COURT OF REVISION.—No appeals were made to the Court of Revision for Leeds and Lansdowne Front.

PEOPLE who took down their stoves a few weeks ago are down on the almanac makers.

ARRIVAL.—John Sweeney, who is out of his mind, has arrived at Rockwood Asylum from Carleton County Gaol.

ANNUAL DRILL.—The 3rd of July is the date fixed upon for the Ottawa Garrison Artillery to begin their annual drill at Kingston.

THE Manitoba Liberal of the 11th inst., says:—The legal firm of Walker, Thibadeau and Howard has been dissolved. Mr. Thibadeau is on his personal curve now.

COAL.—Messrs. Swift & Co. are constructing a new coal yard at the St. Lawrence wharf to accommodate the Royal Mail Line, two steamers of which are to use coal in future in place of scarce and dear wood.

AT a meeting of gentlemen, identified with Canadian Literature, held in St. John, N. B. recently, it was decided to give a public dinner to Mr. Geo. Stewart, Jr., on the 10th proximo, in acknowledgment of the service rendered by him, as Editor and Proprietor of Stewart's Quarterly, to Canadian Literature.

MEETING OF ELECTORS.—A large and respectable meeting of the electors of Portsmouth was held last evening in the Town Hall for the purpose of choosing delegates to the Cataraqui Convention tomorrow. Mr. Wm. Mudie, Reeve, occupied the chair, Major Van Straubenzee acting as Secretary. The following gentlemen were chosen delegates:—Mr. James Fisher, Mr. J. A. Allen, Mr. Shroeder, Mr. Howard, Mr. Jas. Kelley, Mr. Cameron and Major Van Straubenzee.

SOUTH GRENVILLE.—To his supporters, Walter Shanly has written a letter in which he asserts that for worse or for better, he'll fight the election to the very last ditch and straight to perdition all Reformers will pitch. He certainly seems devoid of all sense in attempting to defeat Reform Dr. Brouse, for tho' a success in piercing the core of Mount Hoosac, he's too much of a bore for the people of Grenville to send to the House, when opposed by a gentleman like Dr. Brouse.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—A woman named Mrs. Johnson, 80 years of age, mentally and constitutionally an invalid, was killed accidentally on Saturday evening by falling down stairs. She was endeavouring to decend to the lower apartments alone, unknown by her daughter, Mrs. Abernethy, with whom she resided near the Eagle Foundry. Stumbling she fell to the bottom of the stairway, striking on the forehead and left shoulder, and sustaining such injuries that life was extinct when medical aid arrived. She had many friends in the country who removed the remains for burial at Sandy Hill, Storrington.

THE SAILOR ACTON.—We are glad to be able to correct the notice of the death of the sailor Acton in the General Hospital, from injuries received at Garden Island, on Friday last. We are informed this time by one who knows, that so far from being dead the poor man is doing even better than was at first anticipated. The hip-bone, that part technically called crest of the ilium, is broken inwards, and it is thought that the striking of this part saved the parts within from more severe injury, though serious derangements of certain functions indicate lesions internally. The opinion is expressed that he will soon be past danger; but the period of recovery can hardly be fixed. We give this unusually long account of the man's condition because we so carelessly killed him yesterday.
