CITY AND VICINITY.

NOT FOUND.—The search was still being continued to-day for the body of the drowned gunner Stephenson, of the Battery. It has not been recovered.

THE HARBOR.—The report of the burning of the propellor Enterprise was a canard and a wicket one, for it gave pain to relatives of the crew here. The steamer Pierrepont leaves for Napanee to-morrow to fulfil an engagement for the Odd-Fellows' Pic-Nic.

THE BAND.—The Garrison Band is to play on the Queen's Wharf on Thursday evening at seven o'clock, and in the programme will include the Alexandria Bay prize pieces. The wharf and barrack square afford a good promenade for those who eschew boating.

WHAT will Oswego say now? Watertown has acknowledged its defeat handsomely and now comes Syracuse. The Courier of that city says:—

"Syracuse has a band that stood next to the Kingston band. The Canadian band was a good one and the popular verdict seemed to be with the judges."

NOTES.—How clean the streets are after that drenching.—Harvesting operations are for a few hours suspended and the industrious farmer has rushed into town to buy those harvest mits.—The propellor Bruno has been ashore near Malden. No damage.—The Rev. Mr. Mulock has left for Orchard Beach.—Frontenac Chapter meets this evening.—The tenders for Market Tolls willl be received until Thursday.—Rush on your pic-nics; when but it's warm.

ACCIDENTAL.—This morning the wife of a prominent Alderman was seen to tear a hole about four inches long in her dress through a protruding nail in the plank walk opposite Lt. Col. Jarvis' residence. If in twenty-four hours time a carpenter is not seen at that spot, seated on a pile of lumber, with a hammer in one hand, a saw in the other, a square under his arm, and his feet resting on a keg of six-inch nails, calculating whether he had taken his last job at a paying price or not, then we will withdraw our name from the long list of prophets.

POLICE COURT, Tuesday.—Hannah Murphy not having enough of justice yesterday was fined $2 more for a second drunk. Mary J. Beaupre had assaulted Elizabeth Cornelius, so it is alleged. But she was not able to appear, and the case was put off till Monday next. There was another woman—case "you hit my child," and "you called me a throllop" and "your children insult me," so on to the end of the chapter. All the parties were bound over to keep the peace. Patrick Kearns, licensed victualler, went to Billy Barlow to collect a wet grocery bill. Bill acquiesced at once, and paid him in hard knocks, giving some startling lessons in pugilism. Fined $——

The Shah's Munificence,

Before leaving England the Shah made some costly presents to several members of the Royal Family and the nobility. To the Queen he gave a set of very rare and valuable jewels, to the Prince of Wales his photograph set in diamonds, and to the Duke of Cambridge, as Commander-in-Chief in the Army, he presented an elegant sword, saying that "he rejoiced to place the sword of Persia in the hand of England." A photograph set in diamonds was also offered to Earl Granville, who extracted the picture, pressed it to his heart, and returning the diamonds, explained to the Shah that much as he thanked him, his position as an English Minister forbade his receiving a present from a foreign monarch. Lady Rawlinson and the Duchess of Sutherland also received presents of diamonds from the Shah, who, at the same time, presented Lady Morley with a valuable snuff-box set with jewels. He gave $10,000 to the servants of Buckingham Palace, and $15,000 to the police of London.

Arrest of Conductors.

Four conductors on the G. T. R. have been arrested at Toronto on a warrant charged with embezzling moneys belonging to the railway authorities. The names of the accused are Samuel Williams, William Coulter, J. H. Hunter and Alfred Richardson. They will be brought before the Police Magistrate this morning when the facts of the charge will be disclosed. There is a complication of charges to be preferred against the accused, one of which is that they received money in payment of fares from passengers who got on board trains without tickets, and failed to account for the same to the railway authorities.

—A despatch from Baltimore says that the insurance in the burnt district is estimated at $200,000, and the entire loss to be as low as $400,000. A committee is relieving the distressed.

—To reduce a man's salary because he gets married is not to treat him very well; yet that was done in the case of Bishop Morris of Ohio, who, being 80, or thereabouts, took to him a young wife. He used to get $3,500; he now gets $1,500.

—The Spanish Government has made a call for 60,000 men of the reserve to be employed in suppressing the insurrection.

CAN'T SEE THE POINT.

MR. MORRISON, I want you to exchange this Ham for one of yours! My servant got it at some place and they won't take it back. I'll pay you difference in price. It's about one third salt, and oh dear, I tasted some of your SUGAR-CURED HAMS at a friend's house, and certainly you never praised them half enough, they are delicious. CAN'T SEE THE POINT, Madame, say we, I have no trade for such goods; know next time to buy MORRISON'S HAMS.
