CITY AND VICINITY.

KINGSTON PRESBYTERY. There was no meeting this week, as appointed, but Rev. H. Gordon preached a special sermon in the Brock Street Church.

LECTURE.—The lecture by the Rev. Father Langcake is to be given on Sunday evening in St. Mary's Cathedral, on behalf of a worthy charity.

A MATCH.—Mr. Parsley's horse is matched again, for a race three weeks hence with a dashing grocer's "Whoa, Billy."

THE BASE BALL MATCH. The match this afternoon between the St. Lawrence and Maple Leaf Clubs, resulted in another victory for the St. L's by four runs.

ORDINATIONS.—Among the gentlemen ordained by the Archbishop of Quebec this week as Tonsurates were Messrs. G. A. Cicolari and M. Macnamara of Kingston.

ESCAPE.—This afternoon a young lad in charge of policeman Lane, made a successful retreat through the market square. Lane gave chase after him, but the lad distanced the policeman and made good his escape.

VANDALISM.—Some mischievous young men have been cutting away parts of the new wooden fence at Messrs. Welch & Sons' Shop, Princess Street, and at other places about town. They will be caught sometime and punished.

COLLEGIATE INSTITUTE.—Attention is directed to the advertisment, announcing entrance examinations on Monday and Tuesday next. All pupils admitted since August 1872, have to pass it, and it would be well for intending entrants to do so also.

THE MERCHANTS' BANK.—Attention is directed to the monthly statement of the Merchants' Bank of Canada for September, as contrasted with the figures for the preceding month. An improvement is noted in the aggregate assets.

SNOW.—To day's exchanges tell us that there has been already this season snow a foot deep at Sault Ste. Marie, about eight inches of it at Pottsville, Pa., Fonda and Kingston, N.Y., and in parts of New Brunswick, and yet people in Kingston are enjoying splendid weather the most delightful of days, and most charming, mooniest of nights.

ALMA MATER SOCIETY.—The first meeting of this season was held in the Classical class room of Queen's College on Wednesday evening, Mr. Jean McIntyre, President of the Society, in the chair. A committee was appointed to arrange the preliminaries for the publication of a college journal. The next meeting will be held on Saturday evening, when there will be an extempore debate.

COMPLIMENTARY.—The Parry Sound Courier says:—"We give in another column a portion of the first of a series of interesting articles on Parry Sound from the pen of Mr. J. B. Ashley, in the Kingston WHIG. We trust that those of our villagers who impressed Mr. Ashley so favorably while here will continue to walk worthily of the good opinions of such men as Mr. Ashley as they are worth having."

SINGULAR DEATH—ANOTHER INQUEST AT THE GAOL.—Following closely on the last there was another death in the Gaol last night. Mary Spence, a vagrant, sentenced for larceny about two weeks ago, at the Judge's Court, died after a days illness. She has been frequently sent to Gaol. Up to last Friday she was healthy and strong, but in the night arose in a state of wild excitement, and when put back to bed relapsed into a state of insensibility, gradually getting weaker to the hour of death. Dr. Barker held an inquest at the Gaol today, Mr. Jas. Wilson being foreman of the Jury. The Gaol Surgeon, Dr. Oliver, who held a post mortem examination, found that the deceased had died from compression of the brain. The evidence of the gaoler, matron and others was taken to show that she had every care and attention in Gaol. The Jury returned a verdict of natural death of apoplexy.

A SINGULAR INDIVIDUAL.—According to the witnesses brought up in the Tichborne trial, the man, Arthur Orton, was, indeed, a very peculiar person, in fact it would seem that his characteristics partook somewhat of those of the chameleon. He is said to have had a long neck, a short neck, and a gash across his face. Again it was said there was no mark on his face; he was pitted with small pox; he was not fat; he was very fat; he was raw-boned; he was both in-kneed and knock-kneed, and his legs were perfectly straight; he had fair hair; it was dark; he walked straight; he was nearly a cripple, turning both feet greatly to the left; and he was the only son of his father, and he was the youngest. Verily he was a rare one, the like of which few of us will, in all probability, be privileged to look upon.

THE ROYAL CANADIAN INSURANCE CO.

AUTHORIZED CAPITAL $5,000,000.

THE present rates for Fire Insurance throughout the Dominion (the result of combination among the various Insurance Companies) are, it is believed, not only excessive, but unnecessary; and however severe the losses to those Companies may have been in the late calamitous fires in Chicago, Boston and other cities in the United States, the losses in the business of Insurance throughout the Dominion do not warrant the great increase which has lately taken place in the rates.

Such being the case, this Company represented by the wealthiest merchants of the Dominion obtained a charter during last session of Parliament, and are now prepared to do business at moderate rates. The promoters can with full confidence rely on the citizens of Kingston giving this Company a liberal support; the Directors pledge themselves that in the event of loss claims will be settled in the most liberal manner, and risks will be taken on their merits irrespective of any Company.
