S. WOODS.

It is rumored that the Honorable Peter Mitchell, Minister of Marine and Fisheries intends to resign his seat in the Senate and offer himself for election to the Commons.

Ottawa politics seem to be in a foggy condition. A correspondent of the Mail telegraphs that journal that "A public meeting on behalf of Mr. D. O'Connor, a leading representative of the Irish Catholics, who is out as a Government candidate, is to come off next Tuesday."

The Leader's Ottawa correspondent says that "Mr. Daniel O'Connor accepted a nomination for this city, last night. His party are trying to split the friends of Mr. Currier and Mr. Lewis by circulating a rumor that Mr. Currier and Mr. O'Connor are going to run a ticket. The statement is false, as Mr. Lewis and Mr. Currier are friends and their political views are similar."

Mr. O'Connor being, according to the Mail, the Government candidate, it necessarily follows that, if he is trying to split the friends of Mr. Currier and Mr. Lewis, these gentlemen are not friendly to the government. Mr. Lewis has already announced himself an Independent. Mr. Currier consequently is an Independent also if "their political views are similar." Which, all things considered, is not very disheartening news when we reflect on the enormous influence necessarily wielded by the Government in the Capital.

The Campaign is fairly inaugurated. Mr. Blake has spoken twice, Mr. Mackenzie has delivered his first shot at Montreal, and Mr. J. H. Cameron, of Peel, has set the Conservative ball rolling, to use his own words. There will be a dinner given to the Conservative leaders at Peterboro to-night, at which Sir John Macdonald and some of his colleagues will be present.

A telegram from New York says that Mr. Watson, an Ohio Railway man and ex-under Secretary for war during the Rebellion, has been tendered and accepted the nomination for the Presidency of the Erie Railroad. His election is considered certain. Since the death of Fisk, Erie has been too much for Jay Gould to manage. He has been baffled and outwitted at all points, and his autocracy over the road, secured him by the corruption of New York Judges, wrested from him.

THE BALLOT BILL IN THE LORDS.

The treatment received by the Ballot Bill, at the hands of the Peers, necessarily gives rise to reflections on the usefulness of England's second Estate. Last summer their Lordships threw out the Bill as well as the one providing for the abolition of the purchase of commissions in the army. By a resort to a prerogative of the Crown, Mr. Gladstone was able to checkmate the Upper House on the latter question, but the former he held over, hoping, no doubt, that time would convince them of the futility of opposing the will of the People. The Bill was again introduced to, and passed by the Commons at its present session and sent up to their Lordships, who amended it in such a manner that secret voting would not be compulsory but optional. This would have the effect of negativing the object of the Bill, for a tenant or employee who insisted on casting his ballot secretly, while the law did not compel him to do so, by so doing laid himself open to suspicion of voting antagonistic to the wishes of his landlord or employer. A Ballot Bill of this kind was about as good as no Ballot bill at all; and the Commons very properly, when the Bill was sent down to them for concurrence, refused acquiescence and insisted on the Bill as originally passed. Our morning telegrams relate its subsequent history. The Peers abandoned their position as to secret voting being left optional and passed the Bill by a vote of 137 to 138, making the reservation, however, that the Act is to be provisional only. There does not seem to be anything very objectionable in the latter provision, as if the Bill is found to work well and fulfil the expectations of its supporters it will, in all probability be re-enacted; while if it is a failure and works an injury instead of a benefit, no objection can be taken to its being allowed to lapse.

The House of Lords, it must be confessed, does not appear to advantage in this, its last contest with the Commons. As on the great popular questions which have come before it of recent years it has had to give way and acknowledge the supremacy of the popular will. What function it serves in the State, is not easily discovered, for by its defeats by the Commons it acknowledges that it is powerless to stem the popular tide and unable to conserve its most cherished institutions. The Irish Church has gone by the board, nothwithstanding the predictions of constitutional wreck and ruin which would attend its downfall, the Army as well as the Civil service has been opened to competitive examination, and now the Ballot Bill clips their Lordships of much of their influence as territorial magnates, notwithstanding their undisguised aversion to it. The Peers are supposed to be the champions of the landed interest and the continued existence of the House of Lords is strongly defended on that ground. But what avails the argument when in a tussle with the Commons, they have to give way? If they are to have no real power which they can actively assert, their existence separate from the Commons which holds the reins as well as the purse of the State, would seem to be an anomaly. If their Lordships are to be of any use in the Body Politic they should show it by insisting on their restrictive, a power being recognized by the lower branch of the Legislature. If they find that they are out of step with the times, that it is dangerous to thwart the will of the people and are thro' fear of their own existence as a Legislative Bodyf afraid to hold fast by their opinions and have to invariably acquiesc in the decision of the Commons the necessity of having a second Chamber to formaly ratify the legislative acts of another Body does not strike us as very forcible.

