TOWN AND COUNTRY.

MONDAY EVEN'G, APRIL 29, 1872.

☞ SEE FIRST AND FOURTH PAGES.

WORK is soon to begin on the Gananoque and Rideau Railroad.

POLICE COURT, Monday.—Nothing doing. Kingston was a marvel of good order on Saturday night and Sunday.

MR. JOHN BREDEN left to-day for Carleton Place, where he will have connection with the woollen mills.

CANADIAN STEAMERS.—The first steamer for Quebec this season, the Sequidnacian, Captain Ballantine, was expected to arrive to-day.

ACCORDING to the character or extent of your business, set aside a liberal percentage for advertising. Keep yourself unceasingly before the public.

THE MINSTRELS.—The New Orleans Minstrels give their first entertainment this evening in Victoria Hall. Our readers have seen in our columns how well they have been spoken off.

ST. GEORGE'S CATHEDRAL.—There was a large attendance last evening at the Cathedral, to hear the first sermon of the Revd. Mr. Muckleston. It was an excellent discourse, and is an augury of great future success in the ministry.

GRAND LODGE.—The annual meeting of the Grand Orange Lodge of British America, will be held in Montreal on the 28th May, instead of the third Tuesday in June, for the transaction of business. The annual meeting of the Provincial Grand Chapter of the Royal Black Knights of Ireland is to be held in Toronto on Tuesday, 7th May.

NEW STORE.—Mr. P. Curtis, who is well known to Kingstonians who delight in a neat, good boot, has returned to the city and opened a boot and shoe store on Brock street, below Wellington street. Mr. Curtis can always be depended on for an excellent fit, and a serviceable boot, and as he makes order work a speciality, he will undoubtedly get a large custom.

A TREAT.—We are to have a decided treat in Kingston on the 24th of May, in a visit from the Harp Choral Union of Montreal, a large body of accomplished professional and amateur vocalists and instrumentalists. They will be accompanied besides by twelve lady singers of eminence in the Jesuit and other church choirs of Montreal. Besides giving a concert, they will sing mass in the cathedral.

A NEW VISITOR.—This morning we received the first number of the Gananoque Reporter, published by Mr. Freeman Britton, in that industrial village to the east of us. It is a large sheet, and has a neat, handsome appearance, very creditable to Gananoque. We hope Mr. Britton will be successful in this new enterprise. The village is wealthy enough to support it, if the business men but do their duty towards it. Its columns do not now show a lack of advertising patronage. We hope to see Gananoque yet a city, with the Reporter as a daily paper.

THE PANORAMA.—It opens in the City Hall on Wednesday and Thursday evenings. It is one of much merit, as may be judged by the following notice from the Ottawa Free Press:

BORDWELL'S PANORAMA.—This excellent Panorama was exhibited last night in the Rink Music Hall to one of the largest audiences ever assembled there. The exhibition has much more than the merit of an ordinary panorama. The whole paintings are the work of a genuine artist, and no mere daubing got up to humbug the public. The representations of the burning of Chicago are graphic, vivid and lifelike, and have really the genuine appearance of the terrible majesty of the fire demon. The effect on the audience was a good criterion by which to judge of their merit, and the various emotions plainly visible on the faces of those present spoke volumes for the truthfulness of the scenes. The Franco-German war representations are most excellent, and gave the greatest pleasure to the audience.—Ottawa Free Press.

CURE FOR DRUNKENNESS.—There is a famous prescription in use in England, says the Springfield Republican, for the cure of drunkenness, by which thousands are said to have been assisted in recovering themselves. The Receipt came into notoriety through the efforts of John Vine Hall, father of the Rev. Newman Hall, and Capt. Vine Hall, commander of the Great Eastern steamship. He had fallen into such habitual drunkenness that his most earnest efforts to reclaim himself proved unavailing. At length he sought the advice of an eminent physician, who gave him a prescription which he followed faithful for seven months, and at the end of that time had lost all desire for liquors, although he had been for many years led captive by a most debasing appetite. The receipt, which he afterward published, and by which so many other drunkards have been assisted to reform is as follows:—"Sulphate of iron, 1 grains; magnesia, 10 grs.; peppermint water, 11 drachms; spirits of nutmeg, 1 drachm; twice a day." This preparation acts as a tonic and stimulant, and so partially supplies the place of the accustomed liquor, and prevents that absolute physical and moral prostration that follow a sudden breaking off from the use of stimulating drinks. In case where the appetite for liquors is not too strong the medicine supplies the place of the accustomed drams entirely, but Mr. Hall continued the use of liquors at first with the medicine, diminishing the amount gradually until he was able to throw away his bottle and glass altogether, after which he continued to take the medicine a month or two, till he felt that he was wholly restored to self-control, and could rejoice in a sound mind and a sound body.

