TOWN AND COUNTRY.

WEDNESDAY EVEN'G, JULY 17, 1872.

☞ SEE FIRST AND FOURTH PAGES.

GOOD night to sleep out of doors.

THEY say Watertown is soon to be favored with a minstrel show. Rather tepid for burnt cork.

The Dominion Telegraph Company have opened an office at Dickinson's Landing, Ont.

EVERYBODY is on the qui vive for the great Excursion of the Y. M. S. B. Association this month.

CITY TAXES.—The Budget for 1872 is about to be prepared, and we will see what tax-payers will have to pay.

IT is reported in Montreal that the Governor General will play in one of the matches against the English Eleven in August.

THERE is plenty of heat at present, but there is a cry for rain. We should like our weather better were it a little mixed.

THE MOONLIGHT EXCURSION to Bath was well attended. The steamer and the moon were all that could be desired. It was a jolly time.

LAST NIGHT'S ENTERTAINMENT was not well attended. Concerts and Readings are out of season. Pic-nics are more in order. Of the merits of the Entertainment we could speak favourablo, we believe, from the praise we hear of it. The usual courtesies were not, however, extended to the Press.

How refreshing upon such a day as this to cast a retrospective glance into the past and think of those mornings last winter when the thermometer marked 34° below zero. And what a splendid time to listen to Dr. Hayes' lecture on the Icebergs. Spare moments may be profitably spent in reading Dr Kane's "Arctic Explorations.

MASONIC FUNERAL.—Yesterday afternoon the Masonic Brethren of the City Lodges attended the funeral of their late brother Donald McDonald, of Cataraqui Lodge, who died on Monday morning. The body was conveyed to Cataraqui Cemetery by the Brethren in procession, and at the house and at the grave the solemn and impressive ceremony of the Order was performed.

FIRE, FIRE.—The Ottawa Citizen's Kingston telegram says: "Major Phillip's residence, Artillery Park, was destroyed by fire last night." Well, we sympathize with the Major, but has he not kept his domestic bonfire rather quiet from the rest of folks? The idea, Major, of your house burning down, and your not letting the Kingston locals know something about it. We are ashamed of you.

THE P. W. O. BAND.—The officers of the 14th are determined to secure the services of a bandmaster; and, at whatever cost to themselves, prove to the people of Kingston that no matter what troubles or difficulties may arise they are determined to keep up the city battalion band. The band committee of last year were unanimously re-elected to office lately, and are still under the presidency of Capt. Barrow.

HOW TO KEEP COOL.—A cool bath in the morning, thin clothes, and frequent changes of under garments, avoidance of exposure to the sun, indulgence in the vegetables and fruits of the season when ripe, will keep even the member of the stay at home club in his usual health. The Boston Globe also suggests that the influence of the heat may be allayed from time to time by cooling drinks taken in moderation. Every apothecary store and fruit stand have some of these simple beverages which are grateful to the palate, and by promoting perspiration keep the pores open and the skin in a healthy condition. Alcoholic liquors and even wines, though iced, add to the heat of the body which they temporarily cool, and the julep or the cobbler is less beneficial than the harmless beer or lemonade.

JUBILEE FINANCES.—The balancing of accounts by the Jubilee Committee reveals the unwelcome fact that there is a deficit of $150,000, which will have to be made up from the guarantee fund, unless some method of swelling the receipts is hit upon. The building and fixtures still remain, but these hardly make up the loss. Mr. Gilmore, who has worked night and day for many months in bringing his great conception into shape, finds no return for his exhaustive labors, and the proceeds of his benefit were generously donated by him to the association.