CITY COUNCIL — REGULAR MEETING.

The Regular Meeting of the City Council was held on Monday evening, the Mayor in the Chair. Present, Aldermen Allen, Brophy, A. Chown, E. Chown, Cunningham, Harty, Livingston, McKelvey, Richardson, Robinson, and Sullivan. The minutes of past meetings were read and approved.

A communication from Ald. Briggs, who was not able to be present, stating that the Board of Public Schools had applied for the use of the City Park for one day next week, for the children's pic-nic.—Referred to the Park Committee to act.

The reply of the Governor General to the address of the corporation presented on Dominion Day, was read and received, on motion of Mr. Cunningham.

A letter was read from Mr. Thos. C. Wilson, accepting the decision of the committee on Fire, Water and Gas, not to accept his lot for an engine house, but denying that he had made any new terms, also letter of Mr. Chas. McSorley, offering to release his rental claim on the picket barracks, if the city desires it for an engine house.—Referred to the Committee on Fire, Water and Gas.

Petition of Henry Crew, asking for assistance from the corporation.—Referred.

Of the Orangemen of Kingston, praying for permission to erect an arch on Princess street in front of their Hall.—Granted on motion of Mr. Livingston, seconded by Dr. Sullivan.

An account of Messrs. W. B & S. Anglin for the erection of a flag staff, approved by the Mayor and City Engineer, was presented. Mr. Allen moved that the account be paid in full.

Mr. McKelvey asked if this was all that the flag staff cost. The Mayor answered that $50 was already paid. Mr. McKelvey then asked, who ordered the flag staff? Mr. Allen said the Market No. 2 Committee had done the work. He advocated the erection of flag staffs in every ward.

The Mayor explained that the items were correct, but the account had been thrown out by the Finance Committee as not being a proper one for the corporation to pay.

Mr. Cunningham made a similar statement. The city could not afford to pay for useless things when it could not afford many useful ones.

Mr. McKelvey wanted the account more in detail.

Mr. Chown considered that the account was most irregularly presented. It had been battered about for two years, and was now presented at a slim council meeting. An account for lumber for the staff had been passed through the council in a secret manner.

Mr. Allen thought the opposition to the flag account was petty, and he hoped that the flag would fly half mast for some of the opponents some day.

The Aldermen who opposed the account stated that they did so because they thought it an extravagant charge. If the account was properly audited they would support it. They objected to Ald. Allen's abuse, however.

Mr. Chown's amendment was lost, and the account passed; yeas—Ald. Allen, Brophy, Harty, Livingston, Robinson and Sullivan—6.

Nays—Ald. A. Chown, E. Chown, Cunningham, McKelvey, Richardson—5.

Mr. McKelvey presented the report of the Committee on Licenses, reducing Mr. Finlay's license one-sixth, and recommending the Carters' petition, for an increase of tariff, to the favorable consideration of the Police Commissioners.—Adopted.

Mr. Allen objected to the City Solicitor's opinion that the council had no power to make tariffs; if the council had not power it was derogatory to its dignity.

Mr. McKelvey replied to Ald. Allen's alleged contemptuous remarks on the Police Commissioners and the report, and the debate becoming somewhat personal, Aldermen Robinson, Harty and Brophy left. Therefore there was no quorum and the council had to adjourn.

NEW CHURCH AT PAKENHAM.—On Wednesday last the corner stone of a new church in the township of Pakenham was laid by the Dean of Ontario in the presence of many clergy of the Diocese and neighborhood, and a number of parishioners.

BOSTON, July 8.—A banquet was given this evening for the Irish National Band at Faneuil Hall by the Irish citizens of Boston.

