The Daily News.

MONDAY EVENING, FEB. 25.

Mr Cartwright may well be represented the Minister of Deficits. That of last year amounted to $1,460,000.

We have received a copy of the Bill entitled "An Act futher securing the Independence of Parliament," the leading provisions of which we shall lay before our readers to-morrow.

$3,361,000 deficit in two years, notwithstanding Mr Cartwright's prophecies to the contrary! Dr. Tupper proved to a demonstration in the House on Friday that the honourable gentleman is anybut an accurate prophet.

Throughout the country various constituencies are engaged in choosing their candidates for the approaching general election, which it is the opinion of many will take place during the summer. Come when it may, the Opposition should be be ready. Times of peace are the best in which to prepare for war.

The Hon. Mr Cockburn has been nominated for West Northumberland, and it said that Mr Daniel Murphy, of Trenton, will be the Conservative candidate for the East Riding. The fact that Mr Murphy is an Irishman should satisfy the demands of the Irish Canadian; which seems bound to support Irish candidates regardless of their political leanings.

The Mackenzie Government has declared itself opposed to what is known as a National Policy—that is to say, Protection to Home Industries. That is the question on which Mr Cartwright says the Government is prepared to face the country, and that is the question on which Dr. Tupper announced at the close of his speech in reply to Mr Cartwright the Opposition accepted the challenge thrown down, to say nothing of the many sins of commission and acts of inconsistency for which the Government has to be judged at the polls.

DR. HAGARTY.

In the report of the Minister of Interior we read: "Another important step in connection with the general well-being of the Indians in the North-West was the appointment during the past summer, of a resident Medical Superintendent of the North-West. * * The gentleman selected for this office was Doctor Hagarty, a medical practitioner of the Province of Ontario." It may be stated that the Doctor Hagarty referred to is the gentleman who during the London election trial acknowledged upon oath that he had spent hundreds of dollars in whiskey and in bribery in order to secure the return of the Government candidate. By his judicial namesake Dr. Hagarty was reported to the House of Commons, notwithstanding which fact he was soon afterwards appointed by our pure Government to the position he now occupies in the North-West—and all of which is "elevating the standard of public morality."

AN ACKNOWLEDGMENT.

In his Budget speech on Friday the Finance Minister made this candid acknowledgment: "I do not at all desire, in what I have said to pretend that the present Government have been faultless in their conduct during the last four years. I do not at all pretend to say that they have committed no errors or that they have been free from blunders. I do not mean to say that no expenditure has been incurred which may not have been mistaken expenditure." This is truly refreshing, coming as it does from a Minister of the Crown. Now that the elections are approaching the members of the Government are beginning to consider it best to confess that it is the best policy to own up that they are not politically infallible. Heretofore when their "blunders"—Mr Cartwright's own words—have been pointed out, they have defended them, declaring that no "blunders" had been committed; but now at the opening of the last session of the present Parliament they feel free to confess that they have made mistakes and have committed "blunders." This certainly is a great change in the tone of our rulers.

THE EASTERN QUESTION.

Our four o'clock despatches of Saturday represented the situation in Europe as more gloomy than it had been for some time previously. Russia seems determined to push Turkey to the wall. She is making extraordinary exertions to secure the signing of the peace proposals. Despatches received this morning contain a summary of a part of the Russian demands, which, when it is considered that at the outset of the struggle the Czar announced that territorial aggrandisement was not part of the programme, are exorbitant in in the extreme, and which prove the positively hypocritical character of the pretensions of Russia. Her conduct in this matter, however, is quite consistent with the disingenuousness so characteristic of her actions in the past. While rumours are abroad of an immediate signing of the peace proposals, it must be confessed that the outlook is anything but very pacific. The peace meeting in London yesterday ended in confusion, it being overpowered by the anti-Russian demonstration held at the same time.

DEPARTMENTAL REPORTS.

THE INDIANS.

The report of the Minister of the Interior contains the text of the Treaties entered into with certain Indian tribes during the year, under circumstances highly beneficial to Canada. Among the signers names on behalf of the Indians are the following, translated: Crowfoot, Old Sun, Bull Head, Red Crow, Medicine Calf, Bad Head, Rainy Chief, Fiend Bull, Many Spotted Horses, Running Rabbit, Eagle Rib, Heavy Shield, Sitting on an Eagle Trail, Many Swans, Morning Plume, Bear Paw, Bull Bacfat, White Stripped Dog, White Antelope, Wolf Collar, Heavily Whipped, Weasel Bull, White Calf, Only Spot, The Drum, Bull, Turn Round, Crow Eagle, Low Horn, Bear Shield, Bull Elk, Rabbit Carrier, and Going to Bear.