Small-Pox.

Subjoined we give an extract from a chemical lecture delivered at the Homerton (Eng.) Fever Hospital by Dr. Collie, resident medical officer; and at the same time we are happy to correct the error in Saturday's Whig, that there were "four cases of small-pox in the Kingston Hospital." We are assured that the only case in that institution for months at all resembling small-pox was a very mild case of varioloid. Dr. Collie lays down the rule

"One important question may be here answered, viz., when may a small-pox patient be considered free of danger to his neighbors? This in reference to the public is a most important question, and one which requires an accurate answer. We have thought over this very carefully and believe that we have arrived at an unassailable conclusion. It is a truism to say that a healthy man cannot give to another a contagious disease; for the question at issue is, when and how a person may be certainly recognized to be in a state of health. Now you know the ordinary signs of health, a certain temperature, a quiet pulse, a clean tongue, a clear mind, &c. When you find these conditions in a small-pox patient he is in a state of health. But and this "but" is very important—certain products of disease remain for an indefinite time attached to the body. There are the scabs and the scales which follow them. When these are quite gone, your patient well washed and clean clothing put on, you may send him anywhere without let or hindrance. The practice here has been that, as a patient is ordered out of bed, he has a bath, and this is repeated every second day until he leaves the hospital. It facilitates the removal of the scabs. No person has been sent out of this hospital with a small-pox scab or scale."

We have given the above because the public are generally ignorant as to when a small-pox; or scarlet-fever, or measles convalescent ceases to endanger his neighbors; for if the rule will apply to the greater and graver disease surely it will to the lesser and milder.

The Militia.

The resignation of Major P. Geraghty as Orderly Officer to Deputy Adjutant General of Military District No. 10 is accepted.

48th "Lennox and Addington" Battalion of Infantry.—To be Assistant Surgeon John J. Clement, Esq., V.B., vice A. K. Aylsworth, whose resignation is hereby accepted.

Brevet—To be Lieut.-Colonel: Major Stephen Fairfield, 48th Battalion, from 22nd March, 1872.

LAST NIGHT'S NEWS.

Lord Northbrook, the new Viceroy of India, has arrived safely in Calcutta.

The Government of Prince Edward's Island have resigned, and a new ministry has been formed.

Miss Nellie Grant has been waited upon by the members of the Ministry and diplomatic corps in London, and has been presented to Her Majesty.

The latest intelligence received from Spain informs us that the Carlists hold no important position, and that three provinces only are now disturbed.

The claimant to the Tichborne Estate has made another request for the sum of £4,000, in order that he may be enabled to prosecute his claims afresh.

An important meeting was held in London on Saturday for the purpose of taking measures for the erection of a memorial statue of the late Earl Mayo. The Duke of Edinburg presided, and speeches were delivered by several distinguished persons.

The London Observer says the reply of Sec. Fish to Earl Granville's note of March 20th will reach Gen. Schenck to-day, and will be handed to Lord Granville. It is a lengthy document, and its tone is very amicable. The position of the American Government in regard to consequential damages is sustained.

The annual meeting of the Dominion Rifle Association takes place at Ottawa on Wednesday, the 1st of May. The Council of the Association will have a preparatory meeting. A large meeting is expected. All the Deputy-Adjutants-General of districts and Inspectors of Artillery are to assemble at Ottawa on Wednesday next, to confer with the Adjutant-General in relation to the Brigade Camps for the ensuing season.
