SATURDAY EVENG. APRIL 26, 1873.

☞ SEE FOURTH PAGE.

MONDAY EVENG, APRIL 28, 1873.

THE CANAL.—The Ottawa section of the Rideau Canal will not be opened before the 10th of May, owing to the delay in dredging and cleaning the basin.

BASE BALL.—The boys were out on Saturday afternoon, and found it just a little too early for sport. The ball was red hot.

THE BATH ROAD.—The leases of the tolls on the Kingston and Bath Road have been sold at an advance on last year's prices.

FOR SCOTLAND.—Within a couple of days the Rev. Dr Snodgrass, Principal of Queen's University, will leave for Scotland to join his wife, now visiting her friends there. We wish him the pleasantest of voyages.

RIGHT FOR ONCE.—Old Probabilities on Saturday predicted for Sunday in Canada high wind and clearer weather. It came. The old fellow guesses right so seldom that we hasten to record the fact.

THE RAILWAY OFFICES.—To-day the offices of the Kingston and Pembroke Railway are being removed from Wellington Street to the old Barrack office, Place D'Armes, on the site of the proposed station, lately purchased from the Government.

MONTREAL STREET.—For the sake of decency if not comfort cannot the streets committee be prevailed upon to do something to improve the condition of the new and unfinished Montreal street extension? A board walk and some filling in are required, as well as macadamizing.

POLICE COURT, Monday.—The first to make a salaam was Catharine Barten, drunk. She is a stranger from Toronto, waiting for the good man to get out of the Penitentiary; discharged. Mary Haley, vagrant, 30 days in limbo. A number of persons were summoned for having unclean premises. "Here we go around by jimboree." They went through the usual formula of promising to abate the cause of complaint.

A SCENE IN THE HOUSE.—One of the handsomest ladies in the galleries at Ottawa (says the Citizen) dropped her fan into the Chamber and instantly there was a rush of gallant M.P's to pick up the prize. The portly representative of South Renfrew was the fortunate one to reach it first. In less than a minute afterwards he was seated beside the fair possessor, glowing with satisfaction and unwonted exertion. The entire representation of British Columbia looked green with envy.

SIGNOR ARRIGHI'S LECTURE.—From the great interest manifested in the Rev. Antoine Arrighi's sermons yesterday we have no doubt but that there will be a very large attendance at his lecture in Sydenham Street Church to-morrow evening on "Life in Italy," which has been most favorably spoken of by the press of the country. It will be noticed in the advertisement that he is to sing on occasion, which fact alone should attract a large audience. We understand that the Orphan's Home meeting will commence at seven o'clock in order to allow it to conclude as early as possible to enable parties to attend the lecture. There is to be a charge of 20 cents to Signor Arrighi's lecture, which is to enable him to meet his expenses before going to England.

PASSING NOTICE.—At last! at last! A new plank walk is being laid in front of Messrs. Macnee & Waddell's building. Pedestrians are not half so nervous over their promenades.—There was a great deal more than the usual amount of bustle on the street to-day. It was because the ladies were all out taking advantage of the fine weather.—The backbone of winter is broken, but the tail wags yet occasionally. Though it is warm in the sun, it is cold in the shade.—Mr. Thomas Flynn, of Napanee, will deliver a temperance lecture in the Town Hall, Prescott, on Wednesday.—There were more Presbyterians than any other visiting sect in the Wesleyan Church last evening to hear Arrighi.

Arrival of the Prussian.

The Canadian ss. Prussian passed Father Point at 9.45 on Sunday morning. She is the mail steamer of this week, and not the Peruvian, the first arrival, as we stated on Saturday. Her mails will probably reach Kingston to-morrow morning. Seven steamships are expected to arrive in Quebec this week, all freighted with immigrants. Among the seven besides the Prussian and Peruvian, are the St. Patrick and Texas. They left Liverpool between the 14th and 20th of April. A telegram from Quebec states that the Prussian reached that port at 10.15 this morning.

That Gift Concert.

(To the Editor of the BRITISH WHIG.)

SIR,—It may be satisfactory to the public to know that in the articles of agreement between the Academy of Music Company of St. John, New Brunswick, and the Managers of the Gift Concerts, ample provision is made to guard the interests of ticket holders. The agreement recites that each ticket is to be numbered consecutively, and a record kept of each ticket sold. That proper books are to be kept of all receipts, agencies, etc., and said books to be open at all times to the inspectors appointed for that purpose, Wm. Breeze, Esq., and C. E. L. Jarvis, Esq., and also to the President and Directors and Committee of Management. All sums exceeding one hundred dollars received from the sale of tickets are to be deposited forthwith, in the Bank of New Brunswick, subject only to withdrawal upon a joint cheque of Inspectors and one of the managers. Sums received are not to be deducted for any expenses or otherwise until the success of the enterprise is fully established. Should the undertaking not succeed, all deposits shall be withdrawn, to be returned to ticket holders. The distribution of gifts is to be under the control of leading citizens appointed by the Committee of Management and the audience, and entirely outside of the President and Directors and Business Managers. Any further information can be obtained on application to the Inspectors, Committee of Management, and Business Managers.

J. R. ARMSTRONG,
Secretary to Company.

St. John, N.B., April 28th, 1873.

A NEW RESIDENT.—The Watertown Times says: "Calvin Scripture, Esq., left the city last evening for Kington, Ont., which is to be his permanent residence for several years—until the Kingston and Pembroke Railway is completed, Mr. S being one of the contractors. We regret to lose so valuable a citizen."
