"FŒTID PHAGEDENA."

"Come, gentle Spring! Ethereal mildness, come!"
Thus ran the feet of Thompson's lingo;
I ventured that the dance was on a bum,
And boosier then a topsey-turvey Mingo;
That's it, by jinge!

"Oh, gentle Spring! Ethereal mildness!" Bah!
Contract a saint of some infernal Moloch,
Or pure high priest of leprous Persian Shah!
I hate the fools that sense and reason so mock!
Spring! 'tis a blasted Modoc!

Thou tellest us of flowers and vernal airs,
While birds and bees and linnets fill the stanza,
I'll pledge a crown against thy rhyming wares,
That whilst thou warbled like a dying Ganza,
Thou hadst the influenza!

Or, worse, while thou didst sing of zephyrs mild,
And woodland nymphs in tropes idiotic,
I doubt not though sarcastically smiled,
The while thy nose, that radiant, rare exotic
Ran with the epizootic!

Oh, Spring, thou drab, thou charlatan, thou fraud,
Thou roaring, wild, rangtankerous hyena
Thou shrew, thou hag, thou mud-bedraggled bawd!
Thou mean deceitful, dirty, Amphisbæna,
Though fœtid Phagedena!

Spring me no spring! The very man I hate,
Its lying lays, and them that did invoke them;
And were it mine to portion out their fate,
Down to the hottest, deepest deeps I'd poke them,
By Jove, and smoke them!

OBITUARY.

MASS OVER THE LATE MRS. CAPT. DOUGHERTY.

At ten o'clock, on Tuesday morning last, numbers of people might be seen wending their way to St. Peter's Catholic Church, there to unite with the Priest in the holy sacrifice of the Mass, for the repose of the soul of Alice B., wife of the late Capt. Francis Dougherty. Many friends, who differed with her in faith, while living, were present to testify their love to the memory of the departed one. The deceased lady was 29 years old; a native of Kingston, Canada, and for a number of years a resident of the town of Martinsburgh, where she was noted for her piety, affability and charitable deeds. Previous to her death she resided with her sister, in the city of Utica. Her presence will be missed by a large circle of relatives and friends, as well as by many who have experienced her acts of kindness in times past. But a brief month has passed away, and rolled down the abyss of time, since relatives and friends paid the last tribute of respect to her, who was, yet its record has proved her proudest funeral eulogy, fraught as it has been with a thousand remembrances, on which their minds yet love to linger, drawing even from the irrevocable shades of the buried past, reminiscences that cling around their hearts, and awake the fondest throbs of affection. Her joyous meeting of friends, her gladdening smile and social conversation still live in the thoughts of all with whom she associated. Her earnest manner and appearance, her unwearied application to domestic duties, anxiety to profit of the fleeting moments to enrich her mind with useful knowledge, her candor and integrity in every circumstance of her brief career—above all, her deep and solid piety ever awakened respect and admiration. When new duties and dreadful responsibilities besieged her path, rendered solitary by the death of her husband—the idol of her affections—her protector, comforter and guide; the father of her little ones, her sublime faith sustained and consoled her. Through her tears she looked to God, recognizing in Him, the father of the fatherless and the friend of the widow and the orphan. In reward of her confidence, that merciful Being who had so closely connected her husband and self with each other, that the removal of the one seemed like the taking away of part of the other, had compassion on the weakness of her nature, which rendered it so hard to bear her trials, and gave her at last, in His divine mercy, an absolute repose of all her affections, interests, desires and hopes.—Lowville (N.Y.) Journal.

IN GENERAL.

—A man up-town calls himself an "intestinal taxidermist." He stuffs sausages.

—A man in New York city has spent $20,000 to color his nose pink.

—Toronto policemen want an increase of 25 cents per day in wages, and several have resigned.

—Des Moines sportsmen report "ducks without end." What queer ducks! We don't believe the story.

—"Carlos Spencer's Menagerie" is what a Sioux City telegraph operator made out of cerebro spinal meningitis.

—A canine Robinson Crusoe, or rather man Friday, for he is black, inhabits Taylor's Rock at the foot of Niagara Falls.

—Riel, the Manitoba chieftain, is called the Captain Jack of the Dominion by the Graphic.

—The New York Times says the first thought of any one on reading of a railway collision is the wild hope that a prize-package boy has been killed.

—The Earl of Derby is to lay the foundation stone of Rev. Newman Hall's new chapel in Westminster Bridge road, London, which is to cost $150,000.

—The Association of Carbonari, discovered in France, is said to number 150,000 men, many of them possessing ability, boldness, and determination enough to render them formidable.

