THURSDAY EVENING, APRIL 4.

Gold in New York 101.

☞ No old stock to dispose of. Everything new at the New Hat Store. Mills Bros., Princess and Bagot Streets.

We understand that Col. Howitt has volunteered for active service in case of England going to war with Russia.

ST. PAUL'S CHURCH.—The Rev. Mr Carroll will preach at the Lenten service this evening at St. Paul's school house.

☞ Have you seen the famous "Stitch Brim?" Nobbiest Hat in town for young men Only at the New Hat Store. Mills Bros.

ACKNOWLEDGMENT.—The ladies' of the Orphans' Home return thanks to the Ladies' Aid Society of St. Paul's Church for a quantity of made-up clothing.

WEATHER PROBABILITIES for the next 24 hours: For the lower lake region, moderate to fresh east to north winds, clear to fair warm weather. For the St. Lawrence, fresh easterly to northerly winds and fair weather.

QUEEN'S COLLEGE.—The name of ex Principal Jardine, late of Calcutta, is mentioned in connection with an additional Professorship in the Theological Department of Queen's College, two not being sufficient to do the work thoroughly.

SCHOOLS OF GUNNERY.—In the House of Commons on Tuesday, Mr Aylmer moved for the ranks and names of all officers who have attended and taken long or short course certificates at the "A" or "B" Battery Schools of Gunnery. Carried.

LITERARY ENTERTAINMENT.—The Elocution Association of Queen's College, which has given so many pleasant entertainments in this city, will give the concluding one of the present session at Convocation Hall tomorrow evening. As usual, the Glee Club will assist in the programme, which is an excellent one.

FIRE AT COLLINSBY.—Last night a fire broke out in the storehouse of McGuire's mill at Collinsby, which completely destroyed the building. There was no insurance. We have not heard the origin of the fire. There was some 1,800 bushels of grain stored in the building, which was saved in a more or less damaged condition.

THE WOMEN'S CHRISTIAN TEMPERANCE UNION met as usual on Tuesday afternoon. There was no business transacted, it being the regular prayer meeting. Reports from different districts were received; some of them encouraging—others quite the reverse. Interesting extracts from various sources were read, all bearing on temperance. One from the Church of England Chronicle showed how much good had been done in England through the personal efforts of women.

THEATRICALS AT RIDEAU HALL.—On Tuesday evening there were private theatricals at Rideau Hall, in which the Vice-Regal Household took part. Her Excellency the Countess of Dufferin was the "leading lady" in both plays, "Sweethearts," and "New Men and Old Ones." Among the ladies and gentlemen receiving invitations to be present were the following: Captain Cotton, Hon. Alex. Campbell, Mr G. A. Kirkpatrick, M.P., Sir John and Lady Macdonald, Dr., Mrs and Miss Sweetland, Major H. R. Smith, and Mr Shibley, M.P.

ACCIDENT.—Whilst a cabman was driving Lady Macdonald and a lady friend to Rideau Hall last evening, one of his horses stumbled and fell opposite the Christian Bros. Academy. The poor brute was dragged along the street by the other animal, which became excited and endeavoured to run away. The driver however, kept a tight rein and prevented any further accident, with the assistance of Messrs. John Grant and J. Battle, who ran to the rescue when they noticed the occurrence. During the excitement the ladies jumped out of the carriage, but happily neither of them were injured.—Ottawa Citizen.

THE BOGUS BILLS.—George Palmer, arrested for passing unsigned Consolidated Bank bills in Toronto, was up before the Police Magistrate there on the charge on Tuesday morning. Notwithstanding the fact that he had been shaved in gaol, two clerks from Kingston identified him as the person who passed bills in the city on Messrs Waldron, Hickey & Ilett, R. M. Horsey, and John Dunbar. He was remanded until the 9th inst. Here, we are informed, he would go into a store, and, obtaining a trifling article worth perhaps 25 cents, would tender the $10 bill in payment, receiving the change. He was here on Saturday evening and being arrested in Toronto on the following Tuesday, he must have taken the first train out of the city.

Short Notes.

Fine, dusty day.

Dr. Sullivan's letter is unavoidably crowded out to-day.

M. Cheval, M.P., seems to be only half of what his name implies.

Is the Market Battery to be used as a cow pound during the summer? It looked like it to-day.

The Rev. John May is still doing good work in the cause of temperance in the vicinity of Ottawa.

