FRIDAY EVEN'G, JULY 19, 1872.

☞ SEE FIRST AND FOURTH PAGES.

O, FOR a lodge in some vast refrigerator.

DON'T rub the frost off the window panes.

HEAT your feet often and there is little danger of taking cold.

THE full time allotted paper collars to remain in presentable condition, these days is just nineteen minues.

IT is only 132 degrees hotter now than it was once or twice last winter. What's the use of grumbling about 132 degrees?

SOUTH LEEDS.—Notice has been given that a Reform Convention will be held at Delta on Thursday, the 25th inst., to select a candidate; the basis of representation to be one delegate from each school section.

INTERIM SESSIONS.—Jas. Fraser, charged with stealing two coats from a scow on Wednesday, and since committed at the Police Court for trial, was to-day brought before Judge Burrowes in Interim Sessions, convicted and sentenced to gaol for three months.

SENT TO PENITENTIARY.—The trial of Cornwall for the abduction of Dr. Bratton, was closed before Judge Elliott at London. The prisoner on being cautioned and asked to plead, said he had no remarks to make, and was sentenced to three years in the penitentiary. There is great public indignation against the culprit, and all agree that the sentence was more than justified.

SIGNS OF THE TIME.—Circulars were issued yesterday to the trusty followers of the gallant knight of Kingston, signed by an officer of Committee, requesting the persons to whom they were addressed "to be kind enough to attend a meeting of some friends of Sir John Macdonald at my office to-morrow, (Friday) Evening at 7 p.m." That is bright; be careful as to the time. Without such an explicit announcement it might have been mistaken for to-morrow evening at 7 a.m.

DEAD BEAT.—The Watertown Despatch says:—"A fellow came along here the other day and represented that he was the advance agent of Whittemore & Clark's Minstrels. He has been proved a fraud. He got into a hotel in town for three or four days board and into us for some printing. Look out for him." The same dead beat has been in Kingston this week for three days, playing the same game on one of the Hotels, but not on the printers, though our contemparary made an announcement of the show, this is not to come off.

POLICE COURT, Friday.—Ebenezer Jones—another of the Joneses—was charged with having been drunk and disorderly, and with having broken windows at the British American Hotel. Fined $2 and costs. Elizabeth Ddugherty vs Elizabeth Donoghue, abusive language, was adjourned, no end of excitement among the principals of the case. Several of the butcher merchants were again summoned for having unclean slaughter houses, and got one more respite from a fine, and no more.

CRICKET.—To-morrow the last match of the year will come off between the Kingston Club and the G.T. RR. Club. The ground is being put in excellent order, and to-morrow the new stand will be open for the ladies, while the cricketers will have a club-house underneath to lunch in, and to retire into from the heat of the sun when not playing. The new club-house is not as large or expensive as the former one, but it suits all the purposes required of one. The Grand Trunk bring forward a strong team to-morrow, including Reid from Cobourg, Mills from Belleville, and W. Peden from Brockville. The K.C.C. have their boss team ready, too.

IN GENERAL.

Watch cases are now made of India rubber.

The war debt of France amounts to $670,000,000.

The new Government building to be erected at Chicago, is to cost $2,700,000.

The leader of an orchestra at Richmond claims to be a descendant of Oliver Cromwell.

The Catacazy pamphlet, published in full in the New York Herald, has created much annoyance in Washington.

Abt says that the Boston Jubilee's attempt to sing "The Swallows" with 20,000 voices was "a hoompoog."

The total assessed value of real and personal property in New York, for 1872, is $1,104,098,078.

Mirrors laid over with gold are reported to reflect sixteen times as powerful as ordinary quicksilver ones.

His Spanish Majesty is said to drink nothing stronger than water; which lead many persons to wonder whence he gets his spirit.

A rhinoceros escaped from a menagerie in Vermont recently, and gave the farmers a free show by wandering through their meadows.

An organization for the purpose of building a railroad from Detroit to St. Louis has been effected on the basis of a capital of $1,000.

At an influential meeting of Roman Catholics in London, resolutions were passed censuring Victor Emmanuel and condemning the German law which proscribes the Sons of Lovola.

An Illinois man lately started a steam chicken manufactory with several thousand eggs. The forcing process was carried on so vigorously that only four were hatched, the others being roasted.

Ice is being manufactured and sold this summer in Augusta, Ga., New Orleans, and other southern cities for a cent a pound, whereas that imported from the North costs from two to three cents.

A legacy of 50,000 francs, bequeathed by the late Baron James de Rothschild is devoted to the creation of sixteen free entrances at the School of Commerce, for the benefit of pupils of the primary Jewish schools of Paris.

Gen. Sherman and suite, while in the Caucasus, were invited to an elegant breakfast, at which they met a large number of official personages. When the visiting party came to leave they were presented with a bill for the breakfast, including all the expenses of every one who was present.

A Patrician Painter.

It is not often that ladies of great wealth and of high positions are found such devotees of art as to be willing to enter the lists of artistic competition and to see their works run the gauntlet of being tested by their intrinsic merit. The Baroness Nathaniel de Rothschild is an exception to the general rule. She has no former occasions exhibited some excellent examples of still life in the galleries of Paris; but this year she has evidently gone a step further and ventured successfully upon the genre style. A painting by this lady, called "Interior of a Court at Dinan," and representing the interior of an old court of the fifteenth century, is spoken of as a work of considerable excellence and truthfulness to nature, especially in the treatment of the figures, and the evidence they give of a close study of life.

The Heat.

NOT ONLY IN CANADA.

Accounts of unusual heat reach us from abroad. The Bombay Gazette says that the thermometer has reached 115° in the shade at Allahabad. At the latter place, many deaths had taken place from the heat among the 16th Lancers. In the Deccan the wells were drying up fast, and the cattle dying, and a water famine was threatened to add to the general suffering. Fortunately, the monsoon was close at hand, when relief could be depended upon. In Rome the heat has been excessive and there was another lively scene in the Chamber of Deputies there on the 27th ult., which is imputed by the press to this cause. Several members came within an ace of getting to blows, and Signor Sella said that it would be absolutely impossible to continue the sittings, another year, after the 1st of May.

Austrian Exposition.

The National Exposition to be held at Vienna, Austria, during next year is expected to be largest and most important ever held. Exhibitors will forward articles addressed to "The Director-Gederal, World's Fair, 1872, in Vienna, Austria," and the "Department" to which they belong, together with the name of the exhibitor, must also be marked upon the outside of each package. Upon the back of each article must also be placed the name of the owner, maker and exhibitor. A full description of each article, together with price (if for sale,) must be sent.

WORK AND REST.—"A man who would be a good worker," says Henry Ward Beecher, "must be a good sleeper. The quality of mental activity depends upon the quality of sleep. Men need on an average eight hours a day. A lymphatic temperament may require nine; a nervous temperament six or seven. A lymphatic man is sluggish, moves and sleeps slowly. But a nervous man acts quickly in everything. He does more in an hour than a sluggish man does in two, and so in his sleep. Every man must sleep according to his temperament—but eight hours is the average. Whoever by work, pleasure, sorrow, or by any other cause, is regularly diminishing his sleep is rapidly destroying his life. A man may hold out for a time, but the crash will come and he will die. There is a great deal of intemperance besides tobacco, opium or brandy. Men are dissipated who overtax their system all day, and undersleep every night."
