CITY AND VICINITY.

The Montreal Telegraph Company have re-opened their Office on Wolfe Island.

THE ALDINE.—Every reader of THE ALDINE for August is sure to be charmed with its beautiful and seasonable illustrations, as well as pleased with its fresh and piquant literary contents.

PERSONAL.—MR. J. G. Macdonald has arrived home from his lengthened visit to Europe in splendid health. To-day Prof. Dupuis leaves for England via Quebec. We wish the talented professor all the pleasure that he anticipates.

THE FIREMEN'S EXCURSION.—We trust that the merchants will encourage this Excursion, as the Hose Company will devote the funds to the payment of the cost of their expensive and stylish uniforms and hose carriage.

RUNAWAY.—Up Princess street the frightened equine glided. He left the old buggy to which he was attached behind, as he smashed his harness, and thus escaped. But he ran into a carriage in Princess St., and upset it ere he ended his little race. A lady out shopping narrowly escaped injury.

STILL THEY COME.—The Belleville Intelligencer says:—

"A Grand Orange Pic Nic is to take place during the first week in September, in commeration of the landing of the Prince of Wales at Kingston and Belleville in 1860, when the Orangemen and Young Britons will proceed down the Bay to meet the Kingston Brethren at some point to be hereafter agreed upon."

SONS OF TEMPERANCE PIC-NIC.—It is next Wednesday, and will be held on Sluman's Point. The Kingston Division is strong and will make a good turn out at this annual gathering, always one of the most decorous and well managed affairs, of the year. A pleasant day's social enjoyment may be expected, and we hope there will be crowds present to share in it.

DONATIONS.—The Governors of the Kingston General Hospital thankfully acknowledge the receipt of the following donations:—Mrs. A. Livingston, 23 pots of preserves; Mrs. J. Macnee, 2 vols. of Illustrated London News; Mr. R. M. Moore regular supply of news papers; Dr. H. Yates, ten dollars the proceeds of fees A.M.D.; three dollars, the result of a bet on the match between the Guelph and Kingston Base Ball Clubs.

HOW IT LOOKS.—The Manitoba Free Press gives just one verse of the beautiful hymn, "Nearer my God, to Thee, done up in Cree, Indian dialect:

Ke-se-wog-ne-man-toom,
Ke-hah-te-tin;
Ah-ye-man-ook-ke-yam,
Ne gah-we-koon;
Ah-yeek wak-gah-ge-ga,
Ne gah-se ne gah-moon,
Ke-se-wog-ne-man-toom,
Ke-nah-te-tin.

AT THE QUEEN'S WHARF, Tete du Pont Barracks, at 7 o'clock on Thursday evening the Band of the Garrison Battery plays the following programme:

1. Overture—Poet and Peasant.. Suppe.
2. Quadrille—Genevieve de Brabant Offenbach.
3. Selection—Ernani.....Verdi.
4. Valses—Spring! Gentle Spring....J. Riviere.
5. Galop—You and I.....Hardy.
6. Medley—International Airs. A. H. R. God Save the Queen.

The Alexandra prize tunes are Nos. 1, 3 and 5; No. 6 was played after victory.

A. H. RACKER, Bandmaster.

HERNDON'S OPERA HOUSE COMPANY.—There is every likelihood of the Herndon Troupe returning here in the last week in October, of which news the theatre-going public will be pleased. It is now travelling in New York State and Vermont, Mr. Herndon having completed his six weeks' work, in New York city, of re-organizing for 1873-74. Mr. Herndon writes that he has made a number of changes with a view to improvement. He has also purchased several new plays, and is having new scenery painted. The popular manager is determined to make his second Canadian tour more successful than his first, if possible.

THE LATEST OBITUARY DOGGREL.—This sad and serious obituary comes from a Philadelphia paper, where we cannot suppose it to bloom unnoticed: "Samuel was a lovely child; His temper sweet, his aspect mild; And when he breathed the vital air, He often soothed his parents' care." These qualities distinguished Samuel—who was 13 months old—as one of the most astonishing phenomena of the age. Everybody knows how ruffianly and overbearing children of that age are; what a pleasure to consider Samuel's mild aspect! Then his talents for frequently breathing the air and soothing his parents strange child!

CAN'T SEE THE POINT.

MR. MORRISON, I want you to exchange this Ham for one of yours! My servant got it at some place and they won't take it back. I'll pay you difference in price. It's about one third salt, and oh dear, I tasted some of your SUGAR-CURED HAMS at a friend's house, and certainly you never praised them half enough, they are delicious. CAN'T SEE THE POINT, Madame, say we, I have no trade for such goods; know next time to buy MORRISON'S HAMS.
