At the Menagerie

I like the armadillo, I respect the kangaroo,
I'm nuts upon the monkeys, and adore the cockatoo;
I believe there's latent talent in the wombat and the stoat,
And I think the hippopotamus entitled to a vote.

I know not why or wherefore, but, however it may be,
The beaver (Castor fiber) has a nameless charm for me:
I've met with true politeness from the lynx, and 'pon my soul,
I cannot speak too highly of the common Yankee mole.

I love to watch the creatures, and to learn their little games;
I call them from my fancy all the prettiest pet names.
There's the camel, Humpty-Dumpty; Neck or Nothing, the giraffe;
Jolly Guash, the old hyena, with his idiotic laugh.

I mark the restless motions of the more ferocious lote—
How the tigers shift their places, and the leopards change their spots;
I visit, too, the burly bear, and give my wonted dole.
[N.B.—The paler bear is not the bear that climbs the pole.]

Then let us be to every beast a patron and a friend;
Each tells his tale, each has his aim, as sure as he's his end;
A lesson's to be learned for them, and man himself may steal
Some new light from the tapir, some impression from the seal.

CURRENCY.

—Seven circuses are perambulating Kansas.

—Hanging is getting hereditary in Georgia.

—Iowa's latest curiosity is a five-footed mule.

—Cologne is celebrated for its absence of cleanliness.

—Laudanum is winning a series of victories in Rochester.

—There is a very fatal epidemic among the horses in Georgia.

—England is likely to have a short fruit and grain crop this year.

—A Detroit woman struck by lightning called lustily for the police.

—Apples, poisoned with locusts' eggs, are killing children in Tennessee.

—Mosquitoes seriously interfere with the lumber business in Wisconsin.

—One woman in twenty in Detroit uses snuff. So the tobacconists report.

—Illinois farmers are paying boys one cent a dozen for gathering potato bugs.

—A Des Moines dog took five bullets in his head before he consented to die.

—A gentle maiden in Philadelphia punished an intruding dog by putting his eyes out with lime.

—A garter on the left leg formed the entire costume of a little Indian in Wisconsin.

—Londonderry, N. H., sends a five-yearold to school whose weight is nineteen pounds.

—Twelve Dubuque girls have been arrested for stealing candy from an old apple woman.

—The New Yorkers rejoice in the fact that eighteen hundred street-cleaners are at work in the city.

—A man was poisoned the other day in Boston by drinking a glass of beer. Moral—Don't drink beer.

—Rachel's father left in his will an order that his illustrious daughter should not be buried in his family vault.

—The Iowa farmer who strapped his shot gun to his plow, to be ready for game, will not be about again for some months.

—Those indefatigable plodders, the Moravians, have, after years of hard work, translated the Bible into the Esquimaux tongue.

—Many persons write articles and send them to an editor to be corrected, as if an editor's office was a house of correction.

—The height of misery.—Putting on a white necktie which you fancy becomes you, and being hailed in the evening as "waiter."

—The famine in Persia is likely to be followed by a season of plenty, as the crops are reported to be in magnificent condition.

—The retail merchants of Nashville are organizing a mutual co-operation society for protection against men who don't pay their bills.

—The most interesting of the relics of the old churches of London are to be found in the Temple—the burial place of the original Knights Templars.

—Mr. Beecher says that as soon as we have got politics settled, business reformed, human nature elevated, he is determined to form a society for the reformation of botanical names.

—At Coburg it is believed that Queen Victoria will abdicate at an early day, and then pass the remainder of her life at Castle Rosenau, where Prince Albert was educated.

—Sir Ronald Stephenson and Mr. George Bruce, London, have been summoned at the Mansion House on a charge of fraudulently conspiring to obtain a quotation on the Stock Exchange of the shares of the Ottawa Railway.

THE PROFESSION OF MURDER.—A letter from Sydney, Australia, gives details of a strange mode of murdering for money. It appears that, some months since a Mr. Walker, an Englishman, answered an advertisement for a clerk, and received a reply stating that he had been accepted, and directing him to proceed to a certain wharf on the evening of the next day, when one of the company's boats would convey him to his employer's place of business. He went to the place named, and was never seen again alive. Two men, named Nichols and Frewde, were arrested on suspicion of having murdered the man, and the case was so thoroughly worked up by the police that not only was their guilt clearly established, but it was ascertained that they had carried on that sort of thing as a regular business for some time, and that several cases of mysterious disappearance were thus accounted for, articles belonging to the victims having been found in their possession.

Hard to Kill Off.

A remarkable case of vitality is attracting great attention from the medical profession in Chicago. About the middle of last month a woman of the name of Simons was shot by her husband in that city, the bullet entering the brain. It was supposed the wound would result fatally within a day or two, but at the expiration of 25 days the woman was still alive, and gaining strength gradually. The bullet remains in her head, but its precise location is unknown, the surgeons not having dared to probe for it for fear of hurting some uninjured portion of the brain. At the last accounts she was able to talk with some effort, but her memory was confused. Still she was able to give an intelligent account of the manner in which she received her injury, saying that her husband fired three times before he hit her, she dodging him in the half dark room.