—At the monthly meeting of the Westmeath Front Orange Lodge a motion of thanks to Mr. Deacon, M.P.P., for his services in the Ontario Legislature was adopted.

—It is reported that a great many physicians are going to Europe this summer. They can cross the ocean without any qualms of stomach, as they are accustomed to sea sickness.

—Mr. McFaine, of St. Catharines, allowed a pistol to drop upon the floor, when it exploded. He will shortly be well enough to make his appearance in public on crutches.

—A Washington inventor is hard at work on a model for a dog that can run along the top of a fence. He expects to wreak destruction on the cats, and become wealthier than the Rothschilds.

—One of the very best papers published in New Brunswick, outside of Saint John, is the Fredericton Head Quarters, now owned and managed by Mr. Charles Lawson. It has a spirited and independent tone.

—An Indiana farmer don't pay any toll on the plank-road. He shoots the gate-keeper, and jogs right along. They have tried him twice, but he gets clear, since one of his aunt's cousins used to act "flighty-like."

—Marriage has been arranged between the Duke of Norfolk and Mdlle. Mone Lambert, daughter of the illustrious Count. His Grace, who is the Premier Duke and Earl of England, and hereditary Earl Marshal, is in his 6th year, and belongs to a Roman Catholic family.

—A new era in the history of American horse racing is to be inaugurated at Long Branch this season. Admission to the fields is to be free to the general public, and an admission fee to be charged only to the grand stand and quarter-stretch. This is a very decided step toward making horse-racing as much of a popular sport in the United States as it has long been in England.

That Piece of Soap.—Did you ever see a man fish around in the bottom of a tub of water for a piece of soap? At the first he simply reaches down upon it to pick it right up, and is very much surprised to find that he hasn't got it. Then he approaches it more cautiously, puts his hand over it, and then comes down noiselessly till he gets every finger about it and then squeezes it tight and—misses it. He looks at it for a moment by way of making another effort and fills up the interval with a few remarks. The third attempt is a sort of semi-circle described with a great deal of sagacity, but is a failure. Other remarks follow. Then he makes a succession of dives, and slops the water over his clothes, and drenches the carpet, and catches hold of the soap several times, and lets go of it again, and screams at the top of his voice and finally, in perfect despair, sits down on the floor and actually howls.

—A splendid new line of steamers will soon be in operation between Montreal and Picton, stopping at the intermediate ports. It will have double the capacity of the present line.

Office of Geo. C. Goodwin & Co. Mr. Jas I. Fellows, Dear Sir: We have been dealing in your Hypophosphites about two years, and although the price seems high (none too high for its virtues,) we think it has succeeded better than any other preparation we have ever handled, and cheerfully recommend it to all in need of a good medicine. Yours respectfully. GEO. C. GOODWIN & CO.

For over twenty years "Bryan's Pulmonic Wafers" have maintained their reputation for curing coughs, colds, and pulmonary diseases. Those suffering or threatened with any of the symptoms of bronchitis, or any of the pulmonary complaints, should at once give them a trial. They give almost immediate relief, and if taken in time generally effect a cure. Remember that a common cold or cough, if not attended to in time, often leads to that distressing and fatal disease—consumption. Sold by all druggists and country dealers. Price 25 cents per box.

Not Quite So.—"It is among the most savage and debased tribes only that the condition and comfort of the horse have been neglected," but we believe there are many in civilized countries who are guilty of the same neglect and without the excuse of the former; here all may avoid themselves of the use of an article which has done more than anything else heretofore known to improve the condition and relieve the suffering of the horse. Those who will not use it will but to learn that their horses the sufferers; to avoid both use "Darley's Condition Powders and Arabian Heave Remedy," and you will be satisfied with the result. Remember the name and see that the signature of Hurd & Co., is on each package. Northrop & Lyman, Newcastle, Ont., Proprietors for Canada. Sold by all Medicine dealers.

IN THE TREATMENT OF CHRONIC Wasting Diseases, attended with low vitality, feeble digestion, torpid liver, constipation, and irritation of the kidneys and bladder, avoid the use of alcoholic stimulants, preparations containing strychnine, and all anodynes and nervines as their immediate effect is to overstimulate the system, producing a feeling of temporary improvement, followed by a relapse and general prostration. Radical and permanent benefit results for the use of remedies that excite nutrition, and create pure blood. Dr. Wheeler's Compound Elixir of Phosphates and Calisaya is a Chemical Food that supplies the waste of brain and muscle, invigorates mind and body, and imparts an elasticity of spirits that gives new zest to life.
