PANSIES.

O purple hearts that drank the wine
Of royal sunsets, where the sea
Laves golden sands—the favored clime
Of flowers and vine—how tenderly
I press your velvet lips to mine!
I hail the message that you brought;
Breathe o'er my soul the mystic sign
Of Love's unspoken thought.

How many grand processions swept
Above you, down the western slope?
How many dewy twilights kept
Watch o'er his budding hope?
And did the whispering breezes wait
To soft caress him as he sped
Spice-laden from the Golden Gate,
To haunt your fairy bed?

Dear Pansies, rich in royal dress,
(And sweet from lying near his lips),
Fair mirrors of his azure eyes,
What can your worth eclipse?
Silent, and cold, to him repeat
My lips' unuttered mystery—
The secret you have found so sweet.

Literary Notes.

The first printed Greek book was a grammar, which appeared in 1476.

Mr. Carlyle has lately received from the German Empress the formal expression of the thanks of the Emperor for his "Life of Frederick the Great."

Mr. Edmund Yates, the novelist, has retired from the English Post Office, where he held an engagement in the Secretary office, in order to devote himself exclusively to literature.

A new Tamil version of the Bible has been published by the Missionaries of Southern India.

The collection of works relating to "Junius," which formed part of the library of the late Mr. Dilke, is about to be presented to the British nation.

It is said that an historical novel, in one volume, by Mr. W. Johnston, M.P., for Belfast, is in the press, and will shortly be published by Messrs. Tinsley Brothers. It is entitled "Under which King?" and in it an attempt is made faithfully to portray the men and describe the events of the Revolution of 1688 in Ireland.

Origin of the Small-Pox.

The curious theory is pronounced by a physician in Germany that small pox originates from an excess of albuminous matter in the blood, and that this is to be prevented by the administration of common salt. The habit of children indulging over freely in sweetmeats, he considers one great cause of this undue development of albumen, and coffee and tea, if highly sugared, tend also to excite it in adults. An organic acid, such as lemon juice, he considers the best means of freeing the blood when clogged up with too much albumen; and he alleges that by taking these simple remedies, in the way of precaution, he has, for upwards of twelve years past, frequented or taken up his abode in the most pestilential small-pox hospitals in Europe and South America with entire impunity.

MISCELLANY.

The Anglican Synod meets in London on 6th June.

Miss Kellogg sings at Buckingham Palace on the 20th.

The Sarmatian brought out $62,500 in silver for the Montreal Bank.

No less than 7,207 treaties of peace have been signed within the last 200 years.

A fish breeder in Michigan had his dam cut by an enemy in the night and millions of young trout escaped. The loss was $3,000.

Mr. Alex. Somerville, "The Whistler at the Plow" is in the Muskoka region. In a letter to the Ottawa Times he gives a very favorable account of that part of the country.

Theodore Tilton illustrates Mr. Greeley's "disciplined and penetrating instinct" by saying: "We have known him to sleep through a long speech, and then at its close rise and reply to it, point for point."

The Princess Alexandra, it is reported, is becoming deaf. Her mother, the Queen of Denmark, is afflicted with the same infirmity.

Mr. T. N. Gibbs is spoken of to receive the portfolio of Minister of Inland Revenue in the place of Hon. Mr. Morris.

The German army is to be furnished with a rifle of new pattern, said to be an improvement on the old needle gun, and greatly superior to the chassepot.

The Guelph Central Fair will be held this year on the 1st, 2nd, 3rd and 4th of October. $8,000 offered in prizes.

Grand Trunk traffic for the week ending May 4, 1872, was £30,403, being an increase of £4,000 over the corresponding week of last year.

Archdeacon Moore, in charging his clergy in Wolverhampton, said he regarded the bill allowing a Roman Catholic to be Lord Chancellor as tending to the putting of a Catholic on the throne.

A distinguished company met on the 11th instant, at the annual dinner of the Newspaper Press Fund, under the presidency of the Duke of Argyle. Subscriptions amounting to £1,500 were received.

