TOWN AND COUNTRY.

TUESDAY EVEN'G, JUNE 10, 1873.

☞ SEE FOURTH PAGE.

ARRIVED OUT.—The SS. Scandinavian, arrived at Liverpool yesterday.

NO SOCIAL.—In consequence of the inability of some of the singers to attend, the Sons of Temperance monthly Social was not held last evening.

NEW WALK.—A new plank walk is being laid on Ontario street in front of the Harwood House and telegraph offices.

COMING.—"Erin and the Brennans," about June 26th for two nights, and Grace Egerton, the universal favorite, on July 1st.

MR. BRITTON does not leave for England till June 28th, and therefore will transact his law business as usual up to that date.

NOT INTEMPERANCE.—The Jury in the case of the man Morris did not, as is supposed by some, find that he died from intemperance. He was, doubtless, a hard drinker, but he died from pure starvation and neglect. There is no finer way of putting the case.

THE ORANGE DELEGATES.—The Belfast Weekly News, in an article on the forthcoming anniversary of the Battle of the Boyne promises a splendid reception to the Canadian delegates, Messrs. Bowell, Boulton and Macdonald.

CERTAINLY.—The Brantford Courier hopes "that nothing will arise to prevent Mr. Langevin becoming Dux of the Quebec Legislators." As he is likely to make ducks and drakes of his Party the position will suit him admirably.

EXCHANGE OF PULPITS.—All the Wesleyan Ministers of Montreal being absent at the London Conference, their pulpits were occupied on Sunday last by ministers of the Church of Scotland, and all the Presbyterian pulpits of London were, on the same day occupied by leading Wesleyans.

CHEAP EXCUSIONS.—On Saturday afternoon the first of the cheap excursions of the season to Cape Vincent takes place. The steamer Maud leaves at 2:15 o'clock, and will carry passengers to Cape Vincent and back for 25 cents each, allowing them two hours stoppage at the Cape. A more pleasant trip is not within reach of Kingstonians.

STILL ADVANCING.—Mr Geo. W. Yarker, formly manager of the Bank of Montreal at Toronto, and lately inspector of the bank, has been appointed to the charge of the London, England, agency, and is now en route to Liverpool. He proposes making a tour of the Continent at once. Mr. Yarker has had a rapid promotion in the Bank, and fairly merited each step.

CANNOT LECTURE.—Miss Macpherson, the charitable and benevolent lady who was to have lectured here this evening, has met with an accident, and cannot possibly visit Kingston, to fulfill her engagement. The accident and disappointment are equally a matter of regret to the public.

POLICE COURT, Tuesday.—One drunk was discharged. It was out of sympathy for his lonelines, as he was the only prisoner. Two cases were partially heard and adjourned,—John Healy, Ontario street, selling after hours, and Elizabeth Stenson, Bagot street, selling without license.

IRON ORE.—The steam-barge Nile and barge Bedford arrived to-day from the Rideau Canal with cargoes of iron ore, which are being transhipped on the schooners Sweet Home and Emily for Sodus. It comes from the Bedford mines, in the rear of this county, and is an evidence of the mineral wealth of the section. Mr. S. B. Hiler is the active and successful superintendent of the mine, which is owned by Messrs. R. J. Page and P. G. Welch, of Riverside, Penn.

DEPARTURE FOR EUROPE.—Yesterday Mr. John Carruthers left for Europe, via New York. He was escorted to the wharf by the commercial gentlemen of the Stock Exchange, and bade a hearty bon voyage, as the steamer Maud moved from the dock. We wish the first merchant of the city a pleasant trip and a safe return. Before his departure Mr. Carruthers had his photograph taken to be presented in large form to the Evening Board, and to be placed in the Messrs. Folger's elegant new office.

CANADIAN GUIDE AND BOOK OF REFERENCE, with descriptions and statistics of all places along the lines of Railway in the province of Ontario, including also a description of the city of Quebec: by Henry Lacroix. This is a neat book of 116 pages, containing a great deal of information, more than it is possible to procure even a Gazetter, since it gives the names of best hotels, railway routes and time tables, back fares, commercial character of all places, and tables of distances. As a travelling companion or house book of reference it is equally valuable. The first edition only comprises Ontario. The second may embrace the whole Dominion. In the description of Kingston we find an unusual unbiased and faithful likeness, (though the list of principal public men is somewhat incomplete) and thereby judge well of the merits of the work throughout.
