WHIGGINGS.

"Know all men by these presents."—Grant.

A gentleman of Nauckanne, Wis., left the calf of his leg in the path of the conquering buzz saw, and where is it?

The latest case of absence of mind is that of a young lady who, on returning from a walk with her lover the other evening, rapped him on the face and kissed the door.

Incredible as it may seem, it is positively asserted that several Cincinnatians have spent a portion of Sunday in the Public Library, to the serious detriment of the whiskey business.

The Cleveland Leader mentions an organ-grinder of that city as "an old veteran suicide indeed."

The golden clasp which binds the leaves of life together is folding its influence around the editor of the Council Bluffs Nonpareil—which means that he is married.

Of the many Poles immigrating to the United States, it is remarked that a very large per centage are journeymen tailors. This is doubtless owing to the mutual attraction between the needle and the Pole.

Jefferson Moon has furnished the Jonesville Independent a remedy for the measels which he pronounces infallible. It speaks for itself: "Hot maple syrup and good bread and one raw egg a week, will neck the measels hire than a kite."

The different sections of the country are trying to produce a champion 'shower.' To vary the monotony of sulphur and worms, Auburn, N.Y., boasts of a shower of toads, and Carroll Point, Louisiana, of a descent of fish-bones by the million. Next.

During a recent trial in an Indiana court, the judge interrupted the testimony of a lady witness, remarking that it was not relevant. The lady raised her head, and with a look made all of injured innocence, enquired, "Well, sir, am I telling the story, or are you?" The judge wilted, and allowed her to talk as long as she wanted to.

The editor of an Iowa paper who went westward on a big dead-head excursion recently, writes home that he got 6000 miles above the level of the sea near Cheyenne—from which another Iowa editor infers that the Pullman cocktails must have been awfully elevating.

At Pokahontas, Ark., a fortnight ago, a woman, while passing a house, was torn in pieces by a pack of dogs. A day or two after another person was attacked and narrowly escaped. The local paper says the proprietor has since agreed to keep his dogs tied up, which indicates a very accommodating spirit.

GENERAL NEWS.

—Gilmore the founder of the Jubilee is ill.

—A late session of the Geneva Board of Arbitration lasted only 30 minutes.

—Two Japanese men-of-war are about to start on a tour round the world.

—The fruit in Kansas this season is almost a failure.

—In London, England, they have been complaining loudly of 75 degrees in the shade.

—The Mayor of Yeddo, Japan, has visited His Worship of San Francisco.

—It is said that more divorces are granted in Austria than anywhere else in the world.

—Baron de Rothschild will sell his country seat at Ferrieres for 4,000,000 francs.

—La Marmora, the Italian General, is entirely blind.

—Madame Rattazzi's first instalment of her memoirs is "A Sternly Youth."

—Arrangements are made for a volunteer camp at Blackheath, London, next month.

—A. T. Stewart, it is said, thinks of building a white marble hotel at Saratoga.

—Chinese cork hats are fashionable in San Francisco.

—The sea-side resorts of the United States abound in soi-disant noblemen of various nationalities, chiefly native.

—The unveiling of the monument of Sir W. Scott at New York is fixed for August 15th, the anniversary of Scott's birthday.

—The Cincinnatti Volksblatt, Chicago Union, and Boston Pioneer are forbidden on Austrian territory.

—In St. Louis there are two sisters, of whom one is a stonecutter and the other an undertaker.

—A saw-mill in Davenport, Iowa, is said to have sawn 55,000 feet of lumber in one day.

—The foot-and-mouth distemper is making havoc among the cattle in some parts of Ireland.

—The bankers of the Rothschild family are to meet at Frankfort-on-the-Main next month.

—The Rt. Hon. J. Bright has been lately residing at Invergarry, Scotland, on account of his health.

—Two daughters of the Earl of Portsmouth have taken certificates at the London University in connection with the Cambridge local examinations.

—The Parliament of South Australia has twice passed a resolution ignoring the order of the British Government as to precedence of religious dignitaries.

The Irish Bar.

The Dublin Freeman's Journal is savage at the members of the Irish Bar for not meeting and denouncing Judge Keogh, or at least helping others to denounce him, for his Galway speech against the intimidation of voters by the Catholic clergy. It says:

Their conduct at a crisis like the present has rendered it impossible that they can ever get the chance of betraying the popular trust again. Of the Catholic Bar of Ireland we fain, if we could, would speak with respect, and not without pride. But, in its abandonment of its own honorable renown in the present Catholic emergency, it has sanctioned its own degradation and counted its own banishment from the political reverence of the people of this country. Their tame submission to the insults of the Galway judgment is the record of their own unworthiness, and will be pointed to when any of their body come forth, at perhaps no distant day, to look for popular suffrages, as the sentence that they were weighed in the balance and "found wanting" when they were needed.