NEW YORK, July 8.—A meeting in reference to the Erie Railway election was held to-night at the residence of Wm. Barlow. Mr. Henry announced that Mr. Blackston, President of the Chicago and Alton Railroad, declined to be placed on nomination for Presidency of the Erie. It was then unanimously agreed to offer nomination to H. P. Watson, Brother-in-law of the former Secretary of War and himself Assistant Secretary of War during the rebellion. Mr. Watson was sent for and accepted his nomination. Mr. Henry's interest have agreed on him and his election to-morrow is declared certain. Mr. Watson is connected with railroad interests in Ohio; Vanderbilt recommended him as a suitable man for the position.

CINCINNATI, July 8.—A special to the Gazette says, 3000 people gathered at Celina, Mercie, and overpowering the jailor took from the prison Jacob Kimble and Alex. McCloud, who were arrested for ravishing Miss Secor, two weeks ago, and then murdering her. The crowd announced determination to execute the sentence which outraged community has pronounced. It is believed they will not return until the prisoners have paid the penalty with their lives.

NEW YORK, July 8th.—The Academy of Music was crowded to-night, on occasion of Strauss' first concert. Here Strauss received a perfect ovation.

LONDON, July 8th.—The House of Lords was crowded to-night. The Ballot Bill was to come up again; it had been passed with amendment which the House of Commons refused to accept and had been returned to the Upper Chamber for final action, so the contest between the two Houses was expected amid unwonted excitement. Their Lordships voted 137 to 138 not to insist on their amendment of making use of the secret ballot optional, but by a vote of 157 to 68 they adhered to the amendment making the bill provisional. Other impartial amendments were abandoned. The concessions will probably satisfy the Commons, and secure the passage of the bill in Commons to-night. Mr. E. A. Bowing moved to strike out of the estimates the item £4123 for the legal expenses of Ex-Governor Eyre of Jamaica. A lively debate followed, in which the whole question of Eyre's policy in Jamaica and his subsequent trial here for murder was discussed. At the close, however, Mr. Bowing's motion was defeated by a vote of 130 to 243.

VERSAILLES, July 8.—In the Assembly to-day Goulard, Minister of Finance, submitted a bill to raise the loan of three milliards of francs at an interest of 5 per cent. per annum; also, giving the Government power to raise further loans if necessary.

CLEVELAND, July 8.—Yesterday afternoon the wife of Henry P. Southworth, residing in Reckport Township, poisoned her three children, boys aged 9, 7, and 4 years, and then committed suicide by cutting her throat.

McHenry has voted on 25,000,000, and Gilson Loman on 15,000,000 dollars. The following are picked in nomination, there being no opposition:—S. D. Babcock, S. G. McBarlow, J. J. Cisos, C. Day, A. S. Diven, J. A. Dix, W. Butler, D. Gohus, B. Johnston; H. G. Garting, J. Talbot, O. Edwin, D. Morgan, J. V. G. Pruyn, H. Ramsdell, F. Schuchard, W. W. Slippen, W. R. Travers and P. H. Watson. It will be seen that the list of names for the directory differs considerably from the recent one. Peter H. Watson is nominated for President, and A. S. Diven for Vice-President; in their case as in that of the directory there is no opposition.

Opening of St. Andrew's Hall.

Last evening the new St. Andrew's Hall, attached to St. Andrew's Church on Princess Street, was opened with a musical and literary entertainment. The new Hall, which will accommodate 600 persons, was filled to repletion, the concert being a popular one. The new Hall presented a handsome appearance. It was decorated with tartan and pretty devices. It will be a decided acquisition to the Y.M.C.A. and Sunday school, as well as the congregation of St. Andrew's. It supplies a much felt want.

The opening and closing marches were played by Mr. Doward in artistic style on the new organ presented by Mr. Hardy. The Messrs. Tandy and G. W. Craig opened the vocal part with a trio "The May-Fly," and were applauded, as these vocalists so well deserve. Mr. R. Tandy afterwards sang with his accustomed taste, "Come in the Garden, Maud," and being encored, loudly responded with "Kate Kearney." A quartette by the Messrs. Tandy and the Messrs. Craig, "Caller Herring," was very well received, and not less by the Messrs Tandy's latest duett, "Albion on this Fertile Plains." Mr. and Mrs. Grylls, who are very popular also as amateur vocalists, sang "The Days that are no More," and gave much pleasure, while Mrs. Grylls' solo was heartily applauded. Mr. Walkem sang "Duncan Gray," in fine style and was encored, but responded not. Mrs. Dyckman's song was that of the evening however, being the pretty piece, prettily rendered, "Sing me an English Song." Mr. W. G. Craig sang "Flee as a bird," and called forth plaudits. The Readings were all capital. Prof. Ferguson's fine rendering was, perhaps, too long for a heated audience; Mr. Woods' "Nothing to Wear" was very entertaining; Mr. J. M. Machar made quite a hit with the humorous poetical, and Prof. Murray made a scholarly rendering of Scottish ballads. Strawberries and ice cream were served in the garden of the Manse, which was illuminated with Chinese lanterns, &c., &c. These peices were also encored, but did not respond often. There was two great a demand for them to go twice around. The Entertainment was altegether a very pleasing one.