Knox College closed yesterday. Professor Gregg delivered a lecture on the authorship of the book of Deuteronomy.

Iowa has gone back to capital punishment, after a thorough trial of a more merciful system. A hint for Mr Dymond.

The Hamilton Times' Ottawa correspondent still speaks of Sir John's "retirement." The wish, of course, is father to the thought.

Judging by the leading article in yesterday's Witness, that paper is trying to run the Quebec elections on the Protestant ticket.

The corner stone of a new Presbyterian Church was laid in Toronto on Tuesday. The Rev. John Potts, and ministers of other denominations, took part in the proceedings.

Another scene occurred at the Toronto Separate School Board meeting on Tuesday evening, when several members resigned. The audience alternately hissed and cheered the members.

Little bits of mud heaps
Must turn into dust
If left on streets inviting
Each coming windy gust.

And to be sure the dust was flying beautifully to-day. "Water, water everywhere, but not a drop to" water the streets with Where, oh! where is the Water Committee now?

INTERESTING RELICS.—Major Ridout, of the Military College, to day showed us two interesting relics picked up on the field of Inkerman, by an uncle of his, which form a memento of the last Crimean War. They are of peculiar interest at the present time. They consist of a St. George's Cross and a medal bearing date 1849. They are attached together by a red and black ribbon, representing the order of Vladimir, and evidently belonged to an officer of high rank. The wearer appears to have been shot in the heart, as between the arms of the cross is the mark of a bullet. The medal is scarcely as large as a half dollar, and it and the cross are of silver. The medal has on it the Russian double-headed eagle, with a small shield representing St. George and the dragon. The following is a translation of the inscription on the back: "Hear, O ye heathen, and submit, for God is with us." Written round the edge in old Sclavonic characters is: "For pacification of Hungary and Transylvania." We have no doubt these relics are highly prized by Major Ridout.

EVANGELISTIC MEETING—The evangelistic meeting at the Y.M.C.A. Rooms was not quite so well attended last evening, owing, doubtless, to its being the prayer meeting night in most of the churches. Addresses were delivered by the Rev. W. Galbraith and Mr John Pollock. This evening the speakers will be the Rev. F. McCuaig and Mr W. Osborn. All are invited to attend.

DEATH OF MR HOWARD, OF AMHERST ISLAND.—We greatly regret to learn of the death of Mr Howard, J.P., of Amherst Island, after a brief illness. He was one of the oldest subscribers to the CHRONICLE, and very much respected by all who knew him. The funeral took place yesterday (Wednesday), the Rev. J. H. Nimmo, of Bath, officiating.

JOINED THE CHURCH OF ROME.—The Irish papers report that "Lady Mary (Hastings) Kirwan, wife of John S. Kirwan, late of Boyne, County of Galway, Ireland, and sister of the Duchess of Norfolk, has become a Roman Catholic." We believe that Mr J. S. Kirwan and Mr Kirwan of the True Witness are cousins.—Montreal Witness.

THE TORONTO CONSULSHIP.—A despatch received this morning says: The Tribune says the nomination of E. W. Webster to the Toronto Consulship has been withdrawn by the President, it is reported because there was danger of his rejection. W. C. Howells, Consul at Quebec, has been transferred to Toronto.

THE CHRONICLE AND NEWS for the present week was published to-day, and contains a large amount of local news, including all the births, marriages and deaths of the week. The CHRONICLE can be procured at all the bookstores, or in wrappers for mailing at the counter; price five cents.

DUST.—The dust blowing on the streets to-day was very bad, as a high wind prevailed. Is it not time that the watering carts were brought out of their retirement for service? A few days more and merchants will have to complain of spoiled goods.

Reports say that the editorials now appearing in the Paris Star are written in the Free Press office, London, and sent down by express.—Brockville Recorder.

But the Free Press states that the "reports" are untrue. What then?

DECAPITATED.—A telegram from Watertown says: An intoxicated Canadian, Edward Williams, was decapitated by the train last night near Potsdam. The body and head dropped into the river.

GRAND TRUNK RECEIPTS.—The traffic receipts of the Grand Trunk for the week ending 30th ult. were $164,531, being $1,094 increase over the corresponding week of 1877.

THE APRIL number of the International Railway Guide published by Chisholm Bros., Montreal, has arrived, and contains as usual the latest time tables of the railways and steamboats. Price 20 cents.

