DOLLY VARDEN.

If in walking down the street,
You a maiden chance to meet
One whose dress, there blooms a perfect flower garden;
Wreathes of hollyhocks and roses,
Puppies, pinks and other posies—
You may make your mind up that's a Dolly Varden.
Rosy cheeks and cherry lips
On her curls a love of "dips"
Bears the same familiar title Dolly Varden
While beneath you catch the light
Of her glancing eyes so bright—
Eyes that Cupid surely keeps a constant guard in
Dolly Varden parasol,
Dolly Varden boots and all—
These droll appellations Fashion makes us pardon—
Go to make the sum complete
Of a figure trim and neat
What a sweet, bewitching, dainty Dolly Varden.

The cause of woman's enfranchisement is not making much progress in Great Britain. The minority vote in the House of Commons for the bill extending the suffrage to women was 143 this year against 151 last year. The minority included Sir Stafford Northcote, Ward Hunt, Lord Manners, and other chiefs of the Tory party, with whom the movement has always had a degree of popularity.

The total amount realized by the sale of Mr. Gillott's collection of pictures in London was upward of $650,000. The sale, which occupied portions of several weeks, caused the greatest sensation. Messrs. Christie's rooms were crowded by many well-known art connoisseurs, and the competition ran very high. Messrs. Agnew, of Manchester, picture dealer carried off many of the gems, in several instances giving upward of $20,000 for a single picture. Several pictures were bought for the National Museum of New York.
