The Daily News.

MONDAY EVENING, FEB. 25.

Gold in New York 102.

NO GAS.—There was no gas on Queen St. last evening, and St. Paul's Church was lighted by coal oil. The pipes were said to be frozen, but where did the frost come from?

ENGLISH MAIL.—The English mail by the Cunard steamer closes at noon on Tuesday, at which time also the American mail closes. Every other day the American mail closes at one o'clock.

MESSRS Richmond & Boyden have received to-day another large addition to their stock of carpets, also 100 dozen of their "favourite" kid gloves in a better quality and with some new improvements at the same price.

WEATHER PROBABILITIES for the next 24 hours: For the lower lake region, rising barometer, moderate to fresh northerly to westerly winds, cloudy weather with flurries of snow, followed by clearing and colder weather.

DEATH OF MR W. WORKMAN.—A Montreal despatch says:—"Ex-Mayor William Workman, who has been seriously ill for many months, died last night. He was a brother of Mr Thomas Workman, M.P. for this city."

IMPORTANT DECISION.—Judge Gwynne in the Queen's Bench, Toronto, decided that Provincial Governments have no jurisdiction in making provision for the prosecution and punishment of persons charged with tampering with witnesses.

"CIVIL LIBERTY."—Mr J. L. Whiting B.A., reads a paper on this subject at the Y.M.C.A. rooms this evening. The subject is an important one, and Mr Whiting will treat it in an interesting manner. We hope there will be a large audience to hear it.

"THE PROTESTANT STANDARD" is the name of a new weekly paper just started in Philadelphia by Mr Bailey, lately of the Sentinel, Toronto. The Standard is very neatly got up, contains interesting selections and is vigorously edited by the Rev. James McGowan.

HEN ROOST ROBBERIES.—Between Saturday night and Sunday morning, several hen roosts in upper Frontenac Ward were robbed, some valuable fowls being taken. This is not an unfrequent occurrence in this portion of the city, and it imperatively demands the attention of the police.

THE WEATHER.—The peculiar weather which has characterised the whole winter still continues. On Saturday evening it seemed as if we were in for a snow storm, but it held off. Yesterday was damp and raw, and this morning some snow fell, but not enough to cover the ground. The day turned out fine.

EXAMINATION.—The examination of the pupils of the Christian Brothers will take place at their schoolroom, on next Wednesday afternoon, at two o'clock; and on Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday evenings, at half-past seven o'clock. The public are respectfully invited to attend the examination throughout. These examinations are always very interesting.

THE GOVERNOR GENERAL'S BALL.—The Ottawa papers of Saturday contain the following notice:—"We are authorized to state that owing to the great number of acceptances for their Excellencies' ball, amounting to nearly a thousand, a number already in excess of the accommodation which the Government House can afford, the A.D.C. in waiting is absolutely precluded from issuing any further invitations."

THE DUNKIN ACT.—The Dunkin Act appears to be falling in public estimation, and we are informed that many temperance men now vote for its repeal when they have an opportunity of doing so. A vote was taken for the repeal of the Act in the City of Brantford and County of Brant on Friday last, and the repeal was carried by large majorities in both Ridings. The temperance party will be obliged to adopt some other policy, as it is not less difficult to make people temperate than religious by Act of Parliament.

THE DOMINION ALLIANCE.—The Rev. A. C. Chambers returned home on Saturday from Ottawa, where he had been attending the meeting of the Dominion Alliance. He reports that a most harmonious meeting was held, and that the feeling of all parties in the Convention was that politics should be put aside for the interests of temperance. The interview with the Premier was regarded as satisfactory, and it was hoped by the Alliance that during the present session such amendments would be made to the Temperance Act of 1864 as would make it more workable.

Police Court.

(BEFORE MR STRANGE, P.M.)

Monday, Feb. 25.

Margaret Gamble, who gets drunk every time she visits the city, was fined $1 or 60 days in gaol.

James McLoughlin, a stranger, requested to be sent to gaol, and his request was granted, he being sent up for two months.

Short Notes.

City Council to-night

The local floods do not amount to much after all.

Police business is limited to the most ordinary kind of work.

The gas in the street lamps on Saturday evening was very poor.

True Blues' entertainment at Victoria Music Hall this evening.

It is reported that there are several cases of small-pox on Amherst Island.

Summary of Mr. Cartwright's and Dr. Tupper's Budget speeches on first page.

The next meeting of the Ontario Dairymen's Association will be held in Ottawa.

