TOWN AND COUNTRY.

FRIDAY EVENING, MAY 31, 1872.

☞ SEE FIRST AND FOURTH PAGES.

TORONTO is now only moving for an engineer corps.

THE Wesleyan Conference meets at Montreal on Wednesday next.

BUILDING has been commenced at the new Lambton House.

THE str. Gazelle is being hauled out on the Marine Railway for repairs.

CRICKET.—The match Bankers vs. All Comers will take place to-morrow afternoon, at one o'clock.

TORONTO DIOCESE.—The Lord Bishop has called the Synod together, on Tuesday, the 18th of June.

WE are sorry to say that Mr. C. W. Miller, of Switzerville, is at the point of death.

EGGS-TRA.—Cape Vincent boasts a hens egg 7½x9½ inches. Utica trots out one 7x10 inches. Kenel

UAWARDS of 5,500 tons of iron ore have been shipped from the port of Cape Vincent since navigation opened. So the Eagle "screams."

OTTAWA BAND.—Mr. Suckling, well known in Kingston as the Bandmaster of the 47th Regiment, has been engaged to re-organize and conduct the Garrison Artillery Band at Ottawa.

POLICE COURT, Friday.—There were four sailors (or more) on the loose last night. Francis Gallagher, Jas. Watson, John Cameron and Peter Murray paid $2 each, and departed in sadness.

PERSONAL.—We deeply regret that F. H. Burton, Esq., M.P., of Port Hope, is lying dangerously ill. No hope is entertained of his recovery. The Hon. John Sandfield Macdonald is also, we are sorry to learn, very low in health.

TEMPERLEY'S LINE.—Attention is called to the altered sailing of this line from Quebec. The steamers leave Quebec on Tuesday instead of Wednesday. A notice of the ss. Scotland also appears in another place.

TRAINS LATE.—Owing to snow storms or something or other, the afternoon train from the west yesterday was four hours late. To-day the track is nearly cleared, and the train was only three and a half hours late.

HAULED OUT.—The schr. Dauntless, which has been repaired on the ways at Portsmouth, ran off the carriage yesterday when being launched. She was tugged off by the str. Hiram A. Calvin, and strained thereby, so that she had to be hauled out again for repairs.

WEATHER SCRAP.—When we have a few days more of weather like to-day's, we will believe that spring has come. The forty days rain which was to follow the rain on Whitsunday, according to old sayings, came to an end prematurely last night.

COURT MARTIAL.—Gunner Kellet, of the Dominion Garrison Artillery, who last week was tried by court martial for assaulting Sergent Keating whilst in the execution of his duty was sentenced to one hundred and thirty days imprisonment. The sentence has been approved.

ORANGE GRAND LODGE.—Among the newly elected officers are: Deputy Grand Chaplains—Rev. N. H. Howard, Loughboro; Rev. J. D. N. West, Verona. It was agreed that an address should be presented to Bro. William Johnston, M.P. for Belfast, by the M. W. the Grand Master, on behalf of the Grand Lodge, on his arrival in Kingston.

RE-OPENING.—Mr. A. B. McDonell re-opens to-morrow, in the old, well known Dry Goods store in the market square, next to Mr. Parker's drug store. Mr. McDonell will not be forgotten by the public, as the great bargains and advantageous purchases he formerly offered were duly appreciated. We wish him a great success, for as everybody knows he deserves it well.