Tories Shrinking from the Contest.

Mr. Harrisen retires East Toronto. Mr. Debbie retires from East Elgin. Mr. Crowell Wilson retires from East Middlesex. Mr. Ferguson retires from Cardwell. Mr. James Crawford retires from Brockville. Mr. John Crawford retires from South Leeds. Mr Ault retires from Stormont. Mr. Charles Perry retires from West Peterboro'. Mr. Holmes retires from Carleton. Mr. Angus Morrison retires from Niagara. Mr. Munroe retires from West Elgin. And there are at least ten others who are shivering on the brink, afraid to take the plunge.

The ranks of the enemy are disarranged and disheartened. Let Reformers push on their columns, and a greater victory will be the result than has been achieved for many years.

The Laprairie Camp is not the most successful, and the St. Andrew's Camp will be a fizzle; the Volunteers not being willing to go out unclad.

Cable Screw Wire Boots and Shoes are sure to supersede all others because they are the most pliable—durable—do not rip or leak. Try them. All genuine goods are stamped.

To Cure a Cough, to relieve all irritations of the throat, to restore to perfect soundness and health the most delicate organization of the human frame—the Lungs,—use Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, which is still prepared with the same care in the selection and compounding of its various ingredients as when it was introduced to the public by Dr. Wistar, over 40 years since.

The crown of womanly beauty is an elegant coiffure. As this cannot be obtained without the use of some Hair Gloss or fixateur, even by the most skilful artiste, how much should the ladies feel themselves indebted to the inventor of the Great Hair Dressing of the age. Coco-Glycerine, which nourishes and beautifies the Hair, is delightfully perfumed, and leaves no stain on the gentlemen's waistcoats. Ask for Coco-Glycerine. 14

☞ A Common cough or cold should never be trifled with, often when neglected it is converted into a serious and generally fatal pulmonary disease. The more prudent, aware of this, promptly use "Bryan's Pulmonic Wafers" a curative which has sustained its reputation for over twenty years—they are always efficacious and exert a most beneficial influence on all the Bronchial and Pulmonary organs. Sold by all Druggists and country dealers. Price 25 cts. per box.

Tooth ache proceeds from ague in the face, operating upon the exposed nerve of a decayed tooth. Rub the gum thoroughly with the finger, wet with Johnson's Anodyne Liniment, heat the face well, and lap a flannel wet with the liniment on the face, also put a little of the liniment into the cavity of the tooth on cotton.

The system frequently gets out of order and should be at once regulated, else other troubles will ensue; when physic is needed take Parsons' Purgative Pills; they are a safe, wholesome, and natural medicine.

Office of Evans, Mercer & Co., Wholesale Druggists, Montreal November, 1871.—Mr. James I. Fellows. Dear Sir: We have a large and increasing demand for your Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites and there is no doubt as its valuable properties become more generally known, its sale will still further increase. The best proof of the efficiency and high character of the preparation is that medical men are largely prescribing it; and we hear from Dispensing Chemists that prescriptions for Syr. Hypo. C. Fellows are daily on the increase. We are respectfully, EVANS, MERCER & CO.

To Owners of Horses.—It is a well attested fact confirmed by the experience of thousands that "Darley's Condition Powders and Arabian Heave Remedy" for horses is superior to anything of the kind now or ever known. We know that it has been used in many cases where the horse has been considered almost worthless, with the most satisfactory result, the horse having been restored to perfect soundness or so much benefitted that the complaint could scarcely be observed. Many such horses have afterwards been sold for from $50 to $100 more than they would have previously brought, and were well worth the difference; let all interested consider this. Remember the name, and see that the signature of Hurd & Co. is on each package. Northrop & Lyman, Newcastle, Ont., proprietors for Canada. Sold by all medicine dealers.

A Chemical Food & Nutritive Tonic.

THE GREAT POPULARITY OF DR. WHEELER'S COMPOUND ELIXIR OF PHOSPHATES AND CALISAYA is owing to its perfect reliability in building up constitutions run down with diseases of the Stomach, Liver and Kidneys which arise from Dyspepsia or Feeble Digestion, and result in poor blood and breaking down of the general health. It effectually relieves pain or a sense of fullness in the Stomach after eating, Heart-burn, Flatulence, Constipation from torpid liver, Bilious Headaches, Irritation of the Kidneys and Bladder from the red deposit in the Urine, irritability and restlessness followed by nervous prostration, and general debility which inevitably arises from the one common cause—Dyspepsia or feeble Digestion. All those delicate constitutions that lack energy and vitality, and are unable to arouse themselves to any exertion or undergo any fatigue, will be astonished at the rapidity with which the whole system is raised out of this prostrate condition and energized and vitalized under the use of this preparation. It is harmless, delicious, does not lose its effect, and is not followed by a relapse. Sold at $1.00.
