IT is a wonder the kite flying nuisance has not set in. Marbles are played.

SPECIAL MEETING of the Young Men's Shamrock Benevolent Society to-morrow evening. Important business.

SPRING.—This is a charming day, and there cannot be a doubt that Spring has come.

THE present bakers' strike is said by a Belleville contemporary to have had something to do with the fire in the Williamsville Bakery here last week.

Y. M. C. A.—A meeting of the members of the St. Andrews's Church Young Men's Christian Association is called for to-morrow evening.

THE Chicago Inter-Ocean announces the departure of a fleet of steam and sail vessels from Chicago, carrying nearly one million bushels of grain, principally corn.

SYNOD OF ONTARIO.—The Synod will be summoned to meet at Kingston on the first week of June. After the Synod, it is the intention of Bishop Lewis to make a confirmation tour.

ANNIVERSARY.—To-morrow being the 14th Anniversary of the Consecration of His Lordship the Bishop of Kingston, a grand Pontifical High Mass will be celebrated by His Lordship, in St. Mary's Cathedral, at 8 o'clock a.m. The choir will sing Mozart's 12th Mass.

SUMMER ARRANGEMENT.—On and after the 1st May, the fares on the Grand Trunk will be reduced to the summer rates. Return tickets will also be granted to Montreal, Belleville, Cobourg, Toronto and other points on the line. The travelling public bless the company for the new, handsome and commodious station in Kingston.

FREE ROADS.—The city and county committees will meet to-morrow afternoon to confer together upon a plan to secure the abolition of city and county tolls. We have already written more than once on the grave importance to town and country of this question, and of its settlement being approached in a liberal spirit. We hope that wise counsels will prevail in the meeting to-morrow, and a mutual desire shown to remove speedily a source of much loss and annoyance to Kingston and Frontenac.

THE NEW ORLEANS MINSTRELS.—This troupe performed at the Victoria Music Hall last evening, to an overflowing house, every piece of standing room being occupied. The performance was excellent, and fully merited the high compliments which have been paid throughout Ontario to it, and on the strength of which we preconceived a good opinion of it. The audience was highly delighted, and had a hearty succession of healthy laughing fits. The troupe is not very large, but it has first-class talent in every performer; every one is a star in his line. Miss Maud Stanley is a beautiful vocalist and received hearty ovation and loud encore. The whole music was good. Milt Barlow and Hank Goodman are a host in themselves—there are irrepressible and very provoking—you have to laugh at them so much. The cornet duetts and quartettes were highly artistic and quite a novelty. There is a merit in the troupe, too, not found in general, there is no vulgarity and a perfect control is exercised over all parts of the performance. To-night there will be another bumper house.

The New Nuisance Ground.

(To the Editor of the BRITISH WHIG.)

DEAR WHIG,—The people give you credit for being Argus-eyed; but I don't believe one word of it. Man or woman who gets the name of an early riser can sleep until ten o'clock in the day. It's so with you, or else you'd notice or inform the citizens of Kingston ere this of the location of the new nuisance ground. And, besides, it's so easy of access. And, do you know where? In front of our dear friend Barlow, of the Market Square. Come, Mr. WHIG, open your eyes. Look about you, and keep the citizens better posted, especially respecting the new nuisance ground, or they will say you have lost your spectacles, and cannot see.

Yours, &c., AN EYE-WITNESS.

Kingston, 29th April, 1872.

 Eye-Witness is late. We called attention to the matter yesterday.

TRAGEDY.

A SINGULAR FREAK—A MAD WOMAN.

DAVENPORT, IOWA, April 27.—A terrible case of infanticide and suicide occurred yesterday. The wife of H. Malakan drowned her baby, aged fourteen months, in a barrel of water and then drowned herself. When the husband came home and discovered the dead bodies of his wife and child, he went into spasms, from which he has not yet recovered. The woman was twenty-four years of age. She left a letter for her husband, telling him how good he had been to her and desiring him to follow her.

Latest Locations.

The exact location of the late George Washington's negro is out of print for a time.

The two little girls who saved, carried and piled a cord of hard-wood in four hours, are at present residing in Brampton, Ont.

The old party, aged eighty, who chopped 150 cords of hard wood and cut nearly as many saw-logs during last winter, is now living in Michigan.

Coming Lecturers.

