TOWN AND COUNTRY.

FRIDAY EVENING, JUNE 21, 1872.

☞ SEE FIRST AND FOURTH PAGES.

CAUTION.—Brigade Major Phillips cautions persons approaching Hamilton's Cove or Dead Man's Bay, as ball firing has commenced at the butts.

WIMBLEDON TEAM.—Several members of the Wimbledon team have passed Eastward en route for Quebec, from which place they will leave for England aboard the "Scandinavian" to-morrow.

RIDEAU CANAL.—There is a large leak under the lower lock gates at Kingston Mills, which will impede the navigation for about a week. It is not now closed, but difficult. The repairs will be done as speedily as possible.

THE VERY REVEREND PRINCIPAL SNODGRASS, with Mrs. Snodgrass, leaves town to-day for Quebec, en route for Scotland. The Very Reverend gentleman proposes to remain in Great Britain until October next. We wish him a safe and pleasant journey.

REMORSELESS.—Some remorseless fiend, who has not common consideration for suffering humanity in his frame, has invented an imitation or medification of the bag-pipes as a toy, and the children were to-day going about the streets with it, making life unhappy.

DINNER TO MESSRS. HOLTON AND DORION.—The friends of Messrs. Holton and Dorion have determined to invite those gentlemen to a dinner at Montreal on the 27th inst. But yesterday, which was the first occasion of the dinner being mentioned, a number of gentlemen testified their intention of becoming subscribers, and a large proportion of the available seats were secured.

NEW FIRM.—Mr. F. S. Rees has retired from his grocery business after a most successful career, in which he has served the public well and merited the wide patronage he has received. He is to be worthily succeeded by his brother, Mr. A. S. Rees, and Mr. E. Beyden, both of whom are very favorably known, and will retain the patronage of the store, and improve its business, if anything. We wish them every success.

LAST NIGHT'S NEWS.

Despatches from Geneva and Washington show that there is still some hope for the success of the Treaty of Washington.

In the House of Commons last night, Mr. Gladstone stated that the success or failure of the Washington Treaty would not effect the Canadian loan or the San Juan boundary question.

The banquet which was given in honor of Lord Lisgar, last evening, in the St. Lawrence Hall, Montreal, was a grand success; and it must have been exceedingly gratifying to His Excellency, whose departure from Canada is regretted by all.

Court of Chancery.

JUDGMENTS.

Hinckley v. Gildersleeve.—Decree for plaintiffs. Lease of Wolfe Island Canal to defendant held void. Costs to be paid by unsuccessful defendant to the other parties to the suit.

Gildersleeve v. Wolfe Island Railway and Canal Company.—Decree for plaintiff for amount of two debentures made by defendants. Defendants to get their costs of defence.

THE EXECUTION OF MRS CAMPBELL.

FURTHER PARTICULARS.

BOSTON, June 20.—The murderess Phoebe Campbell expiated her crime upon the scaffold this morning. The unfortunate woman was perfectly resigned to her fate, and seemed to be prepared for it.

She spent her last night in religious exercises, in which she was assisted by several clergymen and some ladies, who, since her condemnation, have been unremitting in their attention to her.

She left her cell for the scaffold at about twenty minutes past eight o'clock, and walked steadily along the passages and down the stairs, and on reaching the gate leading to the gaol yard she shook hands with several persons whom she recognised, and bade them good-bye in the most collected manner. The platform was the same upon which Pickard was executed, and the wretched creature walked up the steps leading to it in the most determined style.

The hangman pinioned her in the open air, and she submitted to this process without evincing the slightest emotion, even watching the cords as they were made fast about her person.

She knelt down on the centre of the trap and the bolt was pulled immediately. The drop given was apparently too long, as her feet nearly touched the ground. She died without a struggle, retaining in her hand a pocket handkerchief, which she expressed a wish to have buried with her.

After hanging about half an hour the body was taken down and placed in a shell for interment. The usual formality of an inquest was held and a verdict returned in accordance with the facts.

The Rev. Mr. Jones read a statement that she had written, the substance of it being expressions of thanks to various persons who had been kind to her during her incarceration.

To Cure a Cough, to relieve all irritations of the throat, to restore to perfect soundness and health the most delicate organization of the human frame—the Lungs,—use Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, which is still prepared with the same care in the selection and compounding of its various ingredients as when it was introduced to the public by Dr. Wistar, over 40 years since.

CANADIAN PATRIOTISM.—The following are the first two classes of the constitution of the new society called "The United Canadian Association" 1st. That the various Canadian societies form a central organization; to endeavor to give uniformity to the efforts of each, encouraging Canadian interests, and that the Central body be called the United Canadian Association. 2nd. That the objects of the Association shall be to gather and diffuse a knowledge of Canadian History: to encourage a Canadian national sentiment; a pride in our country, confidence in its future, its power and resources.
