 for some indefinitely-stated services in the North-West. The mission of Vicar-General Thibault and Lieut.-Col. De Salaberry cost $5,666. Bishop Tache, for traveling expenses, got $1,000. The Hon. Wm. McDougall's futile attempt to become Lieut.-Gov. of Manitoba cost the country, for "travelling expenses, furniture, tents and blankets," salary, &c.—how much, think you? The enormous sum of $14,905. No wonder the Hon. Wm. was a Sandfield man! No wonder he supports John A.'s Treaty! To transport Lt.-Gov. Archibald from Ottawa to Red River cost the country $4,247—a rather conspicuous rate of mileage. There are many other items equally scandalous. What do the merchants, farmers and mechanics of Ontario, who pay the taxes, think of these figures?—London Advertiser.

English Royalty in Rome.

The visit of the Prince and Princess of Wales to Rome, and their interview with His Holiness the Pope, are described as being remarkably interesting. The Prince captured the hearts of the Pope's attendants by refusing to enter the gates of the Vatican in Victor Emanuel's carriage. After mutual congratulations, His Holiness spoke of the instability of royal houses, but remarked to the prince, "Yours is safely anchored in the affections of a wise people." On the Prince smiling at the Pope's statements regarding the spread of Catholicity in England, His Holiness laid his hands on the royal couple and said: "Ah my children, the future has always strange surprises in store for us. Who two years ago, would have imagined that we should see a Prussian army in France. I venture to say your wisest head thought it a thousand times more likely that the Pope would be at Malta, than the Emperor Napoleon in London. And yet, you see, I am stripped of all my territories, it is true; but God, who temporarily takes away dominion, can return it an hundred fold. Is the dynasty of the head of the Church less secure? I may be driven out for a time, but when your children and grandchildren come to make visits to Rome, they will still, whether his temporal sway be greater or less, see, as you do to-day an old man, robed in white pointing the way to heaven to hundreds of millions of human consciences. If he have no subjects near home, he will have hearts far away and everywhere."

FROM QUEBEC.

Quebec, April 27.—The Chaudiere ice is cleared.

Four men who were chopping ice on the Napoleon Wharf, fell into the river and narrowly escaped drowning.

The first vessel was launched this morning.

A man named Savard, a lunatic in Beaufort Asylum, hanged himself. This is the second case of suicide there within two weeks.

Mrs. Robitaille died from an overdose of Dover's powders recommended by a druggist of Levis.

Considerable excitement was caused here last evening on account of the report that the Dominion Government had been defeated.

The Gugy-Brown case is still going on. Mr. Gugy's speech has taken up two days, and is likely to last several days more.

Hon. J. Cauchon has entered in the Superior Court an action against Dr. Roy, of Beaufort Asylum, for $20,000.

An action has been entered against Mr. Cauchon for $45,000, for kiting as member when a contractor under Government.

A Sportman.—Lord Dufferin, the successor of Lord Lisgar as Governor General of the Dominion, is an enthusiastic sportsman, being especially devoted to aquatic pursuits. He is Commodore of the Royal Ulster Yacht Club, and owner of no fewer than eight yachts, the latest addition to the "Talisman" yawl. We are glad that the future ruler of the Dominion has a love for the sports which have so largely contributed to form the British character and develop those manlier traits upon which the supremacy of England's power in the world depends.

Reliable Recipes.—For corns, easy shoes; for bile, exercise; for rheumatism, new flannel and patience; for gout, toast and water; for the toothache, a dentist; for debt, industry; and for love, matrimony.

Baron Henry Von Offenburg, the successor of Catacazy as Russian minister to the United States, will leave New York tomorrow evening for Washington.

Health is Strength.—To prevent or conquer disease is one of the grandest attainments ever ever aimed at by man; and Bryan's Pulmonic Wafers will as sure cure coughs, colds, tickling in the throat and pulmonary complaints, as war and pestilence will destroy. Severe colds if not attended to sooner or later lead to incurable consumption, and the strength of the strongest soon fails if neglected. The readiest and best means known for the cure of these complaints is "Bryan's Pulmonic Wafers," which have been thoroughly tried for the last twenty years, and have never been known to fail. Singers and public speakers will also derive great benefit from the use of them. Sold by all medicine dealers, at 25 cts. per box.

"A Wonder of Medical Science," may well be applied to Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry. It is nearly half a century since this remarkable remedy was introduced to the public, and yet the immediate and enviable reputation which it gained by its wonderful cures of coughs, colds, whooping coughs, sore throat, influenza, consumption, and all bronchial complaints, is to this day fully sustained.

"Horse-Men" and others who pretend to know, say that the following directions had better be observed in using Sheridan's Cavalry Condition Powders: Give a horse a tablespoonful every night for a week, the same every other night for 4 or 6 nights; the same for a milch cow, and twice as much for an ox. The addition of a little fine salt will be an advantage.

We have heard recently of several several severe cases of spinal disease cured by Johnson's Anodyne Liniment; one case of a man forty-five years old, who had not done a day's work for four years. The back should first be washed, then rubbed with a coarse towel. Apply the Liniment cold, and rub in well with the hand.

The crown of womanly beauty is an elegant coiffure. As this cannot be obtained without the use of some Hair Gloss or fixatoir, even by the most skilful artiste, how much should the ladies feel themselves indebted to the inventor of the Great Hair Dressing of the age. Coco-Glycerine, which nourishes and beautifies the Hair, is delightfully perfumed, and leaves no stain on the gentlemen's waistcoats. Ask for Coco-Glycerine. 14

Don't Know What to Do.—We sometimes hear persons say; my horse is sadly out of condition, and I cannot tell either what is the matter with him, or how to get him into better order; they appear to be ignorant of the fact that there is within their reach a remedy safe, sure, and effectual in all cases. Many persons who deal in horses use large quantities of it, and testify that its effects are most satisfactory. One horse dealer informs us that his horses' condition and appearance are so much improved by its use that they sell more readily for higher prices. The article is 'Darley's Condition Powders and Arabian Heave Remedy.' Nothing else is equal to it for higher prices. Remember the name, and see that the signature of Hurd & Co. is on each package. Northrop & Lyman, Newcastle, Ont., proprietors for Canada. Sold by all medicine dealers.