THE WEATHER.—The weather continues remarkably fine for the season, and everyone seems to be pleased with it. Work in gardens is progressing rapidly.

CATTLE.—A large number of cattle were on the Market Battery grounds to-day awaiting shipment to Cape Vincent.

Police Court,

(BEFORE MR. STRANGE, P.M.)

Thursday, April 4.

Lydia Palmer, an old woman and very lame, was sent to gaol for 10 days for being drunk.

Mary McCluskey, drunk and disorderly, fined $3 or 60 days in gaol.

Ann Fawcett, drunk, fined $1 or 10 days in gaol.

Young Men's Conservative Associations.

Young Men's Conservative Associations are being formed all over the country. Almost every city has one. Belleville fell into line on Tuesday evening, when an Association was formed. Mr A. B. Fralick, barrister, was appointed President.

Kingston is beginning to move in the matter. We hope to report progress shortly. All desirous of connecting themselves with the movement will please communicate with the Secretary of the Liberal Conservative Association at this office, who will render any necessary assistance.

Marine Notes.

PARLIAMENTARY BILLS.—A bill has been introduced into Parliament by the Minister of Marine and Fisheries to amend so much of the "Act respecting Deck Loads" as would make it "unlawful for any master of the ship, at certain seasons to carry live stock, on or above any part of the upper deck of such ship, is hereby repealed; and the words 'any cargo of any description to any height exceeding three feet above deck,' in the second section of the said Act, shall not include or apply to live stock."

Another Bill has been introduced to repeal the 23rd section of the Imperial "Merchant Shipping Act" as applied to vessels in Canadian waters.

Unofficial soundings in the channel at the entrance to Chicago harbour show that there is generally a depth of 14½ to 15½ feet of water.

An Owen Sound despatch, of Saturday, says the steamer Silver Spray was burned to the water's edge at the dock. Loss $20,000.

The vessels arriving at Chicago Thursday were coated with snow and ice.

It is expected that the steamer Hastings will make her first trip up the Bay on Monday next.

Liquor Licenses.

The following is a list of the applications for shop and tavern licenses sent in for the city. It was published in our contemporary last evening, but we understand it was not furnished by the Inspector. As a copy was sent to each Commissioners, we presume one of them showed his political prejudices by not handing it to the NEWS. The date of the issue of licenses is the 1st May:—

TAVERNS.—Peter Farmer, Alex. McKillop, Nancy Cassidy, Patrick Chut, Alex. Adair, John Graham, John Spooner, John E. Jones, James Ham, Timothy Doolan, Jane Gilbert, Daniel Haggerty, Patrick Carrol, James McGowan, Joseph Quigley, John Reeve, Charles Lyons, Mary Brown, S. Thornton, Tim Sullivan, Margaret Royce, Patrick Burns, R. Varney, Ann Aston, J. McConnell, Wm. Hemsley, Owen McGinnis, Thos. Dunn, Daniel Murphy, James Keyes, Wm. Shanahan, Debora Divine, Geo. Spotswood, John Reid, J. S. Johnson, Martin James, P. Shanahan, R. Beaupre, Thos. McGrath, John C. Dresser, Eliza Grimason, Mary Gee, Eliza Scott, David Haggerty, Timothy Palmer, John Irwin, James Rogers, Owen Kennedy, John J. Maloney, P. J. Jennings, Jas. Sowards, William Davis, Waggoner & McMillan, G. T. Swan, S. H. Bloodheim, Jas. King, A. G. McGill, John Saunders, Dominick Fallon, Robt. Campbell, Geo. Brown, Thomas Geraldi, William Reese, G. W. Fenwick, Thos. Shower, John Smith, Thomas Howland, P. McLaughlan, C. Fournier, Thos. Quinn.

SHOPS.—George Thompson, John Henderson, T. Donoghue, Wm. Rigney, W.R. McRae & Co. (2), G. M. Wilkinson, G. M. Wilkinson & Son, Frank Rigney, C. O'Loughlin, A. McCormick, P. Browne, J. Y. Parkhill, Owen Tierney, J. Halligan & Co., Jas. Donoghue, H. A. Harback, M Conroy, N. K. Scott.