The returns of the number of Indians in Canada are as follows:

Province of Ontario	15,666

These include Oneidas, Chippewas, Moravians, Wyandotts, Mohawks, Mississagues, and Algonquins.

Province of Quebec	10,917

The tribes represented in the Province are Iroquois, Abenakis, Montagnais, Amalecites, Micmacs, Hurons, Algonquins, and Maskapees.

Province of Nova Scotia	2,116

All the Indians in the Province are Micmacs.

Province of New Brunswick (Micmacs and Amalecites)	1,425
Prince Edward Island (Micmacs)	296
Province of Manitoba	27,308

The tribes included in this number are Chippewas, Crees, Plain and Wood Crees, and Blackfeet.

Athabaska District	2,398

These compose Plain and Wood Crees, Assiniboines, Chipwayans, and Beavers.

Province of British Columbia	35,154

The tribes represent the Aht Nation, Bellora Coolas, Cimax, Cowichans, Hydahs, Quackwelths, and Tsimpsheans.

Rupert's Land	4,370
Total number of Indians in Canada	99,650

According to the returns, the number of Indian children under instruction in schools was at the time they were made out as follows:

Ontario	1,985
Quebec	489
Nova Scotia	79
Prince Edward Island	30
Manitoba and the North-West Territories	415
British Columbia	402

The schools are maintained by the Church of England and Methodist Missionary Societies; from Indian funds; New England Company; Congregational Society; Seminary of St. Sulpice; and the Colonial Church Society.

The Minister reports favourably of the loyalty and contentment of our Indians. Regarding Sitting Bull and his followers he says:

"The presence of Sitting Bull and his warriors in Canada is a source of anxiety both to the Government of Canada and of the United States. These Indians harbour feelings of fierce hostility towards and thorough distrust of the United States people and Government. These feelings may be traced to two principal causes, the dishonesty of Indian agents and the failure of the Federal authorities to protect the Indian reservations from being taken possession of by an adventurous and somewhat lawless white population. The officers of the North-West Mounted Police have been instructed to impress upon Sitting Bull and his warriors the necessity of keeping the peace towards the people of the United States, and there is no reason for supposing they will not heed the warnings which have been given them. It is not, however, desirable to encourage them to remain on Canadian territory, and Colonel McLeod has been accordingly instructed to impress them with their probable future hardships after the failure of the buffalo should they elect to remain in Canada; that the President of the United States and his Cabinet are upright men, willing and anxious to do justice to the Indians; and should they return peacefully, they will be properly cared for and any treaty made with them will be honestly fulfilled. It is desirable that as wards of the United States they should return to that country, upon the Government of which morally devolves the burden and the responsibility of their civilization."

Of the difficulty between the Oka Indians and the Seminary of St. Sulpice it is said:

"The difficulties which have arisen between the Indians at Oka and the gentlemen of the Seminary have been the source of a good deal of angry discussion. The gentlemen of the Seminary have all along denied any rights of property on the part of the Indians in the Seigniory of the Two Mountains, while others have not hesitated to declare that the Seminary are simply Trustees for the Indians. As Superintendent General of Indian Affairs, I have felt it my duty to obtain the best legal advice as to the rights of the Indians to the lands in question, and I have not hesitated to urge them to be guided by my advice in the settlement of their differences with the Seminary. And should they be so guided, I trust that an amicable settlement may be made at an early day."

Among the appendices to the report are the special reports of Major Walsh, the reports of surveyors and superintendents, and other documents.

THE PEACE CONDITIONS.

EXORBITANT DEMANDS BY RUSSIA.

AUSTRIA WANTS VOTE OF CREDIT.

The Demonstrations in London on Sunday.

The Grand Duke Nicholas' Visit to Constantinople.

(Midnight Despatches.)

London, Feb. 24.—The supporters of the Government met in great force near the Marble Arch this afternoon for the purpose of voting down the peace resolutions, and protesting against any attempt to embarass the Government and against a Russian occupation of Constantinople. After enthusiastically passing resolutions in favour of the Government, the crowd attacked and temporarily broke up a peace meeting which was in progress in Hyde Park. After some time Chas. Bradlaugh moved resolutions in favour of peace, but he was frequently obliged to change his position. Several fights occurred in the meantime, and the mob sang "Rule Britannia." After Bradlaugh's departure there was some heated discussion and more fighting. The crowd in and around the park was estimated at from 80,000 to 100,000, of whom 60,000 took part in the proceedings. It gradually dispersed. A large and excited section went to hoot before Mr Gladstone's residence, but was prevented from doing any damage by a strong force of police.

