"Keep the Ball Rolling."

Blith as a cricket,
Batting or bowling,
Watching your wicket,
Keep the ball rolling.
Work away steadily,
Doing good readily,
No indolent lagging,
No boasting, no bragging—
No idle demurring,
Each daily task slurring.
Blith as a cricket,
Batting or bowling,
Watching your wicket,
Keep the ball rolling.

Keep the ball rolling,
Never complaining—
Honour extolling,
Honour attaining.
Ever the dutiful,
Full of the beautiful—
Send the sparks flying
Where shadows are lying,
Rubbing the rust away,
Driving the dust away.
Blith as a cricket,
Batting or bowling,
Watching your wicket,
Keep the ball rolling.

Keep the ball rolling,
The moments are flying,
The death bell is tolling—
The bravest are dying.
Work away steadily,
Doing good readily.
From heaven to ocean
All things are in motion,
Life's great law obeying,
Never delaying.
Blith as a cricket,
Batting or bowling,
Watching your wicket,
Keep the ball rolling.

THE GLADSTONE CABINET.
A CERTAIN DEFEAT IN STORE.
(Mercury.)
By last advices from England the Gladstone Government was in peril of a defeat. There can be no doubt that the Conservative forces are daily being recruited from the Liberal party, and a non-confidence vote may at any time be passed. The Alabama question is one which will particularly test the strength of the Gladstone party. As in the United States, so in England many pretend that the Government has been outwitted, and that the question of indirect damages will have to be admitted, the American Government having succeeded in getting to the weather side of John Bull. Very few Governments effected such daring changes as the present, and few premiers have acted with such fearlessness as Mr. Gladstone. His army bill was one of sweeping Reform, and required unflinching action, and Mr. Gladstone was found equal to the task of even compelling Her Majesty to assert a prerogative rarely if ever resorted to. The disestablishment of the Irish Church was another sweeping reform, which many thought could never be carried through without the downfall of the Government attempting it; but this Mr. Gladstone successfully performed, and remained at the head of even a stronger party. His colonial policy has been again and again commented on, but from its inauguration Gladstone has persisted therein, and now the colonies remain without an English soldier to defend them. These three actions of the Gladstone Government—the army bill, the disestablishment of the Irish Church, and the colonial policy—have caused much opposition, and this is now apparently bearing fruit in the growing power of the Conservatives evidenced by the grand receptions lately accorded to Lord Derby in Liverpool and Mr. Disraeli in Manchester, the hot-bed of Liberalism, and the scene of the triumphs of John Bright.

Report of Immigration

We have received the annual report of the Commissioner of Agriculture and Public Works for the Province of Ontario on Immigration for 1871. From this report the following figures, showing the arrival of Immigration in the Province for the years 1869-70-71, will be found interesting:

	1869.	1870.	1871.
Ottawa	752	1,549	981
Kingston	401	2,522	3,335
Toronto	29,042	29,777	25,591
Hamilton	30,814	26,459	27,828
Total	61,009	60,307	57,735

Of the above arrivals, the number of immigrants who remained in the Province of Ontario are set down as follows:

	1869.	1870.	1871.
Ottawa	746	1,333	974
Kingston	381	2,458	3,313
Toronto	9,174	13,256	11,185
Hamilton	5,592	8,243	10,370
Total	15,893	25,290	25,842

This shows that while there has been a falling off in the gross number of arrivals, a greater proportion of those who came did so with the intention of remaining in the Province. The increase in this respect in 1870 over 1869 was 9,397; and in 1871 over 1869, 9,949.

PLEASANT WEDDING.—A Paris correspondent relates the story of a sad wedding party in that city. The whole party came out of the church weeping. The bride wept, the mother wept, the company wept, and the groom wept more copiously than all combined. The only persons who did not weep were four men and a child. The child was born out of wedlock, and to give it a name, its parents had married before they parted forever. The groom was a young clerk, sentenced to transportation for forgery, and he was to leave the following morning. The four men who accompanied him were police agents, ordered to go with him to church and to the mayor's office, and to bring him safe back to prison, once the marriage was celebrated.

DOMINION OCEAN TELEGRAPHY.—The Hon. John Young has, by petition to Parliament, sought to extend an Act granted to him and associates in Copenhagen and London some time ago, for the purpose of laying down an Ocean Telegraph Cable from the North of Scotland to the St. Lawrence, via the Danish possessions of Faroe Islands and Iceland. If this project can be carried out of securing direct telegraphic communication between the Dominion of Canada and England, no one can doubt its vast advantage to the general and mercantile interests of this country.—Gazette.

WESTERN MARINE.

Seamen out of Milwaukee are receiving $1.75 in the lumber and wood-trade, and $2.00 per day in the grain trade.

Toledo—Lake freights are dull, the only charter reported being the the schooner Tim Baker, for Kingston at 9c on corn.

Port of Toledo—Cleared—Schr. S. D. Hungerford, Oswego, corn; Schr. T. R. Rice, Oswego, wheat; Schr. J. F. Gilmore, Oswego, corn; Barque Clyde, Kingston, 16,000 bu corn.