Mr. Francis G. Hill, a prominent music teacher in Boston, is dead. He was a pupil of Liszt. Boston papers, referring to his decease, express much regret for the loss of a worthy and accomplished person.

A Detroiter has invented a machine which trims wall paper, holds it up against the wall puts on the paste and cuts off and smooths down the strips and does the work nicer and faster than three men.

The Baroness Burdett Coutts has received the thanks of the Common Council of London, as also "the freedom of the city," in recognition of her munificence in vesting "Columbia Market" in the hands of the corporation.

Mirage.—The Huron Signal says that on Wednesday last about an hour before sundown, one of those mirages for which Goderich is famous, was visible. The opposite shore of the lake could be seen quite distinctly, appearing to be elevated some distance above the water.

A machine has lately been devised by Mr. Stanitral, of Liverpool, by which the microscopist can rule lines upon glass from 1-1500 to 1-100000 of an inch apart, provided a diamond point can be obtained sufficiently fine for the purpose. The limit now being 5,000 lines to the inch.

Mr. Punshon in New York.

The following references to the Rev. Dr. Punshon's sermon in the Academy of Music, New York, is from the Herald and Report:

Mr. Punshon has certainly no graceful person or manner. His body is short and round, and his arms and legs disproportionately long. His head is set down close to his shoulders, and his face is not comely. His voice is flat and without any melodiousness, his action rather vehement, his speech rapid, and almost incessant. With all of these drawbacks he will daze an audience, with his unmitigated pyrotechnics of rhetoric—sky-rockets shooting into the very heavens and bursting like bombshells; he will melt an audience to tears by his sympathetic pathos and enlist them by his vehement denunciations. He is a great orator of the rhetorical sort; splendid diction he has, immense "magnetism" he has; all the vigor of his nature goes into a sonorous imagination that is almost unrivaled, a gift of speech that for wealthiness and meaningfulness is all but miraculous, and a strong and overbearing passionateness. The very absence of any restraining moral sense, the lack of the highest intellectual and moral qualities, contributes to make him a still greater phenomenal orator. He throws himself without reserve, clean off his feet, into his subject and at his auditory. You weep too. But when he is done, you cannot remember one fresh thought or one original idea, or any high moral inspiration. You were flooded with the glory of his imagination, captivated by his vehement dramatic action and overwhelmed by his passion.

Another Old Settler Gone.—We regret to learn of the death of Col. John McCuaig, of Picton, which occurred on Saturday evening last. Col. McCuaig was one of the oldest settlers in Prince Edward District, being at the time of his death over 80 years of age. He was a man very much respected, and his death is universally regretted.

The crown of womanly beauty is an elegant coiffure. As this cannot be obtained without the use of some Hair Gloss or fixateur, even by the most skilful artiste, how much should the ladies feel themselves indebted to the inventor of the Great Hair Dressing of the age, Coco-Glycerine, which nourishes and beautifies the Hair, is delightfully perfumed, and leaves no stain on the gentleman's waistcoats. Ask for Coco-Glycerine. 14

Bryan's Wafers, (the great public remedy,) have now been in use over twenty years, hence it cannot be said that they are on trial. It is often remarked by strangers visiting our State, that we show a larger proportion of good horses than any other State in the Union. This, we tell them, is owing to two principal reasons: in the first place, we breed from the very best stock; and in the second place, our people use Sheridan's Cavalry Condition Powders which in our judgment are of incalculable advantage.

Don't Know Him.—We have heard of a man who owned a horse which been for a long time afflicted with a chronic cough, and was otherwise in a poor condition; he at length resolved to sell him, and did so for a very trifling sum. Some 5 or 6 weeks afterwards, he met the person to whom he had sold him driving a beautiful horse, full of life, and concluded he had either exchanged him for this or purchased another; but judge of his surprise on learning that the horse was the same that he previously owned and considered of so little value. On enquiry as to what had effected so great a change, he was told that "Darley's Condition Powders and Arabian Heave Remedy" had done it. This preparation has effected some remarkable cures. Remember the name, and see that the signature of Hurd & Co., is on each package. Northrop & Lyman, Newcastle, Ont., proprietors for Canada. Sold by all medicine dealers.
