TOWN AND COUNTRY.

WEDNESDAY EVEN'G, MAY 22, 1872.

☞ SEE FIRST AND FOURTH PAGES.

THE weather is delightful—1872 is showing a good grace. Better late than never.

A KINGSTONIAN, returning to-day after an extended absence, was surprised to find Montreal Street opened up. He thought that it was only funning folks were on that road.

SUMMARY TRIALS.—Henry Trimmer, charged with burglary, entering the Grand Trunk Brewery; and James Smith, stealing a pair of pants and a coat, have elected to be tried under the summary Act in Interim Sessions, to-morrow.

COURT OF REVISION.—The Court of Revision opened yesterday with the hearing of appeals against assessment for Cataraqui Ward. The cases of Frontenac were to-day heard. To-morrow Ontario Ward appeals are to be presented.

LOCAL ENTERPRISE.—Mr. Wm. H. Bland, late of Kingston, and son of the Rev. H. F. Bland, having purchased the business lately carried on by Mr. E. C. Flint, organ manufacturer and piano dealer at Belleville, has commenced operations with vigor.

MEDICAL ASSOCIATION.—The adjourned meeting of the medical practitioners to elect a representative in the Council of the College of Physicians and Surgeons of this Territorial Division, will be held to-morrow evening in the Mayor's Chambers, City Buildings.

THE HORSE of a very popular Ontario Street merchant just went and backed right square over the wharf into the water, and then cooled down, in which delightful exercise he was joined by the horse and Bob. If we had that horse we would not feel mad enough to kill it, but would sell it as quick as wink.

A WARNING.—The Dundas Banner says that Dr. Metherall, on complaint of the Division Registrar, was fined $10 and costs, for neglecting to register a death. We think if some of the Registrars of Births, Marriages and Deaths, in this County, were to go and do likewise, that the law would be more strictly complied with than it is at present.

COLLEGE HONORS.—We learn from the Edinburgh Courant of the 7th inst., that Dr. Gerald Bernard and Dr. Ellswood Chaffey, graduates of Queen's College and both late of this city, passed highly successful examinations before the examining board of the Royal College of Physicians and Surgeons, Edinburgh. Dr. Chaffey is son of Mr. Geo. Chaffey, the well-known forwarder of this city. Dr. Bernard is son of Major Bernard, R. C. R., long and favorably known here.

DANGEROUS ROWDYISM.—It would appear that it is full time for the Corporation to put down the rowdies of Kingston with a strong hand, unless they are prepared to see the lives and property of the citizens at the mercy of blackguards. On Friday evening last some miscreant in the most wanton manner, fired a pistol loaded with a marble, through the window of the Public Library, on Princess street. Any one who could contribute to the discovery of the rascal would perform a public duty, and receive the thanks of the citizens.

WALKING ON THE TRACK.—Two days ago passengers on the Grand Trunk RR. going west, reported here a dreadful accident which had occurred near Summerstown Station. A young lady while walking on the wrong track, or rather on the one that she did not think the express train was coming on, was run over and instantly killed. Next day, as we see by the report in the Toronto papers, a woman was killed by being run over by a train of cars on the Wellington, Grey and Bruce Railroad. She had been trying to cross in front of the train. These accidents convey their own warning; we shall not repeat it.

Moved by Mr. Davana, seconded by Mr. Ruttan, and carried, that William Boyce, Lewis W. Purdy, and Orvis Purdy do perform their statute labor for the current year on the road leading from J. Wood's factory to the boundary line between Loughboro and Portland, and that Wm. Boyce superintend the work.

Moved by Mr. Ruttan, seconded by Mr. Davana, and carried, that George, Joseph, and James Graham be allowed to perform their statute labour, for the current year, on the concession leading south to the main road to Kingston, under the inspection of the Overseer of Road Division No. 18.

Moved by Mr. Davana, seconded by Mr. McMillan, and agreed upon, that the Township Treasurer examine the books of the Clerk of the Division Court, and order that all debts due to the municipality be forthwith paid with costs.

Moved by Mr. Davana, seconded by Mr. Ruttan, and carried, that Neil Dunlop, Esq., M.D., be exempt from statute labour for 1872, on account of his attendance on the poor and sick.

At 7 o'clock p.m. the Council adjourned to meet again at 1 o'clock p.m., on Monday, the 3rd of June next.

The most estimable convict of whom we have heard for some time is one Andrew Johnson, an inmate of the Nevada State Prison. He subscribes for the principal newspaper in the State, and having no money, he carved a very handsome watch-box of stone and sent it to the editor to pay for the paper until he gets out of prison, when he promises to pay up in gold coin with interest.

FULFILLING THE LAW.

Let each one strive, with all his might,
To be a decent man,
And love his brother as himself—
Upon the golden plan;
And if your neighbor chanced to be
A pretty female woman,
Why, love her all the more—you see
That's only acting human.

Sir George Jessel, the Solicitor-General of England, at a banquet in London on Saturday night expressed the opinion, which the public men in Great Britain seem to cling to, that the difficulties in the way of an amicable result of the treaty negotiations would soon disappear, and that at the meeting of the Geneva Tribunal a new era would be inaugurated in the settlement of disputes between nations.
