DR. DARWIN will be at his Rooms Sundays and Mondays throughout the month.

EXCURSION.—The Y. M. Shamrock Benevolent Association have decided on an excursion to Ogdensburg this month.

POLICE COURT, Tuesday.—Besides the vagrant prostitutes, arrested near the depot, there was only one case this morning; drunkenness, discharged.

PIC-NICS are really in season. The big affair of the season will be that of the pupils of the Common Schools next week.

THE Island boats were lively to-day with excursionists for the Trinity Church and St. Andrew's Church Pic-nics on Wolfe Island to-day.

CUT AWAY.—The states-prison cut is now the fashionable way of wearing what little hair some of our young men display on the place where the capillary substance ought to vegetate.

A LOSS.—A valuable horse belonging to Mr. P. Devlin, cab driver, broke his leg by some means in the stable—so badly that he had to be shot to relieve the poor beast of pain.

PIC-NICS.—The St. Andrew's Church Sunday School have a pic-nic at Wolfe Island to-day, and St. George's Cathedral in a grove near Portsmouth on Wednesday.

THEY do say that yesterday was the hottest day of the season—the thermometer registering 82° in the shade. We take exception, however; we will bet on to-day for honor of being the hottest day.

A RAID.—Last night the Police force, or rather a part of it, made an advance on a resort of notorious, abandoned creatures near the G. T. Depot. They found there Ellen Black, Ann Moran, and Mary Duke, old stagers, who were sent to gaol to-night.

THE OPERATIC CONCERT.—Our music loving citizens are reminded that the reserved seats for this grand entertainment can be engaged at the City Book Store. The indications are that the sale will be a large one. We hope so, as the company certainly deserve and will well repay the patronage.

HYMENIAL.—To-day there were three weddings in St. Mary's Cathedral, one of them being a fashionable one. Mr. Macdonald, a merchant of Glengarry, led to the altar Miss Georgina Macdonell the beautiful and accomplished daughter of the late A. J. Macdonell Esq., we wish the young couple the greatest happiness, and many years of health and prosperity.

KILLED BY LIGHTNING.—A gentleman from Perth tells us of a sad accident which we have not seen reported in the local papers. On Wednesday last a young man left his home about three miles from Lanark, taking a gun with him to hunt. A thunder storm came on and he took shelter under a tree. He was afterwards found dead under it, having been struck by lightning.

CONTRADICTION.—We have received a telegram from Mr. F. W. Campbell, Captain of No. 3 Co., 48th Battalion, stating that the letter which we published yesterday over the signature of Sergeant Angus Macdonald is false, and asking us to deny the charges made in it. Captain Campbell promises to forward explanations by post, on receipt of which we will publish them with pleasure.

HOW TO KEEP COOL.—Just collect a fyle of last January's papers, and read up such as this items. "Our citizens will please bear in mind to keep the snow shovelled off from their sidewalks, otherwise they will be subjected to a fine. It is well also if owners of buildings would see that icicles are not allowed to collect upon the eaves, for with thaws like that of the past day or two, they become loosened and dangerous.

A Big Menagerie Wrecked.

TWELVE CAGES OF WILD BEASTS LET LOOSE NEAR NEW HAVEN—FALL OF A BRIDGE ON A RAILWAY TRAIN—SHOCKING DISASTER.

NEW HAVEN, 3rd.—John Robinson's circus met with an almost irremediable disaster on the New York and New Haven Railroad early this morning. The cages containing the wild beasts had been shipped from Bridgeport on a freight train to this city. The passenger car for the accommodation of the performers, drivers and attendants, was attached to the rear of the train.

As the train was passing under a road way bridge, two miles west of the city, the bridge fell. The falling timbers first struck the platform cars, on which were the cages. Twelve of the latter were smashed, and six of the largest were swept off in an instant, strewing the track for several hundred feet with their broken fragments.

The caged brutes, thus suddenly freed from their imprisonment, broke loose in every direction. The monkeys were the first out, followed quickly by two young lions and a wild cat. A valuable tiger, three striped kangaroos, and several of the animals were crushed and instantly killed. Most of the eagles, of which there was a valuable collection, flew away, as also did several of the smaller birds.

The train was promptly stopped, and it was ascertained that four of the circus drivers had sustained severe injuries. Mr. G. N. Robinson, the treasurer of the company, had a narrow escape. He was asleep in the ticket waggon, which was smashed into splinters, scattering the money in every direction, but he escaped without a scratch. The loss to the company is estimated at $50,000.

The rear car and its inmates escaped uninjured. The spectacle at the instant of the overturning of the cages was at once ludicrous and alarming. The monkeys chattering and screaming scampered up the sides of the broken bridge, and seemed to enjoy the fun.

The tigers, Blondin and Dick, after lapping up the blood of several of their less fortunate companions, sprang across the ditch and disappeared. The bear crippled, limped off up the track, scaring the engineer and fireman nearly out of their wits. The conductor chased by a hyena, saved his life by climbing a telegraph pole at a critical moment.

The wolves dined off the smaller members of the happy family, and then disappeared in the same direction as the tigers, and, it is feared, after more prey. One of the large rattlesnakes was cut in two, but his companions, a dangerous boa constrictor and two smaller snakes, were last seen shooting off in the grass toward this city.

As it is known that several of the most dangerous and blood-thirsty members of the menagerie are loose the utmost consternation reigns here. To-night a large party, armed with guns and revolvers, are scouring within a circuit of five miles of the scene of the accident looking for the truants.

Do you want the best shoe ever made, one that will not rip or come apart? Then buy the CABLE SCREW WIRE BOOTS AND SHOES—all have the patent.

Few People unacquainted with physiological chemistry are aware of the quantity of iron in the blood, but all should know the importance of keeping up the supply for debility, disease and death are sure to follow when the quantity becomes too reduced. The Peruvian Syrup (a protoxide of iron) supplies this vital element, and has cured many chronic diseases.

☞ Did you ever think that what is termed a common cold, when systematically neglected, often leads to that most fatal and distressing disease—consumption—but when attended to at once is generally easy of cure. If you are troubled with a cold or cough, "Bryan's Pulmonic Wafers" will be found to be the most efficacious in removing it. They give immediate relief, and generally effect a cure when used in time. Sold by all Druggists and country dealers. Price 25 cents per box.