A few persons have been taken to the hospitals, injured at the peace meeting in Hyde Park. The affair was a complete failure. The peace resolutions were carried by a knot of persons around Bradlaugh, after he had been driven from the platform. In the evening crowds cheered before the residence of Musurus Pasha and Lord Beaconsfield. Some windows in Mr Gladstone's house were broken.

The Post announces officially that Lord Lyons will be appointed British representative at the Conference.

It is now believed that Russia will accept four ironclads instead of six as originally demanded.

A Vienna despatch says:—The joint council of the Ministers of Austria and Hungary to-day lasted five hours. The Emperor presided. Count Andrassy said he desired a vote of confidence and vote of credit for military purposes to support Austria's views at the Conference, as some of Russia's conditions, especially the holding of Bulgaria as security for the indemnity, were inadmissable. The Ministers empowered Count Andrassy to ask the delegations for a credit not exceeding sixty million florins.

A Constantinople despatch says:—The report that the British ironclads have returned to Princes Islands is unfounded. It originated in movements for the exercise of the crews.

Admiral Commerell, commanding the division of the British fleet at Gallipoli, has placed his ships on both sides of the promontory so that their guns can sweep from shore to shore, and boats patrol nightly to prevent the laying of torpedoes.

(Morning Despatches.)

London, Feb. 24.—Lord Lyons, British Ambassador at Paris, is to represent England at the Conference.

The situation appears to have entered on an entirely new phase. The principal points of the fresh peace conditions demanded by Russia are the new boundaries for Bulgaria, and provide for the assembling of notables to elect a Sovereign Prince, whose nomination is to be sanctioned by the Porte and foreign Powers. A Russian Commission is to superintend the Bulgarian Government for two years, and 50,000 Russian troops are to occupy the Principality during that time; also a cession of territory to Montenegro; for the transference of Dobrudscha to Roumania in exchange for Bessarabia; for the cession of territory in Bosnia to Servia; for the prohibition of the passage of men-of-war through the Straits of the Dardanelles, and absolute freedom of passage for merchant men at all times; and for the payment of an indemnity of 1,400,000,000 roubles—[a Russian rouble represents about 75 cents of our money.—ED.]—to cover which Turkey is to cede Batoum, Kars, Bayazid, Ardahan and adjacent territory. Turkey to pay forty millions sterling in bonds, the interest and sinking fund of which will be guaranteed by Bulgarian and Egyptian tributes and in other ways.

A Constantinople despatch says Russia will hold her present position until indemnity is paid. The protocol of peace will be signed to-day at St. Stefano.

By agreement with the Porte the Grand Duke Nicholas has transferred his headquarters.

Ratifications are to be exchanged at Constantinople ten days hence. It is affirmed that Russia insists that questions of cession of territory in Asia, indemnity and limits of Bulgaria be excluded from deliberations of the Conference. The peace will be termed the peace of Constantinople.

Count Andrassy and Emperor Francis Joseph assured the Ministers they desired peace.

A peace demonstration was held yesterday in Hyde Park. Hon. A. Herbert and Chas. Bradlaugh were present. It was entirely overpowered by an anti-Russian demonstration, and ended in disorder.

New York, Feb. 15.—The Herald's cable special says; "It is conceded on all hands that if the peace conditions are, as last reported, they may be taken as showing a resolute determination on Russia's part to force an issue with England. The terms asked can never be wholly granted by Turkey, and if insisted upon, European peace is no longer possible."

(Afternoon Despatches.)

Pera, Feb. 25.—As a reward for the Porte's ineffectual efforts to keep the British fleet out of the Dardanelles, the Czar has consented that the Russians shall not come nearer to Constantinople than San Stefano, but has informed the Porte that he has great difficulty in preventing Grand Duke Nicholas from marching into Constantinople as a conqueror.

The Russians are coming to San Stefano as friends, with the Sultan's consent.

Grand Duke Nicholas will probably be invited by the Sultan to enter Stamboul with a military escort.

It is expected that peace will be signed to-day. The Turks have accepted all the conditions except two—about the immediate surrender of the iron-clads and the payment to Russia of ten million roubles cash and forty millions sterling in bonds.

The Turks have received no invitation to be represented at the Conference.