REV. JAMES BROCK.—The Rev. John Carroll writes to the Christian Guardian anent his recent visit to this city. In the course of his letter he says: "Go, if you like, into the well stored libraries of such men as Brock and Smith, (Cataraqui,) especially the former, examine the tomes of theological and miscellaneous reading, start any subject you like, and listen to the perfect torrent of information, and never again say, that the older men are not fully up to the times as well as the younger. Nay, while they are fully abreast of current information, they have the riches of the past as well. Activity of mind and taste, or a sense of the beautiful, do not forsake the minds of men, however old, who keep on improving. If you have any doubt, go and see the improvements of 'Father Brock' in his modifications of the 'Highland Castle,' which has come into his possession. This building, on its sunny bank, with a southern aspect, its turrets, gables, and I know not what else, is worthy of a perch on the banks of Loch Lomond, or Loch Katrine; and several nights and days' sojourn with its hospitable inmates, convinced me that it is as convenient inside as it is picturesque on the outside. Every closet, cubby-hole, and cranny is capable of, and is utilized."

LADY MACDONALD AND MRS MACKENZIE.—Attention has been drawn to a paragraph in to-day's Mail, quoted from the imaginings of an Ottawa correspondent, as to the social relations existing between Lady Macdonald and Mrs Mackenzie. The statement is gravely made that when they meet in the Speaker's Gallery they never speak to each other, Lady Macdonald "fighting shy" of Mrs Mackenzie. It may not be a matter of great importance, but so gross an untruth ought probably not to be allowed to go uncontradicted. It is as false as most other statements emanating from the same source.—Mail's Cor.

ROMAN CATHOLIC MEETING.—We understand that the adjourned meeting of the Roman Catholics of the city was held last night. As the business was conducted privately, we are not in a position to state what took place.

THE ELECTIONS.—Our local contemporary says the Reformers are actively preparing for the next general election. We hope the Conservatives will take the hint also and be ready.

JUSTICE.

How little is understood by the term justice! At its mention lawyers' pleas (and fees), judges' charges, obstinate juries, and visions of prison bars, flit through the mind and the simple justice that is socially due our neighbor is forgotten. Jealousy and envy prompt men to circulate slanders against a more successful competitor, forgetful of the fact that merit alone secures permanent success, and that the passions of rivals are as the refiners fires, making standard those wares surviving the ordeal. The Family Medicines manufactured by R. V. Pierce, M. D., of Buffalo, N. Y., are no exception to this rule. His Golden Medical Discovery is now prescribed by many physicians for the cure of Bronchitis and Consumption. It is unsurpassed as a tonic and alterative, readily regulating any irregularity of the liver and bowels, radically curing scrofulous tumors, boils, ulcers, and eruptions. Be convinced of its unequaled merit by writing to any of the many hundred references published, for the doctor is endorsed by all cases. Space permits the publication of a few names here. Rev. Isaac Stapleton, Washburn, Mo.; Rev. Geo. A. Reis, Cobelskill, N. Y.; Rev. Chas. E. Chichester, Winnsboro, S. C.; Rev. Joseph Long, Champaone, Ill.; Rev. A. J. Montgomery, Emporium, Pa.; Rev. G. W. Renfro, Robertson Cross Roads, Tenn.; Rev. G. W. Graham, Vicker's Swich, Va.; Mrs. Mary C. Gramer, West Leory, Mich.; Mrs. Mary Darr, Manistee, Mich.; H. C. Hoerchner, Eureka, Nev.; Nathan Virgin, Ashley Ill.; J. R. White, Sweet Valley, Pa.

Its Sustains its Reputation.

For nearly a quarter of century it has been acknowledged that Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy has no equal in speedly and permanently curing "cold in the head" and all catarrhal affections of the nasal cavities. Its immense sale and great popularity are dependent upon and entirely due to its merits and superiority over all other similiar preparations. Very many physicians, having thoroughly tested it, are now prescribing it in their practice.

Halburton, Ont., January, 1st 1877.
Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Dear Sir For years I suffered with chronic catarrh. Last winter it became more severe, seriously affecting my throat and lungs. My stomach and blood were also sadly out of order. I tried many physicans and several advertised remedies, obtaining but temporary or no relief. Seeing favourable notices of your medicines, I procured one-half dozen bottles of the Golden Medical Discovery and a supply of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy. The Discovery purified my blood and restored my general health, the Catarrh Remedy gave immediate relief, and after a little perseverance, a radical cure was effected.

Thankfully yours,
ROBERT MCCORMICK.