Meeting of the Rink Club Executive Committee to-morrow evening at the President's store.

The resignation of Lieut. A. E. Richards, 42 Battalion V.M., Brockville, has been accepted.

The demolition of the burnt buildings on Brock Street in rear of Waldron's store has commenced.

There was a very large congregation to hear Principal Grant last night at St. Andrew's Church.

In the Belleville freshet Messrs Crothers lost 35 barrels brackers, 20 boxes biscuits and other goods.

The Montreal Witness acknowledges the receipt of $5 from L.O.L. 834, Kingston, for the Hackett Memorial Fund.

Notice of application for an act of Incorporation for the Rose Belford Publishing Company appears in the Canada Gazette, with a capital stock of $50,000.

Sunday Services.

METHODIST.—The Revs. A. A. Smith, of Cataraqui, and A. C. Chambers, of Portsmouth, took the place of the Rev. W. Galbraith at the Methodist Churches yesterday.

FIRST CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH.—In the absence of Dr. Jackson, Mr Ross, of Queen's College, preached at the First Congregational Church yesterday morning, and Mr A. H. Scott, B.A., divinity student, in the evening.

CHALMERS' CHURCH.—Owing to the illness of the Rev. Mr McCuaig, the Rev. Prof. Williamson occupied the pulpit yesterday morning. His subject was the duty of parents in training up their children, which the reverend gentleman illustrated in an able discussion. In the evening the Rev. Prof. Mowat preached.

ST. PAUL'S CHURCH.—In the absence of the Rev. Mr Carey, the Very Rev. Dean Lyster read the service in the morning and preached from Genesis i. 27—"So God created man in his own image, in the image of God created he him." In the evening the Rev. H. Wilson preached taking his text from St. John viii. 34—"Whosoever committeth sin is the servant of sin."

ST. MARY'S CATHEDRAL.—A solemn Te Deum was sung yesterday afternoon in St. Mary's Cathedral and the community chapels in thanksgiving to God for the election of Leo. XIII. The name of the new Pontiff has been placed in the prayer, which is said for the Pope at Mass. It is expected that Leo will declare a year of Jubilee in his Encyclical letter. It is generally among the first acts of a Pope.

ST ANDREW'S CHURCH.—The announcement that the Rev. George M. Grant, M.A., Principal of Queen's University, would preach in St. Andrew's Church last evening, attracted a very large congregation. Seats had to be placed in the aisles to provide extra accommodation. Mr Grant's subject was the narrative of the young man who went to Christ and enquired of Him what he should do to inherit eternal life. The sermon was forcible, as well as analytical; like all Mr Grant's sermons, eminently practical; and was delivered in his usual earnest manner. It occupied fifty minutes in delivery.

ORDNANCE LANDS.—From the Ordnance Lands Branch of the report of the Minister of the Interior, we find that one lot had been sold in the City of Kingston for $500. Money has been received on account from Kingston amounting to $8,717.92, and from Kingston Mills $15. In the statement showing the amounts due on account of rents and instalments of purchase money and interest remaining on the 30th June, 1877, we find the following: Kingston Mills, $22.50; Kingston City, rent and interest due and remaining unpaid, $638.37; amount of instalments unpaid, $1,268.22; amounts required to be paid to complete purchase, $34,060.15; total $35,866.74. The total amount paid into the Bank of Montreal on account of Ordnance Lands was $7,856.95. The total number of accounts open in the Branch is 1257, of which 2 belong to Kingston Mills and 177 to Kingston City.

COL. INGERSOLL.—This notorious infidel lectured in Watertown on Saturday, and the Despatch says he turned out a failure. The numbers who attended did not reach expectations, and of the lecturer himself the Despatch remarks:—"The greatest diversity of opinion existed among those who listened to him. Some were pleased, of course; others expressed themselves to the effect that they would not go across the street to hear him again; and others, again, were disgusted. The Despatch opposed Ingersoll's being asked to lecture in Watertown.

LORD ROSSMORE.—The fellow who has been personating Lord Rossmore at Brockville and Ottawa is now said to be the fraud who was organist of St. Thomas' Church, Belleville, for a short time, and cleared out a little over a year ago.

DEDICATION—MILL POINT.—The new M. E. church, Mill Point, will be opened for divine service on Friday, March 1st, when a sermon will be delivered by I. B. Aylsworth.

GAME PROTECTION.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE DAILY NEWS.

SIR,—I have just read a second letter from "A Sportsman," and learn with surprise that "all the real sportsmen around here (i.e., Kingston), are of the same opinion" as himself.

