The Curse of the Grape.

Over the shadows made by the vine,
Under the arches of twining green,
Tendrils and purple the clusters glow,
With flecks of sunlight sparkling between!
The gatherers, passing on graceful heads
Their laden baskets pass gaily there
Laughing, singing, till the full-juiced fruit
Trembles with ripeness on outstretched arm!

The vintage song, 'neath the cloudless skies,
Rings free from a tone of woe or pain,
But alas! with moans of broken hearts,
It echoes back to these lands again!
The golden and ruby streams of wealth
Out of the vineyards are in rich floods poured,
To drown in its Circean, dancing foam,
Dearest hopes and dreams, the wise world's lore!

Sing, bacchanals, at your noisy feasts!
Sing harvesters, in your vintage bowers!
Crown your god with wreaths of flushed autumn leaves!
Deck your groaning wines with fairest flowers!
Through all the music and all the mirth,
Yearns up the heavens an anguished cry,
From slaves that line the triumphant pathway of Juggernaut's car is passing by!

Accursed! Those globes of nectarine dew
Bear 'mid their beauty the serpent's trail;
The lives that crush them on eager lips
Must bear in their moan the serpent's wail!
Accursed! Those! the hearth and the hall
Hurl back on the grape their deepest hate!
Vintners, beware! in each lucious branch
The demons for some lost spirit wait!

An Astonished Liar.

The State of Ohio used to be famous for its camp meetings and religious revivals; but an Ironton paper tells us of a circumstance which lately occurred in that locality which is a strong indication that there is something wrong either with the people or the preachers. A revival preacher, who has achieved considerable reputation as to his answers in the pulpit, went to Ironton for a week to "start a revival." He showed great zeal, preaching every night during his stay, and had a double row of "mourners benches" ready, and called upon his congregation to come forward. The last night there was a great gathering and the preacher fairly outdid himself. He exhorted and waited but all in vain. Not a soul came. Finally, discouraged beyond measure he sat down. At that junction a long-faced, anxious looking man got up and said that the elder had been working hard and laboring faithfully with them, and as a token of their appreciation, he moved that the congregation give three cheers. It was done with a heartiness that made the pews tremble, and the people went home satisfied that they had faithfully performed their duty. The preacher has ever since been waiting to see Ironton destroyed by fire.

Pond's Extract has a reputation of twenty-five years standing, and has become a national medicine.

Bronchitis—Freeport, Digby County, N.S., Jan. 1868.—Mr. James I Fellows—Sir: In the winter of 1866, I was afflicted with a severe attack of Bronchitis, and although our doctors were very attentive, and used all means in their power, they failed to afford me much relief. I obtained your Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites, and took it until it made a permanent cure. I am now in perfect health and free from Bronchitis. Respectfully yours, MENDALL CROCKER.

Is your throat sore, or are you annoyed by a constant cough? If so, use promptly "Bryan's Pulmonic Wafers." They will give you instant relief. They relieve the air passages of phlegm, mucous, and allay inflammation, and no a few remedy can be had for coughs, colds, or any complaint of the throat or lungs, and if taken in time their efficacy will seem to be proved. Sold by all druggists and country dealers. Price 25 cents per box.

Every Body Says So.—That is all who have either used the article themselves or witnessed its effects when used by others; all such, and they are only fit to judge, are unanimous in the opinion that "Darley's Condition Powders and Arabian Horse Remedy" is superior to anything of the kind introduced, or at present in use for coughs, colds, thick wind, and all diseases which affect the wind of horses. As a condition medicine it has no equal; there is nothing in it which can injure a horse whether sick or well—nor need the horse be kept from working while using it; it is just the article which all who own horses require, and which they should have constantly on hand. Remember the name and see that the signature of Hurd & Co., is on each package. Northrop & Lyman, Newcastle Ont., proprietors for Canada. Sold by all medicine dealers.

THE REASON WHY Dr Wheeler's Compound Elixir is a Chemical Food and Nutritive Tonic, because Phosphates constitute more than half the material of the human body, and are absolutely essential to the growth of Bone, Muscle and Nerve, when cannot attain full development without them. They promote a good appetite, perfect digestion, create pure, healthy, vitalizing blood, and supply the waste constantly going on in the system as the result of mental and physical exertion. Being combined with Calisaya, the Peruvian Bark, the only specific for Chills and Fever, and that condition of Nervous Prostration and General Debility arising from low vitality and exhaustive diseases, it forms an elegant and agreeable, invigorating Tonic, purely physiological in its action, that may be taken safely under all circumstances, and all diseased conditions of the body, as it builds up the constitution in the same manner as our daily food. Sold by all Druggists at $1
