TOWN AND COUNTRY.

TUESDAY EVEN'G, SEPT. 3, 1872.

WAS there much dust on your winter overcoat when you took it down?

THERE must be icebergs in the harbor! it so chilly out of the sun.

FEEL GOOD.—You can tell a vessel owner as far as you can see him. These high freights mellow mankind wonderfully.

REMINDER.—Meeting of the Rideau Reform Association this evening.

THE annual Pic-Nic of St. Paul's Sunday School is too be held to-morrow at Branigan's Grove.

GOOD TEMPLARS.—This evening the meeting to organize a Temple of the Independent Order will be held at the Sons of Temperance Hall, Wellington street.

ARRIVED OUT.—A Montreal telegram says that the ss. Peruvian arrived out yesterday.

THE mails by the ss. Scandinavian, which arrived at Quebec with 113 cabin and 371 steerage passengers, reached Kingston yesterday.

ACCIDENT.—A laborer at Messrs Coulthurst & Macphie's dock has had his foot crushed by a bar of iron. Dr. Fenwick, who attends him, will have to amputate part of his foot.

POLICE COURT, Tuesday, Before Mr. Strange.—No court yesterday. No drunks to-day. How is that after a holiday! Mary Healy and Sarah Brown, vagrants, were sent up for 30 days. That was all.

HEAVY FIRE.—A telegram from Mill Point says that about forty thousand dollars worth of lumber belonging to Messrs. Rathbun & Son, was destroyed by fire on Saturday, and unfortunately there was no insurance on the property.

CAPTURED.—Mr. W. H. Lott, of Sidney, who telegraphed to the Chief of Police, Kingston, that a horse was stolen from his place on Saturday got track of the thief, and followed him to Campbellford, where he was arrested, examined and is now in Belleville gaol awaiting trial.

A SAD EXHIBITION.—The liberal distribution of beer yesterday led to much intemperance; not only were men made drunk but little boys were also lying about the ground in a muddled state. Still the temperance societies are extending. There is work for all we have and more, too.

SHARP WORK.—The following figures show the interest the people of Addington took in the Election: Total votes polled, 2,344; for Mr. Lapum, 849; for Mr. Shibley, 1,495. But the election last year for the Local House the total polled was only 1,592; for Mr. Deroche, 814, for Mr. Hooper, 778; making the majority of votes polled this year 752 in excess of a year ago.

AN INSIDE DENT.—The question as to how the plate glass windows of Mr. Edward Martin on Princess street were broken on Sunday night is answered by the following incident: A flourishing grocer, on Princess-St., a husband and father of a family, visited the wife of another merchant, living on the same street, which is reciprocity. Some persons did not like it, so they attacked him on Sunday night, on his leaving, after his visit, for home, and some of the stones, that flew so rapidly, broke the windows. That's all.

EXPORTATION OF CHEESE.—Another large quantity of cheese was brought into the city in procession on Friday, from the factory in Storrington of Mr. McGarvey. It was a very fine lot, and made in all during two days 800 boxes, weighing about 60,000 or 70,000 lbs., purchased by Mr. W. Burrowes for the English market. The cheese exported last year proved to be the best in the market, consequently the farmers of this section of the country may well be proud of the preference given to their cheese.

VERY LATEST.

CANTERBURY CATHEDRAL IN FLAMES.

LONDON, Sept. 3.—A despatch from Canterbury reports a fire just broke out over the altar in the eastern end of the magnificent cathedral in that town. The flames are spreading rapidly. The firemen are on the ground, but no water can be obtained to throw upon the burning edifice. The cathedral was erected in the 12th and following centuries on the site of the first Christian Church built in Saxon England.

LATER.—The flames now have perfect hold on the eastern end of the roof of the cathedral, over the altar and shrine of Thos. A. Beckett. The utmost excitement prevails. A supply of water has fortunately been obtained, and the firemen, assisted by the entire garrison of Canterbury, are making every effort to save the building from total destruction. The fire originated from the accidental upsetting of the charcoal furnace, which was being used by the workmen who were repairing the lead roof of the cathedral.

2 p.m.—The fire in the cathedral has been extinguished. The firemen obtained control of the flames shortly before noon. At 12.30 o'clock they were suppressed. About 150 feet of roof was completely destroyed. Everything that could possibly be moved was got out of the cathedral before the firemen commenced to pour water on it. It is hoped that when a thorough examination is made it will be found that the damages are not so serious as it now appears. Additional despatches report that the firemen have ceased playing on the building. The shrine of Thomas A Becket has not been injured. The mosaic pavement of the Cathedral is covered with melted lead, which dropped from the roof. The altar is deluged with water. The fire companies which were summoned from the neighboring towns when the total destruction of the Cathedral was imminent are arriving at Canterbury, but their services are not required. The interior of the edifice is filled with smoke. The Cathedral is insured in the Sun Co.

POLITICAL.

Mr. Beaubein has a majority of 482 over Mr. Hudon in Hochelaga.

Complete returns from North Victoria give Mr. Staples a majority of 88.

The story about Mr. Patterson's disqualification for South Brant, turn out to be a canard.

It is reported that Wandering Willie is going to try South Bruce in the Local, but it is discredited.

Political excitement has somewhat abated, though the probabilities of an immediate change in the personnel of the Government are discussed.

A Cabinet meeting took place at Ottawa yesterday, the Ministers present being Hon. Sir John A. Macdonald, Hon. Dr. Tupper, Hon. Mr. Tilley, and Hon. Mr. Chapais.

