TOWN AND COUNTRY.

SATURDAY EVEN'G, JULY 20, 1872.

☞ SEE FIRST AND FOURTH PAGES.

THE pressure of Election work causes us to delay the issue of our paper for a few hours.

LAST night is was cool—for a change. The weather had an effect on Sir John's c ucus. He is getting the cold shoulder in every quarter.

THE Editor of the News is probably out of town, for some jackass is fooling around the leading columns of the paper. He is very amusing.

A GOOD MARKET.—There was a splendid market in vegetables and "sich" this morning. Ever so much cholera morbus was distributed.

JUVENILE TEMPLARS.—The fortnightly meeting of the Juvenile Band of Templars in connection with Bethel Lodge will take place on Monday evening, at 7:30. These meetings are very interesting.

ALARM.—Sir John was telegraphed for, to come home, three times on Thursday. The gallant Knight thinks there is occasion to come home, and he is coming accordingly. The stumping tour in the west will be cut short.

GRAND EXCURSION.—The Excursion to Ogdensburg is to be a great affair. The Y. M. S. B. A. are moving spiritedly in the matter, and have made the very best arrangements for the steamer and the bands. They are bound to carry the affair through with eclat.

A NUISANCE.—The amount of rubbish and building material left on the street by contractors after the erection of new buildings makes a grievous nuisance, and notices have been served in some instances to have the same remedied. To delay only leaves them liable to prosecution.

FOUND DEAD.—This morning an elderly woman named Marshall living on Colborne street, was found dead in her house. She had evidently been seized with the fatal attack suddenly, as she was found in an erect position leaning backwards over the table, as if she had seemingly fallen on it in passing. Coroner Shaw is holding an inquest. Verdict—natural death.

TRINITY COLLEGE SCHOOL, COBURG.—At the recent examination, Arthur Van Straubenzee, 1st form, eldest son of Major Van Straubenzee, took the first prize for general proficiency, and the second for Latin. Master Shortt, son of the Rev. W. Shortt, Wolfe Island, took prizes for natural science and general proficiency. Master Jas Coxworthy, 4th form, carried off two prizes, one for natural science and one for general proficiency. All are Kingston boys.

CRICKET.—To-day the match, between the K. C. Club and the G. T. Rs., is exciting much attention. This morning, the G. T. R's., who were brought from Toronto, Port Hope, Grafton, Belleville and Brockville, were betting on a victory over Kingston in one innings. This is how it was done: Kingston, 1st innings 60; G. T. R. 54; Kingston, 2nd innings, 85 runs for four men, and no hope for the Grand Trunk. Report to morrow. Kingston is beating every thing this year handsomely.

A TRIBUTE TO CAPT. HINCKLEY.—The Y. M. C. A. had a grand excursion from Watertown to Cape Vincent by the R. W. & R. R., and thence down the river in the steamer Pierrepont, Capt. Coleman Hinckley. A day's sail was enjoyed in channels never before ventured in by any boat. A basket Pic-nic took place on Col. Boswell's Island, near Gananoque, and then a visit was made to Alexandria Bay and Clayton, and back to the Cape. Capt. Hinckley donated $25 to the expenses of the Excursion. This kindness was acknowledged in open meeting on board by a resolution, expressing grateful thanks for the donation to the association, and representing the kindest regards for Capt. Hinckley. The popular captain was cheered without measure.
