TOWN AND COUNTRY.

FRIDAY EVEN'G, AUG. 9, 1872.

☞ SEE FIRST AND FOURTH PAGES.

ANOTHER new route to eternity is open. "Green Apples" is the first station.

THOSE who don't believe that a fly has 209,362 pores in his body, should catch one and count them.

EAST HASTINGS.—Mr. Wellington Frizzel was nominated by Mr. Benjamin Dalison, Mr. John White by Mr. James Faigy, and Mr. Thomas Holden by Mr. Sidway.

THE reason that the streets are so quiet, notwithstanding the menagerie procession and a' an a', is that the folks are all away at the Reform Excursion.

THE RIDEAU CANAL.—Navigation will be opened to-morrow, if possible. There are large quantities of wood and lumber awaiting shipment, and this will give this route extreme life.

LACROSSE.—Kingston did not do badly against the Knickerbockers, for these muscular New Yorkers have just beaten the Lancaster club of good reputation—in three straight games. Go in, old Knicks!

The Watertown Times says that the freight earnings of the Rome, Watertown & Ogdensburg Railroad for the month of July, 1872, exceeded by over $7,000 the earnings for the same month in 1871.

A BEAUTIFUL RING.—To-day we were shown a splendid ring made by Mr. Otto Meves for presentation to a gentleman in Montreal. The work and design are very chaste and elegant. We are sure it will do credit to Kingston's artisanship.

A DANGEROUS SPOT.—Yesterday two ladies had a severe fall, by which one of them was stunned, on the plank walk on Wellington Street, opposite the new residences near the Post office. A loose plank, over a new drain, was the cause. There will be a more serious accident, and perhaps an action for damages, if the walk is not made safe.

THE FALL TRADE.—There are now over 300,000 bushels of grain consigned to one forwarding firm in this city. The fall business looks encouraging. At present the business of transhipping at this port is such as to keep the several companies busily employed, yet not rushed; but when these immense quantities, in cargoes now afloat, arrive, the pressure will be severe.

NOTEWORTHY.—Let it be recorded, and instilled in the minds of the weather-wise, that one circus or menagerie has come to Kingston without bringing rain. It used to be that the approach of one of these shows was heralded as a hopeful termination of a prevailing drought. They say all signs fail at times. We suppose there was not enough circus about this one, being all menagerie, to ensure a good rain.

Letter From The Pope

PARIS, Aug. 8.—The Pope has written a letter to President Thiers, congratulating the French nation upon the great success of the new loan, which, he thinks, is attributable to the refusal of Goulard, Minister of Finance, to accept the position of Ambassador to the court of Italy—the invader and enemy of the Holy See.

PNEUMATIC TUBES.—The idea of sending the New York morning papers to Chicago by pneumatic tube in time to read at the breakfast table does not seem to be so feasible when we know that the law governing pneumatic power is said to be: "The mean speed of transmission varies inversely with the length, and inversely also with the square root of the diameter of the tube." If this be true, a body which flashed through a tube a mile long in one minute would take sixteen minutes to go through through four miles of tubing, and would crawl through the thousand miles between New York and Chicago in one year, 229 days, 10 hours and 4 minutes.

A romantic lady of the French nobility, aged eighty-two, is spending her time and money in renovating the tomb of Abelard and Eloise at Pere la Chaise.

FAMILY HERALD.

FAMILY HERALD, WEEKLY 1d.

The Illustrated London News, in reference to pure literature, speaks of "THE FAMILY HERALD, that joy to tens of thousands of innocent English households."

FAMILY HERALD, MONTHLY 6d.

The Saturday Review says: "The FAMILY HERALD stands at the head, both in age and popularity, of all the penny serials . . . The editor is the confidant and confessor in every station of life. The answers to correspondents cannot be fictitious, a romance and a life history being embodied in almost each of them. . . . Its novels and tales are quite as well written as the best circulating library stories."

FAMILY HERALD, ANNUALLY 7s 6d.

The Literary Gazette says: "It must be said of the FAMILY HERALD, that it is the purest reading of all purely amusing literature; it is indeed a family paper."

FAMILY HERALD, WEEKLY 1d.

The British Quarterly Review says: "Under the head of 'The Story Teller,' we have novels and tales simpler and purer in structure than in the pages of the other penny serials. . . . There are charming verses let into into its pages, like sunshine, to brighten them. . . . It is well considered with reference to its aims, and is various and amusing, with a fair amount of utility intermixed. Of all these publications we are inclined to consider the FAMILY HERALD is the best."

FAMILY HERALD, MONTHLY 6d.

Leigh Hunt, in his Autobiography, says: "I call out ever week for my FAMILY HERALD, a penny publication qualified to inform the best of its contemporaries."

FAMILY HERALD, Anually 7s. 6d.

The Bookseller says: "For amusing reading, such as may be admitted to one's household without fear of consequences, we can recommend the FAMILY HERALD. You get portions of a well-written novel, novelettes useful information, interspersed throughout, answers to correspondents, alone worth the money, and a variety of other matters, which will make readers either merrier or wiser, or perhaps both."

To the Electors of the Riding of Addington.

GENTLEMEN,—I beg leave to offer myself as a Candidate for your suffrages at the approaching Election for the House of Commons. I, as you are well aware, have long taken a somewhat prominent part in the Municipal affairs of my native County, and if elected as your representative to the House of Commons of Canada, I shall endeavour to the utmost of my ability to aid in passing all measures that are for the benefit of our rising Dominion and oppose all that will be injurious to our interests.

If elected, I shall give the present Government a fair support, as I consider that their legislation on the whole has been advantagious to the country. It is my intention to see as many of you as possible before the Election, when I shall explain my views more fully to you on the great questions now before the country.

I have the honor to be, Gentlemen,