It is said that Sir George Cartier has been offered six seats in Quebec. Even were he to take the whole of them, and sit for them all, it would not make him again the man he has been in the past.

A rueling is reported among the staff of the Mail, and two of the leading writers are withdrawing from the staff. Messrs. Blackburn and Kingsmill, Conservatives, are dissatisfied with the management of the paper, and a change is called for.

La Minerve says that Sir John A. Macdonald will receive a salary of £1,000 sterling per annum as one of Her Majesty's Privy Councillors. This will, doubtless, serve as balm to the wounded feelings of the Premier from the untoward issues of the present election campaign.

The St. Catharines Journal will come out in a few days as an out-and-out Opposition paper. They have no hopes that the present Dominion Government can possibly remain in power, and, therefore, like prudent and "practical" politicians, they leave the sinking ship when there is still a little hope that they may make friends with the Reformers.

What Mr. Shibley Is

(Napanee Beaver.)

We have been of the opinion that certain members of the Government would have played a more judicious part if they had not at all interfered in the contest, but have left Messrs. Lapum and Shibley to fight their own battle. Such undue interference as writing to postmasters to support Mr. Lapum, and pulling every wire to secure his return, could only have the effect of alienating Mr. Shibley and his friends from the Government, and we do believe that his large majority is partly due to the determination of the free and independent electors of Addington to show members of the Government that they are quite able to choose their own representative, without dictation from any man, no matter how high his position may be.

(Napanee Express.)

In regard to the great reforms now resisted by the Government, such as the ballot, the trial of contested elections by the judges instead of by the House, the expenditure of the public funds under the direct control of the peoples representatives, instead of by the Government, and other questions of that nature, the position of Mr. Shibley is decidedly against the present Administration. While therefore, he will no doubt give a fair support of all Government measures which commend themselves on their merits, his influence need not be calculated upon when the issues are brought up which are likely to test the strength of the Government when the session first opens. So far therefore as a political change has been made in Addington it has been unfavorable to the great "Union and Progress" party.

OBITUARY.

DEATH OF THE LATE JUDGE OF THE COUNTY OF ESSEX.

The Sandwich Dominion announces the death of ALEXANDER CHEWITT, Esq., late Judge of the County of Essex, in the 73rd year of his age; which event occurred on the 22nd August, at his residence, in Sandwich. The Dominion pays the following tribute to the memory of the deceased:—

"The subject of this sketch, whom it has pleased Almighty God to take from our midst, after a lingering and painful illness, was one universally esteemed and respected for his kindly and social qualities, his great talent, and his unbounded love of justice and fairplay; and long will it be ere the void created in our midst by his death can be filled. He was a son of the late Surveyor General, William Chewitt, Esq., of Upper Canada. Our departed friend studied law under the late Hon. Chief Justice, Sir John B. Robinson, whose business, during his absence in England, he managed so skilfully as to call for a warm expression of thanks, not only from Sir John, but from all the clients whose business he had transacted.

"Mr. Chewitt on leaving Toronto, settled in Hamilton, then the most flourishing town west of Toronto. Here he practised his profession with great success. In the year 1831 he removed to Sandwich, where for 40 years he has lived the friend to all, the foe to none.

"In the year 1848, on the resignation of the late revered Judge Elliott, he was appointed Judge of the then Western district, comprising the Counties of Essex, Kent and Lambton. After the separation of these Counties, he retained the Judgship of Essex until the year 1868, when failing health obliged him to resign.

"Just and equitable in his decisions, he was admired alike by plaintiff and defendant. Careful and pains-taking in sifting the evidence, his judgments were righteous and sound.

"Few will ever forget his genial smile, his warm and hearty welcome to all, his fund of humor and kindly sympathy with all, young or old, rich or poor. The anecdotes of his life from his boyhood to manhood, from the year 1812, when but a striping, he volunteered for garrison duty in Toronto, to the time of his withdrawal from active public life, have pleased and delighted many an audience, and his well stored mind and retentive memory, have aided many a youth. The fiat has gone forth, and our valued friend is numbered with the dead. Truly may we say 'Requiescat in pace.'"

A Popular Gentleman.

MR. WM. HARTY IN PETERBORO.

We are glad to see the following in the Peterboro Examiner:

"On Friday last Mr. Wm. Harty left Peterboro for Kingston. He was accompanied in carriages to the station by the officers and several members of the Reform Committee, and on the departure of the train was loudly cheered. Mr. Harty came all the way from John A.'s stronghold, the centre of Canadian Toryism, to assist in the election of the Reform candidate, Mr. Bertram, and did good service to the Reform cause here. We hope some day to see Mr. Harty a member of some one of our Parliaments, and if so, we predict for him an honorable place amongst Canadian Statesmen."

And we are also glad to learn that another popular gentleman of the same family, who has lately removed from Kingston to open a business in Peterboro, is doing well. The Review says:—

"Mr. James Harty is already making preparations for the fall campaign in Dry Goods, and especially in the clothing line. For this purpose he has secured the services of a first class cutter lately from New York, and London, and is otherwise incurring considerable outlay.

A Contrast.

Hincks defeated in South Brant—Cartier annihilated in Montreal—John A.'s majority in Kingston only 131. With an honest election law John A. would have been defeated.

Now reverse the shield. Mackenzie elected by between 600 and 700. Blake elected by acclamation for one constituency, and by a majority of 1,700 for another, and he in England at the time. Young elected by acclamation. Mills elected by 600 majority.

Look on this picture and then on that! These facts show in what direction the current of popular sentiment is flowing.
