A WOMAN'S DREAM.

"Wilt thou begin thy life again,
O woman of the whitening hair!
Become a child, with shining train
Of angel children in the air!
Wilt feel thy mother's kisses press,
Thou cradled warmly at her feet?"
"What find my vanished Eden? Yes,
Ah, yes, my God! It was so sweet."

"Wilt thou in blissful faith resume
Thy circle's fond fond slickerness of old,
While, breathing innocent perfume,
The wild flowers of thy heart unfold?
Back to thy vernal happiness
Fly like a bird on pinions fleet?"
Might but that joy continue, yes,
Ah, yes, my God. It was so sweet!

Wilt thou unearth the sorry lore,
And shyly peep life's leaves between,
And, feeding young at hopes once more,
Forget the winters thou hast seen?
The darkened banks, the dove of peace,
The morning freshness round thy track:
Shall these return?" "My God, ah, yes
All but the ways do graves give back."

"Have, then, my wish! Thy steps retrace!
Flower, perfume, song, be thine once more;
Yet shall time lead thee to the place
Of tears as surely as before
Reckonde passion's fires and view
Their ever baneful radiance!"
"What, light those earth-bone illusions!
Ah, no, my saviour! Take me hence!"

THINGS IN GENERAL.

The "Sons of Jonadab" is the last secret organization.

It is probable that the iron workers of England will soon go on strike on a question of prices to be paid for piece-work and over time.

The coroner's jury in the case of the Chicago and Alton Railway disaster returned a verdict to the effect that the collision was caused by the criminal carelessness of the conductor and engineer of the coal train.

Mr. James Baird, a Scotch iron master, has paid over to a body of trustees, to be called the Baird Trust, half a million pounds, to be applied for religious purposes in connection with the Church of Scotland.

A mob of 600 men has taken possession of a town in Kansas, arrested the sheriff, and declare they will burn the town and hang the sheriff if he does not deliver up a murderer whom they want to lynch.

A singular entertainment threatens Vienna. Forty-eight pianists are to play together at the exhibition, on half as many pianos, a programme comprising the overture to "Semiramide," the march in "Tannhauser," etc.

—Mgr. Cavalchini, formerly Chamberlain to the Pope, has just died at Marseilles of apoplexy. He had separated from the Court of Rome some years back in consequence of the dogma of infallibility, and has since resided in France.

A disgraceful fight occurred between a grave digger and one of the mourners at a funeral at Calvary cemetery, New York, which was joined in by the cemetery employees, on one side, and the whole funeral cortege on the other. The police quieted matters.

THE OLDEST SOLDIER IN THE WORLD.—The 18th Royal Irish has the honour of possessing the oldest soldier in the British army, or perhaps in the world, in the person of the Colonel of the Regiment, General Sir John Foster Fitzgerald, G.C.B., the senior General of the army and a veteran of 80 years' service, his first commission as ensign bearing date the 20th October, 1793. At the early age of 18 this distinguished officer was a Major, having obtained his first commission when he was eight years old; in six months and ten days after he was a captain, and joined his regiment, the 46th, as a captain of 7½ years standing at the age of 16. Sir John has been a full General for the last 19 years, and Colonel of the 18th Royal Irish for 13 years. He commanded a Light Infantry regiment at the battle of Salamanca, and a Brigade at the Pyrenees in 1714 as Lieutenant Colonel.

THE LATE BISHOP WILBERFORCE AND THE PARSON. The late Bishop Wilberforce once pulled up a parson of the old school for fox-hunting. "Mr. ——, I have not the slightest reason for faultfinding with your general performance of your duties; I have no doubt you are an excellent pastor; but the world is censorious, and it is reported to me that you hunt." "As your Lordship says, the world is censorious; it does not even spare your Lordship; it accuses you of going to the Queen's balls." "Ah, Mr. ——, but though I think it my duty to accept my Sovereign's invitation, I am never in the room where dancing is going on." "Then my case is just the same as your Lordship's. I have only one horse; he is very old, and I am hardly ever in the field where the hounds are."

SPURGEON.—Spurgeon has lost much of the physical vigor which he once had. He leans oftener and more heavily on his desk, his manner is more hesitating—his voice more low and conversational. Increasing weakness has not, however, touched any fibre of his intellectual force, and indeed to a severe taste his lower tone, and more solemn matter, are an improvement on his former style.

SARATOGA.

ELI'S NEW GRASS-HOPPER STAND.

(To the Editor of The Daily Graphic.)

