Daily British Whig.

THURSDAY EVEN'G, SEPT. 4, 1873.

ACROSTIC.

Summer time has pass'd away;
Ever thus does time roll on,
Precious moments will not stay,
Time with us will soon be gone:
Everyday 'tis fleeting past,
Months and years pass quickly by,
Fly and bye will come our last,
Each day brings it still more nigh,—
Reader, we this day may die!

THE DUTY OF THE HOUR.

BY GALGACHUS.

Canadians! how long
Shall statesmen of vile tongue
In this Dominion young
Rule supreme?
How long shall knaves in place
Themselves and you disgrace,
And not each manly face
Blush for shame!

O, rulers, "heaven sent,"
On plunder ever bent!
O, people, so content
To be fleeced!
I cannot well say who
Claim most my scorn—to view
The many by the few
Thus debased.

Better to live by far
The serfs of any Czar
Than be governed as ye are
By such "shaves!"
Men who, well bribed, would sell
Your heritage to hell!
Not to crush them were to tell
Ye are slaves.

Too long they've shunned their fate
Down from their high estate.
Down with them!—None to fret
At their fall.
The traitors, it is clear,
Have far too long been here!
Bay Botany's the sphere
For them all.

When dancing Dufferin frees
With zeal not over-wise,
To screen their plots and plays—
With one voice
Let justice quick, off-hand,
Be your loud, stern demand;
Thus may an outraged land
Yet rejoice.

—Sir Edward Thornton has been authorized to expend $125,000 for a permanent residence for the British Legation at Washington.

—Live rattlesnakes are a regular article of commerce in the Tell City market, and the supply is said to be equal to the demand, which is quite brisk.

—One of the Siamese twins was recently summoned to serve on a jury in North Carolina. Chang would not go, and Eng was fined $25 for non attendance.

Invitations have been sent to not less than two thousand lodges in European countries and Canada, and fully one hundred thousand visiting brethern are expected. It is expected that the occasion will be one of unusual interest.

The Prince Imperial.

At the "Fete Napoleon," held at Chislehurst on Friday, the 15th August, the young Prince Imperial is described by the London Daily News as standing bareheaded, a little pale, but wonderfully calm for one so young, and without a note to assist him, addressing an attentive audience of some 500 persons, among whom were some of the highest names in French society: "I thank you, in the name of the Empress and in my own, for having associated your prayers with ours, and for not having forgotten the road which you piously travelled over some months ago. I thank, also, the faithful friends who have sent to us from a distance the numerous tokens of their affection and of their devotion. As for myself, in exile, and near the tomb of the Emperor, I study the lessons which he has left me. I find in my paternal inheritance the principle of national sovereignty, and of the flag which it has consecrated. This principle the founder of our dynasty has summed up in the sentiments to which I shall always be faithful, 'Everything for the people, and by the people.'"

—The vitality of some people is simply astounding. There is a long-haired youth at Buffalo, who has written 700 verses, the refrain to which is "I'm dying, mother, dying," and withal he isn't dead, and, what is worse, is about to perpetrate more poetry.

Insanity from the Chicago Fire.

Since the great fire in Chicago between 200 and 300 persons have been adjudged insane in the courts of Cook County, Ill. Commenting upon one class of patients, the Chicago Tribune says:

"The great fire is responsible for the dethroned reason of eleven persons. In one instance it was downright fright, and consequent exhaustion, mental and physical; in another it was exposure to cold and damp; in another it was loss of property and inevitable destitution; in another it was loss of relatives, and so on. Yet the number is not so great as one would suppose, who on the morning succeeding the great calamity watched those helpless women and children upon the dismal prairies, in the lake, in the graveyards, hiding behind the friendly tombstones, or crouched imploringly on church steps, waiting for the bread the world sent them to place in the eager mouths of their starving little ones. Not so great, one would suppose, who watched for an entire week after the conflagration the wild faces of men with great robust frames, afraid to meet the eyes of their wives and children because they had no homes to which to bring them. Not so great, indeed, when wealth gave place to poverty, and luxury to utter want; when palaces were turned into a nook in a row of barracks—a spot, for the matter of that, beneath an indulgent sidewalk, or a suite of rooms in a stray flour barrel."

The extent of the forgeries of railroad bonds in New York is not definitely ascertained. It is believed there are but $23,000 of the New York Central, but of the Buffalo, New York and Erie the amount may be very large, and the forgeries are so well executed that the printer pronounced them genuine.

Pond's Extract. If you have a suffering friend, tell him what it will do for him. It never fails.

Thatcher, P. Row & Co., No. 41 Park Row, are the most expensive advertising agents in the city, as a fact too well known to dispute.—New York Tribune.

Sold in tins by all Chemists and storekeepers and by the Manufacturers, Savory & Moore, 143 New Bond Street, London.

☞ After wet, pestilence and intemperance—colds lead to the greatest destruction of human life, mainly, because it is considered by many to be of no consequence and hence systematically neglected, until a simple, curable disease, is converted into a fatal malady. Every one troubled with what is called a slight cold or cough, should immediately use "Bryan's Pulmonic Wafers," they allay irritation at once and exert a most beneficial influence on all the bronchial and pulmonary organs. Sold by all Druggists and country dealers. Price 25 cts. per box.

Don't Know What to Do.—We sometimes hear persons say, 'my horse is badly out of condition, and I cannot tell either what is the matter with him, or how to get him into order;' they appear to be ignorant of the fact that there is within their reach a remedy safe, sure and effectual in all cases. Many persons who deal in horses use large quantities of it, and testify that its effects are most satisfactory. One horse dealer informs us that his horses' condition and appearance are so much improved by its use that they sell more readily and for higher prices. The article is 'Darley's Condition Powders and Arabian Heave Remedy.' Nothing else is equal to it for the same purpose. Remember the name and see that the signature of Hurd & Co., is on each package. Northrop & Lyman, Newcastle, Ont., proprietors for Canada. Sold by all medicine dealers.

A DISTINGUISHED PHYSIOLOGIST has said that Neuralgia is the cry of the hungry nerves for their special food, which is the Phosphorus contained in the blood. This painful disease is usually followed by general prostration on account of the great waste of nerve tissue and insufficient supply of nerve force to maintain the functions of the vital organs. The common cause of Neuralgia and Rheumatic Pains is depraved Nutrition arising from Derangements of the Stomach, Malassimilation of Food, and Poor Blood. DR. WHEELER'S COMPOUND Elixir of Phosphates and Calisaya supplies Phosphorus for the nervous system, Lime as an excitant of nutrition, Iron for the blood, and Calisaya for promoting strength. No preparation in existence is so reliable to maintain the vital forces and energize all the organs and tissues of the body.
