SILENCE.

BY THOMAS HOOD.

There is silence where hath been no sound,
There is a silence where no sound may be,
In the cold grave—under the deep, deep sea,
Or in the wild desert where no life is found,
Which hath been mute, and still must sleep profound;
No voice is hushed, no life treads silently,
But clouds and cloudy shadows wander free,
That never speake, over the idle ground:
But in green ruins, in the desolate walls
Of antique palaces, where man hath been,
Though the dun fox or wild hyena call,
And owls, that flit continually between,
Shriek to the echo, and the low winds moan—
There the true silence is self-conscious and alone.

Is it a Sin to Dance.

"I ain't a-going to tell a yarn
'Cause this ain't no place for that,
But I'm goin' to give the opinion
Of us folks here on the Flat,
I ain't no fiat or spooney,
But I'd like to get a glance
At these mighty good people
As thinks it's a sin to dance.
What do they do at their parties?
Copenhagen's the game they play,
An' then kiss and hug each other's wives!
'Cause their partners say they may.
I'm a a-goin' to tell a few things
As will happen in the world to come;
I mean the final reckoning,
When sinners and saints are done.
'N my opinion 'twi'l be a sight easier
With them as 'casionally 'shook a foot,'
Than with these extra good fellers
A playing Copenhagen,
An' kissin' their partner's wives."

IN GENERAL.

—The latest Parisian iniquity is false hair for children.

—Panniers and high heels are rapidly going out of fashion.

—Omaha boasts of having the finest school houses in the world.

—A Georgia lady has woven a balmoral out of the hair of rabbits.

—One of those things no fellow can find out—a good husband after 11 p.m.

—A Detroit couple drove up to the parson's to be married in a mule cart.

—Susan B. Anthony has just joined the new society, the "Patrons of Husbandry."

—A cat near Iowa City has successfully "brought up" a family of young foxes.

—A Detroit man has just painted his house black, his doors a bright red, and his window-sashes a sky-blue.

—The high Alpine hats and the Leghorn flats with narrow brims are the favorite styles of round hats this season.

—A western youth playing William Tell shot his arrow into the apple of the boy's eye instead of the apple on his head.

—The New York belles threaten to discard corsets and rely upon natural causes for a healthful amount of squeezing.

—A citizen of Indianapolis, who died lately, bequeathed "$500 to purchase ammunition" to a Kentuckian who had frequently threatened to shoot him.

—A negro girl escaped from a Tennessee jail by scaping herself thoroughly and squeezing through the bars. Her garments remain to be called for.

—A recent writer, in speaking of the innocent delights of childhood, thinks that the city child who has not been to a circus has lived in vain.

—Cincinnati is said to be the most densely populated city of the United States, having 36,000 people to the square mile, while New York has but 23,000.

—A Georgian paper advises its subscribers that "payments can be made in butter, eggs, corn, potatoes, ragged greenbacks, or tobacco stamps—if nicely taken from the boxes."

—At a New York dinner an absent-minded guest rose and apologized for the bad cookery and poor wines, under the supposition that he was at his own table, to the great annoyance of his hostess and the inexpressible indignation of his own wife.

—Scene in a Street Car.—Car stops, and smiling young lady enters. Every seat full. Old gentleman at the further end rises. "Oh, sir, don't rise; I can just as well stand." Old gentleman: "I don't care whether you sit or stand; I'm going to get out."

—A Savannah negro died last week, but came to life again the same evening; to the great indignation of the mourners. The next morning he died a second time, and, in order to avoid any repetition of the former contretemps, they buried him before dinner.

Ventilate Your Bedrooms.—If two persons are to occupy a bedroom during the night, let them step on a weighing scale before they retire, and then again in the morning, and they will find their actual weight at least a pound less in the morning. Frequently there will be a loss of two or more pounds, and the average loss throughout the year will be a pound of matter, which has gone off from their bodies, partly from the lungs, and partly through the pores of the skin. The escaped matter is carbonic acid and decayed animal matter or poisonous exaltion. This is diffused through the air in part, and part absorbed by the bed-clothes. If a single ounce of wood cotton be burned in a room, it will so completely saturate the air with smoke that one can hardly breathe, though there can only be one ounce of foreign matter in the air. If an ounce of cotton be burned every half hour during the night, the air will be kept continually saturated with smoke, unless there be an open window or door for it to escape. Now the sixteen ounces of smoke thus formed is far less poisonous than the sixteen of exhalations from the lungs and bodies of two persons who have lost a pound in weight during the eight hours of sleeping; for, while the dry smoke is mainly taken into the lungs, the damp odours from the body are absorbed both into the lungs and into the pores of the whole body. Need more be said to show the importance of having bed-rooms well ventilated, and of thoroughly airing the sheets, coverlids, and mattresses in the morning, before packing them up in the form of a neatly-made bed!

