MONDAY EVENING, MAY 6, 1872.

☞ SEE FIRST AND FOURTH PAGES.

PERSONAL.—Mr. Frederick Boscovitz arrived at the British American Hotel today. Mr. G. A. Kirkpatrick, M.P., returned to Ottawa this afternoon.

THIS is one of the days we have been long grieving for; and it is so delightful to have it at last. It is sunny, and warm, and there is new hope infused into spring life. It is sweet to live, in fact.

REWARD.—The gaoler of Napanee offers a reward of $50 for the apprehension of Mary Finn, who escaped from his institution the night. No description of her is given in the bills. Does he really want to catch her?

THE LOW WATER.—The accidents are increasing. The Prop. Dominion struck in the Beauharnois Canal as she was coming up, and had to be repaired here yesterday. There was a report in town of the sinking of the Str. Osprey, but it was groundless.

WATSON'S COMBINATION.—It is coming on Wednesday and Thursday evenings, and is certain to create a sensation. The troupe is well remembered from its performances here last Fall, and having been strengthened by new additions to its talent, will now present a capital programme.

ASCENSION DAY.—Thursday next being Ascension Day, a special service will be held at St. Paul's Church at half-past seven p.m. The Revd. Mr. Muckleston will preach on the occasion, and a collection in aid of the Building Fund will be taken up. All seats free. Service will be held at St. James' Church on the same evening at 7:30, and the Wednesday evening service will not take place in consequence.

THE RAREST TREAT.—The Concert of Mr. Boscovitz to-morrow evening will be one in a hundred. In a professional point we have had none like it for a long time. All that is beautiful in music is said to be in the power of this great performer to produce from the piano forte. Those who do not attend the Concert will miss a treat that can rarely be obtained here, for first class artists do not often visit Canada much less Kingston. We hope the city will give evidence of its musical taste to-morrow evening.

VANDALISM.—Mr. Thomas L. Wilson has this spring planted fifty trees in front of his farm at the Cataraqui Race course. This is very commendable on his part, as it shows taste and spirit. But his good work has been almost destroyed by some mischievous persons, who at night pull up trees after they are set down. One morning fourteen of them were found taken out and broken on the road. There is a law to punish severely those who destroy shade trees, and it will be enforced if the perpetrator is caught.

POLICE COURT, Monday.—Policeman Lane says she was the toughest case he ever handled. Her name was Rose Ann Callaghan. She was drunk and disorderly, and scratched him awfully. But tearing his trousers and coat was worse. She begged hard this morning and was released. Bridget Hayden, drunk, was back, and got 15 days. There were three cases of selling liquor without license. One it was proved had taken out the parchment, and two more were given time to do so.

A NEW STRIKE.—Strikes are the order of the day, and, as nine hours men have it, of the hour to. The latest development of the union movement is among the owners of the mosquito fleet on the Rideau Canal. They want to lengthen their bills, and draw more blood from the wood contracters and dealers. This spring they agreed on a tariff of carrying charges, nearly doubling the rates of last year, from all points of wood and lumber supply. The wood merchants of the city have resisted, and the result is that the fleet of scows is lying idle, not having stirred out of winter quarters. It is a question of which class can hold out the longest, the scowmen or the wood men. Meanwhile there is no wood for the city or the steamers. Some lesser quantities are arriving in barges.

—An Ogdensburg family feel pretty mad about a widow lady, a Chicago sufferer, who had found a home under their roof during the winter. A son was born to the Chicago widow during the winter, and mother and child were tenderly cared for. Now the mother has run away, leaving the child, and it comes to light that she was not from Chicago, nor widow, and not even a wife. The father of the child lives in Canada, and has been notified to come over and care for it.

—The Free Church of England has extended to the colonies. A letter has been received from the Rev. P. P. Agnew, of Brisbane, Queensland, "a Presbyter of the Church of England," giving information to the effect that "in consequence of the despotic and irresponsible policy and conduct of the present Bishop of Sydney," he has "voluntarily and publicly renounced" the "Episcopal authority of the Bishop," and "relinquished his appointments, worth £600 per annum;" and further, has founded a "Free Church of England."
