WHIGGINGS.

—Can any thing that is baleful be a blessing?—Yes; a bale full of cotton.

—A few words tells it all. Barnes—Collector Revenue—Omaha—gone a visiting—took $4,400 to meet emergencies—not expected back.

—A romantic couple not a great way from here named their infant daughter Caressa. That was about eighteen years ago, and the boys are at it now.

—By the poet of the St. Louis Democrat: "Breathes there a man with soul so dead, who never to himself hath said, the Custom House will be a bore, unless they build it near my door?"

—The Boston Post says: "The usual balloon ascension will be dispensed with here on the 4th of July, because real estate is rising so rapidly that everybody can go up with it."

—A smart wife bragging that she had helped her husband to raise seventy acres of wheat, being asked how, replied: "Oh! I stood in the doorway and shook the broomstick at him when he sat down to rest."

—A Massachusetts politician's opinion of the intermarriage of whites and negroes was that he didn't believe in it. Said he, "I think that every one ought to marry some one of his own sex." So Charley of Kingston says, too.

—An Indiana editor makes a pathetic appeal to his readers, saying, "If there is anything you know, that is worth knowing, that we ought to know, and you know that we don't know, please let us know it."

—An exchange says: "A Milwaukee lover, dying lately, left his sweetheart, a poor maiden, a fortune of $200,000. There are few such lovers to be found." True, and the girls complain that when they are found it is very difficult to get them to die.

—A story is told of a gentleman who spends his evenings at the club room. Coming home late one evening, his wife said, "I suppose you have been to the club, as usual. I wish it would sink!" "Well, my dear," was the cool answer, "we thought it would, and so I stopped to see about it."

—"What do you mean by a cat and a dog life?" said a husband to his angry wife. "Look at Carlo and Kitty asleep on the rug! I wish men lived half so peacefully with their wives." "Stop!" said the husband, "tie them together, and see how they agree."

—This is a Rochester receipt for making soup: Take a pail of water and wash it clean. Then boil it till it is brown on both sides. Pour in one bean. When the bean begins to worry, prepare to simmer. If soup won't simmer it's too rich. Pour in more water. Dry the water with a towel before you put it in. The dryer the water the sooner it browns. Simmer the soup until the bean bursts laughing. Then add some water and serve hot at twenty-five cents a bowl.

Thirteen gamblers to one clergyman in Memphis, and forty saloons to one church.

A North Carolina woman measures 7 feet around the waist. "Slim" chance for an embrace.

Silver jewelry is manufactured to a large extent now, and is quite fashionable in New York and Philadelphia.

The Alsatian bow is the latest novelty of the day in trimming, and is used on bonnets sacques, cloaks and dresses.

In Boston they do not shake carpets any more; a new process has been introduced by which they are "shampooed."

A Milwaukee lover, dying lately, left his sweetheart, a poor maiden, a fortune of $20,000. There are few such lovers to be found.

A satin bed spread is on exhibition in New York city, richly embroidered in gay colors, the price of which is three thousand dollars.

Brides' bouquets are made frequently of wax flowers, which look fresh, and which can be afterwards kept as a momento of the happy occasion.

A broken-hearted widower in Indianapolis has erected a pine slab over his wife's grave, and presented a fine piano to the girl who was kind to him during his affliction.

Gray's elegy in a country churchyard contains 221 words, of which 821 are derived from the Anglo-Saxon, 125 from the Latin, 15 from the French, 7 from Italian, and 23 from the Creek.

The Canada Christian Advocate (Episcopal Methodist) advocates an Ecumenical Council of Methodism. It says: "We are convinced it will be realized in a very few years. We are persuaded that our people would cordially unite in such a work."

Paris is still the mistress of modes and fabricator of fashions. Never were shops so full or milliners so busy. The theatres are crowded, and the Mabille is again the centre of attraction. Diplomatic dinners are in vogue, but the dinners are tasteless, owing to the absence of the imperial chef.

HINTS FOR MAY.—Mr. Greeley considers the present month the best time for grafting baked-bean trees and pruning celery vines. The pork crop should be transplanted from the hot-beds as early as the 20th, or the ears will not fill out well, and the curculio will devour the fruit as fast as it falls from the limbs. Lettuce should be planted about four seeds in a hill, or land ploughed at least six feet deep with a sub-soil plow, and poles should be set for the vines to run up on. The heads should not be shaken from the branches, but picked by hand. Suckers should not be pinched off beet bushes and the dried-apple crop sown in drills, with sauer-kraut planted between the rows.

The great object of physiological chemists for some years past has been to find an anæsthetic which should deaden the sensibility of the body while leaving the brain clear; and in search of this Professor Liebreich, the sponsor of chloral has made the gratifying discovery of a substance which expends its stupefying influence exclusively on the head, without affecting any other portion of the economy. It is highly recommended to persons about to be guillotined, or obliged to listen to Parliamentary debates on the tariff.

There seems to be good reason for the belief that Mr. Stanley, the correspondent of the New York Herald in Central Africa, has found the long absent Dr. Livingstone, and will be the means of bringing him safely back to the civilized world, and of revealing the mass of knowledge which he has gained respecting that mysterious continent in the course of his varied travels and long experience. What a glorious achievement! Mr. Bennett may well be proud of laurels gained in such an enterprise.

A traveler in Paris, having occasion for a hair cutter, sent for one. At the appointed an elegantly person arrived, and the gentleman sat down before his dressing case to prepare for the operation. The man walked round his "client" once or twice, and finally taking his stand at some distance, attentively scrutinized the gentleman's face with the air of a connoisseur looking at a picture. "Well," said the traveler, impatiently, "when are you going to begin?" "Pardon me, sir," was the polite reply, "I am not the operator, but the physiognomist!" "Adolphe!" he cried out, and a stalwart and aproned barber entered the hall. "A la Virgil!" With this laconic direction as to the model after which the gentleman's hair was to be arranged, the artist retired.

HALL'S Vegetable Sicilian Hair Renewer

Every year increases the popularity of this valuable Hair Preparation, which is due to merit alone. We can assure our old patrons that it is kept fully up to its high standard, and to those who have never used it we can confidently say, that it is the only reliable and perfected preparation to restore GRAY OR FADED HAIR to its youthful color, making it soft, lustrous, and silken; the scalp, by its use, becomes white and clean; it removes all eruptions and dandruff, and by its tonic properties prevents the hair from falling out, as it stimulates and nourishes the hair glands. By its use the hair grows thicker and stronger. In baldness it restores the capillary glands to their normal vigor, and will create a new growth except in extreme old age. It is the most economical HAIR DRESSING ever used, as it requires fewer applications, and gives the hair that splendid glossy appearance so much admired by all. A. A. Hayes, M. D., State Assayer of Mass., says, "the constituents are pure and carefully selected for excellent quality, and I consider it the BEST PREPARATION for its intended purposes." We publish a treatise on the hair, which we send free by mail upon application, which contains commendatory notices from clergymen, physicians, the press, and others. We have made the study of the hair and its diseases a specialty for years, and know that we make the most effective preparation for the restoration and the preservation of the hair, extant, and so acknowledged by the best Medical and Chemical Authority.