He, it appears, meant to say that only the "inferior kinds" of plover arrived at the "proper time" to be shot in the Province of Ontario. This is very accommodating on the part of the plover, and equally incorrect as a matter of fact, always excepting the neighbourhood of Kingston, where, no doubt, the birds of all species carefully avoid the dangerous presence of "A Sportsman," who, in the pursuit of excitement, is actually daring enough "to stand on the ice.

And he wants to shoot ducks in the spring when the bluebills, redheads, and other divers come in mere bunches of feathers and change their condition only to commence pairing. Truly a humane and sportsmanlike proceeding—very much in the style of the owl and the hawk and such like poachers.

I have no wish to force upon the people of Ontario any enactment which does not tend to improve the shooting, and I maintain that the course suggested by Dr. Mostyn is the only one which can successfully protect the game of the Province.

Every one of the ducks named by your correspondent I have found breeding in different parts of Ontario, and I can produce plenty of evidence to the same effect.

The Bill lately introduced by Dr. Mostyn has been the law of the Province of Quebec ever since Confederation, and the Acts in New Brunswick and Nova Scotia are almost the same as that of Quebec.

With regard to the quotation which the "Sportsman" makes from the "Rod and Gun" I do not see that it has any material bearing upon the question. In the first place I doubt the correctness of the extract, as I know that the shooting at St. Clair Flats closes about the 15th or 20th of December. I know also that spring shooting is not permitted on the Canadian side of the St. Clair Flats, which embraces many thousand acres of beautiful marsh land, all of which is carefully preserved.

But suppose that Messrs. A and B bag, in a week of winter shooting during an unusually mild season, 275 canvass backs besides other ducks. Does any one fancy for a moment that this moderate sport will seriously damage the prospects of your correspondent next year at Bell's Island or Cataraqui Creek, where we all know canvass backs are so plentiful that passers by are quite annoyed by them.

Let me add that it is well known that birds which are left undisturbed in the spring return in increased numbers to the same feeding grounds in the fall, and that it is a fact equally patent that the spring birds are not nearly so good for the table as those killed after the breeding season is over.

I fear, however, that arguments such as I have used will have but little weight with your correspondent et hoc genus omne. There are a class, happily not a very numerous one, who want to shoot everything all the year round, and who, like the person who signs himself "A Sportsman," choose, argument failing, to sneer at those who take a broader view of the law

I must apologise for writing at such length, but my excuse must be the really deep interest I take in this subject, which has animated me much more than the feeling that your correspondent's letters required a serious answer.

Your obedient servant,
RIDEAU.

THE STREET LAMPS.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE DAILY NEWS.

SIR—Is it wise economy to have the gas in the street lamps put out at midnight? I think not. On Saturday night after the gas was extinguished it was almost impossible to see a few yards ahead. The absence of light encourages burglaries and other crimes.

The Party of Economy.

In 1872-3 it cost $568,000 to collect $13,053,000 of Customs revenue, and Mr Mackenzie said it was riotous extravagance. Now it takes $721,000 to collect $12,556,000, and he calls it Reform.

In 1872-3 there were 160 persons on the Superannuation list involving a charge on the people of $53,000. Now there are 269 and the cost is $104,000, though Reformers are opposed to superannuations.

In 1872-3, 37,000 immigrants were secured in Europe at a cost of $287,000; but by the vigorous enforcement of the Reform principle of economy 7,700 were obtained last year at an outlay of $354,000.

In 1872-3 it cost $3.80 to collect $100 of Exercise revenue, but now it costs $4.25. And yet the Tories were spendthrifts.

In 1872-3 when the Ottawa departments were so crowded with Tory clerks and messengers that it was no uncommon thing for Mr Mackenzie to see them falling over one another in mixed heaps in the passages, Civil Government cost $750,000. He has reformed all that and now it costs only $812,000.

In 1872-3 Pensions cost the country $49,000. But those were the days of the corruptionists, for the list has been reduced to $112,000. There is no denying the fact that it takes Reformers to apply the knife.—Mail.

DEATH OF MR WORKMAN.

Charitable Requests.

Montreal, Feb. 25.—Mr William Workman, who died yesterday morning, leaves property to the extent of six thousand dollars, about two thirds of which he has bequeathed to the public charities in the city.

CITY COUNCIL.—The regular meeting of the City Council will be held this evening, and it is expected that a large amount of important business will be transacted.

