THE HUBBARD COMBINED

Reaper and Mower.

THIS celebrated Reaping and Mowing Machine, which competed in the City Park, Kingston, on the 20th of June, against the Noxton Standard, was pronounced by the following gentlemen, who were present at the trial, to be the best Combined Machines in the market, and would strongly recommend the Hubbard Reaper and Mower to the Farmers as a First-Class Machine:—

Thomas McGrath, James McCollum, W. Keenan, of Storrington; Robert Forsyth, Henry Smith, W. Harker, of the Township of Kingston; Edward Rogers, Alex. McCollum, of Pittsburg; Thomas Dennison, of Portland; James Patterson, of Amherst Island; Sheriff Ferguson, of Kingston; and many others.

DR. DARWIN will be at his Rooms Sundays and Mondays throughout the month.

THE BEST WAY to keep cool this weather is to take Messrs. McRae & Co's. and Harback & Co's. clarets in ice.

HAVE you seen the Ballykilbeg Room Paper at Mr. Wm. Robinson's?

BEING COMPLETED.—Mr. Robt. White's new wholesale drug store is approaching completion. Mr. White has all the push a rising young merchant could desire.

MESSRS. Shaw & Minnes say they have the boss show of kid gloves for the 12th.

THERE has been a great sale of Orange Regalia this year.

OPENING UP.—The Montreal Telegraph Co. have opened offices at Battersea and Milburn, in our own county. We are glad to find this march of improvement.

RIDEAU CANAL.—The Gazette has returned from the locks at Kingston Mills, the repairs having been completed. Yesterday morning the Str Louise was let through, being the first boat down.

MR. JOHNSTON, while in Kingston, will be the guest of M. W. Strange, Esq., P. M., who has asked a number of the prominent gentlemen of Kingston to meet the distinguished visitor at lunch on Saturday.

WRECK OF THE KINGSTON.—A party of wreckers, under command of Captain Howard, of Montreal, with a tug and the proper appliances, has left to raise the machinery and hull of the Royal Mail steamer Kingston, lately destroyed by fire at Grenadier Island, near Brockville.

ON LEAVE.—Mr. McGurn, of the Post Office Department, has received three months leave of absence, which he intends spending with his friends in the old country. Mr. McGurn is an old and faithful officer and well deserves a holiday. He left for England to-day. We wish him a pleasant voyage.

THE CLAIM.—This morning at ten o'clock the taking of evidence in the matter of the claim of Mr. J. D. Noble for $300,000, against the U. S. Government, was begun at the office of Col. Hance, U. S. Consul. For the benefit of a witness it was soon adjourned till 2 p.m., however.

MR. JOHNSTON'S MOVEMENTS.—Mr. Johnston leaves Kingston on Saturday or Monday next for Belleville, remaining there until Wednesday morning. He will be at Cobourg on the 18th; Port Hope 19th and 20th; Peterboro' 22nd; Lindsay 23rd; Toronto 24th to the 28th; Ancaster 29th; St. Catharines 30th; and Niagara Falls 31st July.

THE PICTON HARBOR.—A deputation from Picton waited upon the Hon. Alex. Campbell here a day or two since, with a view to obtaining assistance towards dredging the Picton Harbor. The Hon. gentleman assured the deputation that in the event of one of the Government dredges being unemployed, the Government would have pleasure in lending it to the Picton authorities for a short time.

APPOINTMENT.—Colonel Ferrest of the Ottawa B.G. Artillery has been appointed by the Imperial Government surveyor to the Commission to determine the boundary line between the United States and Canada from the Lake of the Woods to the Rocky Mountains, at a salary of £600 per annum. We congratulate Col. Forrest, who is now here in camp, on his appointment.

FREE ROADS.—A bargain and sale have been entered into by which the Richmond Road Company has transferred their interest in their roads to the County Council of this County. W. S. Wilkams, Esq., with the transfer went to Kingston yesterday in order to obtain the signature of John Stevenson, Esq., the President of the road, to the same. Mr. Stevenson being there on a visit to his son.—Napanee Standard.

GREAT BRITAIN.

Sir Edward Landseer is hopelessly deranged.

Mr. and Mrs. Leech, the parents of the deceased artist, John Leech, are dead.

The eldest son of a most influential English Duke is about to be received into the Roman Catholic Church.

Ex-Governor Eyre will be indemnified for the legal expenses incurred in his trial for murder in the suppression of the West Indian mutiny.

The London Cobden Club call an international conference in London next year to consider free trade as it effects Europe and America.

At a recent dinner in Harley street (by no means one of the most fashionable streets in London) the flowers and the dessert cost £400, the peaches alone being 12 guineas a dozen.

Great consternation was caused at Exmouth by the elopement of a very young lady connected with a distinguished Devonshire family with a half-pay military officer, who has left a wife and family.