Constantinople, Feb. 25.—A regiment detachment of Cossacks and special company detailed to escort Grand Duke Nicholas, entered San Stefano on Sunday. A Russian division is echelonned between Rustchuk, Chekmedje, and San Stefano.

London, Feb. 25.—The Times St. Petersburg correspondent telegraphs that much better feeling prevails here to-day. I have reason to believe there is no present intention to occupy Constantinople.

London, Feb. 25.—Some doubts have been thrown upon the accuracy of the terms of peace between Russia and Turkey, as published in some of the morning papers. The only points that seem clear are as to the amount of money indemnity demanded by Russia and the occupation by the Russians of Bulgaria.

Sir Stafford Northcote announced in the House of Commons this afternoon that the Government had as yet received no official statement of terms of peace.

Vienna, Feb. 25.—The Hungarian Ministry and delegations will readily grant the vote of credit asked for by Andrassy, but the Austrians will probably offer some opposition. A strong party favour peace at any price.

London, Feb. 25.—The London Times, in its second edition, has the following despatch from its St. Petersburg correspondent:—"Much better feeling prevails here to-day. The modus vivendi with England to using the Straits, and the presence of the British fleet in the Sea of Marmora is regarded as satisfactory in official quarters, and have I reason to believe that there is no present intention to occupy Constantinople."

AMERICAN TELEGRAMS.

A SERIOUS WALTZ.

Miss Rosie Murray waltzed for a medal at a Jersey City sociable on Saturday night nearly an hour. The effort rendered her unconscious, and her condition is now critical.

THE SILVER BILL.

The Times says it is reported that Ben Hill decided not to vote against the Silver Bill as modified by the Senate. This would make a change of three votes necessary to sustain the veto.

Washington, Feb. 25.—The Vice President has signed the Silver Bill. It now goes to the President.

PAYING OFF CHURCH DEBTS.

The Church of the Covenant has raised its debt of $35,000. Dr. Tyng raised $20,000 yesterday, which makes up the $200,000 required to free the Church of Holy Trinity, parsonage and chapel from debt.

A SCOUNDREL.

Alfred M. Lauterell, claiming to be a clergyman and tutor in private families, caused the arrest of a coloured girl yesterday for disorderly conduct. The girl said in Court that she had been living with Lauterell as his mistress and servant, and he had abandoned her.

THE INDIANS.

New York, Feb. 25.—The Herald's Omaha special says: General Howard says the majority of Indian tribes in his department are peaceable, but there is a discontented element in the Spokanes. Sanpoelis and other Columbia River renegades are capable of mischief, who it is believed have had some communication from Sitting Bull. They suppose in case of insurrection they can escape to British soil and be safe. The discontented element extends from Sitting Bull's camp west through the Assinaboines, Crows, Flatheads, Snakes, Bannocks and Columbia Indians. Howard says his command can suppress any trouble which may arise.

THE NORTH POLE—BENNETT'S ENTERPRIZE.

Washington, Feb. 25.—In the Senate to-day Conkling presented the petition of James Gordon Bennett, asking Congress to aid him in seeking new discoveries at the North Pole. He had purchased the Pandora and intended to man and run her at his own expense. The petitioner desired that the vessel should carry the American flag, and Conkling moved that the petition be referred to the Committee on Commerce, so ordered.

Bennett's memorial asks Congress to rationalize his polar expedition, and that the Pandora may be commanded and officered by United States naval officers and be subject to United States naval rule and discipline, with additional authority conferred upon the commanding officer to enable him in his isolated position to enforce the discipline in cases of extreme mergency.

ANDERSON'S SENTENCE.

Tobin is arrested.

FOR PARIS EXHIBITION.

New York, Feb. 25.—The United States store ship Supply, laden with specimens of American manufactures for the Paris Exhibition, sailed this morning from Brooklyn Navy Yard. Her destiination is Havre. THE FISHERIES QUESTION.

Washington, Feb 23.—In the Senate to-day, Blain submitted a resolution requesting the President to transmit copies of the correspondence with Her Britannic Majesty in regard to the selection of De Fosse as third Commissioner under the 23rd article of the Treaty of Washington in regard to fisheries. Laid over.

SUDDEN DEATH.

Washington, Feb. 25.—R. W. Taylor, first Comptroller of Treasury, appointed by Lincoln, was stricken with paralysis this morning while at his desk, and died in two hours.

CENTRAL AMERICA.

Panama, Feb. 16.—Complaint comes from Guatemala severely criticising official conduct of the United States Minister to Central America. It is stated that President Hayes was in error reporting in his message that friendly relations with Guatemala had been interrupted. He evidently meant Nicaragua. The revolution in Costa Rica is well nigh over, the revolutionists having sustained several defeats.

