CARD.

H. HENDERSON,

DESIRES respectfully to inform the inhabitants of Kingston and surrounding country that he is where he now INTENDS REMAINING, and hopes by constant endeavour to please and excellence of work to retain all his former patronage. It is his intention for the future to make only the HIGHEST CLASS WORK, and as he has given up the business of Picture Framing, his undivided attention will be given to Photography. Alterations are now in progress which will add greater convenience for dressing and waiting. The prices at present charged for some classes of work not being remunerative, an advance will be made on the 24th inst., allowing in the interval time to complete all orders on hand.

TOWN AND COUNTRY.

THURSDAY EVEN'G, MAY 22, 1873.

OUT OF MIND.—A woman named Laplaunt, whose husband is a farmer in Templeton, has arrived here from Ottawa for incarceration in Rockwood Asylum. Before she left she was so dangerous that she had to be incarcerated in the county gaol.

THE Toronto Freeman has made a hero out of Mr. S. P. French of South Renfrew election fame. His march to Pembroke to answer the charge at the Assizes there and his escape are described in the well known despatch of Julius Cæsar to the Senate of Rome,—venit, vidit, vicit. He went, he saw, he conquered.

THAT NEW CALL.—An adjourned meeting of the Presbytery of Kingston, in connection with the Church of Scotland, is being held in St. Andrew's Church, Belleville, to-day. The object of the meeting is to adjudicate upon a call to the pastorate of St. Andrew's Church, Kingston, given to the Rev. Donald McRae, M.A., of Nova Scotia.

BARNUM'S GREAT SHOW—CHANGE OF DATE.—This mammoth collection of beasts, birds and reptiles, by far the largest ever contained in one exhibition will not be in the Dominion until July. It will then visit Kingston, and as it costs no more to see Barnum's great collection than it does to visit any of the small shows travelling, "everybody and his wife" will wait for the "big show," which will positively not be here until July.

THE THEATRE.—"Divorce" was the principal item on the programme at Lindley's theatrical performance last night, the attendance at which was not numerous. Mr. Brink, Miss Webster, and Mr. Lindley played with their usual ability, while the other members of the company supported them in creditable manner. Mr. King performed his acrobatic feats again, and Miss Adams sang to the delight of the audience. The farce "Ici on Parle Francais" concluded the performance.

The Accident on the Grand Trunk,

(Ottawa Free Press.)

An accident which might have resulted in serious loss of life occurred on the Grand Trunk Railway about half past six o'clock this morning. We have learned the following particulars of the accident from Mr. Warwicker, of this city.

The five o'clock train left Montreal on time, having several carriages heavily laden with immigrants. All went well until near Bidett River, when the locomotive ran off the track, as did also the tender and three passenger cars. The embankment here was about 25 feet deep, being about 75 feet deep a few yards further on. The locomotive ran into a peculiar position almost at right angles with the track, and the tender breaking away from it turned down the embankment, but the passenger cars coming against the engine above were brought to a stop, and the tender likewise kept from tumbling down the embankment. Thus the accident had no serious consequences, which fact, however, can only be attributed to chance, and indeed it is a matter for surprise that it did not result in an appalling calamity. Only about 50 feet distant the embankment was 75 feet in depth, and about 50 yards distant was the Bidett river bridge, over either of which had the train been precipitated the loss of life would have been fearful. Mr. Warwicker informs us that the accident was the result of negligence on the part of the switch tender; that at Bidett station there are two tenders, one for the night and one for the day; that one is in the habit of going off for three and four days at a time, leaving both night and day work to be performed by his companion, and probably the latter being tired and fatigued, had neglected on the occasion in question to attend to the switch.

An Old Acquaintance Gone.

DESTRUCTION OF TERRAPIN TOWER.

NIAGARA FALLS, May 18.—The Terrapin Tower was destroyed on Saturday, May 17, by being blown up with gunpowder. I witnessed the explosion of the last keg. It took three kegs to destroy it. It is now a mass of ruins. The tower was destroyed because pronounced unsafe. It is intended to erect an iron tower on the old site. The Cataract opened Saturday, and the International will open May 20. Owing to a tightness of the money market, bridal couples are scarce.

DEATH OF A HERO.—The death is announced of Captain D. F. Chamberlayne, one of the "noble six hundred" of the charge at Balaklava. He rode up to the enemy's guns on the right hand of Lord Cardigan, in the front of his regiment, and on his way out with the few of his gallant comrades who remained, his favorite charger, Pimento, was shot three times through the body before he fell, and then his gallant rider was seen standing within the range of the Russian batteries, the ground around him being ploughed up by round shot and shell, coolly taking off the saddle and holsters, and with them on his arm, he walked quietly up to the rising ground where what remained of the gallant six hundred had halted and formed up; and there he was received with a burst of hearty cheering.

THE LATE HON. PHILLIP VANKOUGHNET.—The hon. gentleman occupied for many years a prominent position in public affairs, and was for some time a member of the Government Board of Arbitrators, attached to the Department of Public Works, having been the Chairman thereof since its re-organization under Confederation. His son, the late Chancellor of Upper Canada, will readily be remembered here as he entered the Legislative Council when appointed Commissioner of Crown Lands, as the representative of the Bidean Division. The deceased gentleman was eighty-four years of age at the time of his death, which occurred at his residence, Cornwall, on Saturday last, after a few days' illness.
