Which will be Sold VERY CHEAP

AT J. McKENZIE'S

New Grocery & Liquor Store.

THE Subscriber begs to call the attention of the public generally to his Stock of

Groceries, Wines & Liquors,

TEAS, TEAS, Pure and Cheap.—Mack will sell Teas in any quantity from a quarter pound to a chest at WHOLESALE PRICES. The advantages which Mack possess for selling at such low Prices, are that he buys large lots of Teas at a time—pays cash for them—gets them PURE AS IMPORTED DIRECT from China and Japan, and saves the profit of all intermediate dealers. Every Chest of Tea before being offered for sale, undergoes a strict and thorough scrutiny and test, so that NOTHING DAMAGED OR UNSOUND shall be disposed of to Customers either retail or wholesale.

All Mack asks from those who have not tried his Teas is a fair impartial trial.

THE NEW CANADIAN WEEKLY

THE FAVORITE

The Best and Cheapest Paper in America.

16 PAGES WEEKLY FOR $2 PER ANNUM.

"THE FAVORITE" PLAN.—We have planned out a paper which gives more reading for less money than any paper in America. We propose to be the cheapest, and more interesting, more carefully edited paper, at $2 per annum, than any imported paper which costs $4.00. While giving the preference to Canadian productions, we will give from advance sheets the best stories published in England and the United States. We will have the at sight and most interesting items relative to the Farm, the Garden, the Household, Science, Art, and Literary Intelligence, a column of Wit and Humor, &c. Get a sample number at the Newsdealers, or write for one. It will be sent free.

"THE FAVORITE" SHALL be an elegant 16 page quarto form, we have adopted, which is more convenient for binding in sheets, is also better adapted for reading, and contains fifty per cent more reading matter than the unwieldy sheet form now in vogue. At the year's end, each subscriber will have a volume of 832 Pages, containing the equivalent of at least 30 fifty cent Volumes, at a cost of

Only Two Dollars.

"THE FAVORITE" ISSUE.—"The Favorite" will be issued—

1. In weekly numbers of 16 pages, at 5 cents.

2. In monthly parts of 64 or 80 pages, in a handsome cover, at 20 cents.

N.B.—Subscribers at $2.00 will be served with the weekly issue, unless they specify that they prefer the other.

"THE FAVORITE" MAXIM.—Canada for the Canadians—whether for Union or Option. Let us help each other, if we aspire to be a Nation. "The Favorite" is a genuine Canadian enterprise,—Canadian in its conception, its plan, its execution,—written, edited, printed by Canadians, on Canadian paper, with Canadian type.

☞ GIVE IT YOUR SUPPORT.

Club terms and sample numbers mailed free on application.

Great cash inducements to Clubbers.

"The Favorite" is sold by all Newsdealers and on all Railway trains.

Address,

Geo. E. DESBARATS,

Publisher of THE FAVORITE, the Canadian Illustrated News, L'Opinion Publique and L'Etendard National.

ROCK OF AGES.

[Seldom have we read a sweeter illustration of the thoughtless and the experimental way of singing this precious hymn than that which is embodied in the following anonymous verse, which we take from an exchange.—Ed. Christian Intelligencer.]

"Rock of Ages, cleft for me,"
Thoughtlessly the maiden sung,
Fell the words unconsciously
From her girlish, gleeful tongue;
Sang as little children sing,
Sang as sing the birds in June.
Fell the words like waves down
On the current of the tune
"Rock of Ages cleft for me,
Let me hide myself in Thee."

"Let me hide myself in Thee,"
Felt her soul no need to hide,
Sweet the song as song could be,
And she had no thought beside.
All the words unheedingly
Fell from lips untouched by care,
Dreaming not they each might be
On some other lips a prayer.
"Rock of Ages, cleft for me,
Let me hide myself in Thee."

"Rock of Ages, cleft for me"—
'Twas a woman sung them now,
Rose the song as storm-tossed bird
Beats with weary wings the air,
Every note with sorrow stirred
Every syllable a prayer.
"Rock of ages, cleft for me,
Let me hide myself in Thee."

"Rock of Ages, cleft for me"
Lips grown aged sung the hymn
Trustingly and tenderly
Voice grown weak and eyes grown dim,
"Let me hide myself in Thee"
Trembling though the voice, and low,
Ran the sweet strain peacefully,
Like a river in its flow,
Sung as only they can sing
Who behold the promised rest
"Rock of Ages, cleft for me,
Let me hide myself in Thee."

"Rock of Ages, cleft for me,"
Sung above a coffin lid,
Underneath, all restfully,
All life's joys and sorrows hid.
Nevermore, O storm-tossed soul,
Nevermore from wind or tide,
Wilt thou need to hide
Could the sightless, sunken eyes,
Close beneath the soft, grey hair,
Could the mute and stillened lips
Move again in pleading prayer,
Still, aye still, the words would be,
"Let me hide myself in Thee."

CURRENCY.

—The trial of Tweed is progressing at New York.

—Mrs. Train has refused to bail George Francis. Poor George.

—About all of the monarchs of Europe have promised to be at Vienna next July the 15th. (!)

—Hair has grown to the length of nine feet on the head of a young lady at Humboldt, Kan.

—Immense Customs Frauds are reported at New York to the extent of $1,000,000.

—Quaker missionaries are at work in Mexico trying to induce the rival leaders to become friends.

—New York is not the only State in which the expenditures exceeds the receipts.

—The Parliament of Great Britain has 280 applications for railroad charters to consider.