Nasby says in a letter about the office-seekers' convention:—"The platform wuzn't ez much uv a stumbling block ez I supposed it would be. The proteckshun for the sake uv harmony gave up their proteckshun ideas, the free-traders, their free-trade, the paper-money men were perfectly willing to adopt the hard money theory—the hard money advocates declared themselves satisfied with a paper money plank—the anti-bank men consented to banks, and the bank men were perfectly willing to have them abolished. The amnesty men had no objection to permanent disfranchisement, and the disfranchisers was perfectly willing to go the entire swine on amnesty. Wal, they all wanted wun reform and purity in the civil service. They all wanted to cleanse the Augean stables—to hev a change—to restore the Government to its ancient purity. On this point Frank Blair and Tweed was especially pertinashus, and on the necessity uv a change in the offices of the country there wuz a unanimity which I never saw exalted."

The Wimbledon Team.

MODE OF SELECTION.

(Ottawa, May 18.—The selection for the Wimbledon team will be by the adjutants upon in the respective Provincial ranges under officers designated by the Adjutant-General. The shooting to be on any three days in the week commencing the 27th inst., ranges two, five and six hundred yards, five rounds at each, morning and afternoon, any "Snider Government rifle, pull six pounds; sight same as when issued from Government stores; standing at 200 yards, any position. At the end of ranges the scores made by ten men in the three days with 90 rounds are to be sent to the Secretary of the Dominion Association here not later than the 6th of June. From the forty so submitted twenty will be selected, and the Provincial Associations notified by telegraph. The men selected are to report at Quebec by the 21st of June, and must subscribe to the regulations approved by the Adjutant General, the expenses to Quebec to be paid by the Provincial Associations. The expenses from Quebec to the end of the Wimbledon matches, and the cost of the journey thence to the men's homes will be paid by the Dominion Association. Arrangements will be made so that the men can return via Halifax or Quebec, and at such time as will suit them.

Mrs. Sherman, the Poisoner.—The Verdict of the Connecticut jury, of murder in the second degree in the case of Mrs. Sherman, accused of poisoning her husband, excited surprise, but it has been followed by another of the same kind in the case of Scott and Chakess, young men who committed a triple murder and robbery in Windsor Locks. In this case there was not a doubt of the prisoners' guilt, but the verdict was only murder in the second degree. A Connecticut law of recent date provides that if there is a doubt of the evidence in a capital crime, the jury may find a verdict of murder in the second degree. That is, if the jury are not sure a person accused of murder committed the crime with which he is charged, they may on their oaths convict him of murder in the second degree, on suspicion. The juries in the two cases we have mentioned seem to have taken advantage of this provision to save from capital punishment three culprits who, if they committed the acts of which they have been convicted at all, must have committed them with deliberate and premeditated purpose. Thus a law which authorizes a jury to convict against evidence is used to save criminals from suffering the penalty of crimes clearly proven against them.

Ritualism in London.—The churchwardens of St. Mary-le-Grand, one of the very oldest churches in London, of which parish a certain Rev. A. B. Evans is rector, have memorialized the Bishop of London to visit the Church in consequence of the extreme ritualism practised. It is considered not unlikely that the bishop will proceed to visit those churches to which he has received complaints, and it is possible that St. Paul's Cathedral will be included in the number.

Caution to purchasers of Peruvian Syrup (a protected solution of the protoxide of iron.) Beware of being deceived by any of the preparations of Peruvian Bark or Bark and Iron, which may be offered to you. Every bottle of genuine has Peruvian Syrup (not Peruvian Bark) blown in the glass. Examine the bottle before purchasing.

The crown of womanly beauty is an elegant coiffure. As this cannot be obtained without the use of some Hair Gloss or fixateur, even by the most skilful artiste, how much should the ladies feel themselves indebted to the inventor of the Great Hair Dressing of the age, Coco-Glycerine, which nourishes and beautifies the Hair, is delightfully perfumed, and leaves no stain on the finest linen or waistcoats. Ask for Coco-Glycerine. 14

The all-gone feeling which people sometimes speak of, is caused by want of proper action of the liver and heart. These may be assisted, and the bowels regulated, by Parsons' Purgative Pills in small doses.

Corn and flour are staple articles; but no more so than Johnson's Anodyne Liniment, where known. It is good for children or adults, for any internal soreness of the chest or bowels, and the best Pain Killer prepared, under whatever name.

Be Wise.—Too often a cold or slight cough is considered a very ordinary, trifling affair, just as well left to go or come, and hence systematically neglected until a simple curable affection is converted into a serious pulmonary disease. The more prudent, aware that a cough or cold should never be trifled with, promptly use "Bryan's Pulmonic Wafers," which have sustained their reputation for over 30 years. They are always efficacious, and exert a most beneficial influence on all the bronchial and pulmonary organs. Sold by all Druggists and country merchants. Price 12½ cents per box.

Loss of Appetite in Horses.—Horses lose their appetite from various causes, but most frequently by the approach of some disease, this circumstance ought not to be overlooked by those who own horses, but should be immediately attended to, as by so doing the disease may be checked, and the life of the horse saved. To do which we are positive there is nothing to Darley's Condition Powders and American Heave Remedy; it purifies the blood, corrects all derangements of the digestive organs, and as a necessary consequence the appetite is restored, the skin becomes soft and shining appearance. Remember the name, and see that the signature of Hurd & Co. is on each package. Northrop & Lyman, Newcastle, Ont., proprietors for Canada. Sold by all medicine dealers.