Mrs. Fanny Foster, a lady who has had practice in amateur theatrical companies, but who has never before appeared on the theatrical stage, has made a decided hit as Grace Harkaway in "London Assurance."

According to the nineteenth annual report of the Anti-Tobacco Society, £18,000,000 per annum is squandered on tobacco—that enemy to health, that dishonor to the Creator, and the derogator from purity and sobriety."

Messrs. Merriam, the publishers, recently sent 16 copies of "Webster's Unabridged" to Colombo, Ceylon; 16 to Japan; 12 to Constantinople, and a large number to China—a proof that English is gradually but surely taking the lead among the world's languages.

Though General Schenck has had some not very pleasant duties to perform since he has been in the country, he is a good deal liked. He gives pleasant receptions on Saturday evening, at his house, Portland place. Having had his right arm wounded in the war he shakes hand with his left.

CANADA.

Toronto has telegraphed to President Thiers for leave to have the French band visit Canada.

Great political excitement prevails in Quebec; meetings were held last Sunday which were largely attended.

A brutal attack was made by a person named Kemp—said to be a volunteer—upon a Mrs. Bardwell, at Guelph, on Friday. The fellow has not been taken.

Lord Dufferin has purchased the yacht Dauntless, in which he intends visiting the Saguenay and Lower St. Lawrence, and subsequently the Thousand Isles.

Ontario has 22 daily journals, 2 tri-weeklies, 1 semi-weekly, and 190 weeklies. Quebec has 10 dailies, 11 tri-weeklies, 8 semi-weeklies, 51 weeklies, 3 semi-monthlies, and 10 monthlies. In British America there are about 400 newspapers published.

It is currently reported that Mr. Pattison, of the Mail, has not only failed to meet the expectations of the directors, but has now discovered that a ring has been formed around him on the staff, and his resignation is daily expected.

Genuine Patent Medicines at Gordon's Drug Store.

An Unlucky Knife.

A Fort Wayne man has a pocket knife which belongs to Wilkie Collins, the English novelist, and has a history. Collins bought it and had his name engraved on it. He lost it at Tours, France. The finder committed a murder with it. Collins chanced to be in attendance at the trial and recovered his knife. He lost it again at Bath, England, and the finder committed suicide with it. Collins again recovered the knife, but lost it a third time. This time it was found in Fort Wayne. The gentleman who picked it up is a great admirer of the novelist, and wrote to him, receiving in reply a letter detailing the above facts.

Freckle Pencils, for removing Freckles and Sunburns, for sale at Gordon's Drug Store.

EXTRAORDINARY SHOOTING.—Mr. Edward Ross and Captain Fenton shot recently to decide a tie for the National Rifle Association Cup. The match took place at Wiston Park, Leicestershire, the residence of Sir Henry Halfore. The agreement was to fire 100 shots—50 at 200 and 50 at 600 yards. The following is the remarkable score of the second day:

200 yards.

E. Ross—4444444444444444444344
Capt. Fenton—4444444443344443444444 334.

600 yards.

E. Ross—4444344444444044444344444
Capt. Fenton—3443343444443443444444 334.

At the 600 yards Mr. Ross fired once without a bullet which will account for the cipher in the score and for the extra shot. The match resulted in a victory for this young gentleman. It will be seen that the score is quite unprecedented, and an honor to a family celebrated for good shooting.

Lubin's and Atkinson's genuine Perfumes at Gordon's Drug Store.

Accident to a Volunteer.

On the return home from Kingston, and when very near home, James Anderson, of the Port Hope Troop, met with a nearly fatal accident; having been struck on the head by one of the overhead bridges just east of the viaduct. He was on the top of the train at the time, and the blow knocked him down between two cars, when he was caught in his descent by another member of the Troop, and carried into the car for dead—nor was it until the train arrived at the station, and he was taken into Christopher's Hotel, that he showed any signs of life. Fortunately his injury is not fatal, and with good luck he will be all right again in a few days.

Honesty at Auctions.

Vice Chancellor Malins gave a decision lately which may form a valuable precedent in sales by auction. A medical man in Rugby bought an estate for $2,500, and only discovered afterwards that there were mortgages to the extent of 2,500, which he took with the land. It was submitted that this fact was mentioned by the auctioneer; but the Vice Chancellor animadverted strongly on the practice of refraining from publishing the conditions of sale until the last moment, amid the hub-bub of an auction room. The contract is, therefore, to be cancelled, and defendant is ordered to pay the costs of the suit, as he had refused a compromise offered by the plaintiff.

THE CELEBRATION.—Kingston will be the principal place of attraction on the coming 12th of July, for Orangemen, and other admirers of Mr. William Johnston, who will flock there in crowds to join in the appropriate celebration of the day. Cheap fares are offered to the city.—Montreal News.