Ashore and off.—The schooner Guiding Star, soon after leaving the Welland Canal Saturday, went ashore at Morgan's Point. Tugs were sent to her relief until they numbered some three or four, when she was got afloat without sustaining serious damages. She has since arrived in the Detroit River.

A CLEVER ROBBERY.—A most daring and successful robbery was lately effected at St. Petersburg, Russia. A person drove up to one of what are called the magazines of that city, used for the storing and sale of jewelry, and went in and asked to be shown some diamond necklaces. The party, so goes the correspondent's story, looked and was dressed precisely as the Chief of Police—in fact, the very equipage in which he came and rode was the facsimile of the Chief's. On being shown the necklaces he selected one worth about 40,000 roubles, was allowed to take it with him, and requested the bill to be sent around the next afternoon to his residence, where it would be settled. The next afternoon, on a bill for such an article being presented to the Chief, he was thunderstruck, and unanimously disclaimed all knowledge of the affair, and proved by his servants that he was at home at the time the robbery was effected. His coachman also testified that at that time the horses were in the stable. The Chief requested the matter to be kept quiet, in order, if possible, that he might unravel the affair; but there is no doubt the robber was able to leave the country and thus baffle all inquiry and pursuit.

A QUESTION FOR PHYSICIANS.—Can a building retain small-pox virus for seventy years? In the year of 1799 several cases of small-pox, occurred in Belfast, and a dwelling near the village of Hoosick Falls was used as a pest-house. Seventy years afterwards the house (having been occupied all that time as a dwelling, with no case of small-pox, or other unusual sickness,) was repaired. One of the workmen employed on the repairs was taken down with a disease which proved to be malignant small-pox, to which he had been not otherwise exposed than by working on this old pest house. If small-pox virus can be retained for seventy years in the walls, floors, ceiling, or furniture of a dwelling house, greater care and more stringent measures will be necessary to insure protection from this loathsome disease.

DISESTABLISHMENT.—This is a word the Premier seems very fond of. It is doubtful, however, whether he would much approve of Disay's 'stablishment on the Treasury bench.

Why is Sir C. Dilke the fittest man to deal with questions requiring tact and ceremony?—Because he is the civilest (Civil List) member of the House of Commons.

To whom are ladies indebted for the invention of veils?—To their common ancestress, Eve, who is acknowledged to have originated "the Fall."—Hornet.

"A Wonder of Medical Science," may well be applied to Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry. It is nearly half a century since this remarkable remedy was introduced to the public, and yet the immediate and enviable reputation which it gained by its wonderful cures of coughs, colds, whooping coughs, sore throat, influenza, consumption, and all bronchial complaints, is to this day fully sustained.

The crown of womanly beauty is an elegant coiffure. As this cannot be obtained without the use of some Hair Gloss or lixateur, even by the most skilful artiste, how much should the ladies feel themselves indebted to the inventor of the Great Hair Dressing of the age. Coco-Glycerine, which nourishes and beautifies the Hair, is delightfully perfumed, and leaves no stain on the gentleman's waistcoats. Ask for Coco-Glycerine. 14

We should not hesitate to recommend to any friends of ours, Parsons' Purgative Pills; they are scientifically prepared, and are adapted to all the purposes of a good purgative medicine.

Decidedly the best remedy that has ever been discovered for rheumatism, swollen or stiff joints, flesh wounds, sprains, bruises, cuts, and burns, is Johnson's Anodyne Liniment. We use it, and always recommend it to our friends.

Health is Strength.—To prevent or conquer disease is one of the grandest attainments ever ever aimed at by man; and Bryan's Pulmonic Wafers will as sure cure coughs, colds, tickling in the throat and pulmonary complaints, as war and pestilence will destroy. Severe colds if not attended to sooner or later lead to incurable consumption, and the strength of the strongest soon fails if neglected. The readiest and best remedy known for the cure of these complaints is "Bryan's Pulmonic Wafers," which have been thoroughly tried for the last twenty years, and have never been known to fail. Singers and public speakers will also derive great benefit from the use of them. Sold by all medicine dealers, at 25 cts. per box.

Wooly Horses.—Wooly horses are not so rare as many suppose, not such great curiosities either, there are many to be found in various parts of the country, but we doubt if they will ever prove as valuable to their owners as the one exhibited by Barnum; we imagine their owners would consider them more valuable without the wool, for this rough and spoly state of the hair indicates that the horse is not in a healthy condition—probably hide bound, or suffering from some disease which occasions this unnatural appearance; in such cases use 'Darley's Condition Powders and Arabian Heave Remedy,' it will purify the blood, correct the appetite, remove all obstructions from the lungs and liver, and give to the coat a sleek and shining appearance. Remember the name, and see that the signature of Hurd & Co. is on each package. Northrop & Lyman, Newcastle, Ont., proprietors for Canada. Sold by all medicine dealers.