—Two Minnesota boys walked 150 miles, last week, to spend Christmas with their father.

—Truth is a sure pledge not impaired, a shield never pierced, a flower that never dieth, a state that never feareth fortune, and, a port that yields no danger.

—An Irish paper advertises the following:—"Lost by a gentleman a white terrier dog except the head, which is black."

—Stokes, the murderer, does not yet despair. He expresses confident hopes of obtaining a new trial.

—After the 1st proximo San Francisco will enforce a Sunday law prohibiting bull baiting, prize fighting, horse racing, or the opening of any bar room, workshop, theatre, gambling house, "or other place of business" on the Christian Sabbath.

—A German physician, Dr. Wallendorf, has fitted up a screw propeller as a floating hospital for patients with lung diseases, to spend the winter in cruising between Gibralta and Malta.

—There is but a strip of brine twenty miles wide severing England from the Continent; yet the art of printing had been in Germany nearly a third of a century before it succeeded in crossing that narrow channel.

—Western papers are demanding "better terms" for public school teachers. Some of these instructors of youth rejoice in the receipt of $150 per annum, and it is "a big thing" to boast a revenue of $300. The agitators have our best wishes.—Star.

—"Young man," said a minister to a youth of his congregation, "do you know what relations you sustain in the world?" "Yes, sir; two cousins and a grandmother, but I don't intend to sustain them much longer."

—Charles Lamb says a speaker should not attempt to express too much, but should leave something to the imagination of his audience, and he tells how, being called on to return thanks for a toast to his health, he rose, bowed to his audience, said "Gentlemen," and then sat down, leaving it to their imagination to supply the rest.

The Temperance Movement.

The Temperance Reform in England continues to keep the public attention in a remarkable and encouraging way. A prize of 250 guineas is offered by an advertisement in the public journals for the best essay on the following subject: "The Temperance Reformation—its claims upon the Christian Church." A prize of 150 guineas is also offered for the second best essay on the same subject. The adjudicators are Dr. Smith, Dean of Canterbury; Prof. Calderwood, of the University of Edinburg, and the Rev. Mr. Olver, of the Battersea (Wesleyan) Training College. As twelve months will be given for the writing of the essay, it would not be amiss for some of our well informed writers on the subject to compete. Information upon the subject may be obtained of Messrs. Hodder & Stoughton, No. 27 Paternoster Row, London. Here is a good chance for some of our writers.

Father Spratt says: "By temperance I do not mean what is called moderate drinking (for our 'moderate drinkers' patronize and suppert the school in which drunkards is made), but total abstinence from all intoxicating drinks. Neither individually nor collectively can we ever be free from the danger of falling into drunken habits, unless we free ourselves from the foul, feverish, and Satanic custom of using alcoholic drinks in what is called moderation. No one was ever born a drunkard. The greatest drunkard was once a sober man, and perhaps took the first glass with disgust.—Cadet.

The Evangelical Alliance:

The Evangelical Alliance, the "Ecumenical Council" of Protestant churches, is to meet next fall in New York. It has already held five sessions, these meetings taking place successively in London, Paris, Geneva, Berlin, and in Holland. By the invitation of the American delegates at the last session, in Holland, a conference was appointed, to be held in 1870, in New York; but just as preparations for the meeting were completed in that city, the war broke out between France and Germany, creating so much anxiety among all nations of Europe that it was thought impracticable to carry out the plan. The conference has again been called. Dr. Philip Schaff, the Secretary of the American Branch, has secured, during a recent visit to Europe, assurance of active aid on the part of many of the leading Evangelical and Continental divines. All the Protestant sects will be represented, and honorable and reverend names from nearly every European State have already given personal or written promises that they will be present during the sessions of the Alliance. The privileges of seeing and hearing such men as Krummacher, of Germany, Oestersee, of Holland, Gerard, of Switzerland, Pressensé, of France, Count Andreas Bernstorff, of Leipsic, Dr. Guthrie, of Edinburgh; Dr. Eadie, of Glasgow; Dr. Rigg, of the Wesleyan Training College, Westminster; Dr. Monod, of Paris; Dr. Angus, of London, the Waldensian, Dr. Prochet, the Dean of Upsala, Sweden, Dr. Smith, the Dean of Canterbury, and many others, may we be known throughout Christendom, will be one of no ordinary character. Preliminary meetings are now being held in New York and vicinity, to settle the design of the conference.

Dr. S. Jacobs, on Aphonia.—Office, Tower Orange Street, St. John, N.B., 1869.—Mr. Fellows, Sir: I am bound to award the palm of merit to the preparation of Hypophosphites discovered by you. I had occasion to use it myself in a case of Aphonia, which would not yield to regular treatment, and am happy to say it proved to be all that you claimed for it, having acted with expedition and entire satisfaction. I feel called upon to publish the fact, that the profession may avail themselves of a remedy in your Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites. Yours, very truly, S. JACOBS, M.D.

How the Old and Infirm are supported by Fellows' Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites.—During the vigor of youth the expenditure of the power of the nervous system is the real seat of man's strength, is balanced by activity of the nutritive functions, without the aid of science. But time, the everlasting dissipator of human as of events, sets a limit to his power, and it is at this epoch that science may render to man the desired assistance and restore the drain upon his wasted energies. Each effort of the mind every act of the body, will extract a volume of nervous energy in proportion to the magnitude of the thought or action, and since this Hypophosphites combination really will supply the vis vitæ to the body, it must support the human mechanism successfully after the vigor of youth is past.
