You know the medicine that makes pure, rich blood—Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Your mother, grandmother, all your folks, used it. They trusted it. Their doctors trusted it. Your doctor trusts it. Then trust it yourself. There is health and strength in it.

OPINION OF THE COURT

question of a parent's fitness to have the care and custody of his own child, even then we think it could not be reasonably said that the plaintiff in error is disqualified for that duty. There are thousands of parents with less wealth, supporting much larger families than plaintiff in error has, and the fact that this is so has never been supposed to be a reason why their children should be taken from them and their care, custody and education confided to someone who has larger wealth. While this is essentially a commercial age, we have not yet reached that stage where parents may not have the control and custody of their own children and the direction of their education, the development of their characters and habits and the enjoyment of their society and companionship if they possess the other requisites of fitness, although lacking in wealth. The possession of some property by the person having the care and custody of the child may be quite necessary and the possession of much property very desirable, but there are other considerations in the raising, education and development of children quite as desirable. The evidence shows the grandparents of the infant, Kimball, to be most excellent people, much attached to the child, and very fit for persons of their age to have the care and custody of him if there were no other person having superior rights thereto. But however good and kind they may be and however strongly attached to the child, aside from their wealth, they possess no qualities of fitness superior to those of the father. Indeed, we think from the evidence in this record, the best interests of this child, aside, possibly, from those of a financial nature, would be promoted by giving him to the custody of the father. The good influence upon a son of an educated, refined father, of high, christian character, are not to be lightly esteemed as factors in the development of a useful and noble manhood. Such influences combined with the ability to supply the reasonable wants are likely to be more potent in the formation of good character than those of mere wealth. It is a matter also of common knowledge that the discipline and restraining influence of aged people upon young children, however estimable and kind they are and however well intentioned they may be, are not usually productive of as good results as those of younger persons. The proof also shows the present Mrs. Cormack to be an educated, refined woman, in sympathy with her husband's efforts to get possession

The Better Way

The tissues of the throat are inflamed and irritated; you cough, and there is more irritation—more coughing. You take a cough mixture and it eases the irritation—for a while. You take and it cures the cold. That's what is necessary. It soothes the throat because it reduces the irritation; cures the cold because it drives out the inflammation; builds up the weakened tissues because it nourishes them back to their natural strength. That's how Scott's Emulsion deals with a sore throat, a cough, a cold, or bronchitis.

Over-Work Weakens Your Kidneys.

Unhealthy Kidneys Make Impure Blood.

All the blood in your body passes through your kidneys once every three minutes.

The kidneys are your blood purifiers, they filter out the waste or impurities in the blood. If they are sick or out of order, they fail to do their work.

Pains, aches and rheumatism come from excess of uric acid in the blood, due to neglected kidney trouble.

Kidney trouble causes quick or uneasy heart beats, and makes one feel as though they had heart trouble, because the heart is over-working in pumping thick, kidney-poisoned blood through veins and arteries.

It used to be considered that only urinary troubles were to be traced to the kidneys, but now modern science proves that nearly all constitutional diseases have their beginning in kidney trouble.

If you are sick you can make no mistake by first doctoring your kidneys. The mild and extraordinary effect of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases and is sold on its merits by all druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar sizes.

You may have a sample bottle by mail Home of Swamp-Root, free, also pamphlet telling you how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. Mention this paper when writing Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y.

Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

Seven saved by Telephone.

Frank G. Sanders and six members of his family were eating dinner at their home near Winona, Minn., when a neighbor telephoned that a funnel-shaped cloud was sweeping toward the house. They ran to a clump of willows and lay face downward. Barely had they reached safety when the tornado wrecked the building with a crash. This illustrates the value of a telephone that can be secured from the Chicago Telephone company for five cents per day. Thousands of people use them. Do you?

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy Acts on Nature's Plan.

The most successful medicines are those that aid nature. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy acts on this plan. Take it when you have a cold and it will allay the cough, relieve the lungs, aid expectoration, open the secretions and aid nature in restoring the system to a healthy condition. Thousands have testified to its superior excellence. It counteracts any tendency of a cold to result in pneumonia. Price, 25 cents. Large size, 50 cents. For sale by G. W. Besley.

Insurance News.

Insurance men of the West who read the daily columns of insurance information in The Chicago Record-Herald keep pace with the times and are prepared for all emergencies and contingencies that have grown into the insurance business. The column "With Insurance Men" gives in compact form all the latest doings in the insurance world, and is conceded by insurance men everywhere to be the best and most up-to-date report published by any newspaper in the United States. The Record-Herald does not copy its information from insurance journals, but secures it first hand from managers, agents and companies, and by telegrams from its own special correspondents, by telephone and in special cable dispatches from abroad. The New York service of The Record-Herald's insurance department is equaled by no other paper. In fact, The Record-Herald is the only daily newspaper that gives insurance men the first information daily on every important event in the insurance business.

A Continual Strain.

Many men and women are constantly subjected to what they commonly term "a continual strain" because of some financial or family trouble. It wears and distresses them both mentally and physically, affecting their nerves badly and bringing on liver and kidney complaints, with the attendant evils of constipation, loss of appetite, sleeplessness, low vitality and dependency. They cannot, as a rule, get rid of this "continual strain," but they can remedy its health-destroying effects by taking frequent doses of Green's August Flower. It tones up the liver, stimulates the kidneys, insures healthy bodily functions, gives vim and spirit to one's whole being, and eventually dispels the mental or physical distress caused by that "continual strain." Trial bottle of August Flower, 25c; regular size, 75c. For sale by all druggists. Nov 1

C., says: "For years my wife suffered intensely from dyspepsia, complicated with a torpid liver, until she lost her strength and vigor and became a mere wreck of her former self. Then she tried Electric Bitters, which helped her at once and finally made her entirely well. She is now strong and healthy." N. H. Petesch and Julia A. Story, McHenry, G. W. Besley, West McHenry, druggists, sell and guarantee them at 50 cents a bottle.