The tidal wave at Callao continued up to 28th January. Six men are reported drowned. At every moment waves 30 or 40 feet high broke along the coast. This extraordinary agitation of the sea is by some attributed to a serious earthquake in the South, by others to lunar influences. The movement appears to have been entirely from the north. Reports from Iquique state that the earthquake on January 22 did no great damage. Shocks were frequent and threatening. The sea remained quiet at Lanoria. Several houses were shaken down and a man reported crushed to death.

POPE LEO XIII.

The Question of His Liberality.

Rome Feb. 25.—The feeling is growing that the Pope is not so liberal as it was thought. It seems certain that Cardinal Pecci and Leo XIII. do not hold the same views.

It is believed that the Pope will remain secluded in the Vatican.

OTTAWA.

A Fatal Tragedy.

Ottawa, Feb. 22.—A terrible tragedy has occurred at one of the shantys in the township of Aumond, on the Upper Ottawa. Two men, named Pierre Bochand and Joseph Langevin, got into a dispute about their horses, when Bochand struck Langevin with a pike pole and inflicted a severe wound in the head, from the effects of which he died four hours afterwards. Bochand had charge of the leading team on the shanty and Langevin the second, and in order to show the superiority of his horses over the others Bochand drove off at a lively pace. Langevin protested, saying that his horses were not capable of travelling so fast with the road in such a bad condition. Bochand paid no attention to Langevin's protest. This irritated him and he ran up to Bochand's sleigh and struck him in the face with his fist. Bochand defended himself with a pike pole, first striking Langivin on the arm and then on the head. Bochand feels keenly his position and says he had no idea when he struck the blow that the result would be so terrible. He surrendered himself to the authorities and is now confined in Aylmer Jail.

Bishop Duhamel's pastoral letter, officially announcing the death of the Pope, was read in the several Roman Catholic Churches yesterday.

TORONTO.

A Walking Feat—Archbishop Lynch on Rossa.

Toronto, Feb. 25.—This morning Miss Bertie Lefranc, a young Frenchwoman, commenced the task of walking fifty miles in 12 hours at Dr. Ryder's rink, which is well filled with spectators. A great deal of interest is taken in the performance.

Archbishop Lynch says that he was not consulted by the Irish Societies who invited Rossa to lecture here. So opposed are the clergy to Rossa that he would be refused admission to St. Michael's Cathedral.

The President and members of the Hibernian Society say that they have as much right to invite Rossa here as the Protestants have to invite Gavazzi, Chiniquy and others. (!!) There will be a procession on the 17th March, the marshals being appointed and other arrangements made.

BELLEVILLE.

The Losses by the Flood.

Belleville, Feb. 25.—The loss by the flood has been very extensive, nearly all the barns and stables on the river bank south of the lower bridge having been destroyed, together with much property in cellars, and a large number of pleasure boats and boathouses. The loss is estimated at $20,000 and further damage is feared. The water rose several feet depositing huge cakes of ice on Front, Colborne and Dundas streets, entirely stopping the traffic, and numbers of men and horses are now employed in clearing away the debris. The ice stopped near the harbour mouth and the river is blocked for half a mile. A number of cellars are being still flooded to a considerable depth.

WESTBROME.

A Young Lady Attempts the Life of Her Seducer.

Westbrome, Que., Feb. 25.—On Saturday evening Emma Allen followed Hiram Washer, a farm labourer, who had seduced her, to Caperon's Hotel. After addressing a few words to him in an undertone, she aimed a pistol at his head and fired. The ball entered his left shoulder, glanced and sank near his lung. Washer was visited by physicians, who tried to extract the ball, but did not succeed. His wound is not considered dangerous. Miss Allen was closely veiled, and retired at once after having committed the act. The deed was kept so quiet by the few that knew it, that half of the villagers on the same street knew nothing of it till three in the afternoon of the following day.

QUEBEC.

Quebec, Feb. 25.—Capt. Watson, of this city, formerly of the 76th Regiment, has received a letter from the Militia Department, Ottawa, informing him that his offer of a short time since to endeavour to raise a regiment for active service in case England became engaged in war has been a great success.

At an early hour yesterday morning the grocery store of Mr Bussiere, St. John's suburbs, was broken into and rifled of a small quantity of goods. It is not known how many were engaged in the business, but one of the number, a discharged reformatory bird named West, in getting out of the premises, fell straight into the hands of a muscular policeman.