Early Closing Movement.

DEAR WHIG,—It was said by Cicero that all retail dealers, grocers I suppose among the rest, must necessarily be dishonest, as they buy at wholesale but sell at retail and greatly advanced prices. The argument is perhaps not a good one, but I am inclined to believe that the proposition itself has in it a great deal of truth. We have for example, in Kingston, at least one very marked instance of bad faith among them. Following the example of several other classes of business men, we grocers a short time ago set on foot a movement for closing at 7 p.m., and accordingly a written agreement to that effect was signed by many of us and among the rest by one gentleman on Ontario street. The next evening after this he closed his shutters at the appointed hour but kept his door open. This wonderful exertion seems, however, to have utterly exhausted his energies, for the next evening and every week evening since his shop has been open till 10, with a view, no doubt, to catching any stray improvident who may have neglected to get his groceries before 7 p.m.

Yours &c.,

A GROCER.

THE ADDRESS TO EARL OF DUFFERIN

REPLY OF HIS EXCELLENCY.

Last evening His Worship the Mayor received the following reply to the address of the Corporation of Kingston to our new Governor General:

To the Council of the Corporation of Kingston:

Gentlemen—The delay which has unavoidably occurred in the transmission of any answer to your address, affords me an opportunity of assuring you, not only of my hearty thanks for your expressions of welcome, but of the pleasure that has attended my first visit to Kingston.

The prospects of Canada never appeared brighter that at the present time; the great work of uniting the Provinces which stretch across the Continent of America has been accomplished, and the less difficult but yet important task awaits me of assisting by all means in my power the consolidation of the Dominion, and development of its vast resources. I feel that this end can best be secured by maintaining in their integrity the political institutions of the Country, institutions under which liberty and happiness are enjoyed in a very high degree, and by whose influence the Provinces of Canada are invited with their fellow countrymen in the British Isles.

Your expressions of affections for our Most Gracious Queen confirm me in the opinion I had already formed that the common bond of loaylty unites with a firm hold Canada with the mother country. That these expressions are no empty words. I have had no opportunity of proving during my visit to the Camp, and I have no doubt that should occasion unhappily occur, the Militia of the Dominion would evince the same valour and determination that animated their fathers.

Both Lady Dufferin and myself feel that that the best guarantee for our happiness whilst residing in Canada, lies in the cordiality of the reception that has been accorded us, and in the prospect that a better acquaintance may augment the mutual esteem which already exists between ourselves and the people of the Dominion with whom as yet we have been brought in contact.

July 4th, 1872.

Horrible Catastrophe.

ALLIANCE, OHIO, July 5.—The new coal mines, two miles north of Limaville, on the Cleveland and Pittsburg Railroad, took fire about three o'clock on Wednesday afternoon. There were twenty men and one boy in the mine when the fire began. Eleven escaped. Nine men and the boy were smothered to death. Up to eleven o'clock this morning seven bodies have been recovered. The fire has subsided.

Lord Dufferin.

As many of our readers may not be acquainted with the past career of Lord Dufferin, our new Governor-General, we publish the following taken from the Peerage list:—

Earl Dufferin, 4th Baron (Ireland) created 1800; Baron Clandeboye 1800 (Ireland); Baron Clandeboye 1850 (United Kingdom)—by which title he held his seat in the House of Lords; Baronet 1763; Knight of St. Patrick 1863; Knight Champion of the Bath (civil) 1862; Frederick Temple Hamilton Blackwood, only son of the 3rd Baron by the eldest daughter of the late Thomas Sheridan, Esq., born at Florence, 1826; married, 1862, the eldest daughter of the late Archibald Hamilton, Esq., of Killyleath Castle, Co. Malpractice.

