TOWN AND COUNTRY.

MONDAY EVENING, JUNE 17, 1872.

☞ SEE FIRST AND FOURTH PAGES.

THE weather is jolly. Summer at last.

CONCERT.—The Kingston Cricket Club are to give their concert on Friday evening. A good programme is promised.

MESMERIC.—The most entertaining affair of the season will be Miss Monford's entertainment this evening at the City Hall.

A SPECIAL general meeting of the Kingston Cricket Club will be held to-morrow evening in the Mechanics' Institute, on business of importance.

THE patent for the theory that the earth was gradually drying up because the forests have been cut off, has expired. People hereabouts begin to think so.

THE plank walks on King Street are in a disgraceful state. The Sunday evening promenade is made dangerous by the number of broken places, and the old rails tear dresses and rip boots without mercy.

POLICE COURT, Monday.—Two Indians and one squaw were charged with drunkenness, and let go on promise to strike for their forest home. The case of Jenkins vs. Wilson was decided in favor of the laintiff, and a fine of $2 anyl costs.

SABBATH DESECRATION.—Every Sunday afternoon a crowd of young boys from the city meet on the commons in rear of the residence of the Hon. A. Campbell, Union Street. Here, out of range of the police, they have the noisiest games of cricket and base ball. For the credit of the city a policeman might just drop down on them on Sunday next.

WE learn that the Bill introduced by the Hon. J. H. Cameron amending the law relating to Bills and Notes, the provisions of which we explained a few days since, has been modified by the Senate, so as to make the Act confirm to the practice hitherto followed by the Banks of the Province of Quebec.

THE HANDSOME FLAG presented to Rideau Ward by Mr. Robinson, M.P.P., last winter was hoisted on Saturday evening, on the flag staff given by Mr. George Newlands, and erected in the ground of the Johnston Street School, under the supervision of Mr. Wm. McCammon, Chairman of the Flag Committee.

CORNER STONE.—The ceremony of laying the corner stone of the new St. Andrew's Church, Ottawa, took place on Friday last, at 4 o'clock p.m., with a very solemn and imposing religious service. The stone was laid by the Rev. D. M. Gordon, B. D., pastor of the congregation, assisted by the Very Rev. Principal Snodgrass, Rev. Professor Mackerras, of Queen's University, Rev. Kenneth MacLennan, Rev. Dr. George Bell and James Croil, Esq., of Montreal.

D. D. DAWIN, M. D.—The last week the docter was in Watertown, N. Y., he cured four of deafness, three of palpitation of the heart, four ladies of painful and singular menstruation, two of paralysis, five of disease of the ear, one of hip disease. He opens an office to-day at Mrs. Spooner's Boarding house, corner of Wellington and Clarence Streets, Kingston. He cures poor people from 5 to 6 p.m. The afflicted should not lose a moment in securing him.

CAMP POST OFFICE.—As a very large number of men (some six thousand) will assemble in camp at Barriefield during the present week, we would urge the necessity of providing facilities for the despatch and receipt of the letters and newspapers of the Volunteers. We observe that at the Windsor camp there will not only be a Post Office but a Telegraph Office. A book, stationery and news stand would also, we think, be a great convenience to officers and men, and a paying speculation. The camp officers can have a post-office of their own, requiring only to appoint an orderly to keep it, and another to act as carrier from the city to the camp.

The Wesleyan Conference.

The Conference has accepted the offer of the Montreal gentlemen mentioned in our columns some days ago, subscribing fifty thousand dollars for the endowment of a Theological College at Montreal. During a long debate some maintained that the new scheme would draw away students from Victoria College. This objection was over-ruled, however, as it was felt that a vigorous rivalry would benefit both colleges. The address to the British Conference was read and a suitable reply was ordered to be prepared. At this stage of the proceedings the Rev. Dr. Punshon stated that it would be necessary for the Conference to nominate by ballot their President for next year, as he would feel it his duty to obey the intimations of his fathers in England, and return there. He said he was in the position of an ambassador recalled. He wished his name to be left off the nomination, as he felt it his duty to return to England in obedience with the wishes of his fathers and brethren there. The subject had considerably exercised his own mind. He left it wholly with his brethren, and their wish was cordial and hearty as well as imperative for his return. He had no wish on the matter. If the choice had been given him he would have refused to exercise it. He had been very happy in his work in Canada and also in England. His oldest friends were in England, his latest friends in this country. He was somewhat tired of being continually in the front;—not tired of his work—he did not shrink from work—yet he felt that it would be a relief to him to retire to a less conspicuous place in the work of his mission. Again, if there is honor and responsibility in the Presidential Chair, he thought that his brethren ought to share them with him. He had not been an Englishmen these past four years; he had been a Briton, and never more a Briton than to-day—thankful to God for that home feeling which he had, when, in his journeys, he crossed over the line and found himself in the Dominion. And when he returned to his native land he would not—he could not forget us. He was linked to Canada by the living and the dead.

The ballot was taken for President, and Rev. Dr. Rice, who received 181 votes, was declared the nominee of Conference. He thanked his brethren for this additional expression of their confidence in him. The Rev. E. B. Harper, M.A., was nominated for the Co-Delegacy.

CRICKET.

On Saturday afternoon the weather disappointed folks. It was splendid and fine, whereas people had expected it to rain as usual. Therefore the match between the Bankers and Railway men against the City was played by the Kingston Cricket Club on its ground after two disappointments on previous Saturdays. At two o'clock the Bankers went to the wickets to the capital bowling of C. F. Smith and Galloway, which brought the wickets to grief sharply. The last stump fell for 26 runs, to which Grylls contributed a pretty score of 9. The bowling and capital fielding on both sides will account for the poor scores made at batting.

The city were not much more fortunate in their innings, getting out for 34 runs, towards which Dickson made a handsome double number, and Glidden, Falconer, and Smith added a 4 and two fives. Arthur Smith gives promise of becoming a rattling "bowler" and Grylls' "under arms" are decidedly dangerous.

The Bankers began their second innings, and Haigh had got into a splendid innings when time was called, and the match had to be decided on the first innings for the city.

STEALING A MARCH.—The New York Herald begins to be alarmed at the proportions which the Canadian report in grain and lumber is assuming, and the serious falling off in exports of the same articles in New York. Every year the traffic down the St. Lawrence is greater than the year before, and the Herald very much fears that unless "something is done" the St. Lawrence route will carry off the great bulk of the trade of the West not only in these things but in others as well. We earnestly hope that it may, and it seems to us that there is a very great chance that it will.