Prosperity.

It is always gratifying to Canadians to hear of the prosperity of the Mother Country. In the London Times we find an article congratulating the people of the United Kingdom upon the satisfactory condition of affairs. The manufacturers have more orders than they can fill. Railway receipts are larger than ever before and railway stocks are selling at higher prices. The Government revenue for the last quarter is nearly six millions of dollars in excess of what it was during the same period of last year. So general is the prosperity of the Kingdom that up speculations are heartily taken up, and projects are considered that would stand no chance in ordinary periods.

Do you want the best shoe ever made, one that will not rip or come apart? Then buy the CABLE SCREW WIRE Boots and Shoes—all have the patent.

Poverty is bad, but the worst kind of poverty is poverty of the blood; this makes a man "poor indeed," for it takes away his strength, courage, and energy; but enrich the blood with its vital element, Iron, by taking the Peruvian Syrup (a protoxide of iron), and you will feel rich and "as good as anybody." Try it.

A Household Remedy.—No family should be without some efficacious remedy for the cure of affections so universally prevalent as coughs, colds, sore throat, whooping cough, and croup—some remedy, too, which can be relied upon as safe, sure and certain. Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry combines this desideratum.

A fact worth remembering.—Five cents worth of Sheridan's Cavalry Condition Powders, given to a horse twice a week, will save double that amount in grain, and the horse will be fatter, sleeker, and every way worth more money than though he did not have them.

Married ladies, under all circumstances, will find Parson's Purgative Pills safe, and, in small doses, a mild cathartic. They cause no griping pains or cramps.

☞ After war, pestilence and intemperance—colds lead to the greatest destruction of human life, mainly, because it is considered by many to be of no consequence and hence systematically neglected until a simple, curable disease, is converted into a fatal pulmonary one. Everyone troubled with what is called a slight cold or cough, should immediately use Bryan's Pulmonic Wafers—they allay irritation at once, and exert a most beneficial influence on all the bronchial and pulmonary organs. Sold by all druggists and country dealers. Price 25 cts. per box.

"Every pleasure has its necessary pain."—This maxim of the Greek philosopher is daily verified during the summer season, when our pleasure in eating delicious fruits is somewhat dulled by the doleful presence of colics, cramps, diarrhœ, dysentery, cholera, and other disagreeable consequences of an over-feed. But the pain of anticipation vanishes and the present pleasure alone remains, when we reflect that "every" bane has its antidote" and that all diseases of the bowels are checked and cured by the timely use of ARNOTT'S ARNICA ANODYNE.

Office of Evans, Mercer & Co., Wholesale Druggists, Montreal November, 1871.—Mr. James I. Fellows. Dear Sir: We have a large and increasing demand for your Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites and there is no doubt as its valuable properties become more generally known, its sale will still further increase. The best proof of the efficiency and high character of the preparation is that medical men are largely prescribing it; and we hear from Dispensing Chemists that prescriptions for Syr. Hypo. C. Fellows are daily on the increase. We are respectfully, EVANS, MERCER & CO.

BEST FOOD FOR INFANTS.—"H. R. H. Prince Albert Victor thrives so well upon it that it must be very good."—T. M. Kendall, Medical Attendant to H. R. H. the Prince of Wales. "This food resembles Mother's Milk as closely as possible."—Dr. H. Barker on Right Foods for Infants. "Highly nourishing and easily digested."—Dr. Hassall. It combines the most valuable Flesh and Bone-forming Substances, and differs essentially from other farinaceous foods, which being quite unable to afford proper nourishment to a growing infant, frequently lead to a rickety and scrofulous condition. Savory & Moore's preparation has also the advantage of being freed from the ground husk of the corn, which produces irritation of the bowels and intractable diarrhœa. No boiling or straining required. Sold in Tins by all Chemists and Storekeepers. Prepared by Savory & Moore, 143, New Bond Street, London.

Hide Bound Horses.—A horse is said to be hide-bound when his skin will not slip under the pressure of the hand, but sticks as if it was glued, which conditions is always dependent on a deranged state of the stomach and digestive organs—by correcting which, and giving to them a healthy tone and condition, the disease or complaint will disappear. Experience has proved the means best adapted to this end is "Darley's Condition Powders and Arabian Heave Remedy." It has been used in numerous cases with complete success, generally effecting a cure in a few days. It is the best condition medicine known, and may be given with perfect safety at all times, and does not require that the horse be kept from work. Remember the name, and see that the signature of Hurd & Co., is on each package. Northrop & Lyman, Newcastle, Ont., proprietors for Canada. Sold by all medicine dealers.