New York, July 7.—A horrible case of malpractice has been developed at Morrisiana. FRUIT GROWERS' ASSOCIATION.—This Association met in the Town Hall, Guelph, on Thursday afternoon last. The first question on the card was the codlin moth, during the consideration of which a very lively discussion arose as to the Parliamentary law prohibiting the shooting of all birds, many fruit growers contending that they were all more or less insect devourers, whilst other gentlemen contended for the opposite; in fact Mr. Allen, of Kingston, who seems well posted in their habits) declares that some of these birds devour quite as many of our friends as our enemies; and advocated strongly permission being given to every one to protect his own orchard from the depredation of birds who are epicures enough to prefer a dainty dish of ripe fruit to even the tempting morceau of a hairy caterpillar!—*H. Stokes' Trial.

NEW YORK, July 8.—Jane Mansfield, accompanied by two women, appeared in court to-day. She was elegantly dressed, and intently watched the prisoner. The prisoner's counsel offered a plea of insanity; they wanted to prove that Stokes was defrauded, persecuted and hounded on every occasion by Fisk and his armed ruffians; and that the latter was reduced to desperation by the knowledge that his enemy controlled the corrupt judiciary of the city. All this, they contended, should be received as bearing on Stokes' insanity when he met his pursuer. Judge Beach, for the prosecution, replied that all this talk was simply to affect the jury. He then denounced Stokes' counsel for assailing him because he was associated with the District Attorney. Stokes said he met Fisk on the stairs, Fisk drew a pistol to fire, and he (Stokes) fired first.

SUMMER DRINKS.—Mr. G. S. Hobart of the Medical Hall, left at our office to-day a sample of an ingenious contrivance, which may be briefly described as an every man-his-own-soda-water-manufacturer. It consists of a large glass bottle with a syphon for a cork, from which runs a glass tube to the bottom inside. It is filled by a machine specially made for the purpose, which may be seen at Mr. Hobart's store. You can order one to be filled, give the necessary directions as to syrups, have it sent home and you are as long as it lasts the proprietor in fee of a Soda Water Fountain, under your own vine and fig tree, if you have got such things, if not you're proprietor anyway. It is a decidedly ingenious novelty, and one, for which, we have no doubt, there will be a large demand during this weather when the dog star is on the rampage. The syphon bottles are cheap; they can be filled for a trifle. Who'll want for soda now?

Catholics and Reformers.

Since the Catholics of Ontario have been convinced by the many acts of justice done them since the Blake ministry came into power, that the Liberals are their friends, they have decided to throw their weight into the Reform scale and return to their former allegiance. Sir John perceiving this, has been casting about for some means to be used in an attempt to retain them as supporters of himself and government, and lacking anything better, decided to take O'Connor into the administration and thus make a show of according to his co-religionists a share of representation in the counsels of the country. When there were no apprehensions that the Catholics would join hands with the Reform party; such a thought as dealing fairly by them never once occurred to him; but no sooner did the Ontario Premier associate with himself in the provincial ministry one of the ablest and most upright Catholics in the North American provinces—Scott of Ottawa—than the leader of the Dominion Cabinet became alarmed for his safety and offered to the Essex member a seat on condition that he should bring him the support of his religious persuasion. This repentance at the eleventh hour will fail in its purpose; it is "too thin," and at the polls the conscientious Catholics will be found recording their votes as becomes honest men and patriots.—Woodstock Review.

Tug Accident.

PRESCOTT, July 8.—On Saturday evening, as the tug Edsall was passing this place with a four dram raft of oak and pine timber, her wheel got loose upon the shaft, and the engine had to be stopped. It was fortunately quite calm at the time and the raft was safely moored at the windmill. The Edsall was then anchored. She will be towed to Kingston for repairs. Captain Miller says it will require but a few hours to replace the keying in the shaft when once she is on the dry dock.

TORONTO GAOL.—Mr. John Green, the present efficient Gaoler of the County of Kent, after a residence in Chatham of twenty years, has been appointed Governor of Toronto prison, Mr. Allen having resigned that important position.

THE SHANNONVILLE DISASTER.—To-day's report of the condition of the sufferers by the Shannonville disaster is, we are happy to state, much more hopeful in its character than that of any preceding day. Of the 20 patients now in hospital, all are, according to the concurrent opinion of the medical men in attendance, out of danger, and will not be in the least disfigured by their injuries. Eight patients are still in private houses, all of whom are equally favorably reported upon. It is expected that a large proportion of the patients will be sufficiently recovered to leave for their homes during the week.—Belleville Intelligencer.
