THURSDAY EVEN'G, JUNE 20, 1872.

The New American Postal Act.

The new Postal Act has become law in the United States, and under its provisions the use of one cent postal stamps for correspondence is authorized. The card is similar to those introduced into Great Britain some two years since, and the same as those at present in use here. It will be recollected that the House of Representatives provided in the bill for cards with a paper flap to cover and conceal the writing; the Senate, however, changed this into an open card. All things taken into consideration, this appears to be fair enough. If any one wants to communicate a private message they can send a letter, while the postal cards are only meant for brief and business messages, which have nothing secret about them, and the perusal of which will injure no one. There is one drawback. It is not pleasant to receive continual reminders from our tailor about "that little account" on an open card.

Instinct of Turtles.

Audubon, the naturalist, stated that at certain places on the coast, of Florida sea turtles, those huge, stupid-looking reptiles on which aldermen are fed at the expense of taxpayers, possess an extraordinary faculty of finding places. Working their way up out of the reach of tide water with their flippers, quite a deep hole is excavated, in which a batch of eggs are deposited, and then carefully covered up. On reaching the water they not unfrequently swim three hundred miles out at sea, foraging for appropriate food. When another batch of eggs are developed, after a lapse of about fourteen days, they will return unerringly in a direct line, even in the darkest night, and visit the buried eggs. Removing the sand, more are deposited and secured. Away they go again as before. They know instinctively the day and hour when the young brood, incubated by solar rays, will break the shell, and are promptly at the spot to liberate them from their prison. As soon as fairly out of the hole the mother turtle leads them down the bank to the waves, and there ends her parental solicitude and maternal duties.

The Volunteers.

We observe by our exchanges that numerous municipalities in Ontario have liberally voted fifty cents per diem for all volunteers who have gone into camp. This is only right and shows that the sacrifices made by our citizen soldiers is duly appreciated. The Spectator says that the County Council of Wentworth, at its last sitting, unanimously voted fifty cents to each man in the Wentworth battalion for every day he is in camp. We would cordially recommend this example to the County Councils of Frontenac, Hastings and Prince Edward; also to our City Fathers. The Spectator adds:—

"We do not think that there is a single member of the Council, or a ratepayer, who has one spark of loyalty in him, will object to the proposition, especially when he takes into consideration the great sacrifice made by the men in leaving their employment to perfect themselves in drill so as to be prepared to meet an enemy should one again desecrate Canadian soil. These men, many of whom were in the receipt of $2 to $3 per day, while at work, and probably not one in the regiment but earned over a dollar a day, have left their work and families for the miserable pittance of fifty cents per day and rations."

Masonic.

The following resolution was passed by a unanimous vote in the Grand Lodge of Vermont:

Whereas, the Grand Lodge of Canada still refuses recognition of the Grand Lodge of Quebec, and is asserting jurisdiction over lodges located in the Province of Quebec; and

Whereas, such assertion of jurisdiction violates the well settled principles of masonic law, applicable to such cases; therefore,

Resolved, that the Grand Master is hereby instructed (unless the Grand Lodge of Canada at its next session withdraws from and ceases to assert any jurisdiction over any lodge or masons in the Province of Quebec) to issue circulars to the different Grand Lodges, as well as to the subordinate lodges of this State, that the Grand Lodge of Vermont and its subordinates have suspended all masonic intercourse with the Grand Lodge of Canada and Masons under its jurisdiction until the wrong is made right.

A PUBLIC SAFE.—The London Morning Post describes the doing of a "national safe deposit company" which has just been formed in London upon the model the ones in New York, but—as they claim—with several improvements. The building, a very large one, is to be constructed ostensibly of iron, something on the model of an armor-plated vessel. The walls will consist of a number of plates varying in thickness from ½ to ¾ of an inch. These plates will be successively of hard and soft metal (steel and iron) so as to render all attempts of burglars useless, and between each of the screw plates there is to be a packing of gneister, of which material the higher wall are to be mainly constructed. The intention of this construction is to guard against the effects of lightning as well as the attacks of fire and burglars. Inside of this building are safes, also made burglar and fire-proof, so that all objects within it will be alone as secure as mortal hands can make them. Each safe in the building has its own peculiar lock and key, and, by an ingenious invention of the locksmiths, it is impossible for any door to be accidentally left open, as each door locks itself by the mere process of withdrawing the key. The idea seems to be received with great favor among the wealthy and business circles.—N. Y. World.

California Law against Betting.

The practice of betting on elections has grown to such proportions of late years in California that it has been recognized by the Legislature as a public nuisance. Persons who may be disposed to "back their opinions" on approaching political contests are reminded by the press of that state that makes, offers or accepts any bet or wager upon the result of an election or upon the success or failure of any person or candidate, or upon the numbers of votes to be cast either in the aggregate or by particular candidate, or upon the vote to be cast by any person, is guilty of a misdemeanor may be punished by fine of not exceeding $5,000, or a term of imprisonment for a term not exceeding five years. At that price, election bets will hardly be profitable.

