FRIDAY EVENG, JULY 18, 1873.

"SLANDER."—Our fair correspondent will pardon us, but is not "Slander" anything but new or original?

PEOPLE are this afternoon living over again the sensation of the election times of last August. Oh, but it is sweet to live!

EVERYBODY says "whew" this afternoon after the rain. And man meets man—takes off his hat—wipes his forehead, and inquires: "Well, is this hot enough for you?"

THE CLEARING SALE.—The clearing sale at the Montreal House is a success. Prices of goods for summer are appreciably reduced, as will be shown, all goods being marked in plain figures.

A MONDAY BOAT.—There is no steamer leaving Montreal on Sundays for Kingston and Toronto, so it is quite a convenience to have the Athenian remain over at Prescott all Sunday, and make the up-trip on Monday.

PERSONAL.—Mr. Clark, a wealthy newspaper proprietor, lately owner of the Belfast Times, paid a visit to Kingston yesterday. He is making a tour of Canada, and has been much pleased with the new Dominion and its scenery.

SLOW WORK.—Kingston steam fire engine, shines forth when it is learned from a St. Catharines paper that at a late fire half an hour elapsed before the town engine got steam up. It is a handy engine for incendiaries, that.

UNION STREET.—Formal complaint is to be made by an indignant citizen against an elderly resident who shoots robins and other birds in his garden on Sunday, and who knows better than to do it innocently. There is a triple charge—shooting insectivorous birds, desecrating the Sabbath and firing within the city limits.

TEACHERS' EXAMINATION.—The Bodar of Examiners will to-morrow close the examination of candidates for School Teachers' Certificates. It will take several days to examine the papers in order to announce the successful candidates. Only one application of a lady for the first class certificate, as the standard is College high.

WE SAY NOT.—An American lady was prevented from attending the funeral of her sister by the non-arrival on time of her lace handkerchief from New York. The brutality of the express company is strongly commented on by the neighbors. Good reader, don't let any such trifle as this keep you from attending the cheap Excursion to Cape Vincent to-morrow.

INTERIM SESSIONS.—Bridget Adams (Biddy Donnelly of old) who was sent up trial a few days ago by the Police Magistrate on a charge of larceny was tried before Judge Burrowes. It was merely pro forma, as she was known to plead guilty, and was sentenced to two years imprisonment in the Penitentiary. This is what she sought; she liked the prison when she was there in times gone by.

THE WESLEYAN EXCURSION.—This morning the Maud left for Alexandria Bay with a full deck load of excursionists, and though the weather was not promising, they were as hopeful and jolly a party as one would expect to see outside of Church. And it turned out so fine in the afternoon that those who did not go envied those who did, and were evidently so happy down among the Isles.

MADAM TASSAUD & SONS' Great Museum of Wax Figures, in Portman Square, Baker Street, London, England, is attracting thousands of people. It is unquestionably one of the sights of London, as well as most instructive. No one visiting London should fail to see it. Almost all prominent characters, from King Solomon's time until the present are there faithfully and life-like represented. Much has been said about this exhibition by the correspondents of American papers during the past few months, and too much cannot be awarded to the subject collection.

THE FIFTH AVENUE HOTEL OF PARIS.—A short time ago a magnificent hotel was erected in Place de Opera, corner of Rue de la Paix, Paris, called the Hotel Splendide, by Messrs. Not and Guren, two well-known French gentlemen, the former a celebrated architect, and the latter a retired gentleman of the Champ Elysees. They built this hotel in a substantial manner, fitted, furnished, and decorated it in the most elegant style, in view of establishing a New York style of hotel in Paris, especially for fashionable American travel. The result has proved a great success, for the Hotel Splendide is almost wholly patronised by Americans, the first families of New York, Boston, Philadelphia, &c., &c., always make it their home when in the capital.