The Buffalo Courier prints the following:—"Among the English authors and literary celebrities, Mr. Edmund Yates and Mr. James Anthony Froude, the historian, have arranged with the American Literary Bureau to visit this country this year, with a view to delivering lectures on the troubles between England and Ireland, tracing their rise, progress and causes as a historian. Mr. Yates proposes to arrive at New York about the middle of August, and visit Newport and other watering places till the close of September, when he will prepare to begin his lecturing tour. He has four lectures: one "The Princes of the Pen," giving his personal reminiscences of Dickens, Thackeray, Jerrold and Tennyson; another describes "English Society," high and low life, court, city and country, London parks and the seaside—illustrated by life-size cartoons by Leech and other artists; a third describes "The British Parliament," and the fourth is a purely literary essay on various gold authors whose works are but little known. Wilkie Collins writes that he would like to visit this country, but is entirely "used up" by his vast literary labours, and must postpone his visit for one year.

In corresponding with Mr. Charles Reade it is found that his ideas of remuneration are founded upon the exceptional popularity and success of Charles Dickens in this country. To meet such ideas by any adequate offer is impracticable.

CHAIR OF LOGIC, MENTAL AND MORAL PHILOSOPHY IN MCGILL UNIVERSITY.—The Board of Governors have unanimously appointed to the above important chair, vacant by the decease of the late Prof. Forbes, the Rev. J. Clark Murray, now Professor in Queen's College, Kingston. Professor Murray is a son of Provost Murray, of Paisley, one of the most respected public men in the West of Scotland. He studied at Glasgow, Heidelberg, and Gottingen, and also in Edinburgh, under the celebrated Sir William Hamilton, in whose class he took honours. Two years after finishing his academical course he was appointed to Queen's College, where he has laboured for ten years. His work as a Professor in Queen's, and at an Examiner in the University of Toronto, has earned him a high reputation in this country, and he is known abroad as the author of an excellent outline of the philosophy of Sir William Hamilton, and as a contributor to Chamber's Cyclopedia. He has also been an active promoter of the movement for the higher education of women, and his introductory lecture to the classes for ladies in Kingston, published last year, has attracted some attention even in England. Prof. Murray will find the connection with McGill a larger field for his energy and ability, and the University will gain the services of a man of eminence in his department, and of approved skill and success as a teacher.—Montreal Gazette.

 The removal of Prof. Murray will be a decided acquisition to McGill's University. He will be greatly missed in the College here for his talents, but the people of Kingston will regret the departure of one who was socially very agreeable and very popular.

Navigation at Port Colborne.

The opening of navigation at the above port for fourteen seasons have been as follows:—

1859, April 1	Vessels arrive.
1860, April 16	Schr. Elk.
1861, April 16	Prof. Vernont.
1862, April 4	Vessels depart.
1863, April 5	Schr. Lewis Wells.
1864, April 13	Prop. Michigan.
1865, April 17	Prop. Granite State.
1866, April 23	Prop. Prairie State.
1867, April 18	Prop. Empire.
1868, April 1	Prop. Henry Howard.
1869, April 23	Prop. City of Concord.
1870, April 20	Schr. J. B. Penfield.
1871, March 28	Schr. M. L. Collins.
1872, April 21	Prop. City of Toledo.

It will be seen that the latest opening at that point for the past fourteen years was April 23, 1866, and also same date in 1869.

MILITIA CAMP AT LAPRAIRIE.—We learn that the Militia authorities at Ottawa have determined to have a renewal this summer of the volunteer militia camps of last year. At present there are two permanent artillery corps, each of about 100 men, on duty in Ontario and Quebec. These corps it was contemplated to increase to the full strength of regular battalions, 500; and in a measure to abandon, consequently, the expenses of keeping up the present numerous volunteer militia corps, thus leaving the general question of national defense for future consideration. However, the idea of having two corps as a standing army for the Dominion has been, for the present, given up, and the volunteer camps are to be held this summer at the same places as last year. The camp for Montreal and country districts will be held at Laprairie, commencing on the last week in July and ending about the middle of August, being a month later in the season than last year, so that the camp duties will not interfere with the farmers, who were last year called to camp in the middle of their seed sowing.—Witness.

YACHTING.—Mr. Ashbury, the owner of the yacht which last year unsuccessfully strove to carry back to England the cup won by the America, has another yacht being built, to be named the Iona, from which great things are expected. She is 69 feet long, with a beam of 14 ft. 6 in., and draws about 11 feet. She is to be rigged as a cutter, and will be sailed by the captain of the Livonia. It appears probable that Mr. Ashbury will be induced to make another trial for the cup with his new craft.