The day opens beautifully—air like the breath that fans Geneva from the Mer de Glace, and roads as inviting as the paths of the Bois de Boulogne after the imperial sprinklers.

Fathers sit on the baloonies smoking, children are off to the Indian encampment, old bachelors are airing their dog-carts with long-lived young ladies, and sentimental fellows are strolling towards the parks and grave-yards with susceptible young ladies.

Very fashionable young ladies, with Worth toilets, promenade for public inspection up and down the baloonies.

"What has become of the old Grecian bend?" I asked a young lady from Madison avenue as a tall young lady promenaded by, as straight as an arrow, or bending back like an Indian.

"Oh, it went out last winter; they bend the other way now. It's the 'scimitar bend' now. Some call it the 'grasshopper stand.'"

"How grasshopper?" I asked.

"Why, don't you see the elbows stick straight out behind, like a grasshopper's knee-joints, the back hollows in, the head stands erect, and the redingote looks like the folds of the wings—don't you see?"

Sure enough I did. Now I see the Bible is sustained again. "Verily, man should be humbled to the earth; he shall become as the grasshopper, for a perverse generation will I make to know the Lord."

Speaking of Bible quotations

A young lady from Elizabeth brought her Sunday school lessons to some account yesterday. She made her Bible-class knowledge excuse herself to her mother for kissing a Newark fellow, and letting him put his arm around her, on the back balcony, while other people were dancing.

"How can you allow it, Mollie? I'm ashamed of you," mourned the broken-hearted mother.

"Way, mamma, don't the Bible say 'Whatsoever ye would that men should do unto you, do ye even so unto them?' and ain't it right for Alfred's arm to do like the good—make glad the waist places?"

This and a long walk in the grave yard with Alfred on Sunday is the reason, I suspect, why Mollie returned to town with her Aunt this morning.

FAIR PLAY.—Fair play is everything. The authorities of Madison, Wis., having enforced the Sunday laws against the saloon-keepers, the latter have in turn appointed a committee of their number to aid the mayor in enforcing the Sunday laws against steamboats, stages, livery stables, tobacco shops and other Sunday breaking institutions. The mayor has accepted their services, and lively times are now expected.

The Chicago papers frequently mention excursions to the Thousand Islands. One was to leave that city on the 16th, and another is planned for next week.

The true Arthur Orton is said to be now on his way to England from Australia, to claim a legacy from his uncle. The Tichborne Claimant may feel easy if this be true.

The Prizes at the Vienna Exhibition were distributed on the 17th; the ceremony is described as very tame—in keeping with what appears to have been the spirit of the whole affair.

Pond's Extract a deed of charity for those who are acquainted with its merits, to make them known.

"Amongst the live and progressive institutions of the day is Geo. P. Rowell & Co's Advertising Agency, No. 41 Park Row, New York. The establishment is so systematized, that their facilities are so ample, and the public is sure of being served in the most complete manner.—Boston Post.

*Did you ever think that what is termed a common cold, when systematically neglected, often leads to that most fatal and distressing disease—consumption—but when attended to at once is generally easy of cure. If you are troubled with a cold or a cough, "Bryan's Pulmonic Wafers" will be found to be the most efficacious in removing it. They give immediate relief, and generally effect a cure when used in time. Sold by all Druggists and country dealers. Price 25 cts. per box.

Cure Your Horses.—It is to the interest of all who own horses to keep them in a healthy and sound condition; experience has proved 'Darley's Condition Powders and Arabian Heave Remedy is the most efficacious, it has been used by thousands who will cheerfully confirm this statement. For Heaves, Coughs, Colds, and all diseases which affect the wind of horses it has no equal, nor is it equalled as a condition medicine; it purifies the blood, corrects and improves the appetite, and softens the skin; in fact, so great is the improvement in the condition and appearance of the animal as to have led many to doubt if it it could be the same horse. Remember the name and see that the signature of Hurd & Co., is on each package. Northrop & Lyman, Newcastle, Ont., proprietors for Canada. Sold by all medicine dealers.

DR. WHEELER'S COMPOUND Elixir of Phosphates and Calisaya. Sandy Creek, August 31st, 1872.—The Compound Elixir of Phosphates and Calisaya prepared by you I have been for two years using largely in my practice, and I assure you that in my judgment there is no preparation of its kind that can compare with it where it is applicable. With feeble, anæmic women, of whom we have so many, and in cases convalescing from prostrating diseases I should hardly know how to get along without it. In Dyspepsia it acts like a charm—in fact in any of the long list of exhaustive diseases it is the remedy. I am, yours truly, J. LYMAN BUCKLEY, M.D.