MOST CIVIL!—Polite little girl (who with her nurse, brother and sisters, has been shown over a small cocoanut matting factory)—"Thank you so very much for your kindness!" Thirsty Workman.—"Quite welcome, miss! We should like to drink your healths, miss!" Polite little Girl.—"O, thank you! That is very kind of you! We shall be delighted! Good afternoon!"

Bill heads and envelopes printed neatly and quickly at this office.

Extracts from Punch.

A DOCTOR'S COUNTER-IRRITANT.—The prescribing chemist.

LOQUACITY AND LEGISLATION.—Inter arma silent leges. That may be; but legislators can talk a plaguy deal in war-time.

TRIUMPH OF ART.—"And now, Ma'am, I hope that'll plase ye; sure there's niver a soul as would think it was you own hair!"

A GREAT CHANCELLOR'S GREATNESS.—A great nation does not merely hold its own. Besides that, it holds what it has cribbed from others.

DRAWING A LINE.—Young Slapper (to hunting doctor): "Fellow singing out for you yonder. Won't you stop?" Doctor: "Never stop when they can holler!"

Fog, Friday, 18th Jan. Ethel—"What shall we do, dear? It's quite too dark to see colors at Madame Abdegonde's." Mabel (bright idea)—"Suppose we do the old masters?"

"THE CONFIDENCE TRICK!"—St-ff-rd N-rth-c-te (Sq.)—"You hand up over your six millions—we put it up safe for you, and let you have it again, of course—just to show your confidence in us, don't yer know!"

PAINTING IN BLACK AND WHITE.—Government by public opinion: When the country moves as I blow the trumpet. Government by agitation: When the country moves as somebody else blows the trumpet.

A VERY SUFFICIENT REASON.—Lord B. to his Gracious Sovereign, declining her flattering offer of the Garter: The wish I should wear the Garter please your Majesty abandon. How can a man wear a Garter, who hasn't a leg to stand on?

AN UNTIMELY EXPOSE.—(He would cull for her the first primrose of the year, in memory of their early loves!) She—"Hector! Hector! Don't stoop! Here are the De Larkinses coming up the garden!" (It was the nearest match we had in two weeks!)

A NEAT REMINDER.—Affable old gent (who has just paid, but inadvertently forgotten the usual douceur.)—"Not much business doing just now, apparently." Waiter (severely)—"No, Sir. 'Seems to me that all the gentlemen have left town!" (Old gent recollects himself.)

EXPENSIVE LUXURY.—Scene—A wood, where an unmistakeable "bagman" has been chopped. Keeper. "You'll send me my card, authorising keeper's fee on 'a find.'" Huntsman. "Not good enough for that!" Keeper—"Not good enough for that! Why, he cost fifty shillings!"

The Earl of Beaconsfield.

There are not a few persons who labour under a singular mistake concerning the relation of the Earl of Beaconsfield to Judaism. He has been censured as an apostate by Jews, and scoffed at by Christians on many occasions. The true facts concerning the illustrious statesman may be interesting. He was born of Hebrew parents. His father, Isaac Disraeli, the author, and his mother a scion of the Basevis, were members of Sephardim Jewish families. His grandfather and grandmother are buried in the Portuguese cemetery at Mile End. Benjamin Disraeli was admitted into the communion of Israel, but his father, thinking fit to quarrel with his Synagogue, failed to teach his child Judaism. One day Rogers, the celebrated banker poet, happening to visit at Isaac Disraeli's house at Hackney, when Benjamin was about five or six years old, regretting to find so intelligent a youth without religious instruction, took him to Hackney Church. From this event dates his absolute and complete severance from the Jewish comunion. He became a Christian, and a great genius was lost to the Jewish community.—Irish Times

One Quart in Two Bottles.

A respectable grocer of Toronto has been sentenced by the Police Magistrate to three months' imprisonment for selling liquor in quantity less than a quart. The purchaser, who plies the odious trade of an official spy, tempted the grocer to make the sale by assuring him that the two small bottles which he presented held a quart. He knew that they held less; and, his design was to entrap the seller into an unwitting breach of the law. We think this case must convince the Government that the employment of such an agency, for such a purpose, is immoral and oppressive. The employment of spies to discover crimes voluntarily committed is sometimes justifiable; the employment of them to tempt honest men into a technical breach of the law never. Unless every bottle of brandy sold contains exactly a quart, which probably it seldom does contain, the seller could, in the same way, be thrown into jail. Morality is not to be promoted by the arbitrary and oppressive administration of a law diverted from its real purpose by the base temptations and misrepresentations of official spies!—Monetary Times.