Explosion.

FATAL EXPLOSION ON A SPANISH PASSENGER STEAMSHIP.—

The Spanish passenger steamship Guadayea exploded her boilers when at anchor in the port of Marseilles, France, on Sunday. Her decks and cabins were crowded at the moment. Fifty-five persons were killed instantly, and a number of others wounded badly. The wreck took fire, but the flames were subdued after much difficulty and the loss of valuable property. This is a very deplorable occurrence. Can science do nothing, or suggest nothing, as a means of preventing deposit incrustations forming on the inside of steam boilers? This is a matter of hourly occurrence, and in which may be found secret of the main cause of boiler explosions; the lumpy aggregations tightening the plates at certain fixed points, and thus, to a very great extent, preventing the uniform expansion of the metal. The disaster at Marseilles, like that of the ill-fated Westfield in the waters of New York, occurred on Sunday.

The Jubilee.

Tuesday was England's day at the Boston Coliseum. Wednesday was devoted to Germany. Among other attractions there was the German imperial band and the Emperor William's cornet quartet, and the readering of Franz Abt's "When the swallows, Homeward Fly."

Thursday (French day) the "Marseillaise" will of course be given with the bells and artillery in addition to the chorus of 20,000 voices, military bands, &c. The Garde Republicaine band also appear. The "Gloria" from Mozart's Twelfth Mass, with full chorus, is also in the bill and Gounod's "Ave Maria" will be sung by fifty soprano voices. Choruses from "The Creation" and "Elijah" are set down as the chef d'œuvre of Friday's (Austrian day) programme. The Anvil Chorus is repeated on each day.

DEATH OF ALFRED CROWQUILL.—Mr Alfred Henry Forrester, better known by the above nom de plume, died suddenly in London on May 20th, from heart disease. He was a writer of no ordinary talents. Among other things he could dash off a little tale with rare humor, infuse much spirit into a song, and win the attention of children by such works as the Christmas Chicken and Fairy Footsteps. Nor were his talents confined to literature. As an artist he produced no less an impression. His drawings on wood, his etchings, his caricatures, his pen and ink drawings were often masterly. From early life he enjoyed the friendship of some of the greatest celebrities of his time, and it is said that those who heard his conversation will not soon forget him. For some time past he has been engaged on a new book.

The Venerable Archdeacon Scott, of Dunham, Canada East, says that he suffered from Dyspepsia more than twenty-five years, but that three weeks use of the Peruvian Syrup (an Iron Tonic), has benefitted him so wonderfully that he can hardly persuade himself of the reality, and people who know him are astonished at the change.

The crown of womanly beauty is an elegant coiffure. As this cannot be obtained without the use of some Hair Gloss or fixateur, even by the most skilful artiste, how much should the ladies feel themselves indebted to the inventor of the Great Hair Dressing of the age, Coco-Glycerine, which nourishes and beautifies the Hair, is delightfully perfumed, and leaves no stain on the gentlemen's waistcoats. Ask for Coco-Glycerine. 14

Tooth-ache proceeds from ague in the face, operating upon the exposed nerve of a decayed tooth. Rub the gum thoroughly with the finger, wet with Johnson's Anodyne Liniment, heat the face well, and lap a flannel wet with the liniment on the face, also put a little of the liniment into the cavity of the tooth on cotton.

The system frequently gets out of order and should be at once regulated, else other troubles will ensue; when physic is needed take Parsons' Purgative Pills; they are a safe, wholesome, and natural medicine.

Dear Sir:—We have a large and increasing demand for your Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites and there is no doubt as its valuable properties become more generally known, its sale will still further increase. ☞ Two or three colds in succession will, with many constitutions, securely establish the seeds of consumption in the system, thus converting what was originally a simple, curable affection, into one general fatal. Ordinary prudence therefore makes it the business of everyone to take care of a cold until it is got rid of. Fortunately "Bryan's Pulmonic Wafers" are thoroughly adapted to remove speedily all coughs and colds and are equally effective in the primary stages of consumption, asthma and bronchitis. Sold by all druggists and country dealers. Price 25 cents per box.

Poor Horses.—There are thousands of poor horses dragging out a miserable existance, suffering from a variety of diseases, rendering them almost worthless, that would be restored to a healthy and sound condition, and a value given to them of which their owners never dreamed, would they but use the means within their reach. From one to three packages of "Sheridan's Condition Powders and Animal Health Remedy" will in all cases produce a satisfactory result; hundreds have testified to the fact. Remember the name, and see that the signature of Hard & Co. is on each package. Northrop & Lyman, Newcastle, Ontario, proprietors for Canada. Sold by all medicine dealers.
